Executive Committee Report

The State Executive committee met on May 8 and 9, 2001 at the Holiday Inn in DeLand. The Committee would like to present the following items:

1. We have heard the reports from the State Treasurer, the the Executive Office, which includes "The Coordinator" and Resource Manager, the Youth Board, the Christian Education Board, the Mission Board, Mission Shares, the Steering Committee, the Planning Committee, the Budget Committee and OASIS. We recommend acceptance of their reports.
2. We considered item 10 of the 2000 Executive Committee Report in which we were directed to explore the full-time status of our Executive Secretary. A compensation package was suggested that totals $62,000. This would be divided as follows: Salary-$32,000; Housing-$18,000; Retirement-$6,000; and Insurance-$6,000. These additional expenses for the office are expected as well: Auto Expense and Depreciation - $7,800; Travel

Expense - $4,800; Telephone - $2,400; National Association Expense - $1,800; Office Rent - $20,000; Office Equipment - $4,000; Office Supplies - $6,000; Miscellaneous - $480; Secretarial Help - $5,280; Promotions - $4,800. The total expense of a full-time Executive Secretary will be $119,360.00.

In discussing how to fund a full-time Executive Secretary, the Committee considered a number of possibilities. We offer three possibilities:

1. Requiring each church in the Florida State Association to Co-op 10% to the State Association.
2. Requiring each church in the State Association to contribute to Co-op at $50 per member in each church.

The Florida Statistics on page 48 of the 2000 Digest of Reports indicate a total membership in Florida Free Will Baptist churches of 5,972. Multiplying the total membership by $50 per member would generate $298,600.00

3. The Executive Secretary is an essential link in promoting and generating funds for the Mission Shares Plan. Compensation to the Executive Secretary for his work could be built into the Shares budget.
3. We recommend that we allow only individuals representing ministries accountable to our State Association to address the Body during our Business Sessions. Accountable should be defined as our State having a board member or voting on its board members.
4. Since our State-owned car now has 136,000 miles on it, we recommend that the Executive Secretary get the car inspected by a reputable mechanic and have needed repairs done.

The Planning Committee is authorized to purchase vehicle.

5. We recommend that we pay the expenses of the sound technician and that we give $150 honorarium to the person in charge of the registration on an on-going basis each year.
6. We recommend that we send the "Resolution Concerning One National Magazine" to the National Association for their consideration. (Resolution attached)
7. We recommend the adoption of the attached 2002 State Budget and the Total Ministries Budget. (the State Treasurer and Executive Secretary are given the option of moving Item 752 to Item 751.)
8. We recommend that we allot $1,008 for OASIS reimbursements for this year.

Resolution: One National Magazine

Whereas, six Free Will Baptist national agencies (Executive Office, Home Missions Department, Foreign Missions Department, Master's Men Department, Free Will Baptist Bible College, and the Sunday School and Church Training Department) print magazines or newsletters and distribute them to the denominational constituency, and,

Whereas, five of these National magazines/newsletters are mailed free to subscribers (AIM, Heartbeat, Master's Men Newsletter, Bible College Bulletin, and Outreach), while one is mailed to a paid subscription list (Contact), and,

Whereas, the cost of producing, printing and mailing these publications continues to rise each year,

Therefore, to avoid needless duplicating of mailing list, and in the interest of denominational stewardship, departmental cooperation and a spirit of unity,

Be it resolved that the National Association moderator appoint a five-person Publications Committee from the ranks of those knowledgeable in the field of publishing, from various states, to study the feasibility of printing one enlarged national monthly magazine with sections in the publication that incorporate material from each national agency, that the publication be mailed complimentary to subscribers, and,

Be It Further Resolved that the national agencies along with their director and editors be instructed to provide the Publications Committee unlimited access to their financial files and editorial schedules, that the directors and editors be instructed to meet with the Publications Committee as needed, and,

Be It Finally Resolved that the Publications Committee report it's findings and recommendations to the delegates at the July 21-25, 2002 session of the National Association of Free Will Baptists which meets in Memphis, Tennessee.

