Finance Committee

On motion reports be received and committees released.

On motion we gave Eld. T. A. Williams $25.00 for his service in Mission work. We are glad to report that Bro. Williams has been very successful in his labor for the past two years.

On motion we pay Eld. N. N. Davis $5.00 for his expenses to South Carolina Conference.

On motion we pay Bro. Branton $10.00 on wife's infirmary bill.

On motion we send Bro. Hearl $15.00 on account of disability.

Elds. T. A. Williams, M. S. Todd, and G. W. Howell were appointed as delegates to South Carolina Conference as a committee to unify the work of the two conferences.

Moved and sustained we also send Eld. J. L. Smith as delegate to said conference.

Eld. M. S. Todd appointed to visit Pee Dee Conference or Association.

New business came next.

Eld. M. F. Howell came before this body acknowledging his mistake in leaving this conference and asking to be placed back as before, which was gladly done.

On motion we return thanks to this church and community for kindness and hospitality shown us during this session.

On motion we adjourn to meet with Spring Pond Church on next appointed time, Thursday before 1st Sunday in November, 1943.

Adjourned by singing hymn.

Rev. T. A. Williams, Moderator

Mrs. A. B. Powell, Clerk.
