The Sights and Sounds of Youth Camp

An exciting feeling...and off we go
To a wonderful place I know.
The smiling faces and laughter all the way there,
The excitement everyone would share.

The church bus roars up the dirt road
Leading to a place that never gets old.
You greet friends from other places
And see all of the glad faces.

To me, it seems I'm in a different world now, Nobody fighting — no face in a scowl.

A peaceful place all around, A sad person couldn't be found.

Deep into the woods, the birds sing
And the sweet smells the surroundings bring.
We sit in the little tabernacle with wooden benches,
The message so good — nobody flinches.

I wish I could stay all year long—
It seems that's where I belong.
This place is found in Niangua, Missouri,
No better place to be!

St. Louis Teen Lock-In

by Jeff Nichols

The 1993 St. Louis Free Will Baptist Teen Lock-in was held February 12-13, 1993, at the Brentwood YMCA in Brentwood, MO. Although the St. Louis District Youth sponsored the event, churches from the Bootheel and St. Francois Associations as well as two churches from Illinois took part in this annual event. This year the all nighter drew a total of 220 people from nine different churches who played basketball, volleyball, wallyball, racquetball and other games until 6:00 a.m. on Saturday morning.

The St. Louis District Youth would like to encourage other associations throughout the state to explore ways to bring our young people together. This and other similar events is a great way for our young people to develop friendships with youth from other churches. It also gives your people a chance to invite their friends to a fun church activity where they can be exposed to some good clean fun and also be around other Christian young people.

Marriage vs. Divorce Part 2

"Drifting. It is subtle. It is quiet. It is non-offensive. It sounds no alarms. It just gradually creeps into lives. And then it destroys" (Harvey, 1988). According to Dr. Harvey, this is one of the most common forms of marital failure among Christian couples and also the most dangerous.

In the busy, demanding world we live in, both husband and wife have a demand put on their time, i.e. jobs, children, church activities, housekeeping chores, etc. At times the relationship between husband and wife is put on a back burner. Gradually the "busyness," so prevalent in our society, begins to eat away at the once-held marital priority. With the change in priority, the marriage begins to drift. Dr. Harvey states, "When marriage is replaced by another priority, regardless of the worthiness of the substitute, you begin to drift. And a drifting marriage is a failing marriage."

Couples have to place marriage as a high priority. Happy, fulfilling marriages don't just happen. They require work, time and effort on the part of both husband and wife. It is not that children or careers are not important but there has to be a healthy balance if there is to be a healthy marriage.

What can be done if a marriage is drifting? A primary goal in prevention is to clarify what is happening...to identify how the marriage is drifting. Secondly, to re-think priorities. Has your husband-wife relationship been a top priority in your life or have other things (children, career) crept in and taken top billing? Another key ingredient is responsibility. "You" must take responsibility for changing the relationship. The pastor or counselor may offer suggestions or ideas but the responsibility for change rests with the couple.

Bailey Chapel's New Home

"... And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this Nehemiah 2:18b good work.

On August 28, 1938, the Bailey Chapel Free Will Baptist Church in the Cave Springs Association was organized. For fifty-four years the congregation worshipped in a community building. The LORD blessed their worship throughout the years. In dry spells and wet spells alike, the church never wavered or faltered. In 1970, a three-week revival saw almost a hundred souls saved or rededicated. Some fell by the way, some went to other congregations, but some grew in the Lord and the church went on with the faithful remnant.

In the years following, Sunday School rooms and later on a kitchen were built. In 1990 a decision was made by the church body to drill a well and install rest rooms. Even though they met opposition from outside the church body, they pursued every avenue and continued to build a fund for this purpose. Since it was a community building, they received permission from the county commissioners to proceed with the drilling of a well and made plans for construction of an addition to the building for the rest rooms. The congregation was threatened with a lawsuit to prohibit the addition. The well was already drilled and paid for, and the opposition was all from outside the church. When this happened, the church voted to move from the community building and build their own facility.

Three different sites were offered to the church, all in the same general area, and all free of charge. The one and one half acre grassy hillside chosen had water rights from a very generous hog and cattle farmer who attends the United Methodist Church in Alton. The church only had to pay for a water line from one of the farmer's water connections.

The digging of a basement was started in May, 1992, and construction of the 40'x52' building was undertaken by the church, since the church is blessed with lots of talent. This talent includes an experienced electrician, welder, heavy equipment operator to handle the dirt and landscaping, a millwright, and a lead carpenter, as well as a number of other workers. Work progressed well through the summer, and on August 30, the basement was ready to be used. Fifty-four years after its organization, the church finally had a home of its own. Nearly six months after the basement was started, the congregation moved "upstairs."

The blessings still flow. The men and women did all the work on their church except some machine work and some concrete work. This small congregation truly believes the promise of Romans 8:28. They know that all things work together for good to them that love God!

