"To the East Kansas Quarterly Conference,

"Recently I have truly been seeking God's will in my life. As I write this letter, I truly don't know God's total will in my life, but many things have been revealed to me concerning parts of God's will in my life.

"The main one centers around my position I hold in the East Kansas Quarterly Conference.

"I have resigned from my position at Kaw Valley Free Will Baptist Church of Youth Pastor, and also my membership.

"By being obedient to God's will in my life, I am also turning in my resignation of the holding of the license in this conference.

"May the Lord continue to call you to preach the true gospel and may lives be reached for Christ through your ministries."

/s/ Yours in Christ,

Public Morals Committee Report

1. In view of the lack of modest dress which is seen on women, especially during the summer months, we recommend that Churches begin to teach Christian women to dress in accordance with I Timothy 2:9a, "In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety;" -- being careful lest we cause the brethren to stumble by our dress.
2. In view of Romans 13 which says we should be in subjection to governing authorities, we recommend that Christians be advised when voting which politicians have Christian standards and vote in accordance with this.
3. That every member of the EKQC involve themselves in the moral issues in their community, especially in the area of campaigning against pornography.

Signed Sis. Nora Rhodes, Chairperson, Emporia
Sis. Edith Whitney, Bethel
Sis. Delia V. Chambers, New Hope
Sis. Carol Baker, Topeka

MMS&C to approve the Report as read.

Rev. Elwin Clifton called the Meeting to order.

Rev. Gary Elder opened in prayer.

There was a discussion of the Business Committee report as to a speaker for the November Conference. Wanda Holdeman was not present, and we could not see the original report of the Business committee. Three plans were suggested, and we agreed to follow these guidelines in choosing a speaker.

1. Contact Hillsdale Bible College in regards to having a student speaker come to the November Conference.
2. Contact Rev. Rue Dell Smith if Hillsdale was unable to furnish a speaker.
3. If neither Hillsdale nor Rev. Rue Dell Smith were able to respond, then we would have Rev. Gary Elder and Rev. Mike Rhodes bring the Conference messages.

MMSC to pursue this plan for a speaker.

MMSC to ask Rev. Fred Wallis to bring the Saturday morning devotion at the Conference.

(At the time of this Executive Board Meeting, Bethel, New Hope, and Salina Churches were still in negotiations for pastors.)

Rev. Gary Elder discussed N.Y.C. competition on a district wide basis, and encouraged all of the churches of our district to get involved. Then perhaps all of the churches across the state could get involved. He reviewed with us a book entitled, "GUIDELINES FOR COMPETITIVE ACTIVITIES FOR MUSIC AND ART".

We then discussed the "THEME" for the November Conference.

MMSC to use the theme---"THANKS BE UNTO GOD"---from 2 Corinthians 2:14, exploring the WHAT--HOW--WHO--of the Scripture.

There was no other business to come before the Board at this time.

MMSC to adjourn.

Respectfully Submitted,

Rev. Elwin A. Clifton, Jr.
Chairman of Executive Board
