FOURTH CHURCH CELEBRATES 50 YEARS

by Sue Winchester

March 23, 2003 marked a special day for Fourth Church. It was the 50th anniversary of its existence. Weeks prior to that we had worked and planned for this occasion. The Lord blessed our efforts with a wonderful day of praise and fellowship.

There were 135 in the morning service. Recognition of any past pastors of the church was made. Rev. John Rhodes and Rev. Nathan Ruble were in attendance. Greetings were read from Rev. Ken Dodson, Rev. Clarence Burton, and Rev. Steve Lytle and his wife, Judy who weren't able to attend.

From 1980-1986 Fourth had a school, Fourth Christian Academy. Some of its students were in attendance and were recognized.

Special music was rendered by David Pickett who sang a song he wrote. A ladies trio consisting of Camille Thiele, Marilyn (Anex) Johnson, and myself also sang. The latter have been at Fourth Church for over 20 years.

Rev. Nathan Ruble, a former pastor, preached the morning message. The scripture text was Joshua 3:1-6. Though the memories of the past are so precious, we must look ahead and focus on the future.

As we look ahead, we must do as in Verse 5....."Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you".

Following the morning service, we feasted on the fine food prepared by our women in the fellowship hall.

After the dinner, our hearts were blessed with gospel singing by the Golden Street Singers. Forty people came for the singing. So the total for the day was 175.

Once the singers had packed up their equipment and the sanctuary was ready for the evening service, we came together for an early evening service.

There was a time for testimonies. Then our present pastor, Rev. Gary Parker, preached an encouraging message taken from Acts 2:41-47.

I had the privilege of writing up the history and highlights of Fourth. I would like to close with an excerpt from those pages. "May today be more than nostalgia, but a renewed commitment to keep Fourth a lighthouse for lost souls in this community".

Jefferson City Mission Work Changes Name

Since we will not be regularly meeting at Westport in the future, we are now Jordan Free Will Baptist Church. Our church is changing. We recently purchased about six acres where we will be able to build and grow. Our land is about four miles South on Highway 54. The land is visible from Highway 54 and is a great location which may get even better. The city of Jefferson City is proposing an annexation that would almost put us inside the city. We are now meeting in the D.A.V. building about one block from our land.

We have had several visitors, one saved, and several rededications this month. God is blessing us. Our church is like family. We are now enjoying Sunday evening services. Our Wednesday service is our youth service. We looked at AWANA and other youth programs, but we created our own. We call it S.T.A.R.S. (Student Training And Recreation Service). Children earn star bucks by scripture memory, attendance, bringing Bible, answering questions and activities. We study lessons, sing and learn new songs, as well as play games. When they accumulate enough star bucks, they can buy prizes from the prize store. Since God is blessing us with children, we are ministering to them.

Pray for us. We need helpers. I know God will send us workers and we will be grateful. Thank you for supporting Missouri Home Missions which allows us to serve Christ here in Jefferson City, Missouri.

JOPLIN FIRST CELEBRATES ANNIVERSARY AND DEDICATES NEW BUILDING

New Family Life Center

The First Free Will Baptist Church of Joplin celebrated two special events on Sunday April 6th, the Fiftieth Anniversary of the church and the dedication of a new Family Life Center. The warm welcome of pastor Richard Robinson; the great music of the choir directed by Larry Beck; and the gospel message preached by former pastor Dr. Alton Loveless in the morning worship service gave expression to the joy and thanksgiving of the occasion.

Over two hundred people attended the afternoon service to remember and testify of God's blessings during the past fifty years. Special music was provided by the church choir and Robert Nutting, and Rev. Dale Skiles, Director of Missouri State Home Missions, delivered a challenging devotion.

Charter members, Fred and Barbara Oxendine, led in recognizing events and individuals in the history of the church. They gave special recognition to the family of the founding pastor, Rev. Paul Williams. Brother Paul is deceased. His wife, Opal, and several of the family were present and shared memories of the church. They read the roll of pastors who had pastored the church and gave opportunity for those who were there to share their memories. The church was pastored by: Paul Williams 1953 - 1963, Ted Davis 1963 - 1966, Alton Loveless 1966 - 1970, Andy Lay 1970 - 1973, N.R. Smith 1974 - 1981, Jim Shepherd 1981 - 1983, John Turner 1983 - 1984, Richard Robinson 1984 - present.

