

THE FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH... PUBLISHED WEEKLY... FREEWILL BAPTIST PUB. CO.

THE FREE WILL BAPTIST

"LET BROTHERLY LOVE CONTINUE."

Vol. 12, Ormondville, N. C., Wednesday, Sept. 21, 1892, No. 8.

LIST OF SUBSCRIPTIONS IN ADVANCE... ADVERTISING RATES... For larger advertisements, liberal con-

J. M. MEWBORN, Pres. E. F. DALL, Vice-Pres. BOARD OF DIRECTORS...

AGENTS FOR THE FREEWILL BAPTIST... Elders: A. A. Tyson, D. Davis, P. T. Lucas, W. W. Lewis, J. T. Phillips, Charles Gray, H. B. Moore, W. H. Staugler, R. F. Hill, Jesse Bennett and R. K. McCaskey.

DIRECTORY... J. W. Blount, Editor of the Evening Post, C. A. Lasswell, Register of Deeds, John Sugg, Treasurer, B. W. Edwards, Sheriff, Sidney A. Kerbuck, Sergeant, Jas. B. Jones, Coroner, Dr. E. H. Stagg, Agent of Insure, Fred. L. Williams, State Pub. Inspector, A. J. A. McWhorter, Y. T. Crawford and E. A. Darden, Bank of the Mountains, COMMISSIONERS, Wm. J. Best, Chairman, G. W. Sugg, and Hugh Dixon.

LAST CHANCE... VALUE $1.75 FOR NOTHING... The time is now 2:00 P.M. which means that only 30 minutes remain for the sale of the last copy of the book.

V. MORRIS, ATTORNEY AT LAW, SNOW HILL, N. C. Will practice in the courts of Greene, Pitt, Lenoir, Wayne and Wilkes counties, also in the Federal court at Newbern.

PIANOS AND ORGANS... FREE... The Jewell Piano House, Knoxville, Tenn.

H. SUGG, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON, SNOW HILL, N. C. Office at the residence of Shadrach Johnson.

CHRISTMAS PLAYS... REGITATIONS FOR CHRISTMAS... The Jewell Publishing House, 203 St. Steel, N. Y.

FINE GUNS... DAILY HARMLESS... $3.50 PER DAY FOR ALL WINTER... MARY'S WAREHOUSE, 14 and 16 Chambers Street, New York.

I WANT A LADY AGENT... Mrs. E. V. O'BURN, Chattanooga, Tenn.

(GLORY) When I set out for glory, Left the world behind, Determined for a city, That out of sight to find, And to glory I will go, And to glory I will go, I'll go, And to glory I will go.

I left my worldly honor, Left my worldly name, I left my gay companions, and with them my good name, And to glory I'll go, &c.

Some said I'd better tarry, They thought I was too young, For to prepare for dying, And that was all my theme, And to glory, &c.

Come all my loving brethren, And listen to my cry, All you that are backsliders, Must shortly lag or die, And to begging I will go, &c.

The Lord, he loves the beggar, Who truly begs indeed, His ways will relieve him, When e'er he stands in need, And to begging I will go, &c.

I do not beg for riches, Nor to be dressed fine, The garment that he gives me, The sun, it will outshine, And to begging I will go, &c.

I'm not ashamed to beg, While here on earth I stay, I'm not ashamed to watch, I'm not ashamed to pray, And to begging I will go, &c.

The richest man I ever saw, Was one that begged the most, His soul was filled with Jesus, And with the Holy Ghost, And to begging I will go, &c.

And how we're encouraged, Come let us travel on, Let us go to the city, And sing the holy song, And to glory I will go, &c.

FOUR HUNDRED YEARS... Columbus left Spain Aug. 3, 1492, knowing nothing of America. He was in search of what is now the liveliest half of our world.

How vast the changes of 400 years! The Red man is gone from the greater part of our territory. The French and the British are gone, slavery is gone, Russia has lost hold of this part of the globe, and here in our Union of States, and for more than a hundred years, liberty to serve God has been allowed to all who wish it.

and God's hand was in the work, even in the naming of the old sailor who bore the name of Christ, and his hand is in the work yet. What more is still to come no human tongue can tell.

But all of us should be alive and looking, getting ready for the coming of God's Son, another time, not now to be mocked at, but as a King to rule the nations with a rod of iron. Rev. 2: 27 And the signs of his coming are reported almost everywhere. There are earthquakes in various parts of the earth, wars threatened and arranged for, even if they do not come. There are pestilences in nearly all parts of the earth, with an increase of sin, drunkenness, and adultery all the while. Would it not be wisdom for all men to make peace with God while time is allowed? Let us all wake up and try to glorify God's name in hearing and obeying his Son. It is to help the coming of that kingdom that shall never end.

SUNDAY SELECTIONS... The immortality of the soul is a universal instinct and desire of the human race.—Dr. Schaaf.

