The Executive Committee of the Florida State Association met on Wednesday, May 5, 1999, at the Holiday Inn Convention Center in Deland, Florida.

1. The Committee recommends the following reports and the adoption of their budgets: Executive Secretary, The Coordinator, C.E. Board, Youth Board, Florida Mission Board, State Treasurer, Mission Shares, Budget Committee, and the Steering Committee.
2. Based on the projected shortfall of the '99 Budget, we recommend the attached contingency budget for the remainder of 1999 with its alternative financing ideas. The budget will revert back to the original '99 budget or will be pro-rated as the funds come in.
3. We recommend the adoption of the 2000 budget with a change on Line 715 - Alabama Children's Home to $2280 and adding Line 716 - Tennessee Family Ministries at $120.
4. We recommend that a budget committee be appointed by the Moderator with three members from the Executive Committee. The Committee will meet on the Tuesday evening before the State Meeting. The Standing Boards, Executive Office, The Coordinator, and the Steering Committee shall be required to submit their budgets and defend them to this committee. The proposed budgets would still be included in the compendium of reports and the Budget Committee will submit a general budget to the Executive Committee.
5. Constitutional Amendment: Article III Section 7
The Budget Committee will be appointed by the Moderator a year in advance. The committee will consist of three members from the Executive Committee and the State Treasurer will serve as an ex-officio member.

State Youth Ministries Report

The 1998 State Youth Conference registered 93 entries, involving over 100 participants from 11 churches. Florida Free Will Baptists were represented at the National Youth Conference by 44 entries which advanced to the competition in Tulsa. Ten individuals or groups were awarded first place.

The 1998 NYC theme was Faith Works. This theme was adapted for the Youth Missions Walk-A-Thon, Faith Walks. Our youth raised over $5,223.49 for Florida Missions Shares. In anticipation of the 2003 National FWB convention being hosted by the state of Florida, we have set a goal to raise $50,000 with the balance being presented at the National Association Meeting in Tampa. The theme for this project will be unveiled at the 1999 Florida State Youth Conference.

Bro. Randy Jackson attended the National FWB Youth Workers Retreat as our representative. He will be sharing some of the highlights of that meeting during a Youth Workers' Seminar at the State Meeting. It is a goal to equip and encourage our state youth workers by sponsoring attendance to this annual retreat.

Plans are underway to develop a State Youth Workers Retreat for the fall of 1999. A state-level youth program similar to the National Truth and Peace is also being investigated.

We have officially adopted the NYC Guidelines as the guidelines and fee schedule for the Florida State Youth Conference competition. The 1999 NYC theme is No Wall Too High.

We have met as a Board through conference calls held February 22, and April 4. We have been able to meet in person at the State Meeting. We have also been able to maintain frequent contact through e-mail.

The Executive Secretary's Report

Be glad in the Lord and rejoice, you righteous; and shout for joy all you upright in heart! (Psalm 32:11). Indeed 1998 was a year for rejoicing among Florida Free Will Baptists. As we continue to learn that our Lord has given each of us a specific ministry and that each of our ministries compliment the ministries of others we are also learning that together we can accomplish God's command to Florida Free Will Baptists.

We rejoice for the good things God has chosen to do with Florida Free Will Baptists during 1998. It is difficult to know where to start enumerating them. Briefly let me note that on a personal level you have proven again in 1998 that you are an association of brothers and sisters who care about your own. Margie and I, along with the rest of our family, deeply appreciate your kindness and love. Thank you!

REVIEW:

A brief review of some of the Executive Secretary's activities will be helpful.

Quarterly Conferences attended: 21

Miles traveled using the state owned vehicle: 17,605

Additional Miles: Approximately 3,000 miles were traveled in the State association's interest using my personal vehicle. No mileage was charged to the State. It was my personal decision to use my own vehicle at such times.

The budget for 1998: Through the faithfulness of our Florida pastors and people we were able to meet a cooperative budget of just over $100,000 and a Florida Mission Shares budget of $167,000.

