The Conference was called to order by the assistant clerk, using the words uttered by Brother Oscar Webster while he was clerk.

Brother May introduced the program of the day.

Motion was made and carried to use the program as the order of business, giving the right of change if the moderator deemed it necessary.

The roll call of ministers showed 13 present, two excused and one absent. Twelve visiting ministers were present plus Mr. Cliff Gray of the Free Will Baptist Press. The roll call of churches showed 13 present, two absent (one was represented by its pastor.)

Nominating: The Rev. Charlie Overton, Mr. Bobby Waters, Mrs. Christine Waters

Resolutions: The Rev. Bobby Brown, the Rev. Aubrey Williamson, Mrs. Eleanor Moore

The moderator, the Rev. Robert May, addressed the meeting using as Scripture 1 Corinthians 10. Speaking to the church and ministers needing to be empowered by the Holy Spirit, he stated that when motions were made, look beyond the person but at what could happen. Would it benefit the conference and glorify God?

REPORTS

1984 Session

BOARD OF ORDINATION

On December 3, 1983, the Board met at Mount Zion Church, Roper, to examine Ramond Lagcher for license to preach. The only member present was Brother Overton so no decision was made. The Rev. Aubrey Williamson met the Board at Mount Zion Church to clear his credentials, coming into the Albemarle Conference. Everything proved satisfactory.

On January 28, 1984, Ramond Lagcher met with the Board at Free Union Church, near Pinetown, to be examined for license to preach. After questioning and discussion, the board voted to recommend him to be licensed by his church for a period of one year. Also the Board examined Wayne (Garry) Smith for license to preach. The Board voted to recommend him to be licensed by his church to preach for one year.

The Board met at Hickory Chapel Church, July 28, 1984, with Joseph Ratcliff to examine him for license to preach the gospel. He was recommended to be licensed by his church to preach for a period of one year. Also, Brother Bill Gaylord surrendered his license to the Ordination Board that day.

On September 29, 1984, the board met at Malachi's Chapel Church to examine the Rev. James Owens' credentials. We were satisfied with same.

This is to certify that Brother Johnnie Sexton willingly turned in his credentials with his resignation to the Board in 1983.

Respectfully submitted,
 Charlie Overton
 Robert May

BOARD OF SUPERANNUATION

It shall be the purpose of this board to organize and unify all superannuation work throughout the State Convention. They shall provide for our aged, retired, and infirm ministers in some form of superannuation program. We also seek to offer to our active ministers some program whereby they may help provide for their future security and retirement.

Last year the Albemarle Conference helped to support and maintain some life insurance for many of our ministers. Seventy-three cents of every dollar went to the ministers through the program.

We have two programs now: Supplemental Retirement, and Disability. Each church is allocated to pay according to size of its membership.

FREE WILL BAPTIST PRESS

This year has been better than the previous ones. We showed a profit of $20,000, but we are still in debt. We are going to try selling memberships again for $100 each to the different organizations of the churches.

Brother Joe Griffith is now on the Board. See him for further details.

Respectfully submitted,
 Clifford Gray

BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS

Literature and reports were passed out on the mission work, sharing the Scripture, Matthew 24:1 with us. Mr. Jones said that sometimes we become discouraged in our attempts, but the Scripture assures us that God's Word is going to be spread around the world. Free Will Baptists have a part in it, making Christ known to all nations. Many things we can live and die without but one thing we don't want to die without is the knowledge of Jesus Christ. The chief responsibility of the church and individual Christian is to make Christ known to all people. We hope by sometime this year to make definite plans and decisions concerning establishing a work in Nigeria. Pray and support the Foreign Missions work.

Respectfully submitted,
 Harold Jones

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Our Sunday school program is not dead, but it's sick. We need to be more concerned about our work. We have lost over 3,000 people in the last four years. We are not growing, and the quality is not all it should be. As Field Secretary I am offering three different workshops to our churches.

1. Learning to teach like Jesus.
2. Ideas for growing in your Sunday school.
3. Ideas for improving your Sunday school.

We are offering the Superintendent and Teacher Certification program, with a certificate at the close of the course.

The purpose of the Sunday school is to nurture God's children and help them grow.

Respectfully submitted,
Bass Mitchell

HOME MISSIONS AND CHURCH EXTENSION DEPARTMENT

This past year we have grown and we are moving real well. We have seen in Home Missions over 500 people come to know Jesus Christ as their personal Saviour. We have a mission station in Wilmington, NC, with the Rev. David Charles Hansley as pastor. We have one in Kannapolis where the Rev. W. S. Burns is pastor. At present we are not sponsoring a mission. The Eastwood and Haymount Missions, Fayetteville, united and are one church now.

Our church at Grifton is moving forward. We are getting ready to start a mission now in Jacksonville. A survey is being made now. This is a military town and will need a special pastor to work with them. There is constant transit.