—When fair words and good counsel will not prevail on us, we must be frightened into our duty.—L. Estrange.

—Truth can hardly be expected to be crooked policy and wily artifices of worldly affairs. Truth like light, travels in straight lines.—Colton.

—There is in godliness a penetrating power that nothing can withstand. Cunning malice melt away before its mild, open, steady glance.—Gail Hamilton.

—The faith of the gospel is that emotion of the mind which is called "trust," or "confidence" exercised toward the moral character of God, and a particular reliance on His Son.—Dwight.

There are minds which must be consoled with doubt before they can repose in faith. There are hearts which must be broken with disappointment before they can rise into hope.—Robertson.

Good thoughts are blessed guests, and should be heartily welcomed, well fed and much sought after. Like rose leaves, they give out a sweet smell if laid up in the jar of memory.—Spurgeon.

Neither philosophy nor pleasure can avail anything in the chamber of death; the taper of the one is too faint for so oppressive a gloom, and the torch of the other burns sickly in so unwonted an atmosphere.—Melville.

I never was deeply interested in any object, I never prayed sincerely for anything, but it came at sometime; no matter how distant a day, sometime, in some shape, probably the last I should have devised, it came.—Adoniram Judson.

sewing was some of my work. Annotated by that grand thought, he stitched away like a hero, determined to do his humble work well for the sake of others. From that time on he embodied his calling, as everyone may do who has the spirit of the Master. He has made his work living.—Sch.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U.S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

They that make the glory of God their end, and the Word of God their rule, the Spirit of God the guide of their affections, and the providence of God the guide of their affairs, may be confident that the Lord goes before them as truly as He went before Israel in the wilderness, though not so sensibly.—Henry.

The daughter's purity is safe whose Christian mother shares every secret of her heart; that son's character is judged about, who has for his most confidential friend a Christian father. They are in danger who wear a mask in the presence of kind parents, and uncover the heart and inner life only to those who have no right to such confidences.—United Presbyterian.

We see the statement frequently made of the effects of a sermon: "He captured the audience." The question forces itself on us: Did the preacher capture the audience for himself, or for Christ? There is much of both of these businesses going on. Men are striving to capture audiences for Christ; this is a difficult and unpopular work. Others capture the audience for themselves. Quite another business is this capturing of audiences for ourselves than Christ. It is well for the newspaper to give the praise to the men who capture the audience for themselves. So they have their reward, but it is not of God.—Nashville Advocate.

"God gives to every man an opportunity, but not every man improves the opportunity that God gives him. Every man's life is a plan of God, in the sense that every man has a plan of God in his behalf set before him, for his acceptance or rejection. But it is for every man to accept or reject God's plan as he will, and upon his choice pivots his character and his destiny. It is the man who fills the place God offers him, whose life is an eternal success. It is the man who refuses to fill the place that God opens before him, whose life is an eternal failure."

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

It is about the best thing that happens to a Christian man when worldlings enquire of him, "Come ye out from among them," is to many a severe command, but all difficulty is removed when the world turns out from us and casts out our name as evil.—Spurgeon.

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

Knowledge without love is as a body without life.

of God their end, and the Word of God their rule, the Spirit of God the guide of their affections, and the providence of God the guide of their affairs, may be confident that the Lord goes before them as truly as He went before Israel in the wilderness, though not so sensibly.—Henry.

The daughter's purity is safe whose Christian mother shares every secret of her heart; that son's character is judged about, who has for his most confidential friend a Christian father. They are in danger who wear a mask in the presence of kind parents, and uncover the heart and inner life only to those who have no right to such confidences.—United Presbyterian.

We see the statement frequently made of the effects of a sermon: "He captured the audience." The question forces itself on us: Did the preacher capture the audience for himself, or for Christ? There is much of both of these businesses going on. Men are striving to capture audiences for Christ; this is a difficult and unpopular work. Others capture the audience for themselves. Quite another business is this capturing of audiences for ourselves than Christ. It is well for the newspaper to give the praise to the men who capture the audience for themselves. So they have their reward, but it is not of God.—Nashville Advocate.

"God gives to every man an opportunity, but not every man improves the opportunity that God gives him. Every man's life is a plan of God, in the sense that every man has a plan of God in his behalf set before him, for his acceptance or rejection. But it is for every man to accept or reject God's plan as he will, and upon his choice pivots his character and his destiny. It is the man who fills the place God offers him, whose life is an eternal success. It is the man who refuses to fill the place that God opens before him, whose life is an eternal failure."

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

It is about the best thing that happens to a Christian man when worldlings enquire of him, "Come ye out from among them," is to many a severe command, but all difficulty is removed when the world turns out from us and casts out our name as evil.—Spurgeon.

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

Knowledge without love is as a body without life.

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

of God their end, and the Word of God their rule, the Spirit of God the guide of their affections, and the providence of God the guide of their affairs, may be confident that the Lord goes before them as truly as He went before Israel in the wilderness, though not so sensibly.—Henry.

