REPORTS

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL AND TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE

"We your Sunday School and Temperance Committee recommend that our Sunday School teachers be qualified for the job. That the teacher try to make sure they teach the lesson so that the children can understand it. We emphasize the need of an every week study of the lesson at home by the teachers and also the parents and children."

Respectfully submitted,

Liston Williams
Charlton Powell
Rutledge Alford

REPORT OF THE MISSION AND EDUCATION COMMITTEE

"We your Mission and Education Committee make the following report. We always promise our missionaries our help in finance and in prayers, but somehow seem to do little of either. We believe that when we pass a motion we should abide by that motion or not pass it. So we ask that we support our missionaries and christian education to the very best of our ability with our continued prayer and financial support. We who work expect a raise every now and then, due to the increased cost of living, and yet we are willing to let our missionaries struggle along on the same or less pay each year when we as christians could if we would help them much more. There are very few of us who wish to leave our homes and friends to go into the mission field, so let us help send them who do go to spread God's gospel everywhere."

Respectfully submitted,

Joseph Cagle
Michael Jones
Lloyd Gore

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise by His grace, to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world from all sanctions of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions and social worship and by self-denial, faith, and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church, conferences, public worship and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel; nor fail to pray according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace. To be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday Schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
