A New Beginning in Jefferson City

ello! We are the Kisers. My name is Jimmy Kiser and my wife's name is Melissa. We have two sons. Jayme who is eleven, and Benjamin who is two. We are the new Missouri State Home Missionaries to Jefferson City. We moved here May 27th. Our first service in our home was on Wednesday, May 29th with our son Jayme reading our Bible lesson. On Sunday, June 2, 2002 we held our first worship service. Church in your home certainly is different. Our boys didn't understand why they needed to dress up if we were not going out. Jayme was totally appalled that we used a footstool for an altar.

We are glad to be here and thankful to our State Home Mission Board for giving us this opportunity. We are also thankful that a family from Springfield 1st, Mark, Tammy, Chelsea and Hannah Baker, not only helped us load the moving truck, but drove all the way to Jefferson City to help us unload. God bless the Bakers! We began loading the truck at 8:30 a.m. on Memorial Day, and finished unloading about 9:30 to 10:00 that evening. I know it was a long day for Mark who took a day off work and for his family with two young daughters. Mark said this was a small something he could do for missions and help begin this work. I think it was a great thing! Any family that has ever moved by themselves would agree. I was very worried about unloading the piano without help!

We have many blessings for which to thank God, including finding a home we can afford, the people who helped us load, and of course the Bakers who helped us unload. There are many ways you can help us as well. You have names, addresses and/or phone numbers of friends and relatives that are living in the Jefferson City area and are not attending church. Please forward those names to us. We need contact names. We also need financial support. I am so thankful that we did not have to go out on itinerant to raise money to begin this church. However, it will take a lot of money to grow this church. We have a few offers to help with an "Operation Saturation" this fall. One church has offered to do a VBS for us. Everywhere we go there seems to be an excitement about Jefferson City and God's people are willing to help us work.

We have a name for our church: Westport Free Will Baptist Church. We are meeting in our home at 4905 Westport Drive, Jefferson City, MO 65109. Our phone number is (573) 636-6562. Our email address is melkiser@msn.com. We are just building our website.

Please pray for us and send contributions to the State Office in Lebanon, Missouri designated Westport Free Will Baptist Church, Jefferson City.

Thank you so much for helping us represent Christ and Free Will Baptists in Jefferson City, Missouri.

morning devotion. Each of the speakers did a fine job in highlighting the love of God and man's responsibilities in responding to that love. The musicians and those providing special music are to be commented for their contributions.

The Christian Education Board sponsored a minister's workshop on Tuesday morning in which Rev. Rob Morgan, pastor of the Donelson Free Will Baptist Church Nashville, Tennessee, spoke on the different facets of developing a sermon. He then preached during the morning worship service.

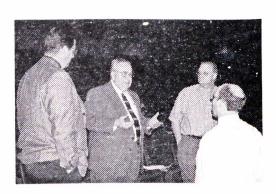

Business sessions began Tuesday afternoon with Moderator Richard Robinson delivering a challenging Moderator's message. During the

Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning sessions, the delegates heard and approved the reports and budgets of the Executive Office, Lebanon Bible and Bookstore, Youth Camp, Christian Education Board, Senior Adult Ministries Board, Youth Ministries Board, and the Show-Me Committee. They approved the recommendation of the General Board to transfer $100,000.00 from the Conference Center trust account to the Youth Camp Board and to forgive a $75,000.00 indebtedness. The $100,000.00 is to be used for paving, side walks, and a water system. They also approved the transfer of $7,000.00 from the general fund to the 2004 convention fund.

The delegates also heard from representatives of the National departments, Hillsdale College, and the Trula Cronk Home for Children. They filled 17 board and committee positions, elected officers, and voted to return to stage. Rev. Russ Neill provided the special music just before his father, Rev. Lee Neill, delivered the evening message.

Wednesday evening was the mission service. Rev. Elmer Turnbough, father of missionaries Judy Bailey and Jeff Turnbought and grand-father of missionary appointee Ben Turnbough, gave a missionary emphasis and led in the opening prayer. A mission offering of $820.00 was received. Rev. James Forlines, director of the National Home Missions Department delivered the evening message. At the close of the service, Roger Harwell asked the missionaries that were present to come to the front of the auditorium. He then invited the congregation to come and shake their hands as we pledged our prayers and encouragement.