The church has one charter member left, Sister Ruth Turner. Her father was one of the first deacons, and her brother, another deacon, gave his life for his country in World War II. Sister Turner's roots are deep in Free Will Baptist work. Two of her great-nephews, Brother Nick Hollis who pastors in Kansas and Brother John Hollis who pastors in Illinois, have both had successful revivals at Bailey Chapel Church.

The church is prospering under the able leadership of Brother C.R. Thompson who has served the congregation for thirteen years. Brother Jr. Brown serves as Sunday School Superintendent, and recently proved to be a very capable carpenter. Deacons are Brother David Holman. Brother Carl Sisco, and Brother Dean Campbell. A dedication service will be held in the near future.

The porch has been finished since this was taken.

What Worked For Us

A Big Day Sunday School promotion that really worked for the First Free Will Baptist Church in Cape Girardeau. The Rev. Wesley Rider is Pastor.

by Peggy Rider

During the Sunday School Hour on the last Sunday of September, just as the Lester Family from St. Louis, MO, had presented the Gospel in song, the service was interrupted by yelling and the sounds of gun shots as the Hatfields and McCoys broke out into a feud.

Our Sunday School Superintendent, Brother Ken Inman, had organized this whole event and planned it to take place on a "Really Big" day when we had 190 in attendance. The Hatfields - Greg and Donna Hutsell - and the McCoys - Wayne and Marlys Ford - burst into the sanctuary and split the church right down the middle, declaring teams for the next month, which was the Free Will Baptist Fall Enlargement Campaign. The Hatfields and McCoys had to sit on their respective side, bringing visitors to sit on their side with them.

Since we have a very exciting church and our people are motivated and growth minded, we all got into the act and really played the parts. The Hatfields and McCoys Campaign proved to be very successful for us as it placed us third in Division G for the Fall Enlargement Campaign, also placing us 4th in the nation for percentage increase, and 2nd in the nation for numerical growth. We praise the Lord for the fine folks at the Cape Girardeau Church.

We have accomplished so much in the short 3 1/2 years we have pastored here, and it is all because of such enthusiastic, dedicated, and unselfish people! We are presently in the planning stages of constructing a new educational building this year. Also we are in the process of putting up a new church sign that can be seen for a great distance! Our church has a tremendous Sunday School Department, to go along with our Children's Church workers, our Music Staff, our Woman's Auxiliary, and Teen Department. You can rest assured, God is alive and doing well in Cape Girardeau!

"CCC Receives Pre-Accreditation"

We have known this whole school year that CCC was applying for pre-accreditation from TRACS. We have known what this means to this little Bible College and its future. Hundreds of hours of time and work have gone into this project. It has cost us several thousand dollars. Our Academic Dean, Brother Sasser, has made several trips to Tennessee and called them many times. Our report to TRACS has amounted to over 200 pages of hard research. We have prayed much.

After all this, our students and faculty have had little else on our minds for many weeks. Thursday night, February 25, Brother Sasser called and told us we had been approved. We are now only one step from full accreditation. There were shouts of praise in the dormitory that night, and chapel the next day was an exciting time. CCC has attained pre-accreditation with TRACS. Praise the Lord!

We want to thank the administration for all their work; the college board for their patience and tolerance, as well as assistance; the people who served on the committees and who worked so hard; the good Free Will Baptists of California who prayed for us and supported us financially; our wonderful CCC students for their trust; and our beloved Lord for His provision.

Now, we must move on. The battles have just begun. Pray for CCC!

"I WILL"
by Mrs. Lizzie McAdams

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following unedited article was taken from the May, 1943, GEM. (Free Will Baptist women have made and are still making a great contribution to spreading the Gospel.)

We always have to have a starting place with everything, so after reading the 116th Psalm, it gave us several starting points upon which a number of good articles might be written. One outstanding declaration made by the Psalmist caused an unusual grip to seize upon my innermost being, and that is when David said, "I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people" (verse 14).

The first two words "I will" are the ones that I want to stress. First, we thought of the fast approaching "Week of Prayer" which will, no doubt, result into new thoughts, new visions, new aspirations and new goals in the hearts of the women that they might reach or attain greater heights in the kingdom work. Not withstanding the fact that our old program will be the one great aim in which we will be emphasizing prevailing prayer, the new thought will be wonderful as the Holy Spirit fills us with wisdom, vision and understanding. But often we try to do too many things and do practically nothing.

Now, this is what we have in mind: First, "I will" keep the Week of Prayer, whether at the church or at home. "I will" pay my vows — I mean by this for each worker to carry out the great program in prayer and work. Our spiritual side comes first; then our financial side next. Let us stop and think what is embraced in our great program. First, "I will" give of my means to support our Bible School in Nashville, which means giving to Christian education. "I will" give of my means to missions, both home and foreign. "I will" give to superannuation to bless the disabled ministers.

