Our National Free Will Baptist Logo

The logo of the National Association of Free Will Baptists (shown on the front cover) incorporates four symbols used by the earliest communities in Christendom: the Ship, the Fish, the Anchor, and the Cross.

The Ship: The SHIP, symbolizes the Church and represents all the members pulling in one direction, guided and empowered by the Holy Spirit. Seeking to fulfill Christ's last command to the Church, Free Will Baptists unite in one purpose with one priority to proclaim the good news of the gospel throughout the world.

The Fish: The FISH, represented in the symbol by the space between the bottom of the sail and the top of the ship's body, is one of the most popular symbols for Jesus Christ. Many believe that it was a secret symbol which identified Christians during periods of persecution. The word "fish" in the first century Greek (ichthus) is an acrostic for Jesus Christ, Son of God, Savior.

The Anchor: The ANCHOR, on the bow of the ship symbolizes the Christian hope of salvation, "the sure, strong and steadfast anchor of the soul."

The Cross: forms the emblem in the mast of the ship. It is the most familiar symbol in the history of the world. The Cross, an instrument of execution and death turned into a worldwide emblem of hope and love by the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

In the four corners of the ship's sail, the symbols of earliest Christianity are enhanced by modern emblems of a vital, living faith—the Holy Bible, the Loaf and Cup, the Basin and Towel and Clasped Hands—the symbols of Free Will Baptists.

The Bible: has always been at the heart of our life as Free Will Baptists, the centrality of the scriptures. Free Will Baptists adopt the Word of God as our only rule of faith and practice. We believe the scriptures to be inspired, inerrant, infallible and immutable.

The Loaf and Cup: represent the Lord's supper, one of the gospel ordinances. This ordinance commemorates the death of Christ for our sins in the use of the bread which He made the emblem of His broken body and the cup the emblem of His shed blood. Participation in this ordinance expresses love for Christ, faith and hope in Him, and serves as a pledge of perpetual fidelity and faithfulness to Him.

The Basin and Towel: historically symbolize the service and outreach of the church, but for us it has an added significance of representing our practice of washing the saints' feet.

The Clasped Hands: symbolize many things to us: fellowship, brotherhood and the warmth of our faith. Perhaps the most important thing symbolized by the clasped hands is our commitment to reach out to people around the world with the good news.

Fellowship Association
Annual Meeting
January 25, 2019
Harmony Free Will Baptist Church

The 32nd Annual Meeting of the Fellowship Association of Free Will Baptists was opened by Bro. Mark Simmons, Moderator on January 25, 2019 at Harmony Free Will Baptist Church.

Bro. James Cronister opened us in prayer.

Harmony singers led worship with Everybody will be Happy pg.691, Where the Soul Never Dies pg.669, and Living Prayer.

The message was brought by Bro. Jamie Burris from Mathew 21:18-19.

The sermon was about Purposeful Christianity. We should serve God with a Purpose. Christ had become hungry just as we get hungry. We figure out the things that we have are not enough, Jesus had needs just as we do. We all have things where our needs to be met, we need to give/show Jesus.

What is our purpose?

Most of us came to Jesus to save our own souls, but God sent Jesus so we can share Jesus to others. We must build up the kingdom of God, not just a building. Jesus will get us through the trials and the storms we just need to recognize the need. God calls us to go out and change for Gods purpose because, "if you don't change your surroundings, they will change you."

What should have had something? The tree had nothing.

Have we been concerned about taking God for ourselves that we don't leave anything else for the lost? God has not changed but perhaps we have. We have decided how much fruit to give and who gives it. We need to stop "doing" and focus on praying to God.

Is God pleased with what we are doing? We reap what we have not tended to. It is through Jesus that we get to heaven and it is through Jesus that people need to be fulfilled. Spreading Jesus builds Gods Kingdom and this is our Purpose. Bro. Burris then closed with prayer.

Steve Hartzell opened business portion with prayer

Twenty two delegates were seated from the Association churches.

Freddy Bowden, Brad McCain, and Jared Higginbotham were appointed to the Resolution Committee.

Obituary Committee Brenda Housley, Barbra Taylor, Dwayne Helton

Bro. Ken Winningham of AR family Ministry came and said the ministry has been opened for 80 years. Rev. Jim McComas became the new CEO. The Florence home served 40/5 accepted Christ. Maggie House burned the note in February, they no longer owe anything. 10 were saved and baptized, with 54 served. Young home, 28 served (23 are under 10), 77 children in 18 months, 25 were reunited with families. 7 professions of faith with 9 baptisms. There was a total of 33 adoptions and are currently serving 62 children. He thanked the churches for continued support and asked for prayer.

