Report of the Resolutions Committee

Resolution One

Whereas September 11, 2001, has forever changed our way of life in the United States of America; and,

Whereas our President, George W. Bush, Jr., has given clear and decisive leadership in the war against terrorism and in the protection of our freedoms; and,

Whereas the United States military are graciously sacrificing their lives on the front lines in that war; and, Whereas it is our duty to pray "for kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty;" and,

Whereas "rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil...for he beareth not the sword in vain; for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil;"

Be it therefore resolved, that the Georgia State Association of Free Will Baptists give a rising vote of support for the President of the United States of America, Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld and it's military;

Be it also resolved, that the Clerk of said association send a letter of support to the President and to the Secretary of Defense and a copy of this resolution.

Resolution Two

Whereas hosting the Georgia State Association of Free Will Baptists, requires extra time, effort and resources by the host church; and,

Whereas the Camden Free Will Baptist Church and her pastor, Rev. Billy Bevan, Jr., have so wonderfully and graciously provided these for us this year;

Be it therefore resolved, that the delegates and visitors of this meeting give a rising vote of thanks to them for a job well done!

Respectfully submitted by: Steve Hughes, Chairman; Cliff Holland, Matt Price, and John Amburgey.

Executive Secretary/Treasurer Report March 2001 – March 2002

Welcome to the Sixty-sixth Annual Session of the Georgia State Association of Free Will Baptists. We have gathered to celebrate the victories of 2001, worship and praise the Lord, and conduct business. As we look over the reports of 2001 and see how the Lord has blessed our state, we need to be mindful of the tremendous opportunities and responsibilities that lie before us.

Thank you for your faithful financial support during 2001. Receipts through the State Office totaled $689,338.37. Of this amount $227,346.57 was Cooperative Giving, $140,898.61 was Georgia Acts 1:8 Giving, and $321,093.19 was Designated Giving. Compared to 2000 we had a 5.5% increase in giving through the State Office. All of the financial reports found in this digest cover the period from January 1, 2001 to December 31, 2001.

The combined attendance for Teen Camp and all the district Junior Camps set a new record. We had record attendance for our Couples Retreat and Winter Teen Retreat. There was an increase in attendance for our Minister's Retreat, Minister's Wives Retreat, and State CTS competition. The events of September 11th had an effect on the attendance at our Minister's Wives Retreat and Senior Citizens Retreat.

The Georgia Foreign Mission team of Dale and Sandra Bishop, Debbie Griffin, and Nathan and Linda Snow are making progress in establishing new Mission Churches in the city of Hokkaido, Japan. Nathan and Linda will be returning home at the end of April for a year of stateside ministry. If you would like to have the Snows visit your church please contact the State Office.

Ron and Janice Wallace have seen some growth in Fairbanks, Alaska. They were able to purchase eleven acres of land on the main highway between Fairbanks and North Pole, Alaska. Plans are being made to construct the new church building during the summers of 2002 and 2003. Paul and Gail Smith continue to labor in Hampton, Georgia. They have completed their first year in the new building. The church has seen many visitors during the past quarter. Billy and Shara Bevan have just completed their second year in Kingsland, Georgia. The church has seen significant growth since last June. They now average in the mid-fifties for morning worship. There is a large turn over in population in Camden County due to the Navy base. Please continue to pray as this church tries to reach the many new young people who move into the area each month.

One area of concern is the continued rise in the average age of the pastors in the state of Georgia. In the next ten years over half of our current pastors will be reaching retirement age. Please pray that "the Lord of the Harvest" will send forth laborers. We need to be concerned when we see how few of our young men are answering the call to the ministry. Soon there will be a large number of pulpits empty and missionary assignments to be filled.

Thank you for your prayers and support for the State Office. You have been very hospitable and gracious as I have visited many churches and homes this past year. If I can ever be of any assistance please do not hesitate to call.

May God Bless!

William Smith

Board of Camping Report March 2001 – March 2002

Camp season 2001 will be remembered in the years to come as a high-water mark for Free Will Baptist youth. From each associational Junior Camp to Teen Camp, these gatherings were blessed by God's presence and His guidance.

As a little boy, I often tired before my father. When I complained that I was tired, he would say, "I'm tired too, but it's a good kind of tired." Now, I fully understand what my father meant. After spending much of June in camp, I was tired physically, but it was that good kind of tired.