1998 was also a year of loss. Our Lord saw fit to call pastor Danny Williamson home; retired pastor Bill George was also promoted to his eternal home along with retired pastor Woodrow Messex. We will indeed miss these men whom our Lord used in His kingdom as Free Will Baptist ministers. We pray that our pastors and their families enjoy good health and God's abundant blessings on the ministries in which He has chosen to place them.

1998 was also a year of going "full time" with the State Association. During 1998, I began divesting myself of the pastoral duties at the First FWB Church in Ocala. The church began actively searching for a new pastor. I remained on as the senior pastor, being responsible for the administrative affairs of the church, preaching weekly when I was in town, and making sure the pulpit was filled in my absence. As of today, I am no longer involved with the church except as a member, attending there when I am at home during service times. Margie continues to serve there with the music and other departments of the church. We also continue to tithe in the Ocala church. Our Interim pastor, Pastor James O. Butcher serves us well while the church searches for a permanent pastor. We believe it is stable and can continue to grow.

1998 saw an increase in calls to serve our churches and pastors as pastor and friend. I am thankful for the honor our Lord and you have shown me in allowing me this opportunity for service.

I am happy to report that our pastors across the state are coming together and catching the vision that together we can accomplish the very things God has in mind for Florida Free Will Baptists. So I repeat my theme again, "Together we can". This together spirit has been demonstrated by: The successful launching of the Florida Shares Program, consistent improvement in our Cooperative Giving, faithful and increasing participation in our program with Randall House, and improved communication and fellowship among our pastors and people. For all these things we give God praise and stand humbly before this body to say "thank you".

CURRENT:

While we look back with a sense of pride and genuine thanksgiving we must look reality squarely in the face. First, let's note our budgets for 1999.

Our general income budget (income through Cooperative giving primarily) for 1999 is $139,530.00. This is a very aggressive budget for our state, however I have no doubt that together we can meet this budget. It will require the faithful participation of all our people. The victory can be realized if we do not falter in our faith and commitment. But we must join hands, hearts and finances. The Florida Shares budget for the year is $169,776.00. This budget represents Florida's commitment to world evangelism. We have eight missionary families that are depending on us. They are: State missionaries Odis and Mary Nell Whitehead in Jacksonville and Jose and Mayday Rodriguez in Miami, along with foreign missionaries Anthony and Lea Edgmon, Sam and June McVay, Verlin and Debbie Anderson, and Dennis and Trena Owen. These four families are ambassadors for Christ and Florida Free Will Baptists in various foreign countries. In addition to these six families two other missionaries are depending upon us indirectly. They are: Pastor Jean Guerrier in Deerfield Beach. Pastor Guerrier is developing a Haitian FWB Church. They meet in the Deerfield Beach Church facilities. Pastor Omar Alfaro in Miami is developing a new Hispanic church. Pastor Alfaro is out of the Renecer mission church where Pastor Rodriguez is one of our Missionary Pastors.

When we combined the General Income Budget and the Florida Shares Budget we have a combined total budget for 1999 of $309,306.00. The State Association adopted these budgets last year here in Deland. At the present time we are falling short of the budget. However, I sincerely believe we can meet it and surpass it before the end of the year.

800 Shares at $18.00 per share per month will more than meet the Florida Shares Budget. The General Income Budget (Cooperative Giving) can easily be met as our Florida churches practice what we teach our people to do - tithe. I am urging you to take this message of need and success back to your church. God promises His blessing on those who obey His divine law of tithing.

As I travel the state I am finding a sweet spirit of cooperation with and consideration toward one another. It is through this continued spirit we shall "accomplish together what we cannot do alone". We are reminded that we are "laborers together with God". It is His work and we are His people. As we join hands and hearts together for the task under God we will complete it.

OUR FUTURE:

Where do we go from here? I would like to share with you some of my dreams for Florida Free Will Baptists. I realize that these are for the most part yet in the future. But I do believe that our Lord has a far greater ministry ahead for us that we can, through faith, dream for and work toward. So I share these things with you as food for thought and a dream to grasp.