The daughter's purity is safe whose Christian mother shares every secret of her heart; that son's character is judged about, who has for his most confidential friend a Christian father. They are in danger who wear a mask in the presence of kind parents, and uncover the heart and inner life only to those who have no right to such confidences.—United Presbyterian.

We see the statement frequently made of the effects of a sermon: "He captured the audience." The question forces itself on us: Did the preacher capture the audience for himself, or for Christ? There is much of both of these businesses going on. Men are striving to capture audiences for Christ; this is a difficult and unpopular work. Others capture the audience for themselves. Quite another business is this capturing of audiences for ourselves than Christ. It is well for the newspaper to give the praise to the men who capture the audience for themselves. So they have their reward, but it is not of God.—Nashville Advocate.

"God gives to every man an opportunity, but not every man improves the opportunity that God gives him. Every man's life is a plan of God, in the sense that every man has a plan of God in his behalf set before him, for his acceptance or rejection. But it is for every man to accept or reject God's plan as he will, and upon his choice pivots his character and his destiny. It is the man who fills the place God offers him, whose life is an eternal success. It is the man who refuses to fill the place that God opens before him, whose life is an eternal failure."

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

It is about the best thing that happens to a Christian man when worldlings enquire of him, "Come ye out from among them," is to many a severe command, but all difficulty is removed when the world turns out from us and casts out our name as evil.—Spurgeon.

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

Job said, as to his experience, I know that my Redeemer liveth. If in those days of no Bible, of only now and then a communication from God, in visions or dreams, Job could possess such clear experience, uttered with such confidence, and relied upon with so much assurance, how much more should Christians experience, and be assured!

THE FREE WILL BAPTIST

J. M. BARRIE, Editor. Published at the Free Will Baptist Publishing Co., Greenville, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 21, 1892.

PUB'S ANNOUNCEMENT.

All communications should be addressed to the Free Will Baptist Publishing Co., Greenville, N. C. In case the paper is not received regularly, please write to the office. When making a change of address, it is necessary to state the place to which the paper is now sent, as well as the one to which it is to be sent.

FOLLOWING CHRIST.

In the eighth chapter of Matthew are two incidents in the Savior's life that furnish some valuable suggestions on following Christ.

Just as the Savior and his disciples were about to leave the shore, a Scribe all aflame with an excited enthusiasm approached the Savior and said: "Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest."

This scribe had been powerfully impressed, but it proved to be only a sudden enthusiasm. The Savior did not reject him, neither did he accept him—but put the test of true discipleship to him. "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air nests; but the Son of Man hath not where to lay his head." So this test, soon opened his eyes to what his sudden zeal in following Christ involved.

He wanted none but true and sincere followers. He wants no time-servers—no self-servers, but would have every one who follow him to cost the cost of all sin, the cost of self-denial and service involved in following him.

So he tells not only of the joys and reward, but also of the service and suffering in following him.

So that no excuse for failure in following him because of the cross, the service and the suffering will excuse us, or hold good for us in that day when judgment shall begin at the house of God.

So we hear no more of this scribe. He falls back into the line of the world again.

Too often is just this sort of thing true yet. Many will follow Christ very enthusiastically till he begins to call for service, self-denial, suffering, etc., till his demands begin to interfere with their money-making, their pleasure, their self-seeking and then they fall back into the world again.

Like some soldiers, they like the new uniform, its bright buttons, its clean appearance, and idea of bravery. They like the idle ease, the dress-parade and sham battle of camp soldiery; but when heavy marching and active service comes in, face to face conflict with the enemy, they are sick and must be excused, and hauled. Reader, are you such a soldier of Christ?

Just as the Savior had disposed of this scribe there came another of his disciples and said:

"Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father." Yes, here is one of them who, when the call of service in following Christ comes, has got some temporal affair he wants to attend to first. Well, it would seem that if ever a man had, or could have a good excuse this man did. But was he excused? Answer, Jesus said unto him, "Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead."

Then if his excuse for being out of his place of duty was not accepted, what shall we say of the thousands of far less valid excuses rendered by many to-day for the neglect of Christian duty?

In this we are most forcibly taught that our religion is all to us, or it is nothing. Christ will have first place, or no place at all. And we are taught that when duty to God in his service, and duty to self and others come on us at the same time, that duty to God is to have first attention and first place. And it teaches us that if anything else has first attention, and first place we are not fit to be his disciples. Then, it is true, that a loving service to others, or lawful business, when it clashes with our duty to God and is given first place, may become a sinful thing.

Then if the devil can only induce a follower of Christ to attend to something else first—to make the things of temporal life the things of first concern with him, and make the duties of religion or secondary importance—matters of clear convenience, absolute health, or inclined feelings, he has just about as effectually accomplished his infernal purpose against Christ and Christianity in that man's life as if he had him in infidelity.

