Church Covenant

Having given ourselves to God¹, by faith in Christ², and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice³, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant⁴.

We promise, by His grace, to love and obey Him in all things⁵, to avoid all appearance of evil⁶, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world⁷, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages⁸, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men⁹."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures¹⁰, secret prayer¹¹, family devotions¹², and social worship¹³; and by self-denial, faith, and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ¹⁴."

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel¹⁵; nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work¹⁶.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace. To be careful of one another's happiness and reputation and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel¹⁷.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society¹⁸, constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven¹⁹.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises²⁰, the support of missions²¹, the success of Sunday School²², and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world²³. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ²⁴.

Rules of Decorum

1. After an introductory sermon is preached, the association shall be called together by the moderator who presided at the last session, former clerk also officiating until organized.

2. The Association shall be opened and closed by singing and prayer.

3. The Association, which assembled, shall be composed of all the ministers and delegates chosen by different churches comprising the body.

4. The officers of the Association shall consist of a moderator and a clerk to be chosen from the members present in any way the members see fit.

5. It shall be the duty of the moderator to preside over the body during the session for which he is elected, to call the next session to order and preside until re-organization is effected by the election and installation of his successor. It shall be his duty to keep order, enforce the rules of decorum, decide all questions on discipline, and in case of a tie, cast the deciding vote. He may speak on any subject but must call on some brother to preside while he is speaking.

6. It shall be the duty of the clerk to keep a minute of the proceedings and read the same when called upon by the body and shall prepare the minutes for publication unless the association shall appoint someone else for that purpose.

7. Each church is entitled to three delegates.

8. A majority of the members shall rule in all cases, except the admission of churches; then the vote must be a two-thirds majority.

9. No member shall absent himself from the house without leave from the moderator; and no member shall take final leave from Association without consent of the body.

10. All business shall be brought before the body by motion and seconded and be disposed of by good usage.

11. No person shall be allowed to speak more than twice on the same subject nor more than ten minutes each time without leave from the moderator.

12. No brother shall be interrupted while speaking unless he departs from the subject under discussion or uses words of personal reflection.

13. Only one person shall be allowed to speak at a time, and he must rise and address the moderator. In case two arise at the same time the first seen by the moderator shall be allowed to speak.

14. This decorum may be altered, amended or abridged at any session of the association by a majority of the members present.

15. Be it known that we, the Freewill Baptist being in the State of Alabama, do believe in the doctrine of general atonement; we have been baptized upon a profession of faith in Christ and we are desirous of bringing about a reciprocal union; we propose therefore to maintain order and rules of our association according to the following plan.

We believe the churches are mutually independent of each other that congregational form of church government should be invariably preserved. Yet we being convinced of unity of friendly intercourse and pious council of principles of union advantage and Christian love hold it a duty to the church to pay respect to these principles with regard to the duty of the association.

16. Resolved that the deacons and clerks of each church have a voice in the association as the delegates and ministers.

17. Resolved that the committee on character of ministers shall be ordained deacons.

Constitution and Articles of Faith

Article 1. The Association shall be composed of members chosen by the different churches in our union, who on producing letters from the respective churches certifying their appointment, shall be entitled to seats.

Article 2. The letters so produced shall express the condition of these churches respectively, that is, the number of members received, excluded or died since last Association.

Article 3. This body shall have no conceived power to lord it over God's heritage or infringe on any of the internal privileges or rights of the church in our union. But shall only be considered an advisory council in all things pertaining to the internal concerns of the churches.

Article 4. The Association is to give the best advice in all matters of difficulty. If the union is broken between any of the churches, the Association shall inquire into the cause of the breach and use its best endeavors to remove the difficulty. But if the breach cannot be healed, to withdraw from the churches which we may look upon as unsound in principle or disorderly in conduct or practice until they be reclaimed.

Article 5. To take up no case of any kind in the union without consent of a majority of the churches, and then only to give advice.

Article 6. All newly appointed churches may be received into the union by their representatives presenting a letter from their respective churches. If found orderly and orthodox such receptions be manifested by giving the right hand.

Article 7. We believe that it is pointedly against the law of Christ to make a church a legislative body. We, therefore, refuse to correspond with others in their respective bodies.

Article 8. For as much as the communion of the body and blood of Christ has become a matter of difficulty in many of the churches, we believe it to be free to all who can maintain a right by authority of the Word of God

Article 9. We believe in the general Resurrection of the dead and a universal judgement, and the joys of the righteous and the punishment of the wicked shall be eternal.

Article 10. We believe that none but ordained men have the right to administer baptism, and immersion is the apostolic mode.

Article 11. We believe that none but believers in Christ are fit subjects for baptism.

Article 12. We believe it is the duty of disciples of Christ to wash each others feet.

Article 13. I Corinthians, "and every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things." We recommend that we commit ourselves to temperance by: (1) Normal consumption of food, (2) By modest dress, (3) By total abstinence from all alcoholic beverages, (4) By using habit forming drugs only when necessary, (5) By practicing proper health habits.
