The Seventy-Ninth annual Meeting of Cave Spring Association of Free Will Baptists met with the Mill Creek (Myrtle) Free Will Baptist Church, Friday, July 22, 1966.

Song, "Tell It To Jesus Alone."

Scripture reading: Ephesians chapter four: "I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called. With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, One Faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is above all and through all, and in you all."

Prayer by Bro. Grover Pingleton.

Moderator, Bro. James Lee Reed was now called to the stand.

The Clerk, Bro. Roy Underwood, read the Constitution and By-Laws.

Funeral services were held Monday, April 18 at 10:00 a. m. at the Shiloh Church with Bro. Finis Johnson officiating.

Burial was in the Shiloh Cemetery under direction of the Clary Funeral Home.

There is no death. The stars go down to rise upon some fairer shore; and brighten Heaven's jeweled crown they shine forever more. There is no death. An angel form walks o'er the earth with silent tread; he bears our best loved things away, and then ere call them "dead." He leaves our hearts all desolate, He plucks our fairest sweetest flower. Transplanted into blooms, they now adorn immortal bowers.

HERBERT FRANKLIN ALLEN

Scripture: I Samuel 1:9-15. "So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a post of the temple of the Lord."

Hannah so wanted to be a mother of a child, so should our church want to be a mother of children. Do we want to be responsible and raise our children in church today? Do we want to put any efforts in our church work today? We are not crying out to our Lord enough to help us. Are we preaching holiness today.

Our burdens are too much for our own selves need instead of the spiritual need for some one that doesn't know God. Do we stand on the Word of God? God knows our hearts.

A song of invitation was given to the lost.

Dismissed for noon by Bro. Claude Brayan.

Scripture: Psalm 116 read by Assistant Clerk Bro. Jess Rolan.

Prayer by Bro. Johnnie Shaw.

Moderator took charge of the Conference.

Reading remainder of Committee reports.

LORD'S DAY COMMITTEE

We feel that the Lord's Day is Sunday and has been set aside by God for rest and worship. We believe that Christians should refrain from manual labor and pleasure seeking on Sunday as stated by God in Exodus 20:8-10. "Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates."

We recommend that every pastor urge their church members to be faithful in attending the house of God as commanded in Hebrews 10:25. "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together as the manner of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more as ye see the day approaching."

Dale Skiles

J. W. King

Jesse Dunkin

Motion made and carried we receive this report as read.

Motion made and carried that we release the Temperary Committee.

TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE REPORT

We, the Temperance Committee, believe that we should stand righteous, holy, and separate ourselves from the world.

II Corinthians 6:17 "Wherefore come out from among them."
"Abstain from all appearance of evil." I Thess. 5:22.

Roy Martin
Frank Brewer
Archie Hays

Motion made and carried that we receive this report as read.

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

1. Whereas Communism is trying to poison the minds of our people with its ungodly doctrines, and whereas Communism is seeking to destroy our religious freedom, and whereas Communism is both Anti-Christ and Anti-God be it resolved that the Cave Spring Yearly Association of Free Will Baptists go on record as being openly opposed to Communism in any form. Be it further resolved that we as pastors and Free Will Baptist laymen speak out against the evil and dangers of Communism whenever an opportunity presents itself.

2. Whereas the Ecumenical Council and the World Council of Churches is endeavoring to unite all religious creeds into one Universal Church, and by doing so is denying the fundamental principles of Jesus Christ: such as, the Virgin Birth of our Lord, the Blood Atonement and regeneration. Be it resolved that we as the Cave Spring Yearly Association of Free Will Baptists go on record as opposing the Ecumenical Council, the World Council of Churches and the National Council of Churches. Be it further resolved that we keep our people informed of the Ecumenical movement, by making available to them various magazines, pamphlets and tracts on this subject.

CONSTITUTION

This organization shall be known as the Cave Springs Yearly Meeting of Free Will Baptists and shall be composed of such well regulated quarterly meetings and churches as may embody themselves under this constitution.

ARTICLE 1. It shall be the purpose of this organization to cooperate with the state and national associations in their efforts to combine and direct the energies of the Free Will Baptist Church, for the promotion of Home and Foreign missions, Christian education, Sunday Schools, Free Will Baptist Leagues, and Woman's Auxiliary and for the extension of the Kingdom of God in general.

