ARTICLE 4. They may elect a Moderator, Assistant Moderator, Clerk, Assistant Clerk, and Treasurer from among themselves, and they may hold their offices until their successors are elected.

ARTICLE 5. New churches shall petition the Quarterly meeting for membership. The Quarterly shall have power to receive new churches as members, and in turn shall inform the District Association of their membership.

ARTICLE 6. This Association shall furnish member Quarterlies with sufficient minutes of their proceedings to be distributed to their member churches.

ARTICLE 7. Annual dues for each member Quarterly shall be $10.00. In addition, each member Quarterly shall be accountable for dues as follows: member Churches whose membership is 0-49, $35.00; 50-99, $40.00; 100-199, $45.00; 200 and above, $50.00.

ARTICLE 8. For the purpose of ordaining ministers of the gospel and for trying all ordained members of un-Christian conduct, there shall be a Presbytery, which shall convene at the close of the session on the first day of the Association and at any time during the Associational year, if called by the moderator or his assistants or any five members of said Presbytery who deem it necessary to make such a call. The Presbytery shall consist of ordained members present, and they shall elect a moderator and clerk from among themselves for the time being who shall hold their offices until their successors are elected.

This shall be tested by the Presbytery. The Presbytery shall have full power to propound such spiritual questions as they consider necessary to determine his qualifications. All candidates for ordination shall be required to answer these questions satisfactorily.

NORTHERN QUARTERLY REPORT

The Northern Quarterly has convened four times this past year with good attendance at each quarterly. We average between 90 and 100 at each of the Quarterly meetings.

Our pastors meet once a month at Shoney's in Springfield and Shoney's in Clarksville respectively. This past year our pastors and their wives, assistant pastors and their wives, music directors and their wives met for a Christmas banquet at New Hope FWB Church. We had an enjoyable time together, as we always do.

The last Sunday evening in February we had our annual Free Will Baptist Bible College Rally at Pleasant View Christian School and raised over $23,000.00 for the college. Also, Pleasant View Christian School, with Bro. Bud Davis as Administrator, is doing well. We have 427 students in our day care through 12th grade. Our school, for which we thank the Lord, operated in the black this year.

We have several new pastors in our Quarterly: Bro. Glenn McReynolds at Pardue Memorial, Bro. Mike Gillock at Ashland City, Bro. Henry Dameron at Mt. Zion, and Bro. Bill Johnson at Good Springs. We presently have three churches without pastors: Harper Road (Bro. Randy Riggs is interim), Oakwood at Woodlawn, and Bethlehem at Ashland City.

Our Quarterly meeting participated in our annual Sexton Walk-a-Thon. We need to pray for Bro. Don, as he is not doing well. We have great fellowship in our Quarterly and thank the Lord for the new men who have come to work with us. We are looking forward to a great year again this year. Please remember to pray for us.

Respectfully submitted,
Wayne Wagner, Moderator
Eddie Hodges, Assistant Moderator
Barry Simpson, Treasurer
Mary Crutcher, Clerk

SOUTHERN QUARTERLY REPORT

During the past year we have received one new church into our fellowship. Crossroads FWB Church of Lawrenceburg, TN, pastored by Bro. Ronnie Mashburn, joined our ranks.

Some of the special themes we have explored were: "How to Begin a Senior Adult Outreach," "Ministering to the Terminally Ill," "Don't Put Your Trust in Money, But Put Your Money in Trust," and a special emphasis on our FWB outreach at the state and national levels.

The Southern Quarterly Conference had two joint Thanksgiving services in November of 1993. Each was held the Tuesday before Thanksgiving. The one on the west side of town was hosted by Sylvan Park and the other service was hosted by Woodbine. There was a good spirit and fellowship at both services.

The officers elected for the 1994-95 year are: Fred Hall, Moderator; Roger Reeds, Assistant Moderator; Eugene Workman, Clerk/Treasurer; Greg Glades, Assistant Clerk/Treasurer.

Respectfully submitted,
Eugene Workman, Clerk

WESTERN QUARTERLY REPORT

The Western Quarterly met four times in the past year; our attendance was 50. Our fellowship was great and a spirit of cooperation has been evident among most all our churches.

We had a goodly number of our churches participate in the Tennessee Walk-A-Thon for Foreign Missions. Carlisle FWB Church, Paul Sitton, pastor, raised $1,000 and several other contributed over $500. Our Quarterly has begun its own Happy Hill Acres Walk-A-Thon, raising $1,258 this year. The Children's Home, Superannuation Board, Home Missions, FWBBC, Victory Campaign, and various missionaries have been supported by us this past year.

Our slate of officers has remained the same for this year: James Carrington, Moderator; Greg Tyson, Assistant Moderator; Milton Heath, Treasurer; and Dottie Markuson, Secretary.

We regret the closing of one of our Christian schools, Gorman Christian Academy. United Christian Academy is still reporting continued growth, and has plans for a building in the future. Please pray for this great need!

We have seen several changes in our pastorates this year. Our presbytery has received letters on several new pastors in good standing. We have sent letters to two former pastors asking for their papers to be returned to our presbytery, or that they request a hearing before our board in reference to this matter. Neither has replied.

Pray for our Quarterly. We are called to a great work. Let us be found faithful!

Respectfully submitted,
James L. Carrington, Moderator

CUMBERLAND CAMP REPORT

The mission of Cumberland Camp is to assist primarily the churches of the Cumberland Association of Free Will Baptists and secondarily the evangelical community of Middle Tennessee in fulfilling the Great Commission of our Lord Jesus Christ as outlined in Matthew 28:18-20. The Camp shall conduct camps, retreats, workshops, seminars, conferences, and fellowship activities geared primarily to school-aged youth and secondarily to people of all ages. The mission shall result in people choosing to accept, rededicate and follow the example of our Lord Jesus Christ and to serve Him faithfully wherever He may lead. Relationships bonded by Christian love shall be achieved as result of the ministry of Cumberland Camp.

