Proceedings of the 72nd Annual Session of the GAFWB

The minutes of the Seventy-second Annual Session of the Georgia State Association of Free Will Baptists, convened at the First Free Will Baptist Church in Albany, Georgia, on March 12th – 14th, 2008.

WEDNESDAY EVENING WORSHIP SERVICE

The evening began with a prelude of special music by “Greater Joy”, a group of ladies from the Albany First FWB Church. Rev. Billy Hanna welcomed everyone to the 72nd Annual Session of Georgia Free Will Baptists.

The congregation and choir, led by Rev. Ben Crabtree, joined together in singing “Come Christians Join and Sing” and “Joyful, Joyful We Adore Thee”. Rev. Irvin Hyman led in prayer.

Soloist Sister Donna Walker, accompanied by the Celebration Choir, sang a worship inspiring song entitled, “I Bless Your Name”. The choir and congregation lifted their voices in praise, singing together “Sanctuary” and “Take My Life”. A group of men and women from the Albany church called “Sounds of Praise” brought the congregation to their feet with a rousing rendition of “Total Praise”.

Rev. Billy Hanna introduced the evening speaker Rev. Grover Jewell, the pastor of Cornerstone FWB Church in Ft. Valley, Georgia. Rev. Jewell brought the evening message entitled “Lifting Up Laymen”, using Ephesians 4:1-7 as his text.

The congregation sang “Just As I Am” as an invitational hymn.

Moderator Len Blanchard appointed the Committee and Committees as follows: Rev. S.E. Newberry – Chairman, Rev. Steve Dowless, Rev. Mike Mounts, Rev. Rick Cason, and Rev. Aaron Baldrige.

The congregation sang “We Will Stand” as a closing song.

THURSDAY MORNING BIBLE CONFERENCE

Rev. Len Blanchard presided over the Thursday morning Bible Conference and Rev. Ron Wallace opened the meeting with prayer.

Rev. Donnie Burke led the men in singing “Blessed Be the Name of the Lord”. Rev. Ben Crabtree ministered in song with a special selection entitled “Ancient Words”.

Rev. Len Blanchard, speaking as the Moderator and on behalf of the Executive Board, explained that this year’s Bible Conference would focus on the vision casting of the State Boards. He challenged each Board and each church to let the Light of Christ shine in and through them, leaving behind a legacy of faithfulness and fruitfulness.

The Chairman of the State Trustee Board, Rev. Russell Horne, spoke concerning the responsibilities of the Board as managers of state properties. The desire of the Board is to continue to be good stewards of God’s blessings. He read from Romans 15:1-15 and closed by showing a slide show of recent renovations at the State Office, with Rev. William Smith providing commentary.

After a brief recess, Brother Todd Horne led the men in “To God Be the Glory”. The Horne men (Russell, Tim and Todd), accompanied by Len Blanchard, sang “He Touched Me”, with the other men in attendance joining in on the last verse.

Rev. Danny Ryals, Assistant Chairman of the State Mission Board, spoke in the absence of the Chairman, Rev. Paul Creech, who is undergoing treatment for cancer. He read the 127th Psalm as an introduction to his comments. The Board’s objective is to plant churches in Georgia. There are currently three church plants in progress: Cartersville, Valdosta, and the newest work in Harris County. The biggest obstacle to new church plants is finding a suitable and qualified church-planter. Rev. Jay Hollis, the church planter in Harris County, shared briefly concerning the work there and asked the association to be in special prayer for some new contacts he has made with area residents.

State Christian Education Board Chairman Rev. Randy Jackson began his comments by reading Joel 2:28. The C.E. Board is charged with organizing retreats, administering scholarships and overseeing the State Youth Competition. They are constantly searching for new and creative ways to get more of our people involved and see their role as one of promoting discipleship at the statewide level.

Rev. Mark Walker, serving as the State Camp Board Chairman, read 1 Corinthians 15:58 and then shared concerning the particular challenges to reaching this generation of young people with the Gospel. The Board is constantly looking for ways to get more youth to the summer camp and winter retreat, without compromising or watering down the message of Christ. He closed his comments by reading Psalm 78:1-8.