Missouri Women Active For Christ Convention Report

ne hundred eleven registered on Monday, June 3, for the Missouri Women Active for Christ State Convention. This number included several pastors, missionaries, and visitors as well as delegates and officers.

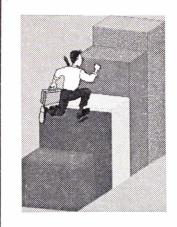

Debbie Beck, accompanied by Stephanie Brawley, lead the congregation in singing. A stirring devotion was brought by Shelly Braisher and was followed by words of greeting from the missionaries who were present. Special music for the morning was presented by Melissa and Jimmy Kiser and by Stephanie and David Brawley. Micah Derby, missionary appointee to France, challenged hearts with his enthusiastic message.

Shirley Jackson, Missouri Women Active for Christ President, conducted the business session in the afternoon.

The annual MOWAC scholarship was awarded to Stacie Turner from the West Plains area. Stacie is a student a Free Will Baptist Bible College. Following this, a skit entitled the Bored Meeting was pesented by the state executive committee. Diane Anderson concluded the service with a patriotic recitation which complemented the them of "God Save America - Call 911" from Psalms 91:1.

RICHARD STANDLEY APPOINTED PRESIDENT OF INDIAN BIBLE COLLEGE

Richard Standley and Kelsey Begay President of the Navajo Nation

The Board of Directors of Indian Bible College would like to announce the appointment of Richard Standley to the office of the president. Mr. Standley accepted the appointment as the fifth president of the school in January 2002.

Indian Bible College was founded in 1958 as the Southwestern School of Missions as a training center for missionaries and Native American pastors and church leaders. Dr. Gordon Fraser founded the school to work primarily with Native American groups of the Southwest. The school has trained a large percentage of pastors of the reservation churches in the Southwest. The school currently operates as Indian Bible College and is located in Flagstaff, Arizona. Appointed Academic Dean and Acting President in September 2001, Mr. Standley filled the vacancy when the interim President had to step down due to medical reasons. He has been with Indian Bible College since March 1999 and has been teaching Bible and theology.

Mr. Standley holds a Master of Theology from Dallas Theological Seminary and a Bachelor of Arts from Calvary Bible College of Kansas City, Missouri. He iscurrently pursuing on a PhD from Trinity Seminary.

A native of Fredericktown, Missouri, he was a supervisor for Townsend Tree Service and worked with local Free Will Baptist churches as a Children's Church minister as well as preaching. He was also a member of a gospel music group, The Durbins. While in seminary he tutored Hebrew and taught at Dallas Seminary's Center for Biblical Studies. Richard's vision for the school is to seek accreditation and train and recruit more staff, particularly Native American. His goal is to triple the size of the student body in five years. A five and ten year plan for property development is also being drafted to meet the needs for the expanded growth.

Youth Look

by Ann Poletti

My family and I were enjoying a vacation in the mountains when we finally spotted them — black bears feeding in the woods. We were so excited at seeing the two adult bears — as well as getting to be up close to them — that we went out again before sunset in hopes of some more "bear sightings." When we were near giving up, there they were: a mother bear and two playful cubs!

My nine-year-old daughter, Katie, and I began positioning ourselves for the best possible view when, out of the corner of my eye, I saw what would make a mother's heart pound in terror. Kelsie, my adventurous and totally unafraid seven-year-old had broken into a dead run across the field toward the bears. After halting her, I began explaining the dangers of the situation. The bears were putting on quite a show as long as there was plenty of space between us. However, the second she perceived danger approaching them, the mother bear crouched and growled as if to remind the cubs to get close to her.