Beware dear reader how you give the things of this life the first place, and the things of the other life the second place. It has always been a strange thing to me, why so many professed followers of Christ seem to think that if they have any temporal matter demanding their attention at the time of religious duty that such temporal matter furnishes a valid excuse for neglecting the religious duty. Why is it so?

A. J. KIRBY, Denison, Tex.

Utter no complaint, whatever betide; for complaining is a sign of weakness.—Gail Hamilton.

There is only one real failure in life possible; and that is, not to be true to the best one knows.—Farrar.

FROM NORTH EAST.

DEAR EDITOR:

Please allow me space in your paper for a few lines. It being the regular time for quarterly meeting at this place, Saturday, September 10th, Eld. Rouse met quite a good number, and after a short sermon conference was called to order. The business of the church was transacted with decency and good order. B. H. Howell and myself were appointed delegates to the Central Conference. G. T. Miller was appointed as delegate to the Union meeting, to be held at Pine Grove, Duplin county. It being the regular time to elect a pastor, our church was re-elected; every person in the house voted for him. As he had served us so faithfully for two years, we felt like we would be severing nature's own ties of friendship and love not to have him preach for us another year. After all the business of the church was transacted conference adjourned. At night we held communion service and washed each other's feet. Sunday our pastor preached to a large congregation, after which several arose in the congregation and asked an interest in the prayers of all Christian people.

Just a month ago Eld. Rouse held a protracted meeting here four or five days, which resulted in ten additions to the church.

Some have been taken from our midst since that time that we will never see again in this life. As you young people are teaching school here, and would come every day and bring her pupils; her seat was not vacant during a single service. But where is that bright and cheerful countenance to-day? Sad indeed to say, that the cold, icy hand of death has taken her from the midst of her many relatives and friends. She was a member of the Missionary Baptist church. Though she is gone where our eyes cannot behold her, we feel that she was prepared to meet the grim monster which all humanity has got to meet at, perhaps, some unexpected time.

J. R. JONES.

RENEWING OUR VOWS.

As the word is here used, a "vow" is a solemn promise made to God, whereby one devotes himself to a service, it is man's part of a covenant with God. Because God is the same yesterday, to-day and forever, his part of the covenant does not need to be renewed.

When Joshua was about to die, he thought the best thing he could do for his people in the little time which remained for him, would be to secure the public renewal of their vows. He hoped by this means to strengthen the influences which would make for righteousness among them when he was gone. But he was aware that the value of such an act on their part would depend upon the spirit in which it should be performed. Accordingly he gathered them at a place whose historical associations would impress them with the solemnity of the act. That place was Shechem, where Abraham on entering Canaan met the Lord and erected an altar for his worship; where Jacob put away the idols in his household before going to Bethel, and where they themselves had once entered into the most solemn covenant with God. Joshua called the attention of the people to God's faithfulness to the covenant before he asked them to renew their vows. Then, when they proposed to do this, he had them pause and think the matter over, to be sure that their minds were fully prepared for so important a transaction, and when it was done he set up a monument upon the spot, that the vow might never be forgotten.

It is as great a privilege now as it was then for those who have entered into a covenant with God to renew their vows. Churches do this whenever they receive members or hold a communion service. How the emblems of the body and the blood of Christ impress them with the sacredness of the act! Sometimes they do it as a preparation for special work for the unsaved. Christian Endeavor societies do the same thing at their consecration meetings. Indeed there is a sense in which living Christians do this daily. Whether they remember the "happy day that fixed their choice" or not, they are ready to say:

"High Heaven, that heard that solemn vow, That vow renewed shall daily hear."—Ex.

Ministers who stand before a congregation and say they have made no preparation whatever, and will speak only as the Lord puts words into their mouth, ought to remember that the Lord does not put words into the mouth of that kind of a preacher. The Lord has placed words in the Bible, and it is the duty of the minister, by careful study, to get them into his head, and from there into his heart. Such a man the Lord can and will help to preach. But how can we help a man to preach who does not make the Bible a study? You might as well talk of the man who neither sows nor reaps, harvesting his garner well stored with grain. The Lord helps those who try to help themselves, in preaching as well as in other things. We believe in every minister preparing himself to preach. This he does by hard study, prayer and consecration. We do not mean that he must always prepare his sermons, for some of the best sermons ever preached were prompted by the impressions of the occasion, but he ought to study so as to know how to rightly divide and present the Truth when called on to do so. We have heard ministers say, "I have given the subject no thought, and must speak as liberty is given." From their talk one would judge that they had given the matter no thought. Such a course may be well enough when one is unexpectedly called upon to preach, but for a minister to have weeks in which to prepare himself for the occasion, and then say that he has made no preparation, is a

BROWN BROS.,

Greenville, N. C.

Large Stock, New Stock, Complete Stock, and no shoddy stock, but Straight Goods.

We make a specialty of Dress Goods, Dry Goods, Laces, Notions, Hats and Shoes.

