In Him Who Never Fails, Rose Mertz, President

TIDBITS

from Waynelle Scott

When was the last time you had fun with your family? Our family loves to have what we call "family night" once a week. With the busy schedules we all keep (especially now that the children are getting older), we have to adjust the evening to fit the various activities of the week. We generally manage to find some way to make time for family fun. To fail to do so would be to rob us all of an important part of our lives.

Sometimes we spend a quiet evening at home, playing games or watching a wholesome movie on the VCR (yes, there are some movies the Christian family can enjoy – you just have to be selective). Other times we plan for an evening out, going to a ball game, bowling, or just going shopping at the local discount store. Every great once in a while we drive over to Sedalia (about 30 minutes away) for dinner as a special treat. Whether the plan for the evening is simple or complex, it is designed with one purpose in mind – being together having family fun.

When our children were younger, we took turns deciding the family activity for the week. Starting with the youngest and making our way through the family until we got to Dad, we would usually go to the park at least two weeks in a row (depending on how many kids we had at the time), on to the shopping mall the next week, and then to a ball game the next. We don't take turns so much anymore, but we do try to find activities we can all agree on.

It is crucial to our family relationships that we take this for each other. It may not seem like much, but we are making memories, we are building values, we are strengthening bonds when we have fun with our families. Our children need to hear us laugh; they need to know that we enjoy spending time with them. So go on, have fun with your family this week, and every week! It's just one more way to say, "I love you."

South Central Association Supports "Together Way"

Dr. Melvin Worthington, Rev. David Brawley and Rev. Don Strauser

Members from the Bourbon, Cuba, DeSoto, Jones Creek, Oak Hill, Potosi, Rolla, and Waynesville churches gathered at the Cuba Free Will Baptist Church, Saturday, February 18, for the annual South Central Association Leadership Conference. The theme of the conference, "Christ's Church: Every Member Submitted In Service" was accentuated in two messages brought by Dr. Melvin Worthington, Executive Secretary of the National Association of Free Will Baptists. Brother Worthington also conducted a brief question and answer time in the morning session.

The congregation enjoyed the inspirational and instructional worship services which included great congregational and special singing. Following the morning session, the ladies of the Cuba church served a delicious lunch.

The churches of the association voted in 1994 to support the four special offerings of the Together Way Plan with funds raised throughout the year. Each church has been encouraged to develop its own method of raising funds for this yearly project.

This plan works! The Moderator of the association, Rev. Don Strauser, and the Clerk, Rev. David Brawley, presented Dr. Worthington a check for $3,000.00 on behalf of the District Association.

The Youth Look

by Ann Poletti

Is it irony that we celebrate Easter in the spring of the year? Spring . . . the season we associate with new life as brown grass becomes green, dead tree limbs bud new leaves, flowers stick their heads above the earth, and spirits rise with the temperatures in anticipation of prettier days.

That's what Easter is ... a celebration of life. The day which came a couple days behind the darkest, most violent, and unjust day in history is the symbol of hope for mankind.

Of course, with spring come March winds, April showers, and tornado season. This beautiful season does not insure sunshine every day. Likewise, Christ's resurrection does not promise every day will be perfect. It merely assures us victory and hope in Christ Jesus.

And that's really all we need, isn't it?

You Can Serve in Asia

The English Language Institute was founded in 1982 for the purpose of sending qualified Christian professionals to build friendships - through teaching - with college and university students across China. The Chinese were and remain today one of the key people groups in the world.

ELIC expanded its purpose in 1991 when an unprecedented window of opportunity opened in Mongolia. Yet another opportunity occurred in 1994 when ELIC was allowed to send teachers to Vietnam for the very first time.

ELIC has a God-given vision to send 10,000 teachers to Asia by the year 2000. It is a marvelous goal, achievable only through the power and guidance of God. There are currently four Free Will Baptist Church members serving with ELIC. The need for teachers is great. As these countries strive to improve their level of English proficiency, the window of opportunity to share the love of Jesus Christ through teaching English is open ... but for how long?

The Free Will Baptist Foreign Missions Department cooperates with English Language Institute by interviewing, helping process applications and assisting in raising support for those from our denomination who wish to serve in China, Viet Nam or Mongolia. Those we approve are identified as "Missionary Affiliates" of Free Will Baptist Foreign Missions.

Seven Free Will Baptists have served either as teachers during a summer or for the whole school year in China. At least three Chinese students have received Christ as their Savior through their witness.

