 Harold Duckett
 alternating-Cleve Allen & Paul Hardwick

AUDITING COMMITTEE: We, the Auditing Committee have examined the Treasurer's report and find it correct and in order.

Roy L. Hodgins, Chm.
 Mrs. Royce Grissom
 Ken Vaughn

DECEASED COMMITTEE: We would like to express our sympathy to the families and friends of the deceased. Graysville - Bro. J. W. Marlow, Fairview No. 1 - Edith Ragsdale, East B'ham- Bro. A. L. Howard and Bro. E. S. Williams, Anniston- Rose Lewellyn and Bro. Spurlin, Mt. Pleasant- Mrs. Etta Stone, Union Hill- I. C. Howard and Sylacauga First Church - Heulan Isbell.

Sis. Shirley Lynn
 Sis. Ruth Strickland
 Sis. Charlotte Graves

(Clerks note - The names of two deceased were received after the conference adjourned. They were Mr. Jesse Taylor and Miss Pearl Mae Coley from Mt. Pleasant Church.)

STANDING OF THE MINISTRY:

1. We, the Standing of the Ministry Committee do hereby recommend that all ministers and deacons recommended by church letters be granted a certificate of standing for one year.
2. The committee does hereby recommend that all active ordained and licensed preachers who do not make an effort in the coming year to preach and promote the gospel will have action taken concerning their status. These men are expected to maintain character in their community as expressed in I Timothy 3: 1-13.
3. We recommend that Ministers license of Gary Hood be extended for one year.
4. We request that the Moderator appoint a committee to council with Nathan Davis concerning his soul. If his response is contrary to the treaties of the Free Will Baptist, then it is desirable that his credentials as a minister be revoked. (note - The Executive Board was appointed to serve as this committee.)
5. We recommend that the licensed and ordained people of new churches requesting membership into this association be called in question by the Business Committee, which reports to the association and if found worthy be given standing.

Rev. Jimmy Youngblood
 Bro. Grafford Johnson
 Bro. Jack Moody

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND C.T.S. COMMITTEE: We, the Sunday School and C.T.S. Committee feel that special emphasis should be placed upon our youth, especially our teens.

We feel the Sunday School and C.T.S. program is vital to all ages, however we must not fail to realize the teen years are the years of many decisions and temptations. Therefore the Sunday School and C.T.S. can play an important part in training our teens to prepare to be a better Freewill Baptist.

Polly Roberson, Chm.
 Cherry Pickett
 Jimmie Duckett

TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE: We, the Temperance Committee recommend that we use Ephesians 4: 1-3 "I therefore the prisoner of the Lord beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, with all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace." Surely if Paul saw the need to put emphasis on this in his day we need also today. We need to conduct our lives as would be pleasing to God. We also recommend that we back people that are opposed to pornography. It is just as sinful for someone to administer evil influence by the sale of or giving to someone as is a dose of poison to the flesh. We are called to carry the gospel of Jesus Christ, and this is against God's will. The Bible says be temperant in all things. Especially they who endeavor to follow the Lord Jesus Christ.

Henry McLaughlin
 Mrs. Jerome Goodwin
 J. H. Hayes

FAMILY DEVOTION: The first commandment with promise is found in Exodus 20:12. "Honor thy father and thy mother; that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee. We believe that the home is the first place to begin training our children to honor their parents and above all to love and honor God. With this verse in mind, our children will have a stronger desire to serve the Lord throughout his life.

Parents must set an example before their children by living a daily christian life. Daily devotion and prayer in the home is the beginning of this great promise.

Sis. Mary McSpadden, Chm.
Sis. Doris Freeman
Sis. Rosa Feltman

ORDAINING COUNCIL: We recommend that the following men be ordained as deacons: Vernon Alexander, Jack Duffee, Fred Smith, Steve Johnson, Donald Handley and Joe Lackey. We recommend that Dillard Key and Joe Isbell be licensed to preach the gospel.

Rev. Maxwell Harper
Rev. Amon Edge
Rev. Ernest Walker

BUSINESS COMMITTEE:

1. We recommend that Pleasant Grove Church be accepted in this association. (note - this item was amended by conference by adding, "if ordained men meet standards of our association.")
2. We recommend that the 2nd district quarterly meeting be accepted to meet in the regular 1st district quarterly meeting, as they have already voted to do so.
3. We recommend that the type of License from the Randall Book Store be used in our association.
4. We recommend that Rev. Walter Jones be paid $25.00 for traveling expense, here.
5. We recommend that a Nominating Committee be appointed to nominate officers for our association and other nominations can be accepted from floor.
6. We recommend that the next session of the association be held at the Youth Camp unless some church petitions for it and get a majority vote to meet with their church.
7. We recommend that all our churches and individuals stand by and support our Cahaba River Mission Board in work about to be launched in Bessemer, Hueytown area.
8. We recommend that each pastor take it up with the church and send at least $100.00 in the next two weeks on the Youth Camp.

