What Is Holiness To The Man Of God? 1 Peter 1:15-19

by Gene Crewse

Alexander Whyte made the statement, "God makes the man, man makes the ministry, and the ministry makes the church." I believe by searching the Scripture we find that such a statement is true, because we know that God first made the man before He used him to minister to the people. For example, before the high priest could offer a sacrifice for the people he first had to offer one for himself, thereby making himself pure in the eyes of God.

The Apostle Paul's ministry was so effective because he allowed God to "make him." "But by the grace of God, I am what I am" Paul said to the church at Corinth. He told the elders at Ephesus in Acts 20 that he "was pure from the blood of all men, and he had coveted no man's apparel." He was telling them he had ministered to them unselfishly and in holiness.

If we want our churches to be progressive and clean in the sight of God, then we as ministers must allow God to make and mold us into ministers that practice in our lives what we preach in our pulpits; because our preaching and our example make our ministry.

What I feel we need today instead of "powerful voices in our sermons" is "powerful victory in our souls." A minister that cries out against sin with his own life full of lust and deceit is, according to 2 Peter 2:14-17, as "wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest." A minister that preaches against sin with an unclean heart is no better than Potiphar's wife who accused Joseph of adultery, though it wasn't true, and all the while crying out of a heart full of lust and desire.

What kind of man does God make? Second Peter 1:21 says, "For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost." If God makes and uses holy men, then we must heed what God says regarding holiness.

First Peter 1:15a states that holiness to the man of God is a command; God's own character demands it. "As he which hath called you is holy," tells us what God's character is. When God gave the decalogue, He was revealing to His people what He was like and what He wanted them to be like. He brought them out of Egypt and gave them a law to show holiness and reveal His very character. In the Sermon on the Mount, Christ revealed God's character again by saying "this is the way I am; this is the way I want you to be." In Leviticus 11:45 and 1 Peter 1:16, God's character says, "Be ye holy; for I am holy."

Second, holiness to the man of God is a standard of living; man's own life should reveal it. First Peter 1:15b states "so be ye holy in all manner of conversation." Other Scriptures such as Hebrews 12:14 tell us to "follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord." Paul tells us in Romans 12:1, 2, that we should be living sacrifices "holy" and acceptable unto God.

Dr. Stephen Olford made the following statement concerning our lives being living sacrifices. He said, "I like to think about the sacrifices offered in the Old Testament as being our lives. They were held directly over the flame until they were totally consumed. Our lives should be as those sacrifices, unblemished by the world and held directly in the center of God's will. As the fleshhooks were used to keep the Old Testament sacrifices in the center of the flame, the fleshhooks of discipline and determination should keep our lives in the center of God's will; thereby revealing a holy and acceptable sacrifice."

The last thing I would like to share is, holiness to the man of God is a relationship or standing with God; Christ's own blood provides it. Verses 18 and 19 of 1 Peter 1 tells us we are "redeemed with the precious blood of Jesus Christ." Enough will never be said about the importance of Christ's blood! Philippians 3:9 tells us that through our faith in Christ we can stand before God in His righteousness. First John 1:7 tells us that "if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ... cleanseth us from all sin." So many Scriptures tell us of the purifying power of the blood, but I like to think of the example illustrated through Christ's own words to the adulterous woman in John 8, when He said "Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more." He not only gave her a word of forgiveness in "neither do I condemn thee," but also a word of encouragement in "go and sin no more." I ask you the question, would He have commanded her to do something He would not have helped her to do? Would God have commanded us to "be ye holy" and not have provided a means of holiness? We can stand holy in the sight of an Almighty God because of the precious blood of Jesus Christ. Praise the Lord!

What is holiness to the man of God? It is different things to different people, but if we wish to reach the lost and strengthen the church, holiness is a MUST! Physical perfection will never be attained until we reach Heaven, but holiness is available through faith in Jesus Christ our Lord.

The National Association Of Evangelicals A united voice and witness for Christ

by Dr. Billy A. Melvin

YEARS AGO in my Bible study my attention was drawn to the many verses in the New Testament that spoke about the oneness of the Body of Christ. And, because I believed the Bible to be God's inspired Word, I readily gave mental assent to this Scriptural truth.

However, the Holy Spirit pressed me further. "What are you doing about it?" "When are you going to demonstrate your oneness with other believers in practical ways?"

