COMMITTEE REPORTS

Report of the Ordaining Council—We the Ordaining Council recommend that Brother J. C. Varnell be continued on probation for another 12 months so as to improve himself for the ministry.

Respectfully submitted,

C. J. Harris,
M. E. Tyson,
M. A. Woodard,
W. A. Dail,
J. P. Barrow.

Report of Ordaining Council—We have examined Brother C. D. Hamilton and find him to be promising as a ministerial student. We find him unable to meet the demands of this body from a literary standpoint, however; therefore we recommend that he give himself to a serious study for another year. We have further recommended a prescribed course of study.

Report of Orphanage Committee:

We the Orphanage committee wish to make the following recommendations:

First, That our people co-operate with and support our Orphanage Board of Directors and as much as lieth within us give of our finance to aid in the progress of the Institution.

Second, That we encourage our Superintendent in every way possible.

Third, Knowing the great need of a new building, we encourage our people to sacrifice and give for that purpose in order to make possible the completion of the building project as agitated a year ago.

Fourth, We recommend that each pastor to strive to raise at least $ .50 per member by February 1, 1940 as recommended by the Orphanage Board.

Mrs. Katie Jackson, Chairman,
C. G. Little,
M. H. Whichard

Temperance Resolutions—

In as much as drunkenness and immoral practices and other forms of intemperance are harmful to both the individual who indulges and to others whose lives the indulger may contact or influence.

Therefore, be it Resolved, by this Conference now in session at Black Jack Church, Pitt County:

(1) That the body ask and urge its ministry to endeavor to adhere strictly to the New Testament teaching in regards to all forms of conduct that have to do with temperance, in both private and public conduct and teaching.

(2) That the same urge be made upon all laymen as is made upon the ministers.

(3) That all local churches belonging to this body be urged to exercise vigilance over its members in this respect, whether they be ministers or laymen, and use such disciplinary measures against offenders as the teaching of the New Testament warrants.

(4) That the body condemn, in the Christian spirit, and use its influence against all places, public or private, which promote intemperance, or tend to lower the moral standards of society.

Committee:

C. J. Harris,
D. W. Alexander,
J. E. Wooten