Prices made Close to any one. Do not fail to get our prices when wishing to buy.

We solicit the patronage of the friends and patrons of "THE BAPTIST."

Respectfully,

BROWN BROS.

New Home Sewing Machine and all parts sold by us. DEPOSITORS FOR AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY.

species of negligence for which there is no excuse.—Sel.

Just what relation the Christian sustains to the things of this world, depends a good deal upon whether he belongs to the world or Christ. The early Christians found nothing too great a sacrifice for the cause of Christianity. To them every thing else was simply secondary and used, if used at all, as a means to an end. Their property, as well as their talent and lives, was fully consecrated to the Lord. They made money and acquired property, but it was all with a view of advancing the cause of the Christian religion. While they mingled, to some extent, with the world, they were everywhere known as pronounced Christians who were in no manner ashamed of their religion. We need in this day to cultivate more of this consecrated spirit.

Let us not love those things much which we are not sure to have long to love; nor to have long if we should.—Matt. 6:24.

A church is a working church when every member has something to do, which ought to be done, and which he is doing with all his might.—United Presbyterian.

$60 IN PREMIUMS

We hereby offer a premium of $60, to be paid in ten dollar shares in the Free Will Baptist Publishing Company, to be awarded to the three persons sending in the largest number of subscribers to the FREE WILL BAPTIST, accompanied by the cash, (which amount shall exceed $50.) before Dec. 31st, 1892, as follows: To the one sending in the largest number of subscribers accompanied by the cash, three ten dollar shares. To the one sending in the next largest number, two ten dollar shares. To the one sending in the next largest number, one ten dollar share.

All who work for the premiums and fails to secure one, will receive ten per cent on the dollar of all the money that they have sent to us; same to be refunded at the time the premiums are awarded. So you see if you fail to get one of the premiums, you get a commission which will pay you for your trouble.

All who desire to compete for the premiums should send in their name and address at once and have their properly registered in this office.

The names of the successful competitors will appear in our issue of January 3rd, 1893.

LADIES ARE UNFORTUNATE,

because the higher they rise in society the weaker they find themselves bodily. Riley's Phylotoken controls the nerves, gives nature in her various functions, and thus combats with the many ills of womankind successfully. If your druggist has not got it he will order it for you for $1 a bottle, from Chas. F. Risley, Wholesale Druggist, 62 Cortland St., New York. Send for a descriptive pamphlet, with directions and certificates from many ladies who have used it and can't say enough in favor of Risley's Phylotoken.

A GOLD WATCH AND $204.

That a watch every Agent receives who gets a job on our $1 per year plan. Our 34-keent gold-filled case, are warranted for 20 years. Fine Eight or Waltham movement. Step wind and set. Lady's or Gentle size. Retail only $75 watch. To secure agents where we have none, we sell one of the Banking Case Watches for their price, $28 and send C. O. D. by express with privilege of examination. Before paying for same.

Our agent at Durham, N. C., writes: "Our friends are confessed, they don't know how you can furnish such work for the money!"

One good reliable agent wanted for each place. Write for particulars.

Empire Watch Co., 48 and 50 Maiden Lane, New York.

ONE WORD.

I come to you with a word that you need, in England, the Continent, and many foreign countries, myself and wares are well known. Many American families on their return from abroad bring my articles with them, for they know them pretty well, but you may not be one of these.

Confidence between man and man is slow of growth, and when found, its rarity makes it valuable. I ask your confidence and make a reference to this journal endorse that confidence. I do not think it will be misplaced.

I make the best form of a cure—an absolute one—for biliousness and headache that can be found in this year. The cure is so small in itself, and yet its comfort to you is so great—20 minutes being its limit when relief comes—that it has become the marvel of its time. One and a half grains of medicine, coated with sugar, is my remedy, in the shape of one small pill, known to commerce as DR. HAYDOCK'S NEW LIVER PILL. It is sold in the markets of Europe, but is new to North America. The price is as low as any honest medicine can be sold at, 25 cents. Send a postal card for a sample vial, to try them, before you purchase.

DR. HAYDOCK, 62 Fulton St., N. Y.

A REWARD OF $500

Will be paid for any case of Rheumatism which cannot be cured by Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy. This offer is made in good faith by the proprietors, and there is no reasonable excuse for any one to suffer longer. Any ordinary case will be cured with one bottle. In addition to the reward for difficult cases, the money is always refunded where the remedy fails to cure. The price of a bottle is $5—and that is the cost of a cure. Drummond Medicine Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane, New York. Agents wanted.

THE FREE WILL BAPTIST

ORMONDSVILLE, -- N. C. WEDNESDAY, Sept. 21, 1892.

NEWS SUMMARY.

AT HOME AND ABROAD.

--Shoes, Solid Shoes, cheap at Brown Bros., Greenville, N. C.

--It is reported there are a number of cases of cholera in New York.

