It is important for us to check our vitals, both physically and spiritually. Most vital is to have love one to another. We abide in faith, hope, and charity (love), but of these, love is the greatest.

The Morning Worship Service began with singing, "Holy, Holy, Holy," Heber. An offering was received and the offertory prayer was given by Rev. Mark Hobbs. Special music was provided by Mrs. Penny Kornegay and Mrs. Kerry Mozingo. Rev. Mark Hobbs, pastor of Snow Hill OFWB Church of Mount Olive, brought the morning message, "I Want to Live Again." He opened his message with a personal testimony. His scripture reading was taken from 1 Kings 17, expressing the importance of sharing the gospel as we are called. We are people of faith, yet we cannot share the Word without Him residing in you. We need to share the Gospel and let God do the rest. He concluded with five points if you are called. It should be a privilege, a pleasure, a plight, a prayer of our life, and a purpose. Rev. Mark Hobbs prayed the closing prayer for the morning session and prayed the blessing on the meal. The conference recessed for lunch.

Blended Fellowship Mission Report

164th Cape Fear Conference of Original Free Will Baptists

On behalf of the Blended Fellowship family, thank you for all you have done and continue to do to support the work we believe God has called us to do. We continue to minister to Deaf people and their families through our three major programs: SD, FACES and QLI. SD deals with spiritual development and is foundational to everything else we do. The services we provide to Deaf clients provide opportunities for us to interject Christ into every situation. Our weekly blended worship opportunities are planned specifically to allow deaf and hearing family members to grow in Christ together. Our FACES (Family Awareness and Communication Enhancement Services) program works to prevent Language Deprivation Syndrome in deaf children. We offer classes, one-on-one training and instructional videos for hearing parents and other hearing family members to teach them American Sign Language. We also resolve conflicts that arise within blended families due to communication problems. The QLI program, which deals with quality of life improvement, continues to provide assistance with food, clothing, housing, transportation, medical needs, financial management and basically any basic needs of day to day living, as well as providing volunteer work opportunities for the Deaf. An example of QLI in action is the Christmas in July campaign. Many of you supported that effort this year. In fact, we received enough donated items that we won't need to do our usual campaign this December. Thank you for your generosity!

The renovations to our facility are almost complete. Thank you so much for your part in making that possible. The building inspector has completed his final inspection and given us permission to use that part of the building. However, there are still some areas that need flooring, paint, etc. before we make full use of it. We will complete these areas as funds become available. This year has included some ups and downs. On the down side, we lost some of our key volunteers, which has put more workload on those who remain. We were forced to cancel some of our major events. We are currently seeking volunteers to help keep the work moving forward. If you, or others you know, have some time available to come work with us on short term projects, we have plenty of opportunities.

On the positive side, we have seen doors opening for us into the world of Deaf culture. For example, we were blessed to have several influential Christian Deaf leaders come from various parts of North Carolina to share with our group. These men of God drew large groups of Deaf people to worship with us and some of them have become regular attendees. This is more significant than I have time to explain to you today, but is an answer to years of prayer. Also, we are starting a brand new event next year called Blended Live. Many of you have expressed your desire to come worship with us, but your responsibilities at your own church prevent you from doing so. Blended Live will take place on certain Sunday afternoons at 4:00 pm. Our signing choir, Blended Hands, is not physically able to come to you as we once did, but if you can come to us, they will be performing. We also plan to invite special guest speakers or groups or sometimes entire church congregations to come worship with us. We are also promoting these events to the local community and we're expecting some absolutely wonderful times shared together! Right now, we are planning these as mostly once a month events and the first one will be January 13 at 4:00 pm at Blended Fellowship. We would love for you to be there and help us kick off this new event with a packed house!

Lastly, I want to make you aware that over the past few years our expenses have gradually increased. During that time, the contributions we receive have mostly stayed the same and, in a few cases, have lessened. We are not self-supporting and we depend on support from outside our congregation to survive. Please continue to stand with us and consider an increase to your monthly or annual support. We need this increase to stay in the black. Please be assured that every effort is made to stretch each gift as far as possible. Thank you again for all you have done and continue to do in support of Blended Fellowship. We are thankful and proud to be a part of the Cape Fear Conference.

Respectfully submitted,

Doug Seymour