Rev. Len Blanchard dismissed the meeting in prayer.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

Call to Session & Preliminaries

At 2:00 PM, the GAFWB convened with Rev. Tim Horne leading the congregation in "When We All Get To Heaven". Clerk Keith Lloyd officially called the Seventy-second Annual Session of the Georgia State Association of Free Will Baptists to order and introduced the Moderator, Rev. Len Blanchard.

Executive Board Report

Clerk Keith Lloyd gave the Executive Board report. The report included a proposed 2009 COOP Budget of $350,000.00 and a proposal to hold the 2009 GAFWB at the Calvary FWB Church in Columbus. A motion was made to receive the report as read. The motion was seconded and carried.

Executive Secretary / Treasurer Report

Executive Secretary/Treasurer William Smith gave the Executive Office report and began by thanking the First FWB Church of Albany for hosting the session again.

In spite of a downturn in the economy and a slight decrease in COOP gifts, all of our Georgia missionary accounts are in the black and the State Boards are also in good shape financially. The goal of the Executive Office is to have all of our churches giving to the COOP and Acts 1:8 budgets.

Bro. William reminded the Association that God has blessed Georgia and placed us in a unique position to fulfill the Great Commission by bringing the mission field to our door. With that position also comes a great responsibility: "To whom much is given, much is also required."

Randall House will offer a Team Church Seminar in August to provide training for church leadership; and, the National Association International Mission Board will hold a meeting in April to present and gain input concerning the implementation of a new missions funding program.

A motion was made, seconded and carried to receive the report.

GWAC & National Reports

Executive Secretary Rev. Keith Burden presented a report for the National Executive Office and ONE Magazine. He began by thanking Georgia for their support and for their representation on various National boards and ministries. He also shared information concerning registration for the 2008 National Convention. ONE Magazine continues to expand its circulation. The report was received as information.

Sister Debra Van Pelt reported for the Georgia Women Active for Christ (GWAC). A motion was made, seconded and carried to receive the report. The GWAC report will be included in its entirety in the minutes of the 72nd Annual Session. Sister Marjorie Workman also submitted a written report for Women Nationally Active for Christ (WNAC).

Rev. David Williford reported for the Free Will Baptist Bible College (FWBBC), thanking Georgia for their longstanding support and encouraging continued investment in the present and future of our denomination. The report was received as information.

Brother Eric Pushman reported for Randall House Publications. The D6 campaign is going well, emphasizing that Christian education begins in the home, not the church. Several new books have been published and sales continue to increase. Randall House remains committed to FWB doctrinal distinctives in their Sunday School literature. The report was received as information.

Rev. Barry Simpson reported for the International Missions Department (FWBIM). He began by asking for special prayer for the Rev. Bob Shockey family as they grieve the loss of their husband and father. FWBIM is grateful for the support of Georgia. The World Mission Offering continues to grow and the department anticipates another record-breaking year. Rev. Nathan Snow, missionary to Japan, also thanked Georgia for their investment in home and foreign missions. The report was received as information.

Rev. Ray Lewis gave a report from the national association's Retirement and Insurance Department. He thanked Georgia for their representation in the department and encouraged greater participation from Association pastors. The department is available to answer questions and structure plans according to each individual's need. The report was received as information.

Brother David Brown represented the Free Will Baptist Foundation and thanked several individuals for their support and involvement in the Foundation. Investments managed by the Foundation will benefit FWB missions and ministries for generations to come. The report was received as information.

Rev. Tim Eaton reported for Hillsdale Free Will Baptist Bible College. He thanked the Association for their support and offered to answer any questions concerning the Hillsdale Master's Degree program in Georgia. The report was received as information.

Rev. Herbert Waid led the Association in prayer for many special needs among our denomination and its faithful men and women, and dismissed the session.