That was hard to explain to a little girl who was innocently wanting to pet the bears. An object lesson emerged out of the incident which made it easier to understand. Sin often looks enticing until we reach out to "pet" it and are attacked by the true nature of it. On the other hand, we could learn a lot by being as alert to danger as that mother bear. Quick to protect as she felt a situation change too rapidly, the mama wasn't going to let anything threaten the safety of her cubs.

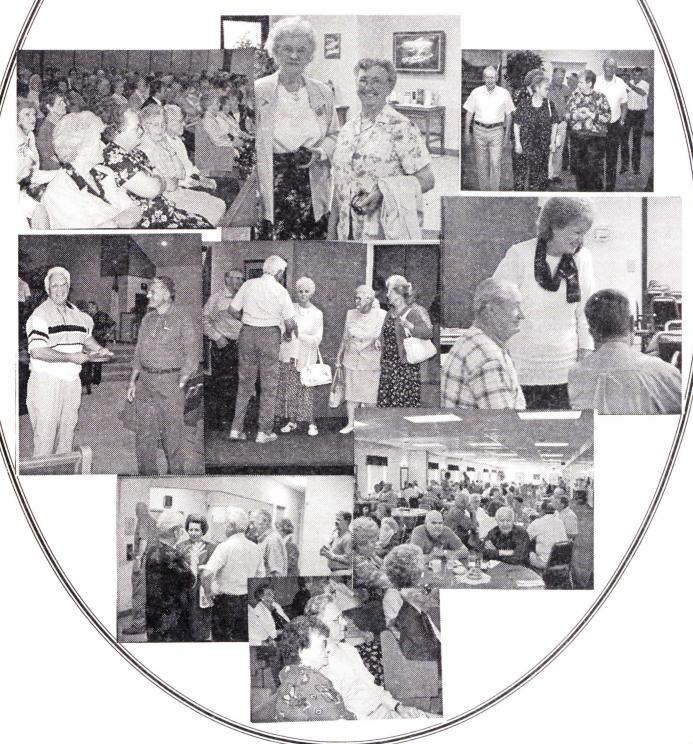

Oh that we would guard ourselves and our fellow Christians in such a way!!

BIBLE COLLEGE HIRES ADVANCEMENT DIRECTOR

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE-Rev. David Williford, a veteran Free Will Baptist pastor and an alumnus of Free Will Baptist Bible College, will be thenew Director of Institutional Advancement, according to President J. Matthew Pinson.

He replaces Rev. Roy Harris who, after 17 years at the college, has been called to the pastorate of Woodbine Free Will Baptist Church in Nashville.

Rev. Williford has broad denominational experience. Over a span of nearly 30 years, he has pastored churches in Florida, Tennessee, Alabama, and Arkansas. He has been at his present pastorate in Chipley, Florida, for 12 years. He has been a member of the Free Will Baptist Foreign Missions Board since 1996 and has served as Executive Secretary of the Florida State Association of Free Will Baptists for the past two years.

"FWBBC has had a tremendous impact on my life," he says. "I consider it a great honor to be asked to be a part of a ministry that has touched so many lives over the years. I am convinced that a strong and vibrant FWBBC is essential to a strong and vibrant Free Will Baptist denomination.

"President Pinson has indicated that, more than ever, he wants to find creative ways to allow FWBBC to be a service institution to our pastors and churches. Many of our men have not had the opportunity to attend the college but are open to ways the college can help them be more effective in their ministries. We have unprecedented opportunities to serve our churches and help them fulfill the task God has given them, and I'm excited to be a part of that."

Rev. Williford will move to Nashville in June to assume his new position.

Thank You

Praise be to God for once again allowing us to have a record breaking graduating class! A total of 58 students received their degrees from Hillsdale Free Will Baptist College for the 2001-2002 school year. It was exciting to watch these young men and women walk across the stage, and to know the tremendous opportunities they are being given to make a difference in our world for Christ. These outstanding accomplishments were made possible by the generous support of people like you, and we thank you.

Along with the excitement of graduation, we are amazed each and every day as we watch the progress being made on the construction of our new chapel/classroom facility. (Construction should be completed so that the 2002-2003 commencement ceremonies will take place in this new facility). If you would like to watch the day-to-day progress of this construction, visit our website at www.hc.edu.

