Alabama State Association of Free Will Baptist
When convened at
Center Point Free Will Baptist Church
Birmingham, Alabama
November 6, 7, 8, 1980

The State CTS Rally met at the Eastside Church in Dothan June 7. Due to the National Association being in California and the expense of traveling, participation was lighter than usual, especially with the large groups.

First place winners were:

Bible Memorization - First Grade, Mark McCraney
Second Grade - Steven Kent Nelson.

Sword Drill - Alan Love.

Bible Tic Tac Toe - Russellville Team.

Bible Bowl - Mt. Olive Team.

This year the Music and Arts Festival sent six to compete in the National Youth Conference.

A new venture for our state work was held on August 14-16 at the Northwest Alabama Youth Camp. A statewide youth retreat was held with Brother Nate Ange as retreat evangelist. Attendance was good and a retreat is now in the planning for next year. Many decisions were made for Christ during the retreat. May God use this organization to be a spiritual help to young people.

ALABAMA HOME MISSIONS REPORT

John 4:4

And He "MUST NEEDS GO" through Samaria. Three words depict the total ministry of the Alabama Home Mission Board.

I. Must - Men - Responded to the call; Used of God; Stabilized a local work; Testimony - of God's Power to Save Souls

Four cities were reached with the establishment of Free Will Baptist Churches.

Montgomery - June 1964, Rev. E. B. Ledlow; Decatur - 1968, Rev. E. B. Ledlow; Mobile - Sept., 1970, Rev. Kenneth Walker; Decatur - 1971, Rev. John Edwards; Enterprise - Sept. 1973, Rev. E. R. Mayo.

II. The next word that Jesus spoke of is Needs. New Method; Earnest Burden; Everlasting Results; Direct Plans; Solid Commitment.

1. The Board, over a period of several meetings considered what had been done and what needed to be done for Missions in Alabama. It was decided that a new direction must be chartered if we were going to establish churches that would endure in the future. The plan that developed did not come quickly. Many problems had and still have to be dealt with before the plan will take a solid foundation. The plan that evolved through hard work and trial and error is a plan that has been dubbed The Church Establishment Program, (CEP). In brief this plan works as follows:

1. The general location is selected by the Mission Board as to where our next church will be located. This is usually determined on the leadership of the Lord, the basis of need.

2. A missionary is chosen. The Board has formulated a set of guidelines and doctrinal criteria that must be met before the board considers seriously any person as a missionary candidate.

1. Form M-1, Guidelines and Questions for Missionary Candidate

2. M-2, Monthly Report

3. M-3, Contract between Mission Board and Missionary

3. The missionary is put on salary and sent on location. He spends his first few weeks getting the "Feel" of the city, finding out the directions of growth, contacting people whose names have been supplied to him and hopefully would be interested in starting a church, etc.

Too, the Board sends him on itinerate work among the Free Will Baptist of Alabama during these weeks when time permits and ask him to "sell" the church establishment program to the people.

4. The missionary then begins trying to locate suitable property in the chosen city. Real estate companies have given valuable help along this line. They generally know the layout of the city and where most of the population is located. Too, they are acquainted with the growth patterns of the city. When the missionary feels that he has located a good piece of property the mission board goes to the city and examines the property to make sure it is not on the "wrong side of the tracks" or "the last lot on a dead end street." In short, we make sure that the property is in a good location and is a good investment.

5. A drive is launched to pay for the land. We have had to pay some handsome prices for some of our church sites. We feel they are worth it. We have not put one single church in a poor location. The missionary by this time, by way of itinerate work and state newsletter, has put himself and his needs before the people. Money begins flowing in for the project. The board tries to get the land clear of any indebtedness before a building is erected on the property.

6. A building design is selected. The board also involves itself in this phase of the work. We make sure that the plans are adequate to meet the needs for the foreseeable future and that the building will be an asset to the community and to the denomination.

7. The missionary is responsible to the board. He is considered to have been hired by the board and as such he is required to meet with the board at each regular board meeting, which is (2) two times during the year, or when the chairman deems necessary, and give a report of the progress of the work. This includes a report of attendance, offerings, progress on building, and any other thing that might be of interest to the board. The board attempts to guide without shackling the individualism of the missionary.

8. All money (except general expenses) is turned back to the board treasurer during the development stage. The board assumes the responsibility of making payments on the loans and the missionary's salary until such time as the church grows into a self-sustaining entity.

9. At the proper time the property is deeded to the church. Whenever it becomes apparent to the board that the church is able to assume full financial responsibilities the board withdraws itself from further assistance.

It should be stated that all the foregoing steps are taken under close supervision of the board. The missionary is given full responsibility in the new mission and is answerable to the mission board. This allows the missionary time to establish himself as the pastor of the flock.

It should be stated that all deeds and loans are made in the name of the mission board. Why this is true is obvious. A weak, struggling mission would never be able to secure enough money to buy choice property and erect a building at present day prices . . . at least, it would take much, much longer.

III. GO - Giving and Going; Obeying - objectives

Giving-January 1980 was the time that the CEP Program was conceived. The Lord has richly blessed in the acceptance of this program and of giving.

Going - The first use of the CEP program was in Alabaster.

Obeying - Starting in Sept. 1979 in one year's time has grown from 0 to 39 in Sunday School and 51 for morning worship in October.

God has supplied (4) four acres right in the center of Alabaster, Hellena, and Pelham.

OBJECTIONS: (1) Plans for Phase I ready (2) Secure financing for Alabaster through CEP Program (3) January - Start construction on new church.

OBEYING: We have two aspects of our CEP program. (1) New - Establishment of New Works (2) Renew - Reestablishment of Old Work.

In the light of Obeying, we saw a need in Dothan for the help of a church. The time factor in Dothan will not be long. The church has proved already that all they needed was for people to be burdened about the work. We look at the leadership of the Lord. location, opportunity and potential.

We praise God for what is ahead for the Alabama State Home Mission Board. We are looking at five (5) other cities in Alabama for future works. Pray that God will give us wisdom for the future.

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise, by his grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship, and by self-denial, faith, and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel; nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace. To be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
