BOARD OF TRUSTEES REPORTS
QUARTERLY MEETING

February 16, 1985:

CAMP MASTER PLAN
Revised 11/84

I. Camp Utilization

With any Christian endeavor comes the responsibility of being the best possible stewards of the resources which God has given us. As an association, we should recognize that the camp property is one such resource. Many lives have been changed and directed toward the Lord's services as a result of the youth camp ministry. However, these successes have been achieved as a result of large investments of time and finances made by many people over a period of many years. We should also realize that future successes will require equivalent commitments. Therefore, we feel it important that a plan for maintenance and improvement of our camp facilities be adopted and that a plan be revised as necessary to meet the needs of this ministry.

The program presented here will require a commitment of both time and money by individuals, by churches, and by the associational body as a whole. Additionally, this type of effort carries with it the responsibility for more effective utilization of our camp property.

To this end, we recommend two general areas of increased emphasis: (1) Greater utilization of the camp by local churches and church groups, and (2) increased effort to promote use of the camp by Free Will Baptist groups from outside our association.

II. Camp Improvements

Table 1 represents a list of projects designed to improve our camp facilities and a suggested schedule for completing those projects. This is not an all-inclusive list and is not intended to exclude or discourage additional projects by churches, groups, or individuals within the association. Such individual efforts are strongly encouraged with the single requirement that they be coordinated with the Board of Trustees.

Table 1
CAMP IMPROVEMENTS

Description	Year to be Completed	Estimated Cost
Raise and level wooden dorms	1985	$1,500
New tabernacle seats	1985	1,800
Construct storage building	1985	1,500
Softball field	1986	500
Insulate and seal dining area	1986	2,000
Metal dorm bathroom renovation	1987	1,000
Tabernacle improvements	1988	3,000

III. Costs

A. Camp Maintenance and Operating Expenses

Table 2 gives estimated costs of operating and maintaining our camp facilities. These figures exclude any costs incurred as a result of the use of the camp by groups outside of the Center Association. It is assumed that these expenses would be covered by rental fees.

Table 2

Category	Year
	1985	1986	1987	1988	1989
General Maintenance	$ 800	$1000	$1000	$1000	$1000
Insurance	800	864	933	1008	1089
Utilities	1400	1540	1680	1820	1960
Totals	$3000	$3404	$3613	$3828	$4049

B. Total Estimated Cost

Total estimated costs for operation and improvement of the camp facilities for the next five (5) years are given in Table 3.

Table 3

TOTAL CAMP EXPENSES
Year	Improvements	Operating & Maintenance	Total
1985	$4800	$3000	$7800*
1986	2500	3404	5904*
1987	1000	3613	4613*
1988	3000	3828	6828
1989	-0-	4049	4049

*Actual expenditures will exceed these values by approximately $1,400 per year as a result of repayment of a loan made in 1983. This expense was included in year 1 of the original plan, and thus is not added to these totals.

IV. Regulations affecting youth camp operation

We recommend that the Board of Trustees and the Christian Education Board earnestly endeavor to remain informed about any local, state or federal regulations which could influence the operation of our camp.

V. Accomplishments

Much progress has been made since the adoption of the Camp Master Plan in November, 1982. Most of this progress has been in the form of physical improvements such as construction of: (1) a new dormitory, (2) a new teaching tabernacle, (3) a retaining wall, and (4) a miniature golf course; and the renovation of two older teaching tabernacles.

To the extent possible, the camp plan has been followed during the past two years; however, financial and labor considerations have caused minor deviations from the projected schedule. Table 4 compares actual with projected expenditures under the current plan.

The most disappointing aspect of our camp program has been the lack of utilization of the property. Although camp use was strongly emphasized in the original plan, very little progress has been made in this area. In order for our current camp ministry program to be successful, we must give primary attention to camp utilization.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION BOARD REPORTS

November 17, 1984

The Christian Education Board has implemented a new program called L.I.F.E. (Life is for Everyone) for the young people of our association. L.I.F.E. meetings are the first Saturday night of each month at 6:30 p.m. At the first two L.I.F.E. meetings we have had an attendance of 50 to 75.

The monthly skating program was also reorganized on the third Monday night of each month. We as a board appreciate the support from those who have a burden for our youth and work with us on these programs.

The Christian Education Board would like to present the following recommendations to this associational body:

1. We recommend that the associational body give the Christian Education Board the authority to select an evangelist for the Junior Youth Camp and that he be paid $200.00 for 5 nightly services (Sunday-Thursday).
2. We further recommend that the associational revival evangelist be paid $250.00 for 6 nightly services (Sunday-Friday).
3. Our board requests help in funding the L.I.F.E. program. This could be initiated by allocating the funds from the old youth fellowship treasury to the Christian Education Board.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

ARTICLE I

We believe in the living God, the Father, Son and Holy Ghost; and these are equal in the Divine Essence, power and glory.—Romans 1:20; John 1:1.

ARTICLE II—THE BIBLE

The Scriptures of the Old and New Testament of the King James Version Bible were given by the inspiration of God, and are our infallible rule of faith and practice.—II Tim. 3:16-17; II Pet. 1—20-21.

