Thursday Afternoon

Session opened with song by congregation;
scripture reading, 115th Psalm, by Moderator;
Prayer by W. S. Mosby.

Minutes of morning session read and approved.

Reports of ministers and officers read and accepted as follows:

Report of Chairman of Home Mission Board:
The past year I haven't attended a meeting of the Home Mission Board and do not know what the rest of the Board has done, but I have visited some of our churches the past year and corresponded with some of our churches and workers, tried to help them all I could.

My work for the Lord the past year has been mostly outside of the bounds of the Association.
A good deal of it has been in Nebraska and have seen many people saved, baptized and join the churches. I have organized one church. I am planning to hold revivals the coming fall and winter

among some of our churches of Missouri. and new fields.

Would like to have a meeting of the Home Mission Board before the Missouri State Association meets at Niangua, in October. I will try to be with you at the Association, at least part of the time, and, for fear that I can't be there, will mail this report and one dollar to help defray expenses of the Association.

I hope and pray that God will bless you wonderfully and that you will have the best Association ever, that peace and harmony will prevail.

Yours for Christ and the Church,

T. C. Ferguson, Chairman.

Report of F. G. Wyrick: Dear Brethren assembled in conference at Hickory Grove church, in Cass County, Missouri, Greetings in Jesus' name: I, your brother and co-worker, beg to make the following report of my work of the year just closing.

I have conscientiously done my duty, as pastor of Mt. Olive and Wagoner churches, the past year. The meetings have been fairly well attended and I trust the sermons have been helpful; have tried to make them instructive and interesting. The rest of my time has been spent in evangelizing. During the past year I have preached 149 sermons, baptized 10, united 3 couples and conducted 2 funerals. My work as superintendent of the secondary department of Sunday schools in Cedar county has been a delight. I have attended three conventions, organized one Sunday school and gave several talks to young peoples' societies. Cedar county Sunday schools are on the up grade and young peoples societies are boosters.

Praying that I may be more useful in the future and that God's blessing may rest upon you in all your deliberations, I beg to sign myself as,

Your servant for Jesus,

F. G. Wyrick, Stockton, Mo. R. 4.

Report of Rosa Sparks: I pray God's blessing will be upon each one at this year's Association and that His spirit will be there in mighty power. I hope harmony will prevail and that souls will be saved.

I have preached 12 sermons. I belong to a missionary society and to the Aid society, at the M. E. church, there being no aid society at the Baptist church. I am still a Freewill and in the faith. We are trying to revive the work at Union Valley.

Rosa Sparks.

Report of J. B. Sparks: As I am unable, financially, to attend the Association I am sending the following report in the name of Christ. I have not been able to travel and preach much but I have preached as many as fifteen sermons in one month. I conducted one funeral and performed one marriage. I will try to do more next year.

J. B. Sparks.

Report of B. F. Brown: I have not pastored any church during the past year. The only work that seemed to be open for me was so located that the offerings would not pay expenses. I have visited and filled appointments at some of our churches. I visited ElDorado Springs and found the Free Methodist people doing well in the house we leased to them. I have conducted one funeral.

I am hoping the way will open up so I can devote my time to the Lord's work.

B. F. Brown.

Report of W. H. McKowan: Aug. 8, 1921.
Dear Brethren and Sisters in Christ as you come together in your yearly meeting at Hickory Grove church from different churches: My heart's prayer is that you come in the name of the Lord, being of one mind and one object in view, to do the will of the Lord. And my prayer is that the Spirit of the loving God and the blessed Christ be in each heart, filling them with all the fullness of God. God bless the ministers and God bless the deacons and a special blessing for the delegates that all may have the wisdom to do the work in the beauty and spirit of holiness, is the prayer of one that sure loves the people of the Association. God bless the conference through the entire meeting. I do pray that you may have the best conference you ever had and that all may go home with the full assurance that you will all be in that great conference where God and Christ are the moderator and clerk and where there will be shouting and praises to the God of Heaven. Dear Brethren, I can't write more, I am too weak, so pray for this old worn out servant and loving brother in Christ.

W. H. McKowan.

Report of W. H. York: Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ, I beg to make the following report: Have tried to be a faithful pastor to Hickory Grove, Hannon, Verdella and Fair View churches the past year, and can say the brethren of all these churches have done well in upholding my hands in the ministry.

I have been going over to the Bluff church, betimes, to preach the word of the Lord to them. Have also been to our Sylvandale church near Moundville a time or two during the past year. Bro. Wyrick and I, by the help of the Lord, endeavored to hold revivals for Hickory Grove, Hannon, Verdella, Wagoner and Neola churches. We witnessed between 30 and 40 souls saved and baptized. I preached four funerals and officiated two marriages, have preached about 340 sermons. Had the privilege of preaching to a church at Buxton, Kans., also one near Delaware Springs, Kans., with invitations to have meetings at both places. Freewill Baptist Church Covenant

Having given ourselves to God by faith in Christ and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant. We promise by His grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusement and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages and "to provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotion and social worship, and by self-denial, faith and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ." We will not forget the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor and all its benevolent work. We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproach with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bond of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring and as far as able promote the success of the church and of the Gospel. We will everywhere hold Christian principles sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sabbath schools and evangelical efforts for the salvation of souls and the conversion of the world, and may the God of peace sanctify us wholly and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Received of B. F. Brown $27.50 for printing the minutes.