State Youth Ministries Report

The most memorable event of the year 2000 was not the complete meltdown of worldwide computer systems and the end of life as we knew it. The highlights for the Florida Youth Board include a Youth Workers Seminar for the newly formed Citrus Association at the Zion FWB Church in Sanford, FL; Seeing twenty-nine of the forty-six CTS entries advance to the National competition; Participating in the Operation Saturation in Jacksonville and Miami; Taking a group photo of 30 Florida youth at the National Convention in Anaheim; and fellowshiping with over 70 youth workers at the Youth Workers' Retreat in Ocala.

The theme for the 2000 State Youth Conference was Press Toward the Goal. Bro. Stewart-Allen Clark presented this challenge during the Youth Rally. Bro. Eddie Payne & Bro. Ryan McDougald presented the opportunity that was available through youth missions programs. Bro. Charlie Elliott shared insights that were gleaned from the National Youth Workers' Conference. This year's SYC theme is GO! No Reserves, No Retreats, No Regrets. Bro. Sam McVay will be our Rally Speaker.

The 2nd Annual Youth Workers' Retreat was held at the Ramada Inn in Ocala. Sam and June McVay shared practical ways to promote youth ministry & outreach and provided inspiring report of their work in Spain.

We are excited about the development of the regional Christian Workers' Conference, which will combine the events sponsored by the Youth Board and the Christian Education Board. There will be a top quality Christian training program within 200 miles of every FWB Church in Florida.

The members of the Youth Board are grateful for the opportunity to serve our state and it's youth. We trust God will continue to bless our efforts to train workers and help challenge youth to be faithful servants of Jesus Christ.

Executive Secretary's Report

The last 12 months have been months of transition. The responsibilities for the Executive Office were divided among three individuals, each one being responsible for specific areas of ministry. The approach seems to be working smoothly, and I believe that the ministry of the State Office continues to meet the needs of our churches and people.

Special attention needs to be directed to Danny Conn and Ron Hunter's work with the Coordinator. We have as good a state paper as exists within our ranks. These two men have brought their expertise to this project and have developed a paper that is not only informative, but also attractive and highly readable. They are to be commended.

In addition to the revamping of the Coordinator, we took another unprecedented step forward. Florida became the first state in the history of our movement to publish a version of their state paper in a language other than English. With Mrs. Lucy Hyman serving as translator, we have begun publishing the Coordinator in Spanish as well as English. The members of the Hispanic Association have received this innovation with open arms. This step allows us to minister more effectively to our Hispanic brothers, and opens doors of communication even wider. We continue to seek other ways to work more closely with our Spanish-speaking brothers. There is a great deal they can contribute to our state ministries.

Randy Bryant is doing a good job with the Resource Center. Use Randy's office to order your curriculum and study materials. Purchases made through the Resource Center financially benefit state ministries. He can order not only from Randall House, but also from any major publisher. He is also our state resource person for ETA materials. In addition, he manages the resource library that is available to you on a loan basis. We encourage you to take advantage of the resources your state has to offer.

My primary responsibility has been to travel and promote the ministries of our state. The boards of our state continue to find new and innovative ways to increase their ministries to our people, and my job is to represent them to the people of our state. The response of our people has been gratifying. There is an increased awareness that our state association exists to serve the Free Will Baptist people and Churches of this state, and people are becoming more enthusiastic about what can be accomplished through our combined efforts. A special note of thanks is due to the moderators of our associations who have been so gracious to give me time in their meetings to talk about the ministry opportunities that exist for us.

As I've traveled among us this past year I've been more impressed by our similarities than I have been surprised by our differences. We may have different approaches to ministry, we may sing different types of music, and we may express ourselves differently in worship, but the core values are the same: We want to see the lost saved, and we want to see Christians grow into the likeness of Christ. It is around these common goals that we can unite, and it is for these goals that we can work together.

One question I am frequently asked in my meeting with associations and churches is, "When are we going to have a full time Executive Office?" My answer to that has taken various forms, but the essence of the answer is, "When we decide we want it badly enough to pay for it." The fact is that a full time office and Executive Secretary will require significant funding. The decision about whether or not we will have a full time man in that position will not be made by the Executive Committee, or even by this body, but will ultimately be made by the churches of our state. If the position is to exist, the churches are the ones who will provide the funds for it.