SENIOR ADULTS:

We must develop an active and vibrant senior ministry for Florida Free Will Baptists. We will see the beginnings of this ministry in 1999. It is predicted that by the end of the year 2000 Florida will bump its way to be the third most populous state in the nation. A large percentage of these newcomers to Florida will be retirees. We must meet them with open hearts and arms with the Gospel.. Senior adults have much to offer. We dare not neglect them.

NEW CHURCHES AND MINISTRIES:

As one travels across Florida he will pass through areas that are barren lands so far as Free Will Baptists are concerned. We need new missions springing up all over Florida. This includes the coastlines and inland Florida. Over the past three years we have been privileged to work with new mission churches that laity as well as pastors have gone on their own to start. We need to pray for this to become an annual pattern. A combined effort of local churches and associations, the Florida Mission Board, and laity beginning new churches will produce churches for the Kingdom. Whether by full-fledged congregations or "house churches" we can evangelize and build churches.

NEW PASTORAL POSSIBILITIES: We also need a new vision for pastoral possibilities. For example we have smaller churches without pastors. In earlier years of our Denomination we had "circuit riding preachers". We don't have to reinvent the wheel, nor do we have to follow the same pattern of our earlier pioneers. But we can work together and so meet the needs of smaller churches in communities. Two churches could work together by simply rearranging service schedules to provide travel time, and one pastor could lead and minister to both churches. Both churches would have the benefit of a pastor and the pastor would not have to neglect either church and both churches would be mutually blessed and strengthened. Why not? Free Will Baptist churches have done this in past years when necessary. Some groups still do it today.

BOOKSTORE: There should be plans for a bookstore owned and operated by Florida Free Will Baptists in a central Florida city. Properly run such a store can meet the Christian supply needs of an entire community as well as help subsidize other Florida Free Will Baptist ministries. Most likely the store and the state office should be housed together.

MISSIONARY TRUST FUND: Items 5 and 6 will accomplish the same thing for the two ministries of the State Association. Briefly, the idea is to establish a trust fund for Florida missions. The principle of the trust fund would never be spent. Interest from the trust fund would be applied toward the salary and expenses of a state home missionary. Eventually the trust fund could build so that we could have a missionary on the field in Florida all the time regardless of any other ministries we may have. The missionary's salary would automatically be funded through the trust fund.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE TRUST FUND: I envision this fund to operate the same way the Missionary Trust Fund would operate (item 5). The vision is for there to eventually be enough funds in this trust to underwrite the expense of the state executive office thus freeing up cooperative and other funds for missions or other ministries of the state association in years to come.

A PHYSICAL STATE OFFICE: I purpose that we dream and plan for the time when Florida will have a state office building that our pastors and people can identify as theirs. It should provide a place for board meetings and even some conferences. Again this should probably be in connection with the state bookstore.

BIBLE INSTITUTES: We have a great need across the state to help provide the training needs of pastors and laity. This year we will see the beginning stages of this ministry developed. It is being developed through the ministry of the Christian Education Board. The goal is to provide training for laity and ministers who cannot pull up roots and move away to some distant place. If we so desire, such an arrangement can be worked in cooperation with one of our Bible Colleges. The institutes would be moveable in that they may meet for one semester in one church and move to another the next semester. I also, envision several operating across the state at the same time.

CROSS CULTURAL MINISTRIES: Florida is fast becoming a multi-cultural state. Doors are open to us to enter into mission fields we have not had opportunity to enter before. I am presently attempting to establish a working relationship with black Free Will Baptists in Florida. I have also taken steps to find Russian Baptists in Florida. The Russian Baptists are Free Will Baptists in Doctrine. They and we can benefit from united efforts. The Asian community is opening to us. The time is ripe for Florida Free Will Baptists to aggressively seek to enter into other cultures in Florida and establish a beachhead for Christ among them. I am thankful for the opening in Deerfield Beach for us to begin ministering to and with the Haitian Community. Other such opportunities will continue to open.

These are dreams for the future. Some are attainable in the foreseeable future. Others will take time. But until our Lord comes we must forge ahead in the establishment of His kingdom in Florida.