--Examine our stock of Dress Goods and Trimmings, Brown Bros.

--Favorite Sewing Machine for $25.00 at Brown Bros., Greenville, N. C.

--New Home Sewing Machine at $35.00, at Brown Bros., Greenville, N. C.

--Revs. Mess. Wallace and Gay is conducting a series of meetings here this week.

--Mess. Chas. L. and Eric Abernethy, of Beaufort, N. C., were here last Saturday.

--Mr. L. H. Cox, of near Centerville, was visiting near here Saturday and Sunday.

--Mrs. C. P. Edwards and Miss Lula Best, of Appletree, is visiting friends and relatives here this week.

--We learn that the protracted meeting at Aspin Grove, Wilson county, last week resulted in fifteen additions to the church.

--Elder F. McLawhon will hold his yearly meeting at Saint's Delight Saturday and Sunday, and will continue the meeting during the week.

--A protracted meeting closed at Spring Branch, Pitt Co., last Saturday night, in which there were nine additions to the church. We are glad to know that the good work is still going on.

--If you know where your interests you will insure your property and life with W. J. Jordan, of Snow Hill, because he represents none but the best companies, and in case of a loss he will get the money for you.

--Mrs. M. A. Williams, of Fremont, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Pitt county for the past month or two, spent two or three days this week visiting at Mr. J. H. Johnson's, about three miles from here.

--Don't fail to read the new advertisement of Brown Bros., Greenville, N. C., which appears on the editorial page this week. They carry in stock a full line of dry goods, notions, &c., and it will be to the interest of the general public to call and see them when in town.

--The Kinston Free Press says, "We received from Mr. Jesse Jackson the following particulars of a very sad incident which occurred on his place last Friday morning about sunrise. Mr. Albert Waller, a worthy and industrious young man 24 years of age was instantly killed by a falling tree while coon-hunting with his cousin, Wm. Waller. They were in the act of getting out of danger of a tree they had cut when Albert was struck on the head by a large limb, his neck being broken and his skull crushed. One side of the tree was decayed and this caused it to fall in a direction opposite from what they expected."

The pension agency in Topeka is the largest in the country. It pays out annually $16,000,000 to the veterans of Kansas, Missouri and Colorado.

SNOW HILL DOTS.

Capt. Swift Galloway attended court in Wayne county last week.

Sheriff B. W. Edwards spent a day or so in Kinston last week.

Mr. John Sugg made a business trip to Goldsboro one day last week.

Mr. J. J. Potter and family, who have been visiting in Jones county, has returned home.

Rev. G. L. Finch, of La-Grange, filled his pulpit at the Baptist church here last Sunday and at night.

Mrs. Susan Taylor, of Hookerton, spent a few days last week visiting at Mr. J. C. Pottery near here.

Elder Thos. Moore dedicated the new Free Will Baptist church four miles from here, on the Goldsboro road last Sunday.

Miss Mamie Hardy, who spent last week in Jones county, visiting friends and relatives, has returned home, to the delight of her many friends here.

Our farmers are bringing their cotton to market, regardless of the low price. Guess they want to get it off their hands and get about more profitable things.

Dr. Ward, of Stantonburg, who came here a week or so ago with the intention of staying only a few days, is compelled to stay several weeks, in order to complete the work that has already come in. He is a first class dentist.

Revs. Mess. Gay and Wallace have been holding a protracted meeting at Jerusalem church for the past week, and their work for good was a success. These two young champions of the gospel have always an eye single to the warring sinners.

THE MAY BUG.

The vineyards and orchards throughout central Carolina are suffering serious damage from the so called May bug--Laehnosterna fuscus. This is a large, shining green beetle, which settles in flocks upon the tender shoots and fruit of the vine, fig, peach and other trees. It is the parent form of the "white grub," so hurtful to the roots of growing crops.

Prompt and vigorous measures must be taken by fruit growers. Those who have been spraying with the Bordeaux mixture and added a little Paris green to this will not have suffered much damage so far. But the fruit is now too far advanced to permit the use of Paris green, and hand-picking must be resorted to. This is neither expensive nor laborious. Provide an old umbrella, a piece of heavy Canton flannel about 40 inches square, a bucket and some keroene oil. Line the umbrella with the flannel, having the woolly side upwards--towards the handle. Pour upon this as much keroene as it can hold. Half fill the bucket with water and upon the water pour a layer of keroene 1/4 inch thick. Invert the umbrella under a vine or limb upon which the bugs are seen and give the post, wire or three a sharp jar. The bugs will drop at once into the umbrella and become entangled in the wool of the Canton flannel, which will hold them until the keroene touches them. Most of the bugs will be at once disabled or killed by the oil in the flannel.

rel. Now turn the bugs out of the umbrella into the bucket and proceed to the next vine or tree and repeat the operation as before. The living bugs turned into the bucket will be instantly killed by the layer of oil, and may be scooped out and thrown on the ground to make way for the next lot. The flannel in the umbrella must be kept wet with keroene. In this manner one man can go over four to six acres of vineyard or orchard per day and kill three fourths of all the bugs in the place. Repeat treatment after a week if necessary. Keroene oil costs from 12 to 15 cents per gallon, and one gallon will do for several acres.--Gerald McCarthy, N. C. Experiment Station.