If you are among those who want a full time position, I have two suggestions: (1) Make your feelings known to your Executive Committee member. He is your representative on the group who will make recommendations to this body about this position. (2) Lead your church and association to give to Florida Free Will Baptist Ministries.

Thank you for the opportunity you have given me to work with you. This past year has been one of the most enjoyable of my ministry. I trust that in the years ahead we can see more accomplished for the cause of Christ.

Finally, let me say a word of thanks to the First Free Will Baptist Church of Chipley. They are a kind, gracious, and generous people. They have given me the freedom to pursue this ministry among Florida Free Will Baptists, and I will forever be in their debt for their willingness to allow me the privilege of working with our State. Their commitment to the cause of Christ and strengthening of our state work is real. For their patience and understanding I will be eternally grateful.

State Resource Manager Report

The Resource Office of the Florida State Association continues to handle your orders for Sunday School and other materials from Randall House Publications. The first three quarters of Sunday School orders reflect an average of 20 churches ordering through our office with average expenditures of $5,300 per quarter.

We would like to encourage more of our churches to order through our State office or order on the Sunday School order form provided with our name on them. This will insure that your state will receive a commission on those orders.

Please be reminded that this office continues to handle the material for Evangelical Training Association. If you have or are planning to have a Bible Institute or need training materials for your church, please consider this material. There are several ETA items on display by our table for you to preview.

In addition to the orders handled through this office, various materials are available for your church to use. These materials include:

- Evangelistic Letters for Believer's Use
- Principles of Successful Stewardship - John Maxwell
- Gaining Personal Financial Freedom - John Maxwell
- The Church and Ministry By-Laws Manual
- How To Protect Pastors, Staff, & Board Members From Liability
- Lay Ministry Training Seminar

Christian Education Ministries Report

It was with great sadness that we said "good-bye" to Ron Hunter this year. Ron moved to Nashville, Tennessee, where he is ministering in the Cofer's Chapel Free Will Baptist Church. Ron was the chairman of the Christian Education board, and did most of the work. When he left, we found that there was much to do that Ron had done previously. I trust that this report will make sense. The following is a synopsis of this past year's activities.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONFERENCE:

This past year we held our second annual Sunday School Conference. The Sunday School is a vital part of God's work in the local church. Through the Sunday School many souls have been saved, Christians have been trained and taught the Word of God, and believers have established a strong bond with other members of the church family by the fellowship found there.

God's work is worthy of the greatest effort that we can give. Certainly, training seminars will help us in that effort. The purpose of the Sunday School Conference is to instruct; to motivate; and encourage those working in this vital area of our church ministries.

We changed the location of the conference to Ocala to make it more accessible to the entire state. There were over 100 who attended the conference, but fewer than we had the previous year.

For our instructors we brought in Joe Wilson, minister of Christian Education in the Donelson FWB Church in Nashville; Susan Jones, who works in Children's ministry; and Keith Kenemer, from ETA. They had much to share with us and they were faithful in their ministering to us in that area.

After the meeting the C.E. Board met and after evaluation and discussion concerning the seminar, we realized that much of the instruction could also be related to the Youth Ministry. We decided to talk to the Florida Youth Board and determine if we could combine our seminar with the youth seminar that they hold. This way we would not be crossing over into each other's area. When we presented this matter to them, they were excited also about this project and we jointly met and worked out the details for this joint effort, which will be presented to you at this year's state meeting.

MINISTER'S RETREAT

February 27-28 we met in Crystal River for a valuable time of rest, fun, fellowship, and instruction. There were 14 ministers that joined us, which was fewer than in recent years, but it was a great chance to enjoy one another's company and to gain valuable lessons from the three speakers: Randy Bryant, who spoke of the importance of church government and record keeping; David Williford who spoke on the pastor and his family; and Tom Collins, who spoke on the pastor and his finances. Every pastor who attended expressed the need for such instruction and their thanks for receiving it. I truly wish this information could be available to every pastor in our state.

The pastors in attendance gave suggestions for next year's retreat, which would include the pastor's wife. Please make every effort to attend. We will have some new and exciting events for the next retreat. Every church will benefit greatly by sending their pastor and wife to this retreat. So churches, we urge you to pay their way and send them with your blessing.