News From the Pinkertons

Greetings from very sunny, very hot Bouna.

Well. I finally did it yesterday..fell off the bike on way to Women's Class..going too fast down a one lane cow path with several small rocks ..hit one & down I went..thankfully, narrow path with many bushes along sides, so think it all happened unobserved. Just skinned up knee & felt strain at neck, shoulder & elbow..hardly any scratches, but I did get up quite slowly..went on to class & applied some aloe vera from plants that I was taking to the women..made it a real show & tell time. Actually think the aloe vera on the scrapes helped with pain & promoted healing.

Jerry gave Church History test yesterday. So far, no passing grades vet..too many strange names & lots of date to memorize make it a hard class for most.. He's adding a bit of excitement down at the Bible Institute by putting out mouse traps/no mice yet, but caught two huge cockroaches. It sure is another HOT one here..We continue to walk evenings.

Dear Friends,

Today (Saturday) was a work day on the church property. While incorporating South Americans in a Spanish congregation has been a challenge, it was extremely encouraging to witness three Colombian believers work selflessly on their day off, for the Lord and His work.

I am continually surprised and refreshed by God's work in JHON FREDY —a Colombian believer and spiritual leader in the Villalba Church. He is a humble servant who also is growing in gentle, spiritual influence both in the church and in the community. In a place that is so difficult, we cannot say enough how thankful we are for God's blessing and work in the person of Jhon Fredy. Please continue to pray for him and his young family.

Please continue to pray for the VILLALBA CHURCH'S NEGOTIA-TIONS WITH GALAPAGAR'S MAYOR concerning a building permit.

McDonalds

Dear friends and partners in ministry,

GOOD NEWS! The church sign is up"Good News Chapel" is about to begin here in a suburb of Tokyo, Japan!

God has worked in the past few location and a storefront building to rent for the beginning of our church plant. The room is large enough to seat 100 and just two minutes' walk from the local train station. 12,000 flyers are being distributed in the newspaper and by hand announcing the start of English and Bible classes on June 3. Please pray that many in our community-made up of young families, university students and businessmen-will hear the GOOD NEWS of Jesus through this brand new preaching point.

Other GOOD NEWS includes the addition of two new members to our team. Brenda Wendlandt, a Free Will Baptist Bible College graduate from Oklahoma, joined us for a two-year term teaching English conversation. Then in May we welcomed Mrs. Amano, a young Japanese widow and recent graduate of a Bible College in Kobe, Japan. She was saved several years ago in one of our Free Will Baptist churches in Hokkaido after hearing the gospel for the first time at her husband's funeral. She will be focusing on women's and children's ministry. Since Brenda speaks only a little Japanese and Mrs. Amano no English, our team meetings have become very interesting! But we are thrilled to have them both helping us full-time.

God has also answered many prayers on behalf of the Iriso Church, the only other Free Will Baptist church in the Tokyo area. Although the young pastor did resign the ministry due to his wife's continuing struggle with depression, the church people have rallied and weathered the storm. In April, they called as their new pastor Mr. Kiyoshi Kojima. He was saved in the Free Will Baptist church in Hokkaido and recently earned his M.Div. from a seminary here in Tokyo. His coming has brought new enthusiasm and encouragement to the church-GOOD NEWS indeed for us as we look forward to partnering with them in our new church plant.

Easter Sunday was a day of GOOD NEWS for our family as Amy (8) followed the Lord in baptism! We are so thankful for the spiritual growth we've seen in her, as well as in Katie (14) and Evan (12) during this school year at CAJ (Christian Academy in Japan)...

Your prayers and faithful giving have made the launching of this new church possible and we thank you! As "Good News Chapel" grows into a fullyfunctioning church in the next weeks and months, we hope to be able to report to you many more reasons to rejoice! Your faithfulness makes the difference for all eternity to those who will come to Christ through the influence of this new church! May God bless us as we work together to advance His kingdom in another needy area of this unevangelized country.