THURSDAY EVENING WORSHIP SESSION

The Georgia Boys Quartet (Donnie Burke, Mark Walker, Tim and Todd Horne) provided special music as a prelude to the evening worship service.

Bro. Monte McKenzie led the congregation in singing "At the Cross". Rev. Rick Cason welcomed everyone and Rev. Mike Mounts led in an opening prayer.

The congregation pledged allegiance to the American and Christian flags and to the Word of God.

The congregation sang a medley of worshipful songs that included "Near the Cross", "My Jesus I Love Thee" and "Above All". The Jewell family sang a special selection entitled "I'll Serve You Honestly".

Rev. Cason introduced the speaker for the evening, our National Executive Secretary, Rev. Keith Burden. Using several related passages of Scripture, Bro. Keith spoke to us on the subject of "Celebrating the Ordinances".

The congregation sang "Near the Cross" as an invitational hymn.

Announcements were made and Rev. Willie Martin led the session in prayer. The meeting closed with the congregation singing "We Will Stand".

FRIDAY MORNING BUSINESS SESSION

Rev. Randy Jackson led the congregation in singing “Joy Unspeakable” and Dr. Bill Lewis led in an opening prayer. Assistant Moderator Wayne Miracle began the session with a Scripture reading from 2 Timothy 4:1.

After welcoming remarks by the Moderator, Dr. Charles Thigpen appealed to the Association to help retire debt on FWBBC properties on West End Avenue that have been renovated. Prayer and support was solicited with a goal to retire the debt by May.

Board of Christian Education

Rev. Randy Jackson gave a report for the Board of Christian Education. The State retreats were well attended and a blessing to our people. The Historical Society continues to generate interest and support and will be publishing two articles annually in the Promotional Bulletin. Youth Competition was held at White Oaks Church in Macon. Several of our youth also placed at the National level. The Master's Course is still progressing at the rate of one class every quarter. Charles Clark Scholarships have been provided to 22 FWBBC students from Georgia. This report and the financial report are included in the Digest of Reports.

A motion was made, seconded and carried to receive the report as information.

Board of Camping Report

Rev. Mark Walker gave the report for the Board of Camping. Teen Camp will be held at Camp Echeconnee in Lizella on May 25 – 30. Rev. Matt Price will serve as the camp evangelist. With public schools systems moving towards a “year-round” calendar, it is getting more difficult to accommodate everyone with the timing of camp. The Winter Retreat was held at Epworth by the Sea on St. Simon's Island. The Camp Board continues to support district Junior Camps with $1,600.00 “grants”. Though the Camp Board budget is in the red, adjustments have been made and the issue will be resolved in the 2009 budget. This report and the financial report are included in the Digest of Reports.

A motion was made, seconded and carried to receive the report as information.

Board of Missions Report

Rev. Paul Creech gave the Board of Missions report. Georgia missionaries Dr. Bill Lewis, Rev. Bill Crank, Rev. Jay Hollis and Rev. Ron Wallace were recognized. Property has been acquired in both Cartersville and in Valdosta. The church planter and launch team are ready to begin a new work in Harris County. The Northern Lights FWB Church continues to reach souls for Christ in Alaska. This report and the financial report are included in the Digest of Reports.

A motion was made, seconded and carried to receive this report as information.

Board of Trustees Report

Rev. Russell Horne gave the report for the Board of Trustees. All of the work on the State Office is now complete. The Archives Room itself is worth a visit. Slides were shown that revealed the quality of the work. Sister Geraldine Waid, who has tirelessly worked on the Archives, shared her excitement and enthusiasm over the large collection of historical documents and displays in the Archives Room. The State has very adequate insurance that covers not only property loss or damage, but also personal injury and liability. This report and the financial report are included in the Digest of Reports.

A motion was made, seconded and carried to receive this report as information.

Brother Ken Akers reported for the Master's Men Department. Several projects, fellowship opportunities and fund-raising efforts are in the works. Participation and support was encouraged. The report was received as information.