The Florida State Executive Secretary's job description as adopted by the State Association is:

LOCAL CHURCH MINISTRY

Provide pastoral care for pastors

Equip Florida Free Will Baptists

Develop and maintain ministry resources

Assist churches without pastors

PROMOTIONAL MINISTRY

Advance State Ministries

Encourage unity among Florida Free Will Baptists

Assist in special projects

Public relations agent

ADMINISTRATIVE MINISTRY

Oversee day to day operations

Collect and maintain directory information

Assist all state boards

Ambassador to local associations

COMMUNITY MINISTRY

State editor and publisher

Represent the State to the National Associations of Free Will Baptists

Communicate denominational information to Florida Free Will Baptists

Enhance communications among churches

The Executive Secretary is attempting to be available in all these areas and to perform ministries in them as need and opportunity arise. In order to function in these areas fully the Executive Secretary must:

Be alerted to needs and opportunities.

Have necessary funds with which to operate.

Have a heart that beats for all Florida Free Will Baptists.

Capability to follow through as needs and opportunities arise.

Presently I search for opportunities and needs, sometime pushing doors open that are actually closed. God has honored these attempts. We are very careful about how we spend the money available. Perhaps at times I am slow to act because I keep looking for a "better deal" or a time when money will not be quite as tight. We are dependent upon our churches for these finances. Without question, my heart beats for a growing, anointed, aggressive Free Will Baptist ministry all over Florida. My heart often aches for that hurting pastor who feels left standing alone when things are not going well in his local church. And for that bi-vocational pastor who does not have the opportunity to be as active in ministries outside his local church as he would like. These pastors often feel alone and unimportant. The loneliest place in the world is most likely in the heart of a pastor who hurts for the fellowship and company of other pastors, or sometimes, just his congregation. Finally, this body decides whether or not I have the capability to perform the responsibilities assigned to this office satisfactorily. Thank you for allowing me to be part of this great work of God in Florida.

THE 1998 COORDINATOR REPORT

The Coordinator is mailed directly into the homes of Florida Free Will Baptists. We do not charge a subscription price for the Coordinator. It is paid for compliments of Florida churches and individuals who support the Florida State Association ministries through the Cooperative plan of support.

Four issues of the Coordinator were published during 1998. At that time our total mailing list had risen to approximately 1800 "subscribers". Thus far in 1999 we have accumulated a mailing list of approximately 2300 people. Our goal is to get the Coordinator into every Free Will Baptist home in Florida.

Again in 1999 we will publish the Coordinator quarterly. I suggest that we return it to a bi-monthly publication in 2000.

The Coordinator is an expense to the State Association. I prefer calling it an investment. It will surely pay dividends as we continue to improve it. This we anticipate doing in the following ways:

By including photos.

By continued improvement in layout and eye-appeal.

By adding articles of special interests in each issue.

A laity section to be entitled "Dear Mr. Eutycus".

A section of interest to pastors entitled "The Free Will Baptist Pulpit"

Gaining more information from the local church to be included in the Florida news sections.

Publishing more about Florida based missionaries and Florida Shares.

In order to take some of the pressure off the budget we plan to seek appropriate advertising for the Coordinator.

In addition to the Coordinator, we include in this report information on www.fwbfsa.org. This is the Florida State Association internet website. We began the website with no experience on the internet two years ago. As we have opportunity we continue to improve the site in appearance and content. Our goal is to provide a first class website that represents Florida Free Will Baptists in the best possible light.

We have paid out no money for the production of the site. It has been developed by trial and error. I am happy to report that FWBFSA.ORG is now a top rated site by several search engines. This means we are recognized on the web in a positive way. Neither have we paid out any money for the purchase, maintenance, hosting the website, or the email address that is attached to the website: mcsasser@fwbfsa.org. This has all been paid for by the Executive Secretary. This is not pointed out for recognition but simply to let you know that it has not been included in our budget. The Association does not pay for my AOL telephone hookup so that as many of our people as may need to may communicate with me when I am on the road. My AOL email address is flfwb@aol.com. This address has recently been established to identify me with Florida Free Will Baptists.