Your servants for Jesus' sake. Donnie and Ruth McDonald (Katie, Evan, Amy and Caroline)

CHEATHAM NEWS

Hello to all our special friends! Becky and I just wanted to drop you a line and let you know about the work in Denver. We've recently hosted the Colorado State FWB meeting (5/4) and had a wonderful day of fellowship with our other churches in the state. There's not many of us in this part of the country but those that were here enjoyed the wonderful weather and the good food! The Director of Missionary Assistance for our Home Missions Department, Rev. Richard Atwood, was our guest speaker and he gave a wonderful message to all.

The church hasn't added any new members in recent weeks but we are seeing a strengthening of those we do have. I'm encouraged by the strong fellowship we have but our goal is to grow and we are taking steps to be more visible in the communities we serve and let more folks know about Mile High Free Will Baptist Church. Tomorrow (Saturthe annual 5/18) is "Thorntonfest" celebration in a city neighboring Northglenn and I'm going to use that time to get to know some of the planners of the major events in that city. We've already asked to be added to the list for their fall festival celebration during the Labor Day Weekend in September and are exploring the possibilities of being part of the annual Adams County Fair this fall as well. We hope to set up booths at these events to pass out literature about the church as well as goodies for the kids.

We also celebrated a wonderful event as we baptized our first person in our newly repaired baptistry this past weekend. Shantell Alvarez, a young mother of two, gave her heart to the Lord a few weeks back and we had several friends and family in attendance to celebrate with her. Afterwards, we traveled to downtown Denver for some great Barbeque and Ice Cream for Mother's Day. Becky joked it seemed more like a Father's Day meal to her!

The kids are doing well. School will be out in just a few weeks and Felicia and Devin can't wait. Felicia finished another year with girl scouts and Devin's in the heart of his first full Little League baseball season. I've gotten the pleasure to be his coach this year and it's been fun. The coaching duties have also allowed me the opportunity to meet some new folks and potential candidates for church as well. He plays on some beautiful fields in the North section of town with the Rocky Mountains as our backdrop in the outfield.

Becky started work at "Great Clips" earlier this year and is really enjoying herself. She's already won one of the girls in the salon to the Lord and she's been a regular attender at our church services. As a result of that lady's salvation, another has begun asking questions. Pray for her. Her name is Naomi and we would like to see her saved also!

For those of you regularly supporting our work here in Denver, we say a big "Thank You". The work here couldn't proceed without you! If you haven't supported us in a while, we really could use additional help with our missions account. I'll write more about this later.

In Christ

CONTRASTING VIEWS OF SALVATION: CALVINISM & ARMINIANISM

PICIRILLI AUTHORS NEW BOOK

In 13 well-crafted chapters Dr. Picirilli examines "the issues that have divided Calvinism and Arminianism since the Reformation." As he does so, he takes great pains to present the Calvinist position clearly and correctly. He also explains his position which he terms "Reformation Arminianism." The book is divided into five sections. In the first one, Dr. Picirilli "reviewed the historical setting as it involved the struggle of Arminius and the original Remonstrants." Each one of the remaining sections is "devoted to one of the four key issues: Predestination, Atonement, Salvation by Faith, and Perseverance." Each of these sections consists of three chapters. "The first sets forth the Calvinistic view, the next the Arminian view, and the last some Biblical theology studies in support of the Arminian view." In a day when too many believers place too little stress on doctrinal distinctives, this is a volume that is sorely needed. It is a welcome addition to the ongoing debate between Calvinists and Arminians written by a thoroughgoing Arminian. Dr. Picirilli is a well-known and highly respected scholar, having taught Greek and New Testament for more than 40 years, at Free Will Baptist Bible College. His writing reflects a thorough grasp of the differing views on this controversial topic. Gratefully, he has the rare gift of making such subjects understandable and interesting.

This book merits diligent study. Such effort will increase the reader's understanding of this centuries old conflict. It will also give him a greater appreciation for the Bible's teaching on predestination, atonement, salvation by faith, and perseverance.

The book may be purchased at the Lebanon Bible and Bookstore, 417-532-9516.