At that point in my life, I had no idea how it might be possible to share with believers outside of my own church and denomination. Even if I were willing, how was it possible?

Within a matter of weeks, I was asked to attend an NAE convention and represent our denomination in the Chaplaincy Commission. What an experience! I had the opportunity to get acquainted with Christians from more than four dozen denominations and see for the first time how it was possible to express my Christian oneness in practical ways without the compromise of my own personal convictions.

I soon developed a deep appreciation for what NAE represented and what it was seeking to do in providing a responsible voice for evangelical Christianity. Over the next years I happily sought to express my Christian oneness by participating in NAE. Eventually, I was asked to serve on the Board of Administration, the Executive Committee and in 1967 to accept the responsibility of Executive Director. This invitation came while I was serving as the Executive Secretary of our National Association.

There were many reasons, humanly speaking, why I did not wish to accept NAE's invitation. But as anyone knows who seeks to serve God, it isn't a question of what we desire, but what is the will of God. After due prayer and consideration, I knew it was God's will for me to accept a full-time assignment with NAE and do what I could to build and strengthen its witness. It was my conviction that we needed in this country a strong national voice in support of our evangelical convictions.

For almost 16 years now I have been serving Jesus Christ in my ministry with NAE. These have been years filled with much joy because of the way God has blessed and enabled NAE to raise up a standard for righteousness.

And part of my joy has been the fact that the Missouri State Association of Free Will Baptists has been a part of this ministry. Together in NAE, we have been able to establish a strong evangelical witness and make clear that the National Council of Churches does not speak for all Protestants.

Our fellowship in NAE (involving more than 38,000 churches from 75 denominations) is based on a seven-point Statement of Faith that encompasses the basic doctrines of historic Christianity. Each member church/denomination is required to subscribe to the Statement of Faith. Thus, fidelity to the Word of God and the Lordship of Jesus Christ is assured.

Standing together in a Bible-based faith we are able to share in common ministries that make a difference and affect change. Here are three of those ministries.

I. WE SHARE TOGETHER IN A MINISTRY OF WITNESS.

(1) A witness to our spiritual oneness in Jesus Christ. I have already shared my personal pilgrimage in this area, but let me speak further about the importance of this witness. It is not optional. A practical expression is mandated in Scripture and is as much an imperative as "making disciples." Jesus prayed, "that they (believers) all may be one... that the world may believe that You have sent me" (John 17:21). Through practical expressions of our oneness the world can see the reality of the Christian faith and, thus, believe.

(2) A witness to the authority of Holy Scripture. A basic question in religion is the matter of authority. Wherein is our authority? Some claim human reason as their authority. Others claim the church as final authority. But for evangelicals, final authority rests in the inerrant Word of God. In a day when many are rejecting the Word of God or calling into question its authority, we need to bear witness to its final authority and our confidence in its life-changing message.

(3) A witness to our convictions on moral/ spiritual issues. Evangelicals have strong convictions based on the Word of God. But it is not enough that we only share these convictions with one another in the four-walls of our churches. Our witness must penetrate public life, indeed all of society, and especially at the decision-making levels. Such a witness is what the Bible teaches when it says we are called to be "salt" and "light" in a crooked and perverse generation (Matt. 5:13-14). A united witness of national scope is essential if our convictions in such areas as abortion, homosexuality, separation of church/state and voluntary prayer and Bible reading in public schools are to be heard. NAE enables us to do this.

II. WE SHARE IN A MINISTRY OF WORKMEN.

There is much work to be done as we serve Jesus Christ. We are called to be "workers together with God" (1 Cor. 3:9). Our concern, therefore, should not only be for the work we are doing, but for the work of others. Our common enemy is Satan, so we must encourage and help one another as each individual, group, church or denomination serves Jesus Christ.

Through the commissions/affiliates of NAE we are "workers together with God," sharing ideas, sharpening endeavors and encouraging one another. For more then twenty-five years now, I have watched as our NAE member churches and denominations have been involved in this process. It has been a valuable experience. All of them have profited and all of them are growing. In fact, the fastest growing denominations in America today are members of NAE. Our voluntary commitment to each other and our working together in NAE is the essence of what the Apostle Paul encouraged when he urged, "... cooperate together for the faith of the gospel" (Phil. 1:27).