NO OTHER NAME. At Teen Camp, 2001, 148 teens came together to spend a week together at the FFA/FHA Camp at Covington. Arriving on Sunday afternoon, it was soon evident that this would be no ordinary week. The enemy broke a young girl's foot as she was entering the building to register. Sunday night, as the alter call was made, seventeen made first time decisions for Christ. I pondered, "How can this get any better?" Well, my faith was weak. God met with us in a fantastic way. Each day got better and better. By the end of the week, as best we can tell, twenty-five made first time decisions, over 100 rededications and assurances of salvation, and twenty answered a call to ministry (preaching, missionary work, pastor's wife, Christian School teacher, etc.). Thursday evening was the highlight, as each one that answered a call to ministry came to the altar, and we had a dedicatory prayer for them. In the evaluation surveys, the worship services and the morning classes garnered the highest marks, while the food and facilities came in lower. What a testimony to the power of prayer and the hand of God at work.

Teen Camp will be at Camp Echeconnee, in Lizella, Georgia, July 14-19. Mark Walker will serve as director this year. He will assemble a capable staff to assist him with Teen Camp this summer. He deserves our prayers and support as he leads this vital ministry.

Favorable comments continue to be received concerning the grants from this board to our local associations to assist them in the operation of their camp sessions. We ask each local camp board to remember the guidelines for those grants.

1. Each association is to submit a written request for the grant by April 15th preceding the camp session. Failure to meet the deadline will result in the forfeiture of the grant.
2. Following the camp session, a deadline of October 1st, is set for you to give a financial account of your camp session. A form will be provided by the board, and this form will require two signatures. Failure to meet the deadline will result in the forfeiture of the grant for the following year.

Our prayer is that these funds will enable our local associations to provide a quality camping ministry to the highest possible number of campers.

Rejoice with us as we recount for you the stats for last summer.

1. Chattahoochee/GA Union: 92 campers, 18 counselors, 110 total
 2. Little River: 51 campers, 16 counselors, 67 total
 3. Martin & Midway: 93 campers, 19 counselors, 112 total
 4. Ogeechee: 67 campers, 11 counselors, 78 total
 5. South Georgia: 28 campers, 10 counselors, 38 total
 6. Twin Cities: 74 campers, 14 counselors, 88 total
 7. Union: 108 campers, 35 counselors, 143 total
 8. Teen Camp: 148 campers, 27 counselors, 175 total
- Grand Total: 661 campers, 150 counselors, 811 total

Braving the cold December weather, 195 retreated to the Church of God campground near Lizella, Georgia, at the end of the year to renew their relationship to God. Another memorable gathering or our youth as they heard the Word, were challenged to live the Word, and were motivated to share the Word.

It is our joy to serve you as a Camp Board. Please pray for each member representing our local associations as we endeavor to lift Jesus up for our youth and our world to see. Our prayer is that Jesus will be glorified in each of our decisions.

Respectfully Submitted,

Paul Creech, Board Chairman

Christian Education Board Report
March 2001- March 2002

Are we there yet? I do not know whose line this is but it has a familiar ring when you travel! The CE Board has traveled more rapidly it seems in recent years. We may still be the newest "kid on the block", but we have one of the busiest agendas and schedule of activities throughout the year.

Our retreats could keep you up and traveling since there are at least four. We have a Couples retreat, a Ministers' Retreat, a Minister's Wives' Retreat and a Senior Citizens Retreat. These retreats have been well received in recent years throughout the state and their progress can only be credited to each of you. We are very grateful for your support and will do what we are able to continue to provide them for you. Please let us know how we might improve the retreats or what else you would like to see done. After all we are your servants.

Our board continues its distribution of funds to students who request them each semester of college. A student may request $200.00 per semester. Anyone who knows the value of a dollar appreciates this amount. This amount has at least doubled since we started distributing funds to our students back in 1988.

If you have been reading your Promotional Bulletin you are aware of Dr. Lynn Frazier's enthusiasm for Christian education. Several articles have been written and printed for the bulletin throughout this accounting period concerning the need for a system of Bible Institutes throughout our state. Dr. Frazier has pursued the task of promoting and establishing an institute(s) feverishly since early last year. Recently a pilot class was taught. Dr. Frazier is to be commended for his vision and work. Please continue to demonstrate and express your support for this much needed promotion throughout our state.

At the time of this report I am unaware of anything that as occurred with the Historical Society except that Geraldine Waid is working on the slow and painstaking project of indexing the Georgia State Association minutes. Please let me encourage those of you who read this report to encourage your members within your church to keep historical documents. If you have historical information that you do not know what to do with, please contact Geraldine Waid or me so that we might assist in its preservation.

Thanks for your support,

Willie C. Martin, Board Chairman

Mission Board Report March 2001 – March 2002

The primary purpose of the State Mission Board is to establish churches within the state of Georgia. At the present time we are working to establish churches in Hampton and Kingsland, Georgia. The Georgia State Mission Board has also adopted Ron Wallace as a joint project with the National Home Mission Board to establish a church in Fairbanks, Alaska.

