CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise by His grace, to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and uphold conformity to the world, from all sanctions of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions and social worship and by self-denial, faith and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ".

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church, conferences, public worship and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel; nor fail to pray according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "Keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace. To be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday School, and evangelistic efforts for the Salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

REPORT OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL AND TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE

We, your Sunday School and Temperance Committee, recommend that all persons placed in position of Sunday School teacher or superintendent be those whose lives bear evidence of truly being born again. We also recommend that teachers be required to be loyal to the program of the church, deacons, and pastor. We also stress that Sunday School teachers use only the King James version of the Bible in preparing lessons. II Timothy 2:15; 3:16-17

We further suggest that each of our churches prayerfully consider instituting and implementing some program for training and equipping our people for Christian service other than that which is provided by Sunday School.

ARTICLE III

Any brother desiring to be licensed or ordained must have a letter of recommendation from the church of which he is a member. Said church must be a member of the Eastern Conference of the Original Free Will Baptists of South Carolina.

ARTICLE IV

A minister coming from another conference or association must come by letter from his former conference or association.

ARTICLE V

Each minister duly licensed or ordained of said conference may have the privilege to vote.

ARTICLE VI

This constitution shall be revised at any annual conference by a vote of two-thirds majority.

BYLAWS

1. No minister of the Eastern Conference shall pastor a church that is not in fellowship with the Original Free Will Baptist denomination without permission of the Ordaining Council.
2. No brother shall receive credentials except he has been a member of a church in the Original Free Will Baptist denomination in said conference for a period of twelve (12) consecutive months or more preceding his recommendation for license. He must be licensed for twelve (12) consecutive months before he can be ordained.
3. He that desires to be licensed must come with a letter of recommendation stating whether or not he has tithed during said period, signed by his pastor and church treasurer. Also bringing a personal record of his work to be presented to the Ordaining Council. The same applies to his ordination.
4. Any minister who makes a shipwreck of his life or brings a reproach upon himself or conference, the accuser shall present a written charge properly signed to the Ordaining Council. If proven guilty shall surrender his credentials for a period of six (6) months on first offense. The penalty for second offense is the surrender of credentials for two (2) years.
5. From this, The Lord's Day—December 7, 1963, the Ordaining Council shall not license, ordain, or accept anyone who has two (2) living wives or if wife has two (2) living husbands. Scripture: Titus 1:6, Timothy 3:1-2.
6. Each minister of the said conference must report in person or by letter to each union or conference. 7. These bylaws may be amended by two-thirds (2/3) majority vote at any regular conference.
8. All visiting ministers will be given a seat in our conference with this restriction—they will not be privileged to vote.
9. The dues of this conference are one dollar ($1.00) per quarter payable each quarter at the regular conference.
10. The clerk is to inform the Ordaining Council of all ministers of said conference who do not conform to rule number six of these by-laws.
11. The minutes of all ministers' meetings are to be published in the Association minutes rather than just the minutes of the annual meeting as has been done in previous years.
12. A committee is to be appointed to judge whether or not the excuse of absent ministers is to be accepted. The committee shall consist of the clerk and two ministers of our conference. If any excuse is rejected, the sender is to be notified and more information is to be asked for.