Now, I have a word to the good women concerning the Chest and the Penny banks. Make this your resolve, "I will" send my dollar monthly through the Jehoida Chest to Sister Fannie Polston, 318 Woodland Street, Nashville, Tennessee. "I will" support my Penny bank by dropping in a penny each day, and taking it to my church monthly, and then letting it be sent to Rev. F.S. Vanhoose, Paintsville, Kentucky. "I will" keep the 9 o'clock hour of prayer, set aside by our national auxiliary convention, to carry out our program, and to reach the goal through which we are striving, God being my helper.

Now, dear women, if you will carry out these "I wills" mentioned concerning our work, we will soon see thousands of souls saved, and new churches established in the large cities and towns. Also new mission fields will be opened in all parts of the earth. As Christ has commanded, let us so do, and see how we can reap a rich harvest here and hereafter for the glory of God. According to the Master's own testimony, we will have a short time to finish the work which He has left in our hands. If we can then look up and say with John, "Come Lord Jesus."

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

—Amen.

The Youth Look

by Ann Poletti

In honor of Mother's Day, I would like to share a paraphrased version of a lovely story. It was originally printed for Food for Thought by Temple Bailey, and used in the devotional, Streams in the Desert, as a Mother's Day devotion. It seemed to be written about my grandmother as Rev. John Postlewaite read it at her funeral a year ago. The story is based on Proverbs 31:20, 25-29.

The young mother set out on life's pathway, asking, "Is the way long?" Her guide answered, "Yes, and the way is hard, and you will be old before you reach the end. But the end will be better than the beginning.

But the young mother was happy as she played with and cared for her children. "Nothing will ever be lovelier than this!" she cried.

Then night came, and a storm darkened the path. The mother drew her frightened children near to her, and they said, "We are not afraid for you are near." The mother smiled. "This is better than the brightness of day for I have taught my children courage."

Morning's light revealed a hill ahead, and the children grew weary as they climbed. Through her own weariness, the mother encouraged, "a little patience, and we are there." At the top, the children said, "We could not have made it without you," to which the mother replied, "This day is better than the last for today I have given my children strength."

The next day brought clouds of war, hate and evil which darkened the earth. As her children groped and stumbled, the mother asked her children to look up to the Light. It guided them and brought them beyond darkness. At night, the mother praised, "This is the best day of all, for I have shown my children God."

Many days - years - passed, and the mother grew old, weak, and bent. But her children were tall and strong, and they walked with courage. And when her way was rough, they carried her, for she was as light as a feather. At last they came to a hill, and they could see a golden gate open wide, just beyond that hill.

The mother said, "I have reached the end of my journey. The end is better than the beginning for my children can walk alone...and their children after them.

"You will always walk with us, mother," the children said, "even when you have gone through the gates."

As they stood and watched her go on alone, they saw the gates close behind her, and they said, "We cannot see her, but she is with us still. A mother like ours is more than a memory - She is a living presence.

"Every good gift and every perfect gift

"Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning." James 1:17. God has given us another good month. The faithfulness of the Pastors and Churches in Missouri make it possible to help underwrite the State and National ministries. Working together we are able to carry out the Great Commission.

The Allocation for National Ministries goes undesignated for this year with FWBBC and Hillsdale receiving an equal amount. California Christian College will continue to receive the 1%.

The Hannibal Free Will Baptist Church Takes a Stand For Righteousness That is Heard Across America

by Dale Cochran, Pastor

On January 24, 1993, the Hannibal Free Will Baptist Church inverted their American Flag and began flying the flag union down. This is the international sign of distress. The Hannibal Courier Post, the local newspaper, did a story on why the church was flying their flag upside down. Things began to happen almost instantly as people reacted to the flag flying in distress.

It did not take long for the local television stations and radio stations to call. All at once the church seemed to be the center of attention in the Tri-State area. But it gets even better because the National Wire Service picked up the story and it went nationwide. It even made the CNN news. We have had calls and letters from all over America from people that are supporting our efforts by flying the flag union down. We also get letters and calls from people who do not support us. We witness to them about Jesus.

As you know, our President has made the murder of innocent unborn babies even easier in America when he lifted the ban on abortion in military hospitals and the ban on fetal tissue studies. (This is done in the name of medical research.) Christian men and women become accessories to murder by way of the tax dollar.

By the lifting of the ban on homosexuals in the military, our President is attempting to legitimize homosexual behavior in our society. This will force churches to accept homosexuals into their paid positions and even ordain them into the ministry. To speak out against the homosexual will be considered a 'hate crime' with stiff punishment.

Church, wake up! We can no longer keep silent about these issues. It is time to make some noise about righteousness in our land. The church should have a voice about such demoralizing issues as abortion and homosexuality. We have been too silent too long. If enough flags are flying in distress across our nation, politicians will get the message. Invert your flag today! Please, for the glory of God in America!