The church began with 19 charter members. Eight of those were present for the service. Sister Oxendine also gave recognition to the eight ministers which have been called to preach while attending the Joplin church: Randy Bishop, Otho Boyd, Tim Eaton, Lester Nutting, Josh Sooter, Matt Sooter, Jim Williams, Martin Wilson.

Two missionaries have been called from the church and were recognized: Marta (Eaton) Greenman and Paula McClure.

Following the anniversary service the congregation was dismissed from the sanctuary to the family life center for the dedication service. The ladies of the church had the family life center beautifully decorated for the occasion. The 8250 square feet addition has given the church new class rooms, a fully equipped kitchen, and a gym.

The service opened with the Chairman of the Trustee Board, Lynn Oxendine, recognizing Rev. Lester Nutting who led in the opening prayer. Brother Oxendine then had the Trustees and the Deacons come forward for where they were recognized for their labors on behalf of building the new center. The congregation gave them a standing vote of thanks as they applauded. Special recognition was given to Trustee Matt Vanorman. He was presented a gift of appreciation for his unselfish work in the building of the new building. Pastor Richard Robinson and his wife Betty were also singled out and applauded for their leadership and service to the church.

Pastor Robinson shared his appreciation for the congregation and for the leaders of the church. He spoke of their willingness to give and of their willingness to labor to see the fulfillment of the church's vision for the new facility to become a reality. He then introduced Nathan Ruble, Executive Secretary of the Missouri State Association, who shared greetings and commendations from the state association. He then spoke from 1 Kings 8. At the conclusion of his message, he invited the chairman of the Trustees, Lynn Oxendine, and the chairman of the Deacons, to come forward. He presented them with a beautiful plaque which had been prepared for the church by Pastor Richard and Sister Betty Robinson and their family. The plaque is inscribed with the date of the building and the names of those leaders who were involved in leading the church in building the new building. Rev. Randy Rains, a former member of the church and youth pastor of the First Free Will Baptist Church in Farmington, prayed the prayer of dedication.

Cake and punch was enjoyed by the congregation as they fellowshiped following the service.

ROY THOMAS - GONE HOME

Dr. Roy L. Thomas, former General Director of the Home Missions Department of the National Association of Free Will Baptists, went home to be with the Lord Sunday night, March 23, 2003, at his home in Greeley, Colorado. His battle against pancreatic cancer was bravely fought, and victory was his when he left this life and stepped into a hero's welcome in Heaven - the place he had preached about for fifty years.

Dr. Thomas was born in Greeley, Colorado, and grew up on a farm near Buhl, Idaho. After high school graduation, he attended the University of Idaho in 1948-49. He served in the U. S. Air Force the years of 1951-1955, with foreign service in Korea and Japan.

He accepted Christ as his Savior in 1951 at the First Free Will Baptist Church, Buhl, Idaho, but was immediately sent to Korea. After returning to the states, he was ordained as a Free Will Baptist minister in 1954, and also was married to his wife, Pat, who is a native of Hobbs, New Mexico. He organized the First Free Will Baptist Church of Artesia, New Mexico, that same year.

After serving the Artesia congregation for two years, he moved to Nashville, Tennessee, to attend Free Will Baptist Bible College. He graduated with honors from that institution in 1960 with a Bachelor of Arts Degree. While a student he pastored two different churches in Tennessee—Shady Grove Free Will Baptist Church and First Free Will Baptist Church, Springfield, Tennessee.

Dr. Thomas was sent to Denver, Colorado, as a home missionary by the National Home Missions Board in 1961 where he established the First Free Will Baptist Church of that city. The church became self supporting in two years, after which he served for two terms on the National Home Missions Board. He furthered his education by earning a Masters of Divinity Degree from Luther Rice Seminary in 1978, and was granted a Doctor of Divinity Degree from Bethany Seminary in 1989.

In December 1970 he was appointed as Associate Director of the National Home Missions Department, Nashville, Tennessee, and became General Director in 1978. He served in that position until his retirement in December 1995, making a total of 25 years on the National Home Missions staff, and a total of 35 years' affiliation with the Department.

While he served as General Director of the Home Missions Department, there were over 200 churches established

SPEAKERS FOR THE 90TH SESSION OF THE MISSOURI STATE ASSOCIATION

The 90th session of the Missouri State Association of Free Will Baptists will be held June 2 - 4, 2003, at the Cowan Civic Center in Lebanon, Missouri. The theme of this year's convention is "Guarding our Heritage." Four speakers - Rev. Max Courtney, Rev. Jim Williams, Rev. Dale Skiles and Rev. Keith Burden will develop the theme.