The Albemarle Missions Board met with the Home Missions Board a few weeks ago, due to problems at Cape Colony. The Board made the decision to return the property to the Home Missions Board. It was and we got back part of our investment.

The Albemarle Conference made a special contribution of $1,000, returning the money.

Respectfully submitted,
Charles Crisp

RETIREMENT HOMES

We are reaching our goal of establishing community retirement homes, where the applicant desires to live. We have purchased a home in Ayden, at 411 North Lee Street, about three blocks from the Press. Mrs. Rose Bowen is living there. We hope to have more of these homes. We hope to put at least one in each Conference.

Now we need to establish a Group Care Center. We are trying to get a clearance from the Health Department on a sewage system. The need for this home becomes more evident every day. The occupants are growing older and some are not able to care for themselves all the time and they need some help. We will need a live-in couple to supervise and help those who need a little. Overall, I think we are growing. Our indebtedness is small.

Respectfully submitted,
Walter Sutton, Director

SEMINAR AND EVANGELISM CONFERENCE

The Rev. Charles Crisp announced that five boards had agreed to sponsor a Seminar and Evangelism Conference. Dr. Curtis Schofield will be the speaker, April 19 and 20, 1985, Friday night and all day Saturday. Additional literature will be sent to the churches later.

MEMORIAL SERVICE

The memorial service was conducted by the Rev. Frank Thigpen, remembering those faithful members who passed away during the year and how much we loved them and would miss them. But God loved them best and called them to their reward. He gave special references to Brother Isaac Furlough of Mount Tabor, Brother Charlie Spruill and Mrs. Matilda Windley of Plymouth. To the Christian a more beautiful life is awaiting us. He closed with prayer.

STATE CONVENTION

If we support our enterprises as was voted to do in the State Convention, it will mean an increase of 30% in our giving and that's no small task. It's a large task, one we said we would do. The delegates whom you sent to represent your churches agreed. I do not think we have done all we can do. We have responsibilities to the people of the world. How else can we keep our promise unless we support our enterprises? We have heard the appeals today asking for more support in order for them to operate effectively. They need to be out working instead of out soliciting money. We need to work together locally, in the district and state in order to go forward, that more may be done for God's glory.

Respectfully submitted,
Gary Bailey, President

MOUNT OLIVE COLLEGE

God's program is placed in our hands. Mount Olive College's duty is to train people, to engage itself as the Free Will Baptist Church ministry of higher education. It makes me feel good to look around today and see graduates of Mount Olive College engaged in the work of the enterprises.

The State Convention voted in 1977 to move as rapidly as possible to increase Mount Olive from a two year-college to a four-year college. We are now in transformation. We hope next year to have seniors added. Our Library is in desperate need of books. We need 100,000 books to become an accredited four-year college. I must remind you that the College dinners are a great help for operation, but it can't provide the books also. Donate books in honor of the living so they will know about it and in memory of the deceased. Books will last much longer than flowers.

What is Mount Olive College all about? It is preparing the youth of our denomination for future vocations to which God will call them. To help them be all they can be by the grace of God. We are glad and fortunate to have these young people working with us. Our youth are our resources. Our future will be in their hands, because what we have will be in their hands when we pass on. The only way we can do this is to train them in higher Christian education. It's our college, the only one we have. God has committed us to be faithful to it by supporting it financially. In so doing we are faithful to God, in that we are providing ministers and lay workers for the future.

Respectfully submitted,
Frank Ray Harrison

CHILDREN'S HOME

I bring you greetings from the Child Care ministry. We served over 50 children during the year. At present we have 26; on Friday we will have 28. What would happen to those children if we were not there? We anticipate that within a month we will have 35 children.

We have a self-help program that we are working with the older children. Upon completion of the program some are out on their own, holding down jobs. We are also holding Family Seminars for families who need help to keep the family ties together, learning to cope with adult or teenage problems.

Respectfully submitted,
Bobby Taylor, Director

Cragmont

I bring greetings from your Cragmont retreat at Black Mountain, NC. You have the literature and history of Cragmont. You see it as a beautiful place to meet and enjoy time together and to worship God together once a year. I see it as a ministry of our denomination. We have six weeks for the youth but the rest of the time is for other age Christians to come in their groups to enjoy a spiritual feast along with friends and relatives.

The weekend schedule is pretty well filled for 1985. I see Cragmont doing some growing too, or we will be at a standstill position. We do not want to reach that point. We must grow at any cost. Some very hard decisions will have to be made. The attendance is growing and we do not have room to accommodate them. We need to set up a time for college age (not necessary to be in college, just college age.) They seem to be an in-between age that's left out.

We have paid five payments on the debt with fifteen more to go. That's a lot of interest to pay. We need to pay off the debt first. We have a payment due December 31, 1984. We need your prayers and support.

Respectfully submitted,
John Williams, Manager