Rev. Larry Powell gave a report from the Home Missions Department. He thanked the state for their prayers and financial support. Twenty-three new churches have been planted in North America and quite a few more are in the planning and preparation stage. The report was received as information.

Rev. Mike Nabors reported for the Alabama Children's Home. There are presently twenty children in the home and thirty-four have been served this year. Five of those have made decisions to receive Christ as Savior. Several projects are in the works to expand and enhance the ministry of the Home. The report was received as information.

Rev. Jim Tolbert reported for the Free Will Baptist Family Ministries, which are headquartered in Greeneville, Tennessee. The ministry is reaching out to every phase of the family. He asked the Association to pick up the various brochures that outline each of the ministries that are available. Last year, over 100 young people made decisions to receive Christ as Savior and many others rededicated their lives to Him. The ministry has averaged over 100 salvation decisions per year for the last eight years. He thanked Georgia for helping to make it possible. The report was received as information.

Rev. Randy Jackson led the congregation in singing "Onward Christian Soldiers". Rev. Nathan Snow and two of his children, Daniel and Megan, ministered in song with a special entitled, "How Great You Are".

Rev. Harold Williams introduced our speaker for the morning, Rev. Keith Horn, pastor of the Cedar Springs FWB Church. Bro. Keith's subject was "Worthy Workmen" and he used Matthew 10:5-10 as his text. Using Joseph from the Old Testament book of Genesis as an example, he preached concerning how to stay worthy for ministry.

"I Surrender All" was sung as men and women gathered around the altar for prayer.

The business session resumed immediately after the morning worship service.

Resolutions Committee Report

Committee Chairman, Rev. Ron Wallace, presented the following resolutions for the Association's approval and action:

1. "Whereas, the Church Family of First FWB Church, Albany, GA, has generously made available their church facilities for the annual meeting of the Georgia State Association of Free Will Baptists, 2008; and, Whereas the Church Family has been a gracious host, often exceeding the normal bounds of kind hospitality, providing food and snacks and providing many servants to assist the meeting in many ways...Be it resolved, that we give a rising vote of appreciation, accompanied with a ringing applause, and encourage individual words of thanks to the Pastor and people of Albany Church."
2. "Whereas, we are saddened with the earthly loss of fellow-servants of our Georgia State Association, men who gave many years of faithful service to Christ and Georgia Free Will Baptists, we note the passing of two men who served many years as Chairmen of the Georgia State Mission Board, Mr. Malcolm Freeman and Mr. Billy Hatcher...Be it resolved, that this Body send a letter of belated condolence and appreciation for service to the spouses of these two men, Mr. Billy Hatcher and Mr. Malcolm Freeman."
3. "Whereas, we are in a Presidential election year,...In light of the upcoming election, We resolve to be in constant prayer for God's wisdom and direction; and, We resolve to encourage our people to get out and vote, understanding the importance of this 2008 Presidential election; and, We resolve to support only those candidates who espouse Christian principles and values, especially as they regard the sanctity of human life from conception to natural death, and the sanctity of marriage as a Divinely-ordained institution and life-long covenant between a man and a woman."
4. "A Call to Prayer: We resolve, that each pastor set aside time to call out the names of all of our State Association leaders and board members in prayer and encourage their people to do the same, also encouraging more support to all our board's activities."

A motion was made, seconded and carried to approve the 4th resolution.

Miscellaneous Business

Rev. Billy Hanna, speaking on behalf of the Albany First FWB Church and the Trustee Board, extended a welcome for the GAFWB Annual Session to be held at the Albany First FWB Church at any time in the future.

Rev. Billy Hanna requested that the State consider supporting Sister Candace Blanchard in her efforts as a missionary to Mexico. Because Sister Candace is the daughter of the Moderator, he allowed Executive Secretary William Smith to speak to the issue of providing for the underwriting of her ministry. Brother William expressed confidence that because she needs minimal financial support to meet her needs, the Acts 1:8 program is capable of providing such. With Assistant Moderator Wayne Miracle temporarily presiding, a motion was made and seconded to include Sister Candace Blanchard in the Georgia Acts 1:8 budget. The motion carried.