Mission Board Report

This past year has been one filled with blessings and disappointments. The annual Home Mission trip, as always, was the highlight of the year. The board was blessed to have as our guest pastors from around the state. The trip began in Ocala where we met and boarded the bus. From there we visited the property in Gainesville where we hope to have a new work in the near future. From there we traveled to Jacksonville and met with Bro. Tommy Capps and the people from Cornerstone Free Will Baptist Church. From Jacksonville it was on to Homestead. There we enjoyed the hospitality and fellowship of Missionary Pastor Omar Alfaro and his congregation. The next day it was on to Lehigh Acres, a suburb of Ft. Myers. We were given a tour of the city, compliments of Dennis and Mary Ann Matthews. We are thankful for this faithful family who have been having services in their house in hopes of one day having a Free Will Baptist Church in their community. We returned to Ocala and the conclusion of the 2000 Florida Home Mission Trip.

The board in, cooperation with the state, held four area wide meetings. The areas were: Northwest (Panama City), East Coast (Cocoa Beach), Central (Tampa), and Hispanic (Miami). Each Pastor and his wife were invited to attend. The emphasis of the meeting was Florida Mission Shares. The video, "The Harvest" was shown and we were all challenged to take part in our Lord's Great Commission. We want to especially thank our State Promotional Secretary, David Williford, for the tremendous help he gave in this project.

Brother Omar Alfaro continues to labor in the Homestead area of South Florida. The work continues to grow. This year the church increased their contribution to the pastor's salary and started giving to the state co-op.

Brother Tommy Capps resigned as a missionary in January 2001. Pray for Brother Tommy as he continues to labor in the Mandarin area of Jacksonville. There is certainly great potential for a strong Free Will Baptist Church in this thriving community.

The board has not financially supported Brother Jean Guerrier for a number of months. Brother Jean, after repeated attempts by the board via registered mail, failed to communicate. Also, he is continuing to meet in the Cornerstone Community Baptist Church, formerly First Free Will Baptist Church in Deerfield Beach. The board informed Brother Jean that in order for support to continue there must be communications (via monthly reports) and that another meeting place is secured.

In March Brother Jack Cowart came on board as a tentmaker missionary to the Lynn Haven area of Panama City. Brother Jack has extensive experience in church planting and evangelism. Pray that God will bless him as he labors in Lynn Haven.

Also, in March a prospective missionary was interviewed for a new work in Gainesville. It is hopeful that by the reading of this report an announcement can be made.

Brother Donnie Hussey has resigned as a Mission Board member in order that he may concentrate his efforts on his church. His sweet and cooperative spirit will be greatly missed. Our prayers are with him as he continues his labor for the Lord.

The Mission Board thanks you for the privilege of serving you in the area of missions. We encourage your prayers and support as we see God's will for missions in Florida.

Steering Committee Report

The Steering Committee entertained proposals for the 2002 and 2003 State Meetings. We received a total of seventeen proposals in writing and several other verbally. Site inspections were performed at eight different properties to determine the suitability for hosting our meetings.

After studying the proposals and inspecting the properties, the Steering committee voted unanimously to accept the proposal from the Jacksonville Marriott for the 2002 and 2003 meetings. After extensive negotiations, we were able to secure this first class property that is located on the south side of Jacksonville. Guest rooms, which normally rent for $149 per night, will be contracted for $75 per night for each year. The meeting space will be complimentary as well. The dates for these meetings will be

May 8-11, 2002 and May 14-17,2003.

We encourage you to book with this hotel during our State Meeting. You may be able to find cheaper rooms close by, but by going elsewhere you will be hurting your State Association, not necessarily the hotel. Even though complimentary meeting space is very rare, it is being offered to us due to the total number of guest rooms we book.

3. That in order to reinforce our position of living a holy life, we encourage our leaders to intentionally teach and influence others to live according to the principles of the Word of God.
4. Be it Resolved, as the Holiday Inn in Deland has adequately met the needs of our State Association for the past four years, we issue a letter of gratitude for their hospitality.