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God by Faith in Christ, and adopting the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves one another by the Will of God in the solemn covenant.

We promise by His grace to love and obey Him in all things. To avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men".

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions and social worship, and by self-denial, faith and good works, endeavor to grow in grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conference, public worship, and the observances of the Ordinances of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church and of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the spirit" in the bond of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring and, as far as we are able, promote the success of the Church of the Gospel. We will everywhere hold christian principles sacred and christian obligations and enterprises supreme, counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that the kingdom may come and his will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of education and denominational enterprises, the evangelistic efforts for the salvation of souls and the conversion of the world. And may the God of Peace sanctify us wholly and preserve us blameless until the coming of Our Lord Jesus.

TREATISE ARTICLES OF FAITH

Chapter I—The Holy Scriptures

These are the Old and the New Testaments. They are written by Holy Men, inspired by the Holy Spirit and are God's revealed word to man. They are a sufficient and infallible rule and guide to salvation and all christian worship and service.

Chapter II—Being and Attributes of God

The Scriptures teach that there is only one true and living God, who is spirit, self-existent, eternal immutable, omnipresent, omniscient, omnipotent, independent, good, wise, holy, just, and merciful, the Creator, preserver, and Governor of the universe; the Redeemer Savior, sanctifier, and judge of men; and the only proper object of worship.

The mode of his existence, however is a subject far above the understanding of man—finite beings cannot comprehend him. There is nothing in the universe that can justly represent him, for there is none like him. He is the fountain of all perfection and happiness. He is glorified by the whole creation, and worthy to be loved and served by all intelligence.

Chapter III—Divine Government and Providence

1. God exercises a providential care and superintendence over all His creatures, and governs the world in wisdom and mercy, according to the testimony of His word.
2. God has endowed man with power of free choice, and governs him by moral laws and motives; and this power of free choice is the exact measure of man's responsibility.
3. All events are present with God from everlasting to everlasting; but His knowledge of them does not in any sense cause them nor does He decree all events which He knows will occur.

Chapter VI—The Atonement and Mediation of Christ

1. The Atonement—As sin cannot be pardoned without a sacrifice, and the blood of beasts could never wash away sin, Christ gave Himself a sacrifice for the sins of the world, and thus made salvation known possible for all men. He died for us, suffering in our stead, to make known the righteousness of God, that He might be just in justifying sinners who believe in His Son. Through the redemption effected by Christ salvation is actually enjoyed in this world, and will be enjoyed in the next by all who do not in this life refuse obedience to the known requirements of God. The atonement for our sin was necessary. For present and future obedience can no more blot out our past sins than past obedience can remove the guilt of present and future sins. If God pardoned the sins of men without satisfaction for the violation of His law it would follow that transgression might go on with impunity; government would be agrogated, and the obligation of obedience to God would be in effect. removed.

2. Mediation of Christ. Our Lord not only died for our sins, but He arose for our justification, and ascended up to Heaven, where, as the only Mediator between God and man, He makes intercession for us, until He comes again.
3. We believe that all children dying in infancy, having not actually transgressed against the Law of God, in their own persons are only subject to the first death which was brought on by the fall of the first Adam, and not that anyone of them dying in that state shall suffer punishment on Hell by the guilt of Adam's sin for of such is the Kingdom of God.

Chapter VII—The Holy Spirit

1. The Scriptures ascribe to the Holy Spirit the acts and attributes of an intelligent being. He guides, knows, moves, gives information, commands, forbids, sends forth, reproves, and can be sinned against.
2. The attributes of God are ascribed to the Holy Spirit.
3. The works of God are ascribed to the Holy Spirit; creation, inspiration, giving of life, and a sanctification.
4. The Apostles assert that the Holy Spirit is Lord and God. From the foregoing the conclusion is that the Holy Spirit, is in reality God, and one with the Father in divine perfections. It has also been shown that Jesus Christ is God—one with the Father. Then these Three: The Father, Son and Holy Spirit, are One God.

The truth of this doctrine is also proved from the fact that the Father, The Son, and The Holy Ghost are united in the authority by which believers are baptized; and in the benedictions pronounced by the Apostles, which are acts of the highest religious worship.

Chapter VIII—The Gospel Call

The call of the Gospel is co-extensive with the atonement to all men both by the Word and strivings of the spirit, so that Salvation is rendered equally possible to all, and, if any fail of eternal life, the fault is wholly his own.

Chapter IX—Repentance

The repentance which the Gospel requires includes a deep conviction, a penitential sorrow, an open confession, a decided hatred and an entire forsaking all sin. This repentance God has enjoined on all men, and without it in this life the sinner must perish eternally.