Rev. Billy Hanna expressed concern that the business meetings at every level of our denomination are sparsely attended, especially at the National Convention, and that as such, small minorities of people are given the responsibility of making major decisions. He suggested a letter be sent to churches strongly encouraging attendance at all business sessions. Executive Secretary William Smith informed the Association that articles addressing this issue will be forthcoming in State and National publications.

Rev. Billy Hanna also expressed concern about the way that National Association's General Board members from Georgia were chosen and suggested a change in the GAFWB Constitution to have those General Board members elected by the voting body of the State Association. The Executive Board will take this concern under consideration at its next meeting.

Rev. Ron Wallace read a list of military-connected, Free Will Baptist men and women who have been involved in the ministry of Northern Lights FWB Church. They are as follows: serving in the United States Army, Zack & Mandy Bartlett of California, Bill & Patti Land of Arkansas, Tara Crews of West Virginia, Robert & Pam Sullivan of Georgia, and Chaplain David Spears of Georgia; and, serving in the United States Air Force, Joe & Dieder Ziegler of Georgia. Bro. Ron expressed appreciation for the service these men and women have given to our nation and to the Northern Lights Church.

Rev. Ben Crabtree asked the Executive Board to develop and adopt a plan that would facilitate missionaries coming home in an emergency situation. Rev. Herbert Waid informed the Association that Contingency funds are available and used for that purpose at the International Missions level.

Rev. Terry Tribble expressed gratitude for the unity that God has brought among Georgia Free Will Baptists. Rev. Tim Eaton dismissed the session in prayer.

FRIDAY EVENING WORSHIP SESSION

As a prelude to the evening worship session, a group called "Legacy Trio" ministered in song. Gilmore family cousins, the "Legacy Trio" are all members of the Sardis FWB Church in Eufaula, Alabama.

The worship service began at 7:00 pm with Rev. William Smith presiding and Rev. Donnie Burke directing the music. (Tim Horne, Todd Horne, and Ben Crabtree were the primary musicians. Monty McKenzie, with plenty of good help from the Albany First FWB Church, ran the sound and video equipment.)

After a radio clip of different world dialects, Rev. Donnie Burke led the choir in a song entitled "Agnus Dei". A member of the Albany church (with a very pronounced Australian accent) recited the Great Commission as the song "People Need the Lord" and visual images of the world's people groups played in the background. The choir followed with "Go Tell It On The Mountain".

With Rev. Wayne Miracle, Rev. Ben Crabtree and Bro. Daniel Snow on the "stringed instruments", the choir and congregation sang a bluegrass sounding version of "Send the Light". Rev. Donnie Burke and the choir followed with a song called "Each One, Reach One", and Rev. Nathan Snow inspired the congregation with a solo rendition of "Go Light Your World".

The Teen Choir of the Albany First FWB Church challenged the session with a soul-searching song entitled, "If We Are The Body". The session choir sang "Lord Most High", followed by a solo rendition of "Orphans of God" by Sister Donna Walker.

Rev. William Smith called the ushers forward to receive the 3rd Annual Damon C. Dodd Mission Offering, and introduced Rev. Paul Creech as the evening speaker. Rev. Rick Wilson asked God's blessing on the offering. The offering totaled $1,036.00.

Rev. Paul Creech spoke to the congregation on the subject "The Master and His Mission", using Matthew 19:23 as his text. At the close of his message, Bro. Paul led us in an invitational hymn, "Jesus, I My Cross Have Taken".

A men's quartet consisting of Rev. Mark Kennedy, Rev. Wayne Miracle, Rev. Russell Horne, and Rev. Len Blanchard, harmonized beautifully together when they sang "Do You Know My Jesus?" The choir sang "Shout to the North" and was joined (possibly outdone) by the Kids Choir of Albany First, who also sang "The Coloring Song".

