All candidates for ordination shall be required to answer these questions satisfactorily.

PROCEEDINGS

The 150th session of the Cumberland Association of Free Will Baptists met on October 12, 1993 at the Cumberland Camp in Woodlawn, TN. The Rev. Marion Pettus served as host pastor.

The theme for the meeting was "Building the Future on Yesterday's Foundation" from Proverbs 20:28.

MORNING WORSHIP

9:00 A.M.

Our morning service began with Bro. David Simpson leading us in singing "On Jordan's Stormy Banks." His wife Joan accompanied on the piano. We continued in worship by singing "I Am Resolved."

Bro. Marion Pettus came and gave a warm welcome from Cumberland Camp. Bro. Bill Preston, pastor of Richland FWB Church in Nashville, gave the response and led in prayer. Bro. Marion Pettus sang "How Great Thou Art."

The morning message, "Basics For Building," was delivered by Dr. L. C. Johnson. His text was Matthew 16:18. He reminded us of three facts concerning building: (1) We are totally dependent on the Lord; (2) Jesus promises to build His church; (3) We must use the tools of knowledge, the word, and the power of the Spirit. Dr. Johnson closed in prayer.

MORNING BUSINESS

9:30 A.M.

The 150th session was called to order by Bro. Fred Hall. Ministers and deacons in good standing were recognized as standing delegates. The delegates from local churches and quarterlies were recognized. A motion was made, seconded, and carried to approve this group as the voting body.

The Executive Committee Report was given by the Clerk. Motion was made, seconded, and carried to accept the report and to table the recommendations involving constitutional changes.

Bro. Wayne Wagner gave the report of the Committee on Committees. The moderator filled the vacancies and the report was approved.

Reports were given from each quarterly. Bro. Wayne Wagner gave the Northern Quarterly Report. Bro. Wallace Hayes gave the Southern Quarterly report. Bro. James Carrington gave the Western Quarterly report. All three reports were accepted by the body.

Bro. Willis' message, "The Old Paths," was from Jeremiah 6:16 and Luke 5:39. He reminded us of the values of the "old paths." The "old paths" means winning souls, requires love, separation, helping, stresses spiritual blessings. Bro. Willis invited all to join at the front for an altar of prayer. The service was closed as Bro. Simpson led us in singing "Old Time Power." We adjourned for lunch.

AFTERNOON WORSHIP

1:30 P.M.

NORTHERN QUARTERLY REPORT

Northern Quarterly Meeting Report to the Cumberland Association October 12, 1993 when convened at the Youth Camp.

The Northern Quarterly has 24 churches and is very active as a part of the Cumberland Association. We support the total program of our state work by Unified Giving. Last year we gave to the Cumberland Association alone $5,678.47 through the Unified Giving plan of support. We also give to the Youth Camp and to Pleasant View Christian School.

We have one school, PVCS, with an enrollment of 301 plus our day care. We have a fine school and our principal, Bro. Bud Davis, is doing a fine job. The school is a blessing to our churches and community. We hav a day in October which we call PVCS Day where our churches schedule the school for a service. We praise the Lord that we were able to finish in the black last year at our school.

Also, five or six of our churches and Pleasant View Christian School supported a project to help the flood victims in the Midwest. This was initiated by Bro. Barry Simpson at New Hope FWB Church. State Industries sponsored a drive and an 18-wheeler to carry the supplies to some of the victims. They were sent to Hannibal, Missouri and 103 families were helped.

We also had a Bible College Day the last Sunday evening in February at Pleasant View Christian School and raised over $20,000 for the Bible College. We were involved in the Don Sexton Walk-a-Thon again this year. The figures are not in at the present time. Our goal was to help buy some land and build a building for Bro. Bobby Poole in Brazil.

We had a Christmas fellowship dinner for our pastors and their wives at Ryan Steak House in Clarksville. This is a highlight of our year and the fellowship is great. Also, we meet the first Monday of each month at a local restaurant for a fellowship breakfast.

At the time of this writing we have several churches without pastors. They are: Goodsprings, Ashland City, and Trinity in Bowling Green, Kentucky.

Respectfully submitted,
Wayne Wagner, Moderator

SOUTHERN QUARTERLY REPORT

The Southern Quarterly is made up of 28 churches in the Nashville area and to the south and east. We had good attendance for our meetings and excellent fellowship.

The last quarterly meeting emphasized ministry to senior saints. It was an especially helpful topic with so many of our members in that stage of life.

Officers for the coming year are: Fred Hall, Moderator; Roger Reeds, Asst. Moderator; Eugene Workman, Clerk/Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,
Wallace Hayes, Moderator

WESTERN QUARTERLY REPORT

The Western Quarterly met four times during the past year. Our 17 churches had an average attendance of 12. We have enjoyed each gathering with great fellowship and good preaching from both pastors and departmental leaders.

We have again seen good support from a number of our churches for the Sexton Walk-a-Thon for Foreign Missions. The Western Quarrrerly has also started a spring Walk-a-Thon for Cumberland Youth Camp. We hope this will be an annual event, and that the other quarterlies of the Cumberland Association will join us in the future.

We supported the following FWB works during the last year: Home Missions, Foreign Missions, Superannuation, Cumberland Youth Camp, FWBBC, and the Children's Home.