III. WE SHARE IN A MINISTRY OF WATCHMEN.

Many of the ills in society which we decry have come via the legislative process. It is imperative that Christians recognize this and be involved. NAE does not advocate that churches become involved in the political process as churches, but we do advocate that individual Christians should become informed, voice their convictions and vote. Otherwise, we will lose by default.

Accurate information and personal representation in Washington, D.C. is the responsibility of NAE's office of Public Affairs. Through monthly mailings and publications, timely news on pending legislation is shared with evangelicals nationwide, so they, in turn, can express their views with their Congressmen, Senators, or any other appropriate elected official.

Strong and well-financed pressure groups are hard at work in our nation's capitol. Some of them, and more than I could wish, hate and despise our Christian views and perspectives. Believe me, if they could have their way, they would squeeze every vestige of Christian morality from public life. For this reason, NAE is in Washington, working faithfully to speak up and be heard. And, we are being heard because together we are strong.

I am grateful that the Missouri State Association of Free Will Baptist shares with us in these ministries. Your participation in prayer has strengthened us as we attack the strongholds of Satan. Your participation in giving has helped finance our ministries. And, your participation in our national convention has provided influence for godly leadership and an uncompromising witness.

In turn, I trust that each church within the state appreciates the kind of ministry they have through NAE. In times like these, we really do need each other.

Dr. Billy A. Melvin is the Executive Director of the National Association of Evangelicals, a post he has held for 16 years. He is an ordained Free Will Baptist minister and served for nine years as Executive Secretary of the National Association of Free Will Baptists.

News From Calvary at Conway

The church reporter, Ann Cook writes, the church has been greatly blessed with several conversions and an increase in attendance. Also, several have followed the Lord in the ordinance of water baptism. The church has not only experienced numerical growth but also spiritual growth, especially among the youth. We are so thankful for the great group of teens that attend Calvary. We pray that they will continue to grow and accomplish great things for the cause of Christ. We are also thankful for our fine pastor Brother Ralph Douglas and his family. He is a great man of God and he and his family are doing a wonderful work for the Lord.

The following is a poem written by Donnie Moad, one of the fine young men of the church.

Heaven

It's a place of no sin nor sorrow It's a place with no worries of tomorrow. It's a place of no gloom nor despair, It's a place where there is beauty everywhere! It's a place of love and laughter, It's a place where race or color doesn't matter: What is this place of beauty called? It's called Heaven, and it's for all!

Give Your Heart to the Lord Sunday at Mt. Zion

The Mt. Zion Free Will Baptist Church at Thayer, Missouri held a special "Give Your Heart to the Lord Sunday" on February 13, 1983. Reverend Clarence Burton, State Promotional Secretary, was the special speaker for the service. The attendance was 55.

The Lord is blessing the church with souls being saved and renewed interest among the Christians. Sister Sharon Bowers, the church reporter, writes, "Pray for us that the church will always grow." Reverend Johnny Holsapple is the pastor.

Missions Victory at Monett

During the annual Indian Creek Association Missions Conference last November the First Free Will Baptist Church of Monett, Missouri set a goal of $5,800.00. The goal was to be reached in one year. Three and a half months later, on February 15, the church family had reached the goal.

A Missions Day Victory Service was held on Easter Sunday, April 3. The day's activities included the special speaker, Reverend Clarence Burton, State Promotional Secretary, who spoke in both the morning and afternoon services.

The afternoon service followed a delicious meal served in the fellowship hall. Many wonderful testimonies and special songs of praise were given in the service. The moment everyone was waiting for arrived when Brother Kenny Salsman, a member of the Missions Committee, climbed the latter and placed the missions offerings atop the Missions Thermometer. It was $6,766.00! Praise the Lord!

In only five months the goal had been met. The pastor and congregation are looking with anticipation to November, just to see what God is going to do. What will the total be by November? Money for missions continues to be received.

The pastor, Reverend Stanley Jones, states, "It is a joy to serve a church that is mission-minded. I am thankful for the First Free Will Baptist Church in Monett."

New Swimming Pool Underway at Youth Camp

Work on the new swimming pool at Youth Camp has begun. Concrete was poured for the floor of the smaller pool on April 15. The Youth Camp Board is hopeful that the pools will be completed by the time of the first session, June 12, 1983. A strong effort is being made to raise the needed funds for the Pool Project. The promotional effort is being directed through the youth of each local church. Thus far several sizable amounts have been raised and given for this project. Hopefully every local church will cooperate with the youth in promoting within the church to help raise the needful funds.