Both summer and whole year opportunities are available. If you would like more information, please contact Bob Edgar, Cooperative Recruiting Manager for ELIC, at:

Missouri Freshman Named to NBCAA

Anna Crewse, Hillsdale freshman, was named to the National Bible College Athletic Association (NBCAA) Volleyball All-Tournament Team. Anna is the daughter of Rev. Gene and Dottie Crewse of Fordland, Missouri.

Anna was the only freshman named to the All-Tournament Team. Hillsdale is proud of how Anna has excelled on and off the court. Miss Crewse's response to the question of how she could keep up her grades and volleyball was, "It's not easy, but if you love the sport, you make the commitment."

Hillsdale commends Anna Crewse for excellence on the volleyball court, for being an outstanding student in the classroom, and for being a Christian leader for the Hillsdale student body. If you are interested in a college where commitment to Christian values is still honored, consider Hillsdale Free Will Baptist Bible College, Box 7208, Moore, OK 73160. (405) 794-6661.

Pinkertons Have Arrived

A Letter from Jerry and Carol

Dec. 30, 6:15 p.m.: We arrived in Abidjan - only 30 minutes late. For Africa, that's "on time." Ron Moore, Robert Bryan and Jennifer (with two bouquets of fresh flowers) met us. Praise God our bodies and baggage all arrived without too many scratches or dents. The police and custom men allowed us to pass WITHOUT ANY TROUBLE OR FEES TO PAY!

Dec. 31, Saturday: We drove to Bondoukou. Team mates (Moores and Earnest Hollands) doing great in spite of a heavier than usual work load and Dry Season in full force! We visited Christians till 9 p.m. – time for New Year's Eve Services at Church, but first a visit to one of Carol's Sunday School Girls; Helene, a very sick girl. Church services lasted until after 12... We prayed the New Year in, holding hands asking God's guidance. Precious!

Jan. 1, 1995: Back to church with 171 others. Special songs and poems to welcome us back, plus many handshakes and rib-breaking hugs that felt so good (none were broken). African customs says we must first visit the Christians in their homes, then they will return the visit. We couldn't go to their homes because they came here first!

Linda called saying Helene was worse. Elaine and I went to her home. The family has no money to pay the admittance fee. We decide to pay and take her to the hospital. A spinal tap was done in the eight bed ward . . . the fluid was yellow.

Jan. 2, Monday: All our plans about getting utilities into the house we're moving into were canceled – a legal Holiday was declared. We received a steady stream of visitors, so accomplished very little, but had full, happy hearts at seeing our Black Family in Christ. Jan. 3, Tuesday: Utility Offices open – but it was the final payment day before services would be discontinued, so the lines of people were unusually long and moved very slowly. Helene was even worse.

Jan. 4, Wednesday: Papers completed and a billfold depleted as water, electricity and a phone was requested. (Jalayn Martens will come and be a new member of the Bondoukou Team, so we're leaving the utilities in this apartment for her.) George, from Appimadoum, came bringing village news: 50 adults in Church with 60 kids! He is responsible for five area villages. Please pray for George, Ama and their new firstborn, Rebecca.

Doctors here say they can do nothing more for Helene. They want her evacuated to Abidjan, but the family does NOT have money. Her diagnosis: 2nd stage coma, meningitis, pneumonia and blood poisoning. She is critical. The missionaries lend more money and the Church helps to pay the ambulance charge. Five precious hours later, after the ambulance has been repaired, she is on the road going to Abidjan.

Jan. 5: Jerry begins painting at the other house. Carol visits the market – finding locally grown produce has tripled in price. We have no news from Helene. Tomorrow evening will mark our first week back in Africa . . . thanks for bringing us back home!

FOREIGN MISSIONS REPORT

(A Letter from the General Director)

Dear Fellow-laborers in the gospel:

Thank you for the $381,513 you gave during 1994 to get the gospel to people overseas. Your generosity places you number four among state associations. Congratulations!

God was very generous to your foreign missions department last year. We received $4,474,083 toward our budget of $4,485,676.

I'm convinced there are no "little churches" in the Lord's eyes. Every church is important and we appreciate every gift from the 1,707 churches which sent an offering last year. However, we do commend the following churches in your state which gave over $5,000 in 1994:

First FWB Church of Berkeley	$29,186.01
Macedonia - Purdy
Trinity - Bridgeton	13,599.65
First FWB of Monett	12,837.74
Calvary Fellowship - Fenton	10,618.52
Grant Avenue - Springfield	9,737.88
Hannon - Liberal	9,298.96
Verdella - Liberal	7,922.78
Freeman Chapel - Stewartville	7,605.50
First FWB of Farmington	6,524.11
First FWB of DeSoto
Beacon - Raytown
Central - Grandview
Hazel Creek - Kirksville
Parkview - Desloge	5,328.51
Fellowship - Park Hills

God took your gifts and used them to help win souls, plant churches, and train workers in 10 countries around the world.