The Monday evening message will be delivered by Rev. Max Courtney. The Missouri native was born in Licking, Missouri. He was converted in 1949 at the Tyrone Free Will Baptist Church and was ordained to preach in 1953.

During his 53 years in the ministry, Brother Courtney has pastored ten churches in Missouri and two churches in Illinois. He has been in his present pastorate at the New Life Free Will Baptists Church since 1998.

Brother Max has held a number of leadership positions in Missouri State Ministries. He served on the State Youth Camp Board for 13 years. He has also served on the State General Board and Executive Committee and as Moderator of both the South Central and Mission District Associations. While in Illinois, he served as State Youth Ministries Director and Foreign Missions Director.

He and his wife Ruth have one daughter, Phyllis.

Rev. Jim Williams will fill the pulpit Tuesday evening. He was born in Carterville, Missouri, and was converted in 1952, and ordained to preach in 1974 at the First Free Will Baptist Church in Joplin, Missouri.

He has pastored two churches, the Southside Free Will Baptist Church in Denver, Colorado, and the Free Will Baptist Church of Carthage where he presently pastors. He founded the Carthage church while serving as a National Home Missionary.

Brother Jim has held a number of offices both on the District and State level in Missouri and Colorado. He presently serves as the Assistant Moderator of the Missouri State Association of Free Will Baptists. He holds a master's degree from the Denver Theological Seminary.

Jim and his wife Grace have three children, Dennis, Denise, and Tammi.

The Wednesday morning worship service will have Rev. Dale Skiles delivering the message. He was born in Salem, Missouri, and was converted in 1958. Dale was ordained to preach the gospel in 1959 at the Richwoods Free Will Baptist Church. He has pastored 5 churches in Missouri and one in Iowa. Two of those churches, St. Joseph and Bettendorf, Iowa, he served as a home missionary in founding the churches.

Bother Skiles has served on the Missouri State Home Mission Board for 22 years and presently serves as Director of State Home Missions. He has served the state as Moderator and Chairman of the Youth Camp Board. He served 3 years on the National General Board and Executive Committee.

He and his wife Elaine have three daughters, Crystal, Carla, and Laura.

Living in Fear

by Micah Derby

As most of my fellow Missourians are aware, my departure for France is coming very soon. I have traveled from one side of Missouri to the other visiting with you and sharing my burden for the lost French Muslim people.

During my travels I have been asked many questions concerning my ministry, but it seems one of the most common questions, especially in light of recent events, is are you scared for your life, do you have fear?

On the one hand, yes I'm scared. Thoughts of leaving my family, friends, my home church, and taking my wife to a new place to minister among a people who do not exactly like us because of where we are from and who we serve as our God are very prevalent in my mind. Knowing well that one day my faith in Christ could cost us our lives - to be honest, it can be a little frightening.

Then, there is the other hand - no, I am not scared. When I think of what God has done in my life to bring me where I stand today, how could I be scared?

I know no fear because God has commissioned all who believe in Him to go and bring people into fellowship with Christ.

I know no fear because we live in a world with over one billion Muslim believers who worship a god who does not hear them, and if I live my life in fear, how will they know the love of Christ's eternal gift of salvation?

Lastly, I know no fear because God has brought me and my wife to this point in our lives, and we have the security in our faith that one day we will live eternally with Him no matter the cost during this life. He has been preparing us all our lives for this moment, and our lives' purpose will come to fruition on August 27, 2003, as we will walk confidently onto our plane as it departs for the country of France. In France, we will boldly seek to bring new worshipers to the throne so that through your obedience of supporting His work and our obedience of going, many will come to know Him as their savior.

Harvest Free Will Baptist Mission

We want to thank each of you for your prayers. The Lord is blessing and we are growing. Two additional families have started coming recently.

We are desperately praying the Lord will open a door for us to acquire some property or building. It won't be long before we outgrow our present space.

We had our high attendance this past Sunday with 45 in attendance!

This Sunday, April 6th starts our revival services. Bro Scott McNay will be serving as our evangelist. We have had several cottage prayer meetings and services to prepare for these services. We know that revival starts in our hearts first.

Continue to hold our mission church before the Lord.

Our hope is to have our first Communion and Foot Washing service on Easter and look forward to a great fellowship in the Lord.

In Christ,
Bro Gene, Sandy, Jon Howell