ARTICLE 2. The acting members of this yearly meeting shall be three (3) delegates from each church chosen by the church, three (3) delegates from each quarterly meeting, together with all ministers, deacons, church clerks, quarterly meeting clerks, and associational clerk belonging to this body.

ARTICLE 3. The officers of this yearly meeting shall consist of a moderator, an assistant moderator, a clerk, treasurer, and statistician. Each shall hold office until their successor is elected. The clerk shall receive an honorarium of ten dollars ($10.00) for his services each year.

ARTICLE 4. An executive board composed of five members shall be elected. It shall be the duty of this board to transact the business of this body between the regular sessions. The members of the board shall be elected in the following manner: one for one year; one for two years; one for three years; one for four years and one for five years, hereafter, one board member shall be elected each year, whose term of office shall be five years. If any vacancies occur between sessions of the Yearly Meeting, the board shall have power to fill such vacancy until the next session of the yearly meeting.

Amendment to Article 4 of the Constitution:

An Ordaining Council composed of three members shall be elected in the following manner: one for three years, one for two years, and one for one year and thereafter one member shall be elected each year, whose term of office shall be for three years. If any vacancy shall occur between sessions of the Yearly Meeting, the Council shall have power to fill such vacancy until the next session of the Yearly Meeting. Two regular members must be present at any Ordination service.

ARTICLE 5. Any regularly organized Free Will Baptist conducted.

Church maintaining Gospel order, agreeing with the denomination in doctrine, in favor of benevolent enterprises such as Sunday Schools, missions, temperance, and education may be received into this yearly meeting by presenting a petition asking for membership, by a majority vote of all members voting.

ARTICLE 6. This yearly meeting shall have power to discipline its churches and exclude them for disorderly conduct if labor proves unsuccessful; to ordain deacons; to license and ordain ministers such as give evidence of being qualified and called of God, by request of the church of which he belongs, to settle questions of discipline and doctrine as the church or quarterly meeting may refer to it. To make rules and by-laws necessary and not inconsistent with its constitution, but in no case shall this body have power to reverse a decision of one of its churches or quarterly meetings, nor in any way interfere with its internal regulations nor hold any ecclesiastical authority over the churches or quarterly meetings composing this yearly meeting.

ARTICLE 7. Each session of this yearly meeting shall convene annually beginning on Friday at nine in the morning before the fourth Sunday in July and shall adjourn at the close of the Saturday afternoon session.

ARTICLE 8. This yearly meeting shall decide at each session where the next session shall convene. It shall consider each invitation from its churches and shall decide by a majority vote of all members voting.

ARTICLE 9. This constitution may be amended at any regular session of this body by a two-thirds vote providing notice of the contemplated change has been read and placed on the table one day previous to the time of voting.

Amendment

ARTICLE 10. The Ordaining Council may license a minister but only while this body is in session.

ARTICLE 11. This Yearly Meeting shall have power to grant a yearly certificate at the same time a license is granted, both to expire at the same time.

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE 1. Each session of this conference shall be called to order by the standing clerk when present, and in his absence by the member having seniority in years.

ARTICLE 2. Each session and adjourned session the conference shall be opened and closed with prayer.

ARTICLE 3. Ten members shall be required to constitute a quorum to transact any business of this conference. But any less number may adjourn from time to time.

ARTICLE 4. This conference shall elect (or cause to be appointed) a standing committee composed of three (3) members, which is the Ordaining Council. Their duty shall be to examine, pass upon or recommend suitable action to the Conference, on all Credentials referred to them by the Conference or by the Business Committee of the conference.

ARTICLE 5. At each session of this conference standing committees shall be appointed on such subjects as the following: Printing, Ministry, Missions, Business, Obituary, Ordaining and Finance. All petitions and committees on particular subjects shall be referred to appropriate committees. Special committees may be appointed at the pleasure of the conference.

ARTICLE 6. This conference may hold correspondence by messenger or otherwise with religious bodies as it may deem advisable.

ARTICLE 7. This conference may sit with open doors except when it may go into committee of the whole.