Recently in connection with the website we began publishing "FWBFSA ENEWS". This is an email newsletter. There is no charge for this electronic newsletter. Email is an inexpensive way for those who have the equipment to communicate almost daily or as needed.

As we move into the twenty first century Florida Free Will Baptists will do well to be on the cutting edge of the "information highway". Our attempt has been simply to take advantage of a means of going global with the Gospel message.

For those who wish to do so, you can now easily order your Church and Sunday School supplies from the Florida website. We will be happy to demonstrate how during this meeting. Our website address is: www.fwsbfsa.org.

Christian Education Board

This has been an exciting year. The Christian Education Board has two new members who have added real depth to the board. We have really explored our role and how we can serve our churches even better. We want to bring Christian education back to the forefront of our thinking in our local churches.

Our board met together in the fall to do some long range planning. We came up with a five year plan that we would submit as part of our report. The five year goal is a guideline that we would like to use as a road map. We may spend a little more time developing some areas and less in others. It is meant to be a fluid set of goals that will offer us direction but gives us flexibility.

Please notice that we are building our plans around one major theme. Our theme will be to focus on one of the greatest potential outreach areas of the local church. It is one of the most overlooked opportunities, the Sunday School. Very few churches really have an effective Sunday School that benefits the church, its members and the outreach of the church.

Our state has petitioned and been selected to become a pilot program. In this program, Florida will become a state where Sunday School is a priority. This is a chance of rare proportions. We are offering the best training available anywhere to all Sunday School teachers, superintendent, directors, and pastors. This training will be conducted by the staff of the ETA, Evangelical Training Association. The ETA will come to Florida for a statewide Sunday School conference to equip us in effective Sunday Schools. This will be promoted by our state, the ETA, and eight trainers (four for the panhandle and four for south/central area). These trainers will be lay people not pastors, because lay people are the backbone of our long term success in the church. The ETA will commit to an ongoing mentoring and training of these individuals to make them specialists in their areas. The goal is for the trainers to train others at the local association level. The local association trainers in turn will train a set of trainers at the church level.

In the long term aspect of our state, we can realize growth in our churches and state by growing our Sunday Schools. While we can only plant so many churches because of funds, we can always pursue more growth in our established churches. The State Christian Educational Ministries is committed to a large task, but one worthy of all of our support. We will need the financial support of the associations. We ask that our associations and churches to send us their teachers and superintendents to the conference in hopes that some of them will become our state trainers. They will all return to the local church better equipped for their role in Sunday School.

The Christian Educational Ministries offered and conducted an exceptional ministers' retreat in March. Our speakers did an outstanding job, the setting was overwhelmingly embraced by those looking for a real retreat atmosphere. Plans for next years retreat are ongoing and we want you to reserve your spot early.

You will notice a list materials available to you in the Coordinator. These are part of our state library and the only cost for you to check them out is postage. Check them out, use them, and return them for others. If your church has used a program, or set of materials and can donate it to the state library then see one of our board members.

We have promoted and solicited writers and recipients of Free Will Baptist e-mail devotions. After prioritizing the use of our time, the time of the writers and overall solicitation, we will table this project with the potential to come back to it later.

Our board is pleased to announce that a new Bible institute, The Emerald Coast Bible Institute, is opening in the panhandle. Our board has reviewed their vision and projected plan, and have given them some funding to assist their endeavor. Thanks to several men for their vision, development, and for bringing this to reality.

Thank you for your support of the back bone of our church mandate, to make disciples. Christian Education in your church is how that is done.

Mission Board Report

With a population of 14 million people and only 70 Free Will Baptist Churches, Florida is a state with great mission needs. From the panhandle to the farthest reaches of South Florida, we have cities and towns without a Free Will Baptist witness. While we are grateful for the presence of other evangelical groups in these towns, we are keenly aware that no city in our state is over evangelized, and every city needs to hear the message that Free Will Baptists have to offer. Our challenge is to pray that God will raise up men to the cities of our state to reach them with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Our board is committed to praying that God will raise up the men and the means that are needed for us to plant churches across our state.