Brother Todd Horne, Rev. Tim Horne and Rev. Donnie Burke, accompanied by the choir, brought the congregation to their feet with "Days of Elijah". The choir and congregation joined together in singing "Jesus Saves" and "Lord Lay Some Soul Upon My Heart".

Rev. Rick Wilson called for a special prayer to be offered for Rev. Paul Creech, who is battling cancer, by the "laying on of hands". Rev. Len Blanchard led in this prayer.

"The Georgia Boys Quartet" (consisting of Tim and Todd Horne, Mark Walker, Donnie Burke) accompanied by the choir, implored the session through song to "Reach the World". Rev. Ben Crabtree then sang "Thank You" as background music to a video slide-show of FWB missionary servants who have gone to be with the Lord. It was a very moving tribute to this "great cloud of witnesses" that have gone before us.

Rev. William Smith thanked the Music Commission for their hard work in putting together the 5th Annual Georgia Praise Gathering and asked Rev. Eddie Hodges to pray the closing prayer.

Final Credentials Committee Report

Rev. Bobby Taylor gave the final report of the Credentials Committee and his final report as the Credentials Committee Chairman and thanked the Association for allowing him to serve. The final report is as follows: 70 standing delegates and 12 elected delegates for a total voting delegation of 82. There were also 68 visitors registered for a total registration of 150. The Friday evening attendance was 275. (Sister Donna Jewell and Sister Henrietta Brown also served on this year's Credentials Committee.)

With no other business, the congregation sang "We Will Stand" and the 72nd Annual Session of the Georgia Association of Free Will Baptists was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Keith Lloyd, Clerk

Executive Secretary/Treasurer Report
January 1, 2007 – December 31, 2007

Welcome to the Seventy-second annual session of the Georgia State Association of Free Will Baptists, Inc. We have gathered to conduct our state association business and receive reports from our state boards and national agencies. God richly blessed our state during 2007. We gather to rejoice as we look at the blessing of the past and we are challenged as we look at the possibilities for the future.

This digest contains reports from all the Georgia State Boards. The board reports and all financial reports cover the period of January 1, 2007 – December 31, 2007.

Thank you for your faithful support during 2007. Receipts through the State Office totaled $1,197,178.82. Of this amount $317,552.04 was Cooperative Receipts, $210,421.74 was Georgia Acts 1:8 Receipts, and $669,205.04 was Designated Receipts. We had slight decrease of $957.46 in Cooperative Receipts and an increase of $11,935.21 or 6% in Georgia Acts 1:8 Receipts. With the down turn in the national economy I am continually amazed at the faithfulness of our Georgia churches and their giving.

Your faithfulness to support the Georgia Cooperative Plan and the Georgia Acts 1:8 Plan makes it possible for the gospel to be shared in foreign countries, new churches to be planted in our state, Georgia students to attend Free Will Baptist Bible College and Georgia pastors to get their masters degree by attending the Georgia extension of the Hillsdale Free Will Baptist College. You also help fund ten sessions of youth camp, five retreats and the retirement program for Georgia pastors.

As we think about our future we see how God has positioned the State of Georgia to do great things when it comes to the great commission. We have a strong financial base to support our mission efforts both at home and on the foreign field. People from around our country and around our world are now moving to Georgia, giving us many opportunities to spread the gospel around the world without even leaving our state. We need to always remember "to whom much is given, much is also required".

Randall House Publications will be sponsoring a TEAM Church conference at the First Free Will Baptist Church in Albany, on August 16, 2008. Stan Toler will be the key note speaker and at least twenty sessions will be offered. These sessions will cover a variety of areas, such as dealing with the culture our teens live in today, how to get parents involved in the spiritual development of your students, how to incorporate missions into your lessons, effectively getting your lesson off to a good start, recruiting teachers, and hands on lesson materials.

I thank God for giving me the opportunity to serve Him in the Great State of Georgia. Thank you for your support and your continued prayers.