While we are thankful for past blessings, there is a monumental task yet to be done because over two billion in your world haven't heard the gospel. Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His harvest.

April is Foreign Missions Month. Plan a month-long emphasis in your church. And by all means, receive a generous offering on Foreign Missions Sunday, April 30. Last year Free Will Baptists gave $77,904 to the Laura Belle Barnard World Missions Offering. This year our goal is $100,000. This is the first of four "Together Way Offerings." We hope every church in your state will participate so we can reach our goal.

The Unpardonable Sin - Matthew 12:31,32

by Vernon Long

I've preached on several sins against the Holy Ghost: the sin of grieving or vexing the Holy Spirit, the sin of quenching the Holy Spirit, the sin of lying to the Holy Spirit, the sin of tempting the Holy Spirit, the sin of resisting the Holy Spirit, the sin of defiling the body of organized believers and the sin of defiling our bodies (the temple of the Holy Ghost). These sins are forgivable sins against the Spirit of God, but continual sin in any of these areas may lead one to commit the unpardonable sin, for which there is no forgiveness.

The subject of the unpardonable sin is a difficult subject, but there are two good reasons why it should be dealt with. First, it is in the Bible. God thought it was important enough to put it in the Bible. This does not mean that it is a popular subject, for the Word of God may be popular or unpopular, pleasant or unpleasant, easy to understand or difficult, but God says that the whole counsel of God is to be preached. Second, it is a solemn warning to all who continue to live in sin. There is much misunderstanding concerning Matthew 12:31,32. The unpardonable sin is viewed by some to be a definite act that the sinner commits. Others view it as a state of the soul to which one may arrive. These views differ, but they teach the same truth. There are three questions, when answered, help to arrive at that truth. These questions are: Is it possible to commit an unpardonable sin? What is the unpardonable sin? Who can commit the unpardonable sin?

I. Is it possible to commit an unpardonable sin?

The answer to this question is found in the Word of God and not in human reasoning. The Bible states that it is possible to commit the unpardonable sin. (Gen. 6:3; Num. 15:30,31; Heb. 10:26) One proof of this is God's refusal to answer the prayers of those who have committed the sin. (Jer. 7:16; 11:14; 14:10,11)

II. What is the unpardonable sin?

It is not the sin of adultery or fornication as some believe (I Cor. 6:15-20). There is pardon for these sins. In John chapter four, Christ gave the living water to the woman of Samaria. In John chapter eight Jesus said, to the woman taken in adultery by the scribes and Pharisees, "Neither do I condemn thee: go and sin no more."

It is not the sin of murder, though some may believe that this sin is beyond forgiveness. The sin is great, and God prescribed capital punishment as the civil penalty for this crime (Gen. 6:9), but the sin is forgivable.

It is not the sin of divorce and remarriage. The woman of Samaria would never have been saved if this were the case.

It is not the act of one particular sin. The Pharisees ascribed a miracle of Jesus to Satan in the context of Matthew 12:24. Christ does not say they had committed the unpardonable sin, but it seems that they were well on their way to committing it.

Some say it is a specific utterance of blasphemy against the Holy Spirit. Why would it be more of a sin to speak blasphemy against the Spirit than to speak blasphemy against either of the other persons of the Godhead? Paul was a blasphemer and even tried to force believers to blaspheme (Acts 26:11), yet he was gloriously saved (I Tim. 1:13,14). I believe Paul could have committed the unpardonable sin, had he insulted the Spirit of (continued on page 10) grace (Heb. 10:29,30), the Holy Spirit is called the Spirit of grace in Heb. 10:29. It is not the rank of the person in the Godhead, for they are equal, but the increased clearness of revelation as furnished by the Spirit of grace. A person can knowingly and willingly reject and despise that revelation, which is what aggravates the crime and makes it unpardonable. The unpardonable sin is a definite act (action) at a point in time when one comes to a state of soul so that God gives them up.