WEEDS AS FERTILIZERS.

A number of experiments have been instituted at the West Virginia agriculture experiment station with a view of determining the actual average value of composted weeds as fertilizers, upon the basis of the commercial value of their mineral constituents. From an account of the results of the experiments given by C. F. Millsbaugh in Science it appears that of the fifty weeds gathered each has a certain value, according to its species, yielding nitrogen, phosphoric acid, and potash, and from the figures given, the conclusion is arrived at that weeds properly composted should be worth about $9.60 per ton.

"These values are, of course," Mr. Millsbaugh says, computed upon a water-free basis, while the farmers would gather with his weeds about fifty per cent. of their weight in water. We have, however, proved that proper composting, especially with the addition of lime, rots and kills all the seeds of the weeds gathered; and argues that if the farmer thus removes the weeds from his lands and roadsides, thereby decreasing the annual production and continued presence of the same; that if he thus relieves his fields of the trash, giving more room for good, clean grass; that if he places upon his cultivable ground the humus that it would otherwise never receive; that if he is thus taught to utilize all such matter as has heretofore gone to waste upon his farm and in his ditches and inroads, this compost would be raised by these profitable issues to the full value of the dry material as given above."--Chicago Times.

TERRIBLE CYCLONE.

A Convict Camp Near Halifax, N. C., Wrecked and Several Men Killed.

Wilmington Star. Intelligence was received here last night by wire that a cyclone passed about a half mile east of Halifax, N. C., and struck the convict camp on the W. & W. railroad. It was reported that four or five persons were killed, among the number being the overseer of the camp, who was carried about sixty yards by the wind, was thrown against a house and his head split open. All the houses and tents at the convict camp were demolished. The cyclone was moving in a northerly direction.

Another report received last night was that train No. 53, on the Wilmington, Columbia & Augusta railroad, running between Charleston and Columbia, S. C., was delayed about two hours and a half by a tornado.

FRANCIS GOT IT.

"I want some more chicken," said 4-year-old Frances at the dinner table.

"I think you have had as much as is good for you, dear," replied Frances' mamma.

"I want more." And Frances pouted.

"You can't have more now; but here is a wish-bone that you and mamma can pull. That will be fun. You pull one side and I'll pull the other, and whoever gets the longer end can have her wish come true. Why, baby, you've got it! What was your wish, Frances?"

"I wished for some more chicken," said Frances, promptly. She got it this time.--Boston Beacon.

NO LAWYER WANTED.

A short time ago an old negro was up before the Judge, charged with some trivial offense.

"Haven't you a lawyer, old man?" inquired the Judge.

"No, sah."

"Can't you get one?"

"No, sah."

"Don't you want me to appoint one to defend you?"

"No, sah; I jes thet 't allab de case to the ignance ob de cot."--Quitman (Ga.) Free Press.

A peculiar boycott is in progress at Fargo, N. D. The business men of the town have boycotted the Northern Pacific railroad because the company won't build a new station and hotel there. They have issued a circular to all their business connections asking them to ship their goods over other lines.

The Marker Ranch, near Lovelocks, Nev., comprising 17,000 acres of the best land in the State, was recently sold at sheriff's auction for a trifle over $100,000.

Itchings, pimples, liver patches, G. M. D. night quiet dispenses, Cures away incontinent tumors, Clears the blood from poisonous humors, Allays all kinds of poisons.

Try the worthiest medicine which is the great Golden Medical Discovery of Dr. Pierce--a wonderful tonic and blood-purifier. The "Discovery" is a standard remedy for consumption, bronchitis, colds and lung troubles; guaranteed to benefit or cure, if taken in time, or money refunded.

Executor's Notice.

Having duly qualified as executor to the last will and testament of Zilphia J. Cox, deceased, I hereby notify all parties holding claims against said deceased to present them for payment on or before July 21st, 1892, on this notice will be paid in full of their recovery. Also all parties indebted to said deceased are hereby notified to come forward and make payment at once.

T. S. KENNEDY, Executor of ZILPHIA J. COX.

OF INTEREST TO WINNERS.

So much has been said about the new Scale at the Kansas Fair that we call your attention to a new book entitled "Facts about Scales" published by "JONES OF BINGHAMTON," in Binghamton, N. Y. It contains full information regarding coin, patent scales, and should be read by every intelligent trader. A postal will get it.

KINSTON COLLEGE.