Paul and Gail Smith are our missionaries to Hampton, Georgia. Paul moved to the Atlanta area five years ago to work with the North Fayette mission, which was started by Luther Burns. The congregation along with the Mission Board thought it would be best to relocate because of the changing demographics of the area where the original building was constructed. After a long process the congregation moved into their new building in September of 2000, with dedication service in November 2000.

Many of you were able to see the new building at last years State Association. The new building has a sanctuary that will seat 190 people comfortably. It also has six Sunday school rooms, a nursery, fellowship hall, kitchen, secretary office, and pastor office. Sod was added to the front portion of the property in August.

At this time the congregation is averaging twenty-five for worship on Sunday mornings. There are several homes being built in the area. Please pray for Brother Paul to be able to reach some of the new families who are moving into this area.

The South Georgia Association asked the Georgia State Mission Board to take over the Camden Mission in the summer of 1999. Billy and Shara Bevan moved to Kingsland, in November of 1999. When Billy first arrived he spent quiet a bit of time cleaning and painting the present facility. A Sunday school program and Children's Church was organized during the first few months.

When arriving in Kingsland Billy had about fifteen people to work with. This included adults and children. After two years of much prayer and hard work the mission is now averaging about fifty-five on Sunday mornings. This is a real blessing when you consider the turn over rate in the Kingsland area due to the military base. Please continue to pray for Billy and Shara as they have the opportunity to minister to the many young people that God moves into this area.

Ron and Janice Wallace have done a tremendous job in Fairbanks, Alaska. They started with eight people three years ago and are now averaging in the mid thirties. The congregation was able to purchase eleven acres of land last year for the purpose to relocate their mission church. Plans are now being made to build a new building. Because of the inclement conditions it will take two years to complete the new building. Please pray for Ron and Janice as they labor in the Fairbanks area.

The mission board is in the process of writing a Mission Board Manual. Guidelines will be established for hiring new missionaries and working with new mission projects. The board feels this manual is needed as we plan to move into new areas and build churches in the future.

Please continue to pray for our mission projects and our mission board.

Respectfully Submitted,

Russell Horne, Board Chairman

Trustee Board Report
March 2001 – March 2002

Since we met as a State Association last March, the State Trustee Board has been hard at work. We have already purchased two beautiful acres of property on Georgia Highway 90 in Cordele, Georgia. It has been purchased, paid for, and deeded to the State Association. The survey work is being done presently on the property, and we are now beginning a state wide Capitol Stewardship Campaign, in order to raise the necessary funds for this project.

We are asking each church of our state to get excited about this project, and challenge their congregations to give very generously to this endeavor for the next three years. Some churches and individuals have already responded. If you and your church haven't yet, we are asking you to do so very soon. We believe God has given us an open window of opportunity to get this project finished. If every Church in our State will generously support this project, it will be an easy task to complete.

We are looking at an early 2003 start-up time for construction, with hopes of completion in late spring. Please pray for and support this project. With your support and the Lord's grace, I am confident we will have a beautiful State Office built and paid in full that we all can be proud of, and thankful to the Lord for!

Until He Comes

AUDITING COMMITTEE REPORT
GEORGIA STATE ASSOCIATION OF FREE WILL BAPTISTS

We, the Auditing Committee met on January 26, 2002 at the State Office in Colquitt to conduct the annual audit. Financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2001 were examined and reviewed.

The committee found all State Office records to be in order and properly documented. The review process included examining bank statements, reconciliation statements and receipts. Brother William Smith has managed the Georgia State Association office's books and financial reporting in an exceptional manner. Systems of checks and balances are in place to ensure that all monies received and disbursed are accounted for in detailed fashion. We wish to commend Brother William Smith for his hard work and dedication.

GEORGIA WOMEN ACTIVE FOR CHRIST
CAMDEN FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH
MARCH 14, 2002

Vice-President Debra Van Pelt welcomed everyone prior to the business session. Rachel Horne led the congregation in "We Have Come Into His House" and "People Need the Lord". Wendy Horne then sang "Resting Place". We were privileged to have Betty Arnold, Missionary to West Africa, as our morning speaker. She was dressed in a beautiful West African replica of a hand-made dress made by a pedal sewing machine. She prayed and then read from Philippians 3: 10-11. She described some of their experiences in the mission field such as poisonous vipers, bats, scorpions, annual plagues of flying stinkbugs, malaria, and other diseases experienced by her and other family members. She made the point that we can and should be content with whatever God brings into our lives. She said we are not useful to God in spite of our scars, but because of them and that through suffering, we are perfected. She concluded by encouraging everyone to be thankful for the time we have with our loved ones, and that it is not important how long we live, but how we live.

The 2002 Business Session was then opened by singing "Heaven Came Down" which was led by Rachel Horne.