Blasphemy against the Holy Ghost is a state of the soul to which man by repeated sinning arrives. There is a cutoff point where one can no longer receive forgiveness. It may be at the point where one sees the evidence of the Lord's power before his eyes, as the Pharisees did, and declares it to be Satanic power. It may be the refusal to turn from homosexuality, other sexual sins, murder, or wickedness of any kind, that God gives them up. It may be the simple act of definitely putting oneself, once and for all, on the side of Satan. The unpardonable sin can be committed by believing false doctrine and refusing to believe the truth (Tit. 3:9-11).

What is meant by a state of the soul? A person's state of soul, as it relates to the things of God, is his susceptibility to the Spirit of God. One may be indifferent to the Holy Spirit as He deals with sin. Resistance to the conviction of the Holy Spirit will cause one to become actively opposed to Him. The Spirit may continue to deal with an individual, but the individual's resistance and opposition may become active antagonism. The soul then hardens beyond the susceptibility to the Spirit of God, thus becoming a final act of sin where one's state of soul is beyond forgiveness. God gives them up. It is the condition of man (his soul) rather than any action that makes his case hopeless. One may reach the point of no return in his self-imposed hardness of heart. "He, that being often reproved hardeneth his neck (becomes more stubborn, rebellious), shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy." (Proverbs 29:1) An early theologian, Augustine, called it final independence. Two things mark the one who has committed the unpardonable sin: (1) There will be an opposition to spiritual things. (2) One will be unmoved by the preaching of the Word.

Will God no longer forgive such a person? Whether forgiveness would be denied, if sought, is a useless question, since the sin is unpardonable, not on God's account, but on account of the sinner. The sinner virtually commits moral suicide, having forever killed his conscience and destroyed his spiritual susceptibility and removed himself from ever asking forgiveness. Repentance is a gift of God and the unpardonable sinner has driven from him the only person, the Holy Spirit, Who could ever work repentance in his heart. As Esau sold his birthright, so can one who continues to reject God to the point of being a reprobate or apostate. (Heb. 12:12-17)

III. Who can commit the unpardonable sin?

I believe anyone is capable of committing this sin. If you are unsaved, the Bible teaches that you can become a reprobate. A reprobate is a religious person, though sincere, who has never been saved. (II Tim. 3:8; Tit. 1:15,16; Jer. 6:27-30; Rom. 1:26-28)

If you are saved, but living in rebellion against God, you too can commit the unpardonable sin and become an apostate. The word apostate is a transliteration of the Greek word apostasia, which is translated "forsake" in Acts 21:21 and "falling away" in II Thess. 2:3. There are several warnings in Scripture that point to the fact that saved people can go back into sin; continuing in sin willfully, they turn from and reject God's counsel and leadership. There is a point where one who has been saved can fall beyond repentance (Heb. 6:4-9{4a...6a}). Those who do not believe in apostasy say that this passage is not speaking of a saved person. However, the passage lists five characteristics of a saved person: (a) once enlightened - to light, give light to, illuminate - 10:32; (b) tasted of the heavenly gift - to taste, to parktake of - 2:9 (John 4:10); (c) partakers of the Holy Ghost - share or participate in - 3:1,14; (d) tasted of the good word of God (see above); (e) tasted of the powers of the world to come (Eph. 2:5,6).

Apostasy is God's warning for the apathetic and presumptuous. He warns of its possibility. Sin's danger is not that sin severs one's relationship with God, but that sin hardens one's heart leading to an evil heart of unbelief in departing from the living God (Heb. 3:12-14).

Like the poet, we too need to examine our relationship to God.

"There is a time we know not when, A point we know not where; That marks the destiny of man, For glory or despair. There is a time by us unseen, That crosses every path;

The hidden boundary between God's patience and His wrath.

- To pass that limit is to die, To die as if by stealth;
- It does not quench the beaming eye, Or pale the glow of health.
- The conscience may still be at ease, The spirits light and gay;

That which is pleasing,

Still may please, and care be thrust away. But on the forehead God has set indelibly a mark –

Unseen by man, as yet is blind and in the dark.

And still the doomed man's path below May bloom as Eden bloomed —

He did not, does not, will not know, Or feel that he is doomed.

- He knows, he feels that all is well And every fear is calmed;
- He lives, he dies, he wakes in hell, Not only doomed but damned.
- Oh, where is this mysterious bourne By which our path is crossed;
- Beyond which God Himself hath sworn, That he who goes is lost.

How far may men go on in sin? How long will God forbear?

Where does hope end

And where begin the confines of despair? An answer from the skies is sent;

Ye that from God depart,

While it is called today, repent,

And harden not your heart." (II Cor. 13:5) Joseph Addison Alexander