Respectfully submitted,

William Smith, Executive Secretary/Treasurer

Executive Board Report

January 1, 2007 – December 31, 2007

The Executive Board is constitutionally charged with the responsibility of acting for the Georgia State Association when it is not in session, and then reporting to the State Association in session for approval of its actions. The decisions made by the Executive Board are made with consideration and an acute awareness of our responsibility and accountability. Since our last State Association Session, the Executive Board has met to conduct the State business at the following times and locations:

June 25, 2007, White Oaks FWB Church, Macon
September 18, 2007, White Oaks FWB Church, Macon
December 18, 2007, State Office, Colquitt

March 12, 2008, First FWB Church, Albany (prior to 72nd Annual Session)

From these meetings, the following items are presented for general information and/or approval at this 72nd Annual Session of the GAFWB.

2008 State Program

Featured speakers and subjects for the 72nd Annual Session were selected as follows: Wednesday evening, Rev. Grover Jewell, "Lifting Up Laymen"; Thursday morning Bible Conference, State Board Chairmen, "Vision Sharing"; Thursday evening, Rev. Keith Burden, "Celebrating the Ordinances"; Friday morning, Rev. Keith Horn, "Worthy Workmen"; and, Friday evening, Rev. Paul Creech, "The Master and His Mission".

Georgia State Budget Proposed

A 2008 calendar year budget of $900,000.00 is proposed. A 2009 Georgia State Cooperative Budget of $350,000.00 and a 2008 Acts 1:8 Budget of $284,098.18 is included in the overall budget. You will find the approved 2009 Cooperative Budget included with this report on page 20..

2008 State Meeting Changes

Due to a conflict concerning the necessary hotel accommodations, the Board voted to move the 2008 State Meeting from the Liberty Bible Church in Gainesville to the First FWB Church in Albany.

A change to the By-Laws in last year's Annual Session called for future sessions to begin on the "Thursday following the third Sunday in March", which would have caused part of the 72nd Annual Session to be held on Good Friday. Because many of our churches have special functions on Good Friday, the Board voted to move the session back one week for the 72nd Annual Session.

The Board voted to begin the business session of the 72nd Annual Session on Thursday afternoon from 2:00 – 4:00 p.m. instead of Thursday evening, in an effort to complete all business by Friday afternoon.

Sound Equipment Storage and Transportation

At the request of the Music Commission, the Board approved the purchase of an enclosed trailer to store and transport the GAFWB sound system and equipment at a cost not to exceed $3,500.00. The equipment is being frequently used at State retreats and other functions and is under the care of the Music Commission.

Property Sales

The previously acquired properties in Tift and Lowndes counties were sold and the proceeds are being handled by the Mission Board.

State Office Personnel Evaluation

Granted a 5% increase in the salary of Executive Secretary William Smith.

Granted a 3% increase in the salary of State Office Secretary Rhonda Chandler.

Board of Camping Report
January 1, 2007 – December 31, 2007

Our Teen Camp and Winter Retreat were wonderful this year. Many decisions for Christ were made at the altar, in the dorms, in classes and during devotional times. This is the reason we go to all the trouble to have a camp and retreat so are young people can get away from their environment and let God speak to them. Using this criteria we had a successful year.

Barry Raper, Director of Christian Education and Youth Ministry at Free Will Baptist Bible College, was our Teen Camp Evangelist and did an excellent job. We had 265 in attendance this year and our workers and counselors did a great job. Craig Batts, Minister of Youth at Cofer's Chapel in Nashville, TN. was our Winter Retreat Evangelist and also did an excellent job, and Josh Bennett did wonderful in directing the retreat. We had 118 in attendance and everyone there received a beautiful Bible.

We absolutely could not do this without our dorm counselors, recreation directors, musicians, teachers, sound technician, computer geeks, video technician, security guards, bus drivers, canteen people, lifeguards, prayer leaders, dress checker, and of course our chef and kitchen workers. Thank you all for your contribution to the success of our camps.