This mission statement was adopted by the camp board in 1992. The current board remains dedicated to the same purpose set forth in this statement.

In 1994 the board approved some major changes in the methods of our camping program. Our goal remained the same, to impact young people with the life-changing message of the gospel. We hired a summer program director and a staff of twelve trained counselors. We added some new activities such as a climbing wall, a ropes course, a slingshot/BB gun range, and a mountain bike course. The goal of all these is to present an exciting and balanced experience for each camper.

Though the summer program was new and full of change, we believe it was successful. For the first time ever we sponsored seven weeks of camp. We had a total of 420 campers this year with 125 salvation decisions and dozens of other decisions. Certainly it was not flawless; there were some weaknesses. We are already working hard to bring improvement to those weak areas.

Many of you voiced opinions of praise and concern over the many changes. We thank you for your concern and your input; we hope you will continue to share with us. We trust you will also pray for us. Pray for Brother and Sister Pettus and the heavy load of responsibility they carry. Also pray for the board that we may have wisdom for the decisions we must make.

We want to reassure each of you that we are committed to the same principles as always. Every camp will have evening services with Bible-based messages and a personal challenge issued to every camper at each service. We will continue to use active learning sessions in our daily schedules with an even stronger emphasis on Biblical application. We will continue to uphold high standards of modesty and Christ-like character before our campers and demand it of our workers.

In 1995 we plan to continue to use some of these same methods, but with greater effectiveness. We know the areas of our weaknesses and we are working to improve in those areas. We are thankful for how God blessed this ministry, but we are not satisfied!

If you were in some way disappointed in camp this past year, please do not write us off—this year will be even better. If you thought this past year was great—it is going to get better. We are committed to honoring the Lord Jesus and serving people, especially the youth, of the Cumberland Association. Please pray for us and continue to allow us the opportunity to be a part of your ministry.

Respectfully submitted,
Clayton Hampton, Chairman

RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE REPORT

1. Whereas the annual meeting of the Cumberland Association of Free Will Baptists has been on a weekday (Tuesday), making it difficult if not impossible for many of our lay people to attend,
BE IT RESOLVED that beginning in October of 1995 the association meet on the second Saturday of October, and that the quarterly associations be asked to adjust their meeting times accordingly.
2. Whereas Bro. Robert Crawford was ordained on this day, October 11, 1934, and has for the last 60 years served the Lord faithfully and diligently among Free Will Baptists, approximately 30 of these years in the Cumberland,
BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that the Cumberland Association honor with a standing vote of appreciation and that we present him with a plaque at the state meeting in November.
3. Whereas First FWB Church of Dickson has done such a gracious job of hosting the 151st session of the Cumberland Association,
BE IT RESOLVED that we honor them with a rising vote of thanks!

Respectfully submitted,
Paul Harrison
Steve Faison
Bill Johnson

WESTERN QUARTERLY REPORT

We have seen several changes in our pastorates this year. Our presbytery has received letters on several new pastors in good standing. We have sent letters to two former pastors asking for their papers to be returned to our presbytery, or that they request a hearing before our board in reference to this matter. Neither has replied.

Gorman FWB Church has relocated and renamed to First FWB Church of Waverly. Pastor Eddie Hopkins comes to lead this renewed work of Christ. This church (First Church in Waverly) and several others have had pastoral changes in the last year: Rock Springs, Hurricane Chapel, First Church in Dickson, and Victory. We welcome the new pastors.

Officers for the coming year:

James Carrington, Chairman

Greg Tyson

James Black

A. Qualifications for the Licensee

1. He must be a member of a church which belongs to the Cumberland Association.
2. He must give evidence to his church that he is divinely called to preach, whereupon the local church is authorized to examine him for license. This examination should include the areas of the candidate's life, doctrine, reputation, and his convictions and abilities regarding the work of the ministry. His present and prospective educational and professional qualifications should also be considered. Upon completion of such an examination, the local church shall determine whether or not to grant license. Their ministerial license shall be valid for a period of one year but is renewable annually.
3. He must have his license renewed annually by said church and kept in force until ordination.

B. The Activities of the Licensee

He is free to exercise all the privileges and responsibilities of an ordained minister with the exception of pastoring a church and officiating at the observances of the ordinances and weddings.
2. The licensee should consider the years between his receiving license and being ordained as years of study and training in preparation for his calling.

C. His Relationship to the Presbytery

1. The clerk of the church should report the names of licensed ministers to the clerk of the Presbytery who will forward a copy of these guidelines to each licensee.
2. Licensed ministers will be eligible to hold associate membership in the Presbytery.

III. A SUGGESTED SCHEDULE OF WORK LEADING TO ORDINATION

- A. As soon as licensee feels that he is qualified to become a candidate for ordination, he should request a list of study questions from the Examining Committee of the Presbytery. We would strongly encourage him to proceed with his examination before entertaining a call to a church.
- B. At least two months before the Examining Committee meets, he should secure the examination. He should make five copies of the completed examination (one for each member of the Committee), and send them to the Examining Committee no later than two weeks before its meeting.

Alternate: The Candidate will be given a written examination based on some of the study questions in the presence of one or more of the Committee members.

- C. The Candidate is required to pass an oral examination administered by the Committee.
- D. The Committee will report to the candidate on whether he passed or what areas he may need additional study in.
- E. When the approved candidate has passed the examination and has received a call to a church or is engaged in some other form of Christian service that would justify his being ordained, the Committee will recommend his ordination to the Presbytery. This recommendation will usually be made only after the candidate has been licensed for one full year.