ARTICLE III—THE FALL

Section 1. We believe God created man and gave him holy commandments. Whereby, we should live holy, but man voluntarily disobeyed the commandments of God, transgressed the law and fell under just condemnation of the same, whereby all mankind are sinners, but now by constraint, but by choice.—Gen 3: 1-13.

Section 2. Being partakers of the sinful nature attained by the fall.—Romans 5:14-19.

Section 3. And that man is unable to save himself with his own power; but we see Jesus by the suffering death, crowned with glory, that He by the Grace of God, tasted death for every man.—Heb. 2:9.

ARTICLE IV—PARDON

Section 1. We believe that Christ by His death, suffering and resurrection, purchased our pardon.—I Cor. 15:3.

Section 2. And offers it freely to all mankind upon the principle of repentance toward God with faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.—Eph. 5:2; Heb. 9:28.

Section 3. He now commends all men everywhere to repent; therefore, He sayeth: "Look unto me and be saved all the ends of the earth for I am God and there is none else."—Matt 4:17; Isa. 45:22; Acts 20:21, 17:30.

ARTICLE V—REGENERATION

We believe that all persons reaching the age of accountability, or the knowledge of right from wrong, must be regenerated and born of the Spirit of God if they inherit eternal life.—John 3:3, 1:12-13; Romans 5:1-13.

ARTICLE VI—INFANTS

We believe that infants and those who are never mentally capable of being accountable are saved upon the mercies of the Son of God.—Jonah 4:11; Mark 10:14; Luke 18:16; I John 2:12.

ARTICLE VII—APOSTASY

We believe all Christians should persevere in grace and be faithful to the end if they inherit eternal life. "For blessed are they that do His commandments, that they may have a right to the tree of life and enter in through the gates of that city."—Rev. 22:14; Gal 5:4; Heb. 12:14-28; James 5:19-20.

ARTICLE VIII—BAPTISMAL MODE

We believe that baptism by immersion is the apostolic mode, even the burial of believers in water, and that Christ, who is our life, showed His humble example to His children and bids us to walk therein.—Matt. 3:16, 28:19; Rom 6:4-5. (Latin to plunge, to submerge, baptizo; Greek, to dip, baptism: Greek, a dipper, bapton; Greek, to wash, to dip.—Matt. 3:13-17, 28:19; Rom. 6:4-5; I Peter 3:21.

ARTICLE IX—MINISTRY CALL

We believe that God, in His goodness, displays His power of grace in a great degree in calling and qualifying His servants by the teaching of the Holy Ghost and by the instruction of His blessed word to go forth and proclaim life and salvation.—Eph. 3:7; I Tim. 1:8-9; Rom. 15:15-16.

ARTICLE X—COMMANDMENTS

We believe that baptism and the Lord's Supper, and the washing of the Saint's feet, and keeping the Lord's Day holy, and to abstain from all worldly lust and carnal cares, and to assemble ourselves together, is an ornament which prepares and beautifies the soldiers of the cross to march onward in the army of the Lord.—Matt. 26:26-29; John 13:2-17; I Tim. 5:9-10; Luke 22:7-20.

ARTICLE XI—BAPTISMAL RIGHT

Section 1. We believe that none have the right to baptism only those who have obtained a living hope in the Lord Jesus Christ.—Acts 10:47.

Section 2. And none have the right to administer the same only those who are called of God and have come under hands of the presbytery of elders.—Acts 13:1-4; Matt. 28:19-20.

Section 3. And we shall receive none other.—Matt. 3:13-17; Titus 1:5; Acts 14:23.

ARTICLE XII—LORD'S SUPPER-DUTY

We believe it is the duty of each church as oft as they assemble themselves together for the observance of the Lord's Supper, and washing the Saint's feet, to invite all Christians to participate in the observance of the ordinances.—I Cor. 11:27-28.

ARTICLE XIII—WOMAN'S PRIVILEGE

We believe the Bible teaches woman's privilege to preach the Gospel.—Judges 4:4; Rom. 16:12; II Kings 22:14; Acts 2:17-18

ARTICLE XIV—FORNICATION

We believe that nothing but death and fornication, gives a scriptural right to a second marriage, and a second marriage under divorce for any other cause than fornication, is a sin of adultery and contrary to the will and Word of God.—Matt. 19:3-11, 5:32; Luke 16:18; Mark 10:11; Rom. 7:1-3; Prov. 5:19-20; I Cor. 7:10-11; Mal. 2:14-17.

ARTICLE XV—RESURRECTION

We believe in the resurrection of all dead both just and unjust.—John 5:28-29.

The resurrection of the just to glory and immortality in the presence of God.—Mat. 25:34; Job. 19-26.

And the unjust to everlasting shame and banishment from the presence of God.—Matt. 25:31-32; Matt. 25:41; I Cor. 15:52; 11 Thes. 1:4-11; Rev. 20:14-15

Church Covenant

Having given ourselves to God by faith in Christ and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give to one another by the will of God, in this solemn covenant.

We promise by His grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanctions of use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligation in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotion, and social worship, and by self-denial, faith and good works endeavor to "grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ."

We will not forget the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship and observance of the ordinances of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and to seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring and as far as we are able, to promote the success of the church and the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principles sacred and Christian obligations and enterprise supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society; constantly praying and toiling, that the Kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprise, the support of missions, the success of Sabbath schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of souls and the conversion of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