Chapter X—Faith

Saving faith is an assent of the mind to the fundamental truths of revelation, an acceptance of the Gospel, through the influence of the Holy Spirit, and a firm confidence and trust in Christ. The fruit of faith is obedience to the Gospel. The power to believe is the gift of God, but believing is an act of the creature, which is required as a condition of pardon, and without which the sinner cannot obtain salvation, all men are required to believe in Christ; and those who yield obedience to this requirement become the Children of God by Faith.

Chapter XI—Regeneration

As man is a fallen and sinful being, he must be regenerated in order to obtain salvation. This change is an instantaneous renewal of the heart by the Holy Spirit, whereby the penitent sinner receives new life, becomes a Child of God, and is disposed to serve him, this is called in scripture being born again—born of the spirit, being quickened, passing from death unto life, and a partaking of the divine nature.

Chapter XII—Justification and Sanctification

1. Justification. Personal justification implies that the person justified has been guilty before God, and in consideration of the atonement of Christ, accepted by faith, the sinner is pardoned and absolved from the guilt of sin and restored to the divine favor. Christ's atonement is the foundation of the sinner's redemption, yet, without repentance and faith, it can never give him justification and peace with God.
2. Sanctification is the beginning of God's Grace by which the christian man constantly grows in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Chapter XIII—Perseverance of the Saints

There are strong grounds to hope that the truly regenerate will persevere unto the end, and be saved, through the power of divine grace which is pledged for their support, but their future obedience and final salvation are neither determined nor certain, since through infirmity and manifold temptations they are in danger of falling; and they ought therefore to watch and pray, lest they make ship-wreck of their faith and be lost.

Chapter XIV—The Sabbath

This is one day in seven, which from the creation of the world God has set apart for sacred rest and holy service. Under the former dispensation, the seventh day of the week as commemorative of the work of creation, was set apart for the Sabbath. Under the Gospel, the first day of the week, in commemoration of the Resurrection of Christ, and by authority of Christ and the Apostles, is observed as the Christian Sabbath. On this day all men are required to refrain from secular labor and devote themselves to the worship and service of God.

Chapter XV—The Church

A Christian Church is an organized body of believers in Christ, who stately assemble to worship God, and who sustain the Ordinances of the Gospel according to the Scriptures. Believers in Christ are admitted to this church on giving evidence of faith in Christ, obtaining consent of the body, being baptized, and receiving the right hand of fellowship.

The Church of God, or members of the Body of Christ, is the whole body of christians throughout the whole world, and none but the regenerate are its members.

Chapter XVI—Tithing

Both the Old and New Scriptures teach tithing as God's Financial Plan for the support of His work.

Chapter XVII—The Gospel Ministry

1. Qualification of Ministers. They must possess good, natural and acquired abilities, deep and ardent piety, be especially called of God to the work, and ordained by prayer and the laying on of hands.
2. Duties of Ministers. These are to preach the word, administer the Ordinances of the Gospel, visit their people, and perform the work of faithful ministers.

Chapter XVIII—Ordinances of the Gospel

1. Christian Baptism. This is the Immersion of Believers in Water in the name of the Father, the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, in which are represented the Burial and Resurrection of Christ, the Death of Christ, the death of christians to the world, the washing of their soul from the pollution of sin, their rising to newness of life, their engagement to to serve God, and their resurrection at the last day.
2. The Lord's Supper. This is a commemoration of the death of Christ for our sins, in the use of bread which He made the emblem of His broken body, and the cup, the emblem of His shed blood, and by it the believer expresses his live for Christ, his faith and hope in Him and pledges to him perpetual fidelity.

It is the privilege and duty of all who have spiritual union with Christ to commemorate His death; and no man has a right to forbid these tokens to the least of His Disciples.

3. Washing the Saints Feet. This is a sacred Ordinance, which teaches humility, and reminds the believer of the necessity of a daily cleansing from all sin. It was instituted by the Lord Jesus Christ, and called an "example" on the night of His betrayal, and in connection with the institution of the Lord's Supper. It is the duty and happy prerogative of every believer to observe this sacred ordinance.

Chapter XIX—Death

1. Death. As a result of sin, all mankind, is subject to the death of the body. The soul does not die with the body; but immediately after death enters into a conscious state of happiness or misery, according to the character here possessed.

Chapter XX—Second Coming of Christ

The Lord Jesus, who ascended on high, and sits at the right hand of God, will come again, to close the Gospel Dispensation, Glorify His Saints, and judge the world.

Chapter XXI—The Resurrection

The Scriptures teach the resurrection of the bodies of all men each in its own order; they have done good will come forth to the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil to the resurrection of damnation.

Chapter XXII—The Final Judgement and Final Retribution

1. The Final Judgement. There will be a final judgement, when time and man's probation will close forever. Then all men will be judged according to their works.
2. Final Retribution. Immediately after the final judgement, the righteous will enter into eternal life, and the wicked will go into a state of endless punishment.