Bro. Scott Warren from the state mission board stated that they will meet for long term plans and encouraged to consider funds for missionaries. They were in the red at the end of the year but it would not affect Acts 1:8. He asked for prayers.

Sister Melissa Haralson of the WAC gave report.

Fellowship Association
Annual Meeting
January 27, 2019
Woodlawn Free Will Baptist Church

The 32nd Annual Meeting of the Fellowship Association of Free Will Baptists was opened by Bro. Mark Simmons, Moderator on January 26, 2019 at Harmony Free Will Baptist Church.

Bro. Scott Warren opened service with prayer.

Harmony singers lead worship with, "To God be the Glory, 19," "Praise him Praise him 50," and a special "Standing on Holy Ground."

The message was brought by Bro. Jarad Higginbotham, Malachi 1:6-14

We must be careful of just going through the motions, we all have a routine that is comfortable. The problem comes when we treat God as a routine.

Reading of the passage: one of Gods judgment is against the people's worship, it starts with the worship leaders heart. The leader is the one that God will hold accountable to the tone of the church. The speed of the church is reflected upon its leaders. They have become complacent which opened the door to complacent people. The antidote for going through the motions we have to know what God expects. The first thing God expects is our greatest reverence. The heart of the pastor is more significant than the gifts on the altar. God calls us to be worshipers. The second thing God expects is our greatest response. If we are not careful, we just give God what we don't want. We need to give God the best we have, give to God first, give to God that which hurts us. The third thing God expects is our highest regard. "I believe that the quality on one's worship is in direct proportion to one's concept of God." There is none that compares to God.

Bro. Higginbotham closed with prayer.

Opening of the business portion by prayer by Bro. Scott Warren

Bro. David Taylor from State FWB started by thanking the association for continued support, followed by some updates.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. The Bible. The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and are our infallible rule of faith and practice.
2. God. There is one living and true God, revealed in nature as the Creator, Preserver, and Righteous Governor of the universe; and in the scriptures as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; yet as one God, infinitely wise and good, whom all intelligent creatures are supremely to love, adore, and obey.
3. Christ. Christ is God manifest in the flesh; in His divine nature truly God, in His human nature truly man. The mediator between God and man, once crucified, He is now risen and glorified, and is our ever present Saviour and Lord.
4. The Holy Spirit. The Scriptures assign to the Holy Spirit all the attributes of God.
5. The Government of God. God exercises a wise and benevolent providence over all beings and all things by maintaining the constitution and laws of nature. He also performs special acts, not otherwise provided for, as the highest welfare of men requires.
6. The Sinfulness of Man. Man was created innocent, but by disobedience fell into a state of sin and condemnation. His posterity, therefore, inherit a fallen nature of such tendencies that all who come to years of accountability, sin and become guilty before God.
7. The Work of Christ. The Son of God by His incarnation, life, sufferings, death, and resurrection effected for all a redemption from sin that is full and free, and is the ground of salvation by faith.
8. The Terms of Salvation. The conditions of salvation are:
 - (1) Repentance or sincere sorrow for sin and hearty renunciation of it.
 - (2) Faith or the unreserved committal of one's self to Christ as Savior and Lord with purpose to love and obey Him in all things. In the exercise of saving faith, the soul is renewed by the Holy Spirit, freed from the dominion of sin, and becomes a child of God.
 - (3) Continuance of faith and obedience unto death.
9. Election. God determined from the beginning to save all who should comply with conditions of salvation. Hence, by faith in Christ men become His elect.
10. Freedom of the Will. The human will is free and self-controlled, having power to yield to the influence of truth and the Spirit, or to resist them and perish.
11. Salvation Free. God desires the salvation of all, the Gospel invites all, the Holy Spirit strives with all, and whosoever will may come and take of the water of life freely.
12. Perseverance. All believers in Christ, who through grace persevere in holiness to the end of life, have promise of eternal salvation.
13. Gospel Ordinances. BAPTISM, or the immersion of believers in water, and the LORD'S SUPPER, are the ordinances to be perpetuated under the Gospel. FEET WASHING, an ordinance teaching humility, is of universal obligation, and is to be ministered to all true believers.

14. Tithing. God commanded tithes and offerings in the Old Testament; Jesus Christ endorsed it in the Gospel (Matt. 23:23), and the apostle Paul said, "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him" (1 Cor. 16:2a).

15. The Christian Sabbath. The divine law requires that one day in seven be set apart from secular employments and amusements, for rest, worship, holy works, and activities, and for personal communion with God.

16. Resurrection, Judgement, and Final Retribution. The Scriptures teach the resurrection of all men at the last day. Those who have done good will come forth to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation; then the wicked will "go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise, by His grace, to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship; and by self-denial, faith, and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel; nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that the kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
