APPALACHIAN ASSOCIATION OF FREE WILL BAPTIST
MEETING AT THE FIRST FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH OF JOHNSON CITY, TENN.

APRIL 1 - 2, 1994

PASTOR: GENE DEATON

FRIDAY NIGHT APRIL 1 PROCEEDINGS

The 26th Annual Session of the Appalachian Association convened at First FWB Church on April 1, 1994.

The Assistant Moderator O.P. Stokes opened the session and introduced the Moderator Jack Greene. The Moderators message was short and to the point about being faithful to report and attend the Associational Meetings. He made a very important statement in that without the Ministers there is no Association.

Brother Greene then introduced Ethel Davidson. She sang two songs that blessed our hearts before Brother Doyle Puritt was introduced to preach the first message of the evening. He read as his scripture Ezra 8: 21 - 33, the text from VS. 9.

A. Things We Should Watch

B. Things We Should Keep

C. Things We Should Safeguard

We are entrusted with very valuable treasure.

(1) Time (2) Ministry (3) Bible (4) Old Fashion Worship (5) Bible Standards and Convictions

A very challenging message.

Ethel Davidson was brought back to sing two more songs — our hearts were over-joyed again.

Brother Ted Reynolds was introduced to bring the second message. Subject: "Almost."

One of the best ways to win others is through our personal testimony of what God has done for us.

He brought out Reasons People are Almost Persuaded

(1) Misunderstanding

(2) Prejudice to Christianity

(3) Prejudice to Membership

(4) Spirit of Procrastination

A very timely message.

After the message by Brother Reynolds, the Ordaining Council was introduced along with Brother Leonard Bowers. They proceeded to ordain Brother Bowers. Wallace Amos read the scripture, Elmer Carter gave charge after which prayer was made for Brother Bowers and his ministry.

SATURDAY MORNING PROCEEDINGS APRIL 1, 1994

Dave Foster opened up the session by leading the congregation in singing. Special Singing by Steve Patterson and Tami Wilson. The Moderator then introduced Brother Leonard Bowers. He read Psalms 86: 1-8. Outline:

- (1) David looking for Power
- (2) David sensed his Obligation
- (3) David sensed the importance of Unity
- (4) David expected a response

Good message.

Reports were given which are listed within the Minutes.

The Treasurer's report along with Retirement Board report given also listed in Minutes.

Old and New Business was conducted. Much of business was general information.

Offering $160.00 given to Children's Home.

Second Preacher introduced Brother Glen Hoilman. He summed up what had been preached at association. He spoke generally concerning unity and fulfilling our responsibilities as Men of God — Good Message.

M/S to adjourn.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL BOARD

(March 7, 1994)

The General Board met on March 7, 1994 to plan the format for the Annual Association. The following speakers were contacted to bring the message. The E.C. discussed supporting Mission Churches.

A letter was received from Gilbert Able asking to be replaced on the Executive Board because of health reasons.

General Board met April 2, 1994 with letter in hand from the Lakeway FWB Church asking for membership into our Association. The Board recommended we receive this Church into our Association. Association voted to give the Lakewood Church $50 per month for 12 months.

REPORT OF THE RESOLUTION COMMITTEE

Be it resolved:

1. That we the Appalachian Association stand opposed to the lottery in Tennessee and that our clerk write a letter to our state representative expressing this opposition.
2. That we give C.B. Shoemaker a rising vote of thanks for five years of faithful service on the Ordaining Council.
3. That we give First Free Will Baptist Church a rising vote of thanks for their kind hospitality as Host during the Convention.

REPORT OF THE ORDAINING COUNCIL

The Ordaining Council of the Appalachian Association of Free Will Baptists met March 31, 1994, 6 P.M. at the Johnson City F.W.B. Church. All members were present: Chairman Eddie Maupin, Elmer Carter, C.B. Shoemaker, W.C. Amos, Mark Street. The Johnson City F.W.B. Church presented Brother Leonard Bowers to the Council for ordination with a letter of high recommendation from them. Brother Leonard is much involved in various ministries of the Church. Brother Leonard was given the examination for ordination into the ministry, and the Ordaining Council reviewed his completed examination with him. It is our great pleasure and joy after the motion was made and seconded and unanimously agreed upon by the Council to recommend to the Appalachian Association that Brother Leonard Bowers be ordained at this annual meeting tonight, April 1, 1994.

Brother Roy D. Robinson's ministers' examination which he completed prior to this meeting was reviewed by Ordaining Council with him. The motion was made and second, and unanimously agreed upon to highly recommend him to the Appalachian Association to be licensed to preach the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

The motion was made and seconded that the ministerial candidate for license or ordination come by himself without any accompaniment before the Ordaining Council. It was carried by a vote of four to one.

It was agreed upon by the Ordaining Council that Brother Elmer Carter would give the charge of ordination to Brother Bowers. Brother W.C. Amos will read the Scripture. Brother C.B. Shoemaker will lead the prayer of dedication as we lay hands upon Brother Leonard Bowers setting him aside to the devine calling of God on his life. Rev. Alex Carver sent us a letter requesting we drop him from our ministers roll since he's presently a member of the Jack's Creek Association. He's pastoring a church in their Association.

REPORT OF THE FINANCE COMMITTEE

We the Finance Committee have examined the books and Financial records of the Appalachian Association and recommend that they be approved. We commend Doyle Norris on a job well done.

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise by His grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligation to reverence to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship, and by self-denial, faith and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme, counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday schools and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace satisfy us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