Our elected officials remain the same as last year: James L. Carrington, Moderator; Gregg Tyson, Asst. Moderator; Milton Heath, Treasurer; Billy Christi, Asst. Treasurer; Dottie Markuson, Clerk; Martha Milligan, Asst. Clerk.

We have seen the Gorman Christian School close at the end of 1993 school year. The United Christian Academy of Dickson is operating under a new administrator, Mr. Tom Diamond, with an enrollment of 101.

We ask your prayers for our churches as we continue under the banner of Christ's love!

Respectfully submitted,
James L. Carrington, Moderator

CUMBERLAND CAMP REPORT

The Lord has given us another great year in the camping ministry. We are thankful for the dozens of volunteers who worked faithfully again this year.

During the past year we adopted one major building project. Through the efforts and support of many, we were able to renovate our cabins. We enclosed them, carpeted, and added heating and air conditioning. Plans have been made and we hope to have finished a barbecue pit by our Friends of Camp Supper.

Attendance was down by 39 this year. We believe the reason for the slight decline was due to the limit placed on each week. We rejoice in the 464 campers God gave us and the 44 salvation decisions. In the fall of 1992 we had two retreats: the children's retreat had 44 in attendance, the youth retreat had 55 in attendance. We had 56 at our spring retreat.

We are appreciative of your prayers and finances. We trust that you will continue to support this vital ministry. In the coming year we hope to hire ten to twelve counselors for the summer and are seeking a program director who will direct all of our summer camps. We are also adding another week of camp this year, specifically geared for the senior high age. Please pray with us about these matters.

We are excited about the future of our camp and we hope that you are as well. There is a great deal of planning and work that still has to be done. We are thankful for Bro. and Sister Pettus and all their hard work. Continue to pray for them and the camp board as we labor together in the camping ministry.

WESTERN QUARTERLY PRESBYTERY REPORT

Examining Committee includes James L. Carrington, James Black, Greg Tyson, and Victor Neuenschwander, who has left his pastorate and will be replaced in 1994.

The committee received an inquiry from one of our churches in reference to rules or guidelines concerning ministers with two living wives. After conferring, the committee made a decision. After further research, it was subsequently found that the Presbytery of the Cumberland had come to the same decision in times past and that the statement is included in the GOVERNMENT AND CONSTITUTION of the CUMBERLAND ASSOCIATION. The church was made aware of the decision, with the statement that we had no jurisdiction in a local church's calling process, only in the recognition and acceptance of papers, for ministers seeking membership in good standing with this, the Western Quarterly.

We have had several pastoral changes recently, but have not met with the new ministers as yet. We shall be busy this fall.

Respectfully submitted,
James L. Carrington, Chairman

GUIDELINES FOR LICENSED MINISTERS IN THE CUMBERLAND ASSOCIATION

I. RULES PERTAINING TO THE LICENSED MINISTER

A. Qualifications for the Licensee

1. He must be a member of a church which belongs to the Cumberland Association.
2. He must give evidence to his church that he is divinely called to preach, whereupon the local church is authorized to examine him for license. This examination should include the areas of the candidate's life, doctrine, reputation, and his convictions and abilities regarding the work of the ministry. His present and prospective educational and professional qualifications should also be considered. Upon completion of such an examination, the local church shall determine whether or not to grant license. Their ministerial license shall be valid for a period of one year but is renewable annually.
3. He must have his license renewed annually by said church and kept in force until ordination.

B. The Activities of the Licensee

1. According to the general practices of Free Will Baptists, a licensed minister is urged to afford himself of every opportunity to preach the word. He is free to exercise all the privileges and responsibilities of an ordained minister with the exception of pastoring a church and officiating at the observances of the ordinances and weddings.
2. The licensee should consider the years between his receiving license and being ordained as years of study and training in preparation for his calling.

C. His Relationship to the Presbytery

1. The clerk of the church should report the names of licensed ministers to the clerk of the Presbytery who will forward a copy of these guidelines to each licensee.

2. Licensed ministers will be eligible to hold associate membership in the Presbytery.

II. SUGGESTIONS FOR PREPARATION FOR ORDINATION

- A. Attend Free Will Baptist Bible College if possible.
- B. Seek counsel of an experienced pastor or pastors.
- C. Make as thorough a study as possible of the following:
 1. The Holy Bible
 2. Systematic Theology
 3. Homiletics
 4. Pastoral Theology and Church Administration
 5. Evangelism
 6. Church History (especially F.W.B. history)

III. A SUGGESTED SCHEDULE OF WORK LEADING TO ORDINATION

- A. As soon as licensee feels that he is qualified to become a candidate for ordination, he should request a list of study questions from the Examining Committee of the Presbytery. We would strongly encourage him to proceed with his examination before entertaining a call to a church.
- B. At least two months before the Examining Committee meets, he should secure the examination. He should make five copies of the completed examination (one for each member of the Committee), and send them to the Examining Committee no later than two weeks before its meeting.

Alternate: The Candidate will be given a written examination based on some of the study questions in the presence of one or more of the Committee members.

- C. The Candidate is required to pass an oral examination administered by the Committee.
- D. The Committee will report to the candidate on whether he passed or what areas he may need additional study in.
- E. When the approved candidate has passed the examination and has received a call to a church or is engaged in some other form of Christian service that would justify his being ordained, the Committee will recommend his ordination to the Presbytery. This recommendation will usually be made only after the candidate has been licensed for one full year.