Will educate your son or daughter for $1300 per year. The best advantages offered in Florida. Mathematics, Bookkeeping, Physics, Chemistry, French, Latin, Music, Drawing and Modern Languages. Commercial Experience is not excluded south of Baltimore. Typewriting & Shorthand. Scholastic year begins Aug. 20th, 1892. Dr. Richard H. Lewis will be in our faculty for next year. Send for new catalogue. LEE & CROWELL, [Name this paper.] 11 49

FINK'S MAGIC OIL.

A LIBERAL OFFER.

You are hereby invited to try a bottle with the definite understanding that your money shall be refunded, if it fails to render satisfaction in either of the following cases:

- Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Sore Throat, Diarrhoea, Chills and Fever, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Colic, Burns, Scalds, AND ALL Pains and Aches.

Please Try One Bottle

And if not entirely satisfied, you can return it to the place of purchase, and your money shall be refunded, if not more than one-half used.

Price 50 Cents.

H. C. G. FINK, Proprietor, Springdale, Allegheny County, Pa.

W. E. Move, Agent, Ormondsville, N. C.

Notice!

By authority of a decree of the Superior Court of Greene county at January term, 1892, in a certain civil action therein pending wherein George W. Sugg was plaintiff and J. J. Potter, Rowntree & Co. were the defendants, I will sell at public auction for cash, in the court room here in Snow Hill, on Monday the 1st day of August, 1892, the truck store and lot, situated on Greene street, in the town of Snow Hill and known as the Sugg & Potter store, also one other store and lot in said town known as the Giles & Newsum store, situated on Greene street, now occupied and used as the U. S. post office. This the 1st day of July, 1892. G. G. M. LUKASZ, Commissioner of sale.

11 50

An Attractive POCKET ALMANAC Combined with MONTHLY BOOK advertising BROWN'S IRON BITTERS the best tonic, given away at home and general stores. Apply at once.

INSURE WITH

W. J. Jordan, GEN'L INSURANCE AGENT, SNOW HILL, N. C.

Largest and oldest companies represented. All losses promptly paid without discount.

Combined assets of agency over seven and a half million dollars.

See me before you place your insurance.

CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED. Respectfully,

W. J. JORDAN, Insurance Agent, Snow Hill, N. C.

11 24

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA,

Chapel Hill, N. C.

Instruction is offered in four general courses of study, six brief courses, a large number of special courses, and in law, medicine and engineering. The Faculty includes twenty teachers. Scholarships and loan funds are available for needy young men of talent and character. The next session begins Sept. 1. For catalogue with full information, address President WINSTON, Chapel Hill, N. C.

KING COTTON

Buy or sell your Cotton on JONES' 5-Ton Cotton Scale. NOT CHEAPEST BUT BEST. For terms address JONES OF BINGHAMTON, BINGHAMTON, N. Y. $60

PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

Mc. D. PATE, SNOW HILL, N. C., Manufacturer of BUGGIES.

CARRIAGES, HARNESS, &c.

BEST MATERIAL USED.

BUGGIES MADE TO ORDER.

All Kinds of Repairing done on Short Notice.

WE ALSO KEEP CONSTANTLY ON HAND A FULL LINE OF UNDERTAKER SUPPLIES, CONSISTING OF FINE COFFINS, CASKETS, &c.

ALL ORDERS PROMPTLY FILLED.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.

Mc. D. PATE, Snow Hill, N. C.

11 15

Sale Under Execution

On the 1st day of August, 1892, being the 20th day of that month, at the court house door in Snow Hill, Greene county, I will publicly sell for cash, to the highest bidder, the following property for the purpose of satisfying an execution in my hands to wit: All the real, title and interest of Phony Harper, late of said county, or which the late R. H. T. Harper possessed at the time of his death, to wit: One tract containing 120 acres more or less, and the said Phony Harper's half interest therein, being one undivided fifth part of the same. B. W. EDWARDS, Sheriff.

11 40

If you feel weak and all worn out take BROWN'S IRON BITTERS

Patronize Home Industry

ELLIS CARRIAGE WORKS KINSTON, N. C. Manufacturer of

BUGGIES, CARRIAGES, HARNESS, &c.

BEST MATERIAL USED.

BUGGIES MADE TO ORDER

All kinds of Repairing done on short notice.

Old Buggies made good as new at a very small cost.

First-class work done in every department.

Work shipped to any point.

Orders solicited from a distance.

-WORK GUARANTEED-

To be done with durability.

Be sure to call before purchasing elsewhere and get suited in price and work.

Mark Your Linen

With indelible ink 12 or 15 letter Meserchers with Bottle of Linoleum 25c, 50c, 75c. Send money receipts office address can be made as cheap for you. Persons prepared to sell for us, list a house and give their whole time to the work. Some no means may be profitably employed also. A few examples in towns and cities: B. F. HARRISON & CO., 16th and Olive Sts., St. Louis, Mo.

WM. BAUMGARTEN, 213 E. Fayette St., Baltimore, Md. Agents Wanted.

$71.00 to $250.00