ARTICLE 8. Any person not a member of this conference may be allowed to take part in its discussion by obtaining permission of the conference.

ARTICLE 11. It shall be the duty of the members of this conference to be present at the time appointed for each daily session and anyone wishing to retire shall first obtain leave of the moderator.

ARTICLE 12. No member shall absent himself from conference during the sessions without first obtaining permission from the conference.

ARTICLE 13. Every member wishing to speak in conference shall address the moderator.

ARTICLE 14. No person shall be allowed to speak more than ten minutes at any one time nor more than twice on any subject without leave of the conference.

ARTICLE 15. No debates shall be allowed on any motion except the same being submitted in writing and seconded by a member of the conference.

ARTICLE 16. No person shall be allowed to nominate more than one member of any committee provided the brother nominated be elected.

ARTICLE 17. The yeas and nays may be taken on any question before the conference by request of one-fifth of the members present.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

THE BIBLE: The Scriptures of the Old and New Testament were given by the inspiration of God and are our infallible rule of faith and practice.

GOD: There is one living and true God revealed in nature as the Creator, preserver and Righteous Governor of the Universe; and in Scripture as Father, Son and Holy Ghost, as one God infinitely wise and good whom all intelligent creatures are supremely to love, adore and obey.

CHRIST: Christ is God manifest in the flesh, in His divine nature truly God, in His human nature truly man. The mediator between God and man, once crucified He is now risen and glorified and is our ever present Saviour and Lord.

THE HOLY SCRIPTURES: The Scriptures assign the Holy Spirit all the attributes of God.

THE GOVERNMENT OF GOD: God exercises a wise and benevolent providence over all beings and all things by maintaining the constitution and laws of nature. He also performs special acts of grace, not otherwise provided for, as the highest welfare of man requires.

THE SINFULNESS OF MAN: Man was created innocent; by his disobedience, fell into a state of sin and condemnation. His posterity, therefore, inherited a fallen nature of such tendencies that all who come to years of accountability sin, and become guilty before God.

THE WORK OF CHRIST: The Son of God, by His incarnation, life, sufferings, death and resurrection effected for all a redemption from sin that is full and free and is the ground of salvation.

THE TERMS OF SALVATION: The conditions of salvation are: 1. Repentance or sincere sorrow for sin and hearty renunciation of it. 2. Faith, or the unreserved comital of one's self to Christ as Saviour and Lord, with purpose of love and obey Him in all things. In the exercise of saving faith the soul is renewed by the Holy Spirit, freed from the dominion of sin and becomes a child of God. 3. Continuance in faith and obedience until death.

ELECTION: God determined from the beginning to save all who should comply with the conditions of salvation. Hence, by faith in Christ men become His elect.

FREEDOM OF WILL: The human will is free and self controlled, having power to yield to the influence of the truth and the Spirit to live, or to resist them and perish.

SALVATION FREE: God desires the salvation of all, the Gospel invites all, the Holy Spirit strives with all, and whomsoever will may come and take of the water of Life freely.

PERSEVERANCE: All believers of Christ who through grace, persevere in holiness to the end of life, have promise of eternal salvation.

GOSPEL ORDINANCE

BAPTISM, or the immersion of believers in water, and the LORD'S SUPPER, are ordinances to be perpetuated under the Gospel. FEET WASHING, an ordinance teaching humility, or universal obligation, and to be administered to all true believers.

THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH: The divine law requires that one day in seven be set aside from secular employments and amusements, for rest, worship, holy works, and activities, and for personal communication with God.

WAR: War destroys the lives of the innocent and is contrary to the New Testament, therefore, we are opposed to war.

RESURRECTION, JUDGMENT, and FINAL RETRIBUTION: The Scriptures teach the resurrection of all men at the last day. They that have done good will come forth to the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation; then the wicked shall, "go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life."

FREEWILL BAPTIST CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant. We promise, by His grace to love and obey Him in all things to avoid the appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions and social worship; and by self-denial faith and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ."

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship and the observances of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the of the ordinances of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and ill its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love endeavoring to "KEEP THE UNITY OF THE SPIRIT," in the bond of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, as far as we are able, promote the success of the Church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday Schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of Peace sanctify us wholly and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