1998 was a good year for our mission works. Bro. Curtis Alligood and the people at Bayshore Church have just realized a major goal by attaining self supporting status in February of this year. God has used Bro. Curtis in a miraculous way to raise the funds to pay off the indebtedness and allow this church to be self supporting. Bro. Curtis and his wife Laverne are to be commended for their faithfulness and dedication to this work over the past 8 years. In Miami, Jose Rodriquez and the congregation at Renacer continue to make strides toward self supporting status. They have reduced the amount of support that our board has been supplying on a consistent basis. They are hopeful of being self supporting sometime in the year 2000. The work they have done is outstanding, and the success is a tribute to the leadership of Bro. Jose.

Bro. Odis Whitehead continues to lead the Faith Chapel Church in Jacksonville toward eventual self supporting status. He and the congregation there are developing plans to become entirely independent of any outside financial need. The church continues to see solid growth, both financial and numeric. Additionally, Bro.

Tommy Capps, Bro. Odis' son-in-law has, with Bro. Odis' blessings begun a new work in another area of Jacksonville. It is a tribute to the Faith Chapel Church that its people are concerned about reaching people and beginning new churches.

Omar Alfaro and Jean Guerrier continue to reach the Cuban and Haitian communities in Homestead and Deerfield Beach respectively. These men, both of whom are tentmakers, receive a small monthly subsidy through the Florida Shares Plan. Their faithfulness in proclaiming the gospel while in a bi-vocational setting is to be commended.

Our board has been looking very hard at beginning a new mission work. We have looked at potential areas, and we have talked with someone about serving with us as a state missionary. We had hoped to be able to give you a place and an individual at this meeting, but unfortunately the individual we had hoped to present to you has decided to remain where he is for the present time. We ask you to join with us in praying that God will send us the man we need as a missionary to our state.

Thank you for the privilege of representing you in mission work in this state. Our board urges you to be a supporter of missions, both in your prayer life, and through your giving to the Florida Mission Shares Plan. By giving and praying, we can accomplish more together than we can separately.

Florida Missions Shares Report

In 1997 the Florida State Association officially adopted the Florida Mission Shares Plan. The plan was designed to raise support for foreign missionaries from our state and for home missionaries within our state. The state adopted the plan and directed the state Home Mission Board to administer the program.

When the plan was begun we realized that this was a totally different approach to raising missions support. The primary goal of the plan was to take the burden of fundraising off of the individual missionaries and place that responsibility on the shoulders of those of us within the state. A secondary goal of the plan was to shift our focus away from giving to individual missionaries, and replace that with a commitment to give to missions. In addition, we wanted to make it possible for every church in our state to be a part of world missions outreach.

The 1998 budget called for $135,000 to support Florida Missions in the state and around the world. Through the giving of our people, we met the challenge and made it possible for our missionaries to focus more on ministry and less on finances. 1998 saw us give $30,000 to the Owen family in Uruguay, $8774 to the Edgmons in Spain, $21,284 to the McVays in Spain, and $9696 to the Andersons in Ivory coast.

In the state we helped Jose Rodriguez and Odis Whitehead by contributing $6250 and $12,000 respectively to help with their mission mortgage payments. Additionally we contributed $10,000 toward debt reduction for each of these two mission works. We gave salary support to Jose in the amount of $13,200, and we gave salary subsidy to two of our tentmaker missionaries, Jean Guerrier and Omar Alfaro. Each of these men received $2000 from our program in 1998.

The people of our state are to be commended for the way they have responded to this new concept in missions support. We encourage every church to be a part of the Mission Shares Program and be a part of spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ to people here in Florida and around the world.

Steering Committee Report

The Steering Committee reviewed various proposals from hotels in Jacksonville, Orlando, Ocala, and Daytona Beach for the 2000 and 2001 State Meetings. After reviewing all the Proposals and inspecting several locations, we recommend that we contract with the Holiday Inn, DeLand, for the 2000 and 2001 State Meetings. Location, prices, complimentary policy and compatibility were all considered.

The 2000 meeting, to be held on May 10-13, will be at a rate of $64 per room. The May 9-12, 2001 meeting will be for a rate of $66 per room. The meeting space for both years will be complimentary.