This year, Mrs. McCurry will have a craft room. Classes will be held in the afternoon and there will be a limited number for each class. Four class sessions are planned for each afternoon. There will be a charge of $1.00 to $2.00 per item for material. Please keep this in mind when preparing to attend the camp sessions.

Dale McCurry wishes to thank the many who have helped in clearing brush, wiring, and other things that have helped the camp. There is much more to be done, and any help will be appreciated. Work Day at Youth Camp is set for May 14. Hopefully many people from across the state will come on that day and work on things that need to be done before the camp sessions begin. (Everyone is requested to work at general work for the camp rather than on church or district cabins.)

Working on the pool.

Church Growing at Moberly

Pastor Steve Hales writes, God is pouring out His blessings on the church at Moberly. The average attendance for Sunday school for the past month was 59 and 61 for the morning worship. The record offering for the church was on record breaking Sunday with an offering of $483.19. The Sunday school attendance was one short of breaking the record. It was 77. "We believe the church will continue to grow as we work faithfully for the Lord," concludes the pastor.

Dedication of New Church Building at United

The United Free Will Baptist Church at West Plains, Missouri dedicated its new building on March 27, 1983. The pastor, Reverend Glen Murray, and the church planned an impressive service.

The service began with congregational singing, Scripture reading, and prayer by the pastor. Special music for the service was given by the Soul-Seekers from Donniphan, Missouri, and Bob and Glenda Keith from Mansfield, Missouri. Reverend Harry Beatty, a member of the congregation, gave a brief history and expressed special commendation for gifts and extolled the memory of Reverend and Mrs. Finis Johnson. Reverend Charles Hollis, pastor of the Royal Oak Free Will Baptist Church gave the response and played and sang a song he wrote in memory of his uncle. Finis Johnson.

Reverend Clarence Burton, Missouri State Promotional Secretary, delivered the dedicatory message. He used as his Scripture reading Acts 2:41-47. He stated that as the church building is beautiful even so must the real beauty of the church be recognized and reflected in the lives of the Christians that compose the local church. The deacons with the pastor joined in burning the mortgage indicating that the building was debt-free. The names of the deacons are Ulus Caldwell, Ernest Adkisson, and Charles Blair. Then the presentation of the church key was made by the chairman of the Deacon Board Ulus Caldwell. This was given to the pastor. Then, following the key presentation the pastor led the church in the antiphony. To climax the service the church key was presented to the Trustee Board by the pastor. The trustees are Jerry Easter, Clifford Parrott, Mike Lautner, and Howard Mofield.

Reverend Glen Murray expressed his deep appreciation to everyone that had worked so faithfully in building the building and in building a church for the Lord Jesus Christ. In his closing remarks he stated that this is not the end but rather the beginning for the life and labor of the church.

William D. McFarland at Rest

Brother William D. McFarland entered eternal rest with the Lord on March 19, 1983. He died at his home in Fredericktown, Missouri. He was 85 years, five months and 19 days of age. He was born on October 21, 1897 at Doe Run, Missouri to William and Martha Wright McFarland.

He was ordained as a deacon while a member of the Marble Hill Free Will Baptist Church. He later united with the Twin Oaks Free Will Baptist Church near Fredericktown, Missouri. He was a member of that church at the time of his passing. There is no doubt that Brother "Mac" is at rest with the Lord. Our loss is Heaven's gain. There will be an empty pew at the Twin Oaks Church.

Howard is persuaded that the awakening we've all been praying for is already underway and can be accelerated tremendously if the training of future pastors becomes re-centered in effective local churches churches that are effectively equipping their men, women and youth for the "work of the ministry."

No Strangers To Missions

Missions is not a new or unfamiliar burden to the John McClure Family. For several years missions has been the undying desire of their hearts.

John was saved at the age of 11 under the ministry of Brother O. T. Alred. He was brought up under the ministry of the Merl's Chapel Free Will Baptist Church. He worked in various capacities in the church. After graduating from high school he enrolled as a student at the School of the Ozarks in Branson, Missouri, where he attended for two years. While there he felt the call of the Lord to enter the ministry for missionary service while hearing a missionary presentation by Mack Owens.

Paula was saved at the age of 5 under the ministry of her father Reverend Paul Williams. She was raised in a mission church in Joplin, Missouri. Her father was the pastor. During the summer of 1962, while at a Youth Camp session in Niangua, Missouri she felt the call and gave her heart to missionary service.

