Alford to fill the place, who used as a text, Deut. 2:3. "Ye have compassed this mountain long enough: turn you northward." After the sermon, an intermission of one hour was taken for dinner.

WEDNESDAY P. M.

After a very sumptuous dinner served by the ladies of the church, we reassembled, with the moderator, Eld. J. R. Bennett presiding.

Present: J. R. Bennett, chariman, J. W. Alford, sec., N. P. Davis, Duffy Toler. Prayer was offered by Eld. Toler.

The purpose of our meeting was to look into the condition of the Beaufort church, it having been referred to us by the conference.

Informally discussing the situation, we decided that the only thing we had to deal with is the question: Has the Beaufort church complied with the terms placed on them by the Grievance Committee in their meeting Dec. 12th, 1934? After hearing statements from Bros. W. E. Rolison, D. B. Garner and William Lloyd, the following motion was passed unanimously: On motion we require that each member appearing on the old list of Beaufort church be notified that on the night of Nov. 27th, 1935 at 7 o'clock P. M. a special conference is to be held in the Beaufort church, for the purpose of reorganizing and re-establishing the said church, and that only those who appear in response to this notice will be enrolled as members, and this organization only shall be recognized by the conference and Union Meeting. Also that we require the moderator and treasurer of the conference to be present at this special conference, and the moderator preside over the meeting. After such organization is made, the church will then and there be required to elect a pastor. Bro. Rolison is required then and there to appear before the church, and make proper apology for not having the church meet properly the requirements of the Grievance Committee.

Soldier of the Cross Passes

"Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel" (2 Samuel 3:38).

ELDER A. E. ROUSE

October 12, 1858—August 6, 1936

Elder A. E. Rouse who was born on October 12, 1858, departed this life peacefully at his home near Mays Chapel on August 6, 1936. His pilgrimage of a well spent earthly life was extended over seventy-seven years nine months and twenty-four days. His birth place was near Hallsville, Duplin County, N. C.

As a young man Elder Rouse professed Jesus Christ as his Saviour at the age eighteen years old, and joined the Free Will Baptist church at Sarceta under the preaching of Elder Henry Cunningham. His membership remained there until the year 1923 at which time he moved it to Mays Chapel in Wayne County. At the age of twenty-eight he was ordained as a Free Will Baptist minister to preach the gospel of Christ. From that time he continued to be active in the ministry for half a century.

The greater part of his work as pastor was done in the Eastern Conference in Eastern North Carolina. He served as moderator of the Conference for several years. Likewise he was so well-liked by the brethren of the Third Union District of this conference that he served faithfully as moderator of the union for a long time. In his younger days as a minister, he was very active in revival services and led many people to accept salvation, and to follow Jesus. Dailys Chapel, near Seven Springs, was greatly blessed by having him as its pastor for around forty years.

During the years of his most active service in the ministry, Elder Rouse helped ordain several young men to the Gospel ministry, and two of whom he called his boys are Rev. J. W. Aldford of Kenly, and Lloyd Vernon of Kenansville, N. C. These men as ministers of the Gospel have held him in the very highest esteem as a true servant of God these many years. He received honors not only from his conference, his union meeting district, and the many churches which he had served, but also throughout eastern North Carolina. The great desire of his heart was to bring lost souls to Christ, and see them saved.

Elder Rouse was a true friend to the different institutions of the church. He was a good friend to the Orphanage at Middlesex. He labored for it from its very beginning until his death. He gave liberally to the support of the Home from time to time, and loaned sums of money to the institution when it was in dire need during its most trying hours of financial need. He continually kept the Orphan cause before the people of his churches, and was instrumental in their giving liberally to the institution. When the Superintendent of the Home was able to pay him back the loan recently, he gave to the Orphanage part of the money loaned it, thus showing his continued love, and interest in the children under its care. Also Brother Rouse was a friend to the College at Ayden. He believed in a trained minstry, and helped to support it while it was in operation. He used his influence among his churches for its support.

At the age of nineteen years he married a Miss Nancy Dunn who died several years ago. To this union was born one daughter, who is Mrs. Etta Rouse Ball. She is the only child of this union. He leaves four grandchildren. On December 1, 1920, he married Mrs. Mae Gray of Greene County, North Carolina. There were no children born to this union. They built a home on Number Forty highway about 8 miles from Goldsboro, and in the Brogden School community, and spent the remainder of his life there.

It was near his home that he built with his own money, Mays Chapel some years ago, and since that time the church has made progress under his ministry and influence and the splendid help of his good wife and friends. He maintained a deep interest in this church as long as he lived. During the most active years of his minstry, he helped to organize a number of churches in Duplin County, and was active in general improvement of churches that he served.

The funeral was conducted by Elder Lloyd Vernon of Kenanville, North Carolina, and assisted by several other ministers who were among Elder Rouse's closest friends, some of whom served as pall-bearers. The services were held in Mays Chapel, near the home. The occasion was a solemn one. The church yard was crowded with many people who were unable to be seated in the building. The little church was thronged with a large number of ministers, relatives, and very dear friends. The soft music, the impressive talks by the different preachers, the fervent prayers --all was impressive, very spiritual and full of devotion. The many floral designs from North East Church, Hull Road, Dailys Chapel, Sarecta, Rooty Branch, friends and loved ones were very fragrant and beautiful. They were beautiful tokens of the love and esteem which his churches, many friends and loved ones held for him.

The services were concluded at the grave in the little cemetery just behind the church. There the remains of Elder A. E. Rouse was placed, and the mound of beautiful flowers marked his resting place. His body rests, but his life lives on; to sweeten the lives of those he's known.

By Committee of Eastern Conference,

Elder J. H. Edwards