The following year John and Paul met and were married in Joplin on June 11, 1966.

They moved to Nashville, Tennessee and enrolled at Free Will Baptist Bible College. John focused on missions courses and Paula did some missions study but centered primarily on Christian education. She has done extensive work with children and has a signed affidavit as a qualified Child Evangelism teacher.

While in Nashville they had five children, all of which play a very active role in their ministry. They are John Paul, Charri Vina, Rejyna Dawn, Nikki Andra, and Jared Daniel. (Just a short time ago Rejyna led a school mate to the Lord during band class. Praise the Lord.)

In 1974 John announced his call to preach the gospel. He was licensed by the Cumberland Association and was a member of the Cofer's Chapel Free Will Baptist Church.

In 1975 the McClure family moved to Goodlettsville, Tennessee where they helped in starting a new church. After the church became self-supporting they moved to Bellevue, Tennessee and worked with the Cross Timbers Church. While at the church John was involved in discipling some new converts. In 1978 and 1979 they met with the Foreign Missions Board to apply for missionary service in the Ivory Coast. The Lord closed the door for service in that field. However their burden for missions did not lighten and they began to think of working with the Hispanics in America.

In 1978 they accepted a mission work with the Stockton Mission in Stockton, Missouri. While here John was ordained to preach the gospel by the Central Western Association, and still carries a Minister's Card from that district association. The Lord brought the McClure family in contact with a Mexican family while in Stockton and this intensified their desire to work with these people in a missionary endeavor.

In 1980 and 1982 they met with the National Home Missions Board to apply for support in this field of service. However, since the work with the Hispanics on a mission basis is rather new the board felt the denomination was not quite ready to take on such a project with them. After much prayer concerning this John and Paula believe the Lord is leading them to work with the Hispanics along the Mexican border. They plan to move to McAllen, Texas this summer and begin language study at the Rio Grande Bible Institute.

They are currently living in Monett, Missouri where they are serving as youth leaders in the First Free Will Baptist Church. John also does supply preaching for ministers in the area.

They are planning to do deputational work to raise financial and prayer support for their ministry in Texas. They are asking Free Will Baptist people in Missouri and in other states to stand with them in their effort to tell others about Jesus and win the lost to Christ.

They may be contacted at this address: Reverend John McClure, 1419 Fourth Street, Monett, Missouri 65708 (417-235-8406).

John & Paula McClure

Points for Pastors

by Jim McAllister

Some adults may have concluded that the youth of our generation have "gone to the dogs." While many young people are following the life-style suggested by the world, there are many who are leading fine Christian lives. And I am convinced many of these adolescents who are not saved can be reached for Christ with an understanding and consistent effort.

It is my conviction that if our youth are to be won to Christ, there must be early preparation. This preparation should begin in the home.

Professionals in the field of home life continue to tell us of the important influence the home has on the first few years of a child's life. This being true, parents must consciously prepare their children for salvation. We try to prepare them in other areas of life such as education, music, and sports. Why not for salvation? Children learn by imitating their parents. There are three areas where parents can give a positive example that will aid in the early conversion of their children. 1. Attitude. The parent's true attitude toward spiritual things will greatly influence the child's attitude. 2. Action. If the young child sees his parents regularly and consistently living out Christian principles, he will come to value these, too. 3. Audio. The child needs to hear the parents' attitude of their trust in Christ and their action of consistent Christian living verbalized before him so he can articulate his own religious feelings.

The early home life of a child will not guarantee early conversion but it will greatly increase the probability. There's one thing for sure, the parents who are leaving their child's conversion entirely to the church have little or no right for bitter feelings when their child reaches adulthood unsaved.

The State Woman's Auxiliary Banquet will be held at the Wyota Inn Restaurant. This year the price will be $6.95 per person. This will be a smorgasbord and includes dessert, tax, and tip. Because of limited space, we can only have 195 attend the banquet. Tickets will be on sale Monday evening before and after the Youth Service and until noon on June 7th, Auxiliary day. Why not make plans to attend the banquet.

Cuba Auxiliary Hosts Shower

The Cuba Auxiliary hosted a shower for the Jeff and Susan Turnbough family. The auxiliary collected approximately 35 gifts that were mailed to the Turnboughs for Christmas.