This Camp Board gave each association $1,600.00 to assist them in operating and funding a quality Junior Camp.

I thank you for your support and allowing us to serve you on your Camp Board and ask that you continue to pray for our camps and young people and encourage your youth to come to camp.

Mark Walker, Camp Board Chairman

Board of Christian Education Report January 1, 2007 - December 31, 2007

The Christian Education Board is pleased to report that the state retreats were once again a tremendous success. We have been blessed this year with inspiring speakers and well attended retreats. Our retreat speakers for the 2007 year were as follows:

- David and Debe Taylor from Hot Springs, Arkansas were our guest speakers for the couples retreat. The retreat was held at Buccaneer Beach Resort, Jekyll Island.
- Bro. Will Harmon, pastor at Cavanaugh FWB in Van Buren, Arkansas was our guest speaker for the minister's retreat.
- Diana Bryant from Vero Beach, Florida was a special blessing at our minister's wives retreat.
- Bro. Jim Christian, pastor of New Hope Fellowship in Florida spoke at our senior citizen's retreat.

All of our speakers were inspiring and well prepared. The music for the retreats was encouraging and uplifting. We are thankful for the opportunity to provide quality retreats in Georgia that our people can attend and look forward to the next event.

The Historical Society has been active this year. They met in March and elected new officers, and met again in September at the state office. The interest and participation in the historical society had greatly increased this year. The Historical Society has been approved for two articles per year to be published in the state promotional paper. If you have material to donate or if you are interested in being involved in this valuable work please contact Rev. Benjamin Miller, president, or Sister Geraldine Waid, Secretary.

Youth Competition was held at White Oaks FWB in Macon. The church did a great job hosting our competition. We had some of our youth that placed at the national level. They are as follows:

Board of Missions Report January 1, 2007 – December 31, 2007

The past twelve months have been days of transition, changes we have not seen for several years. As I reflect on this year, God alone deserves the glory for the great things He has done!

Last March, this board was under the capable leadership of Rev. Billy Hanna. He felt led of the Lord to step down, and Rev. Paul Creech was chosen to lead this Board of Missions. I covet your prayers as we follow God's plan for planting churches in the great state of Georgia.

Each calendar page reminds us of the providence of our heavenly Father as we have invested in spreading the Gospel message in the peach state. I desire to share a few choice highlights from the past 52 weeks.

God has answered a multitude of prayers. You bowed your hearts and heads to entreat the Father on behalf of our church planters. Prayers have gone up for divine appointments with the lost; diseases have been shared with God and healing sought; physical, emotional, and spiritual strengths have been prayed down; and thanksgivings were offered as victories were won; and praises given to our God.

October '07 found this board spying out land for sale in Cartersville. A choice piece of land had been located and we set foot on that soil. What a beautiful parcel of ground. Nearly 7 acres with a brick house (situated at the rear of the property) was purchased for $335,000.00. Excitement soared as the papers were signed and prayer was offered in the attorneys' office. What a mighty God we serve.

In January of this year, we traveled to within a stone's throw of the Florida state line, again looking for land. We believe God guided us to prime acreage on HWY 41, the Inner Perimeter Road in north Valdosta. We successfully entered into a contract for the land. $176,000.00 was paid for over 7 acres on this 4-lane highway. Funds were utilized from the sale of the church property that we were given a couple of years back.

For me, the highlights of the year far exceed the acquisition of land. True success is measured by an eternal standard; it is the work in the hearts and lives of Georgians seeking the Savior. Our church planters invest their lives in others, offering leadership to the faithful, and rescue to those bound by sin. Dr. Bill & Loraine Crank and Dr. Bill & Ann Lewis are paying the price for His kingdom. God bless them.

Our board hired a third church planter to go west to Harris County. Rev. Jay and April Hollis, and their kids, have chosen Georgia to be home and church planting to be their ministry. I encourage you to meet them at this State Meeting, embrace them with your heart, and add them to your prayer list.

I admit, in a sense, this is an incomplete report. I have not included charts and statistics and the numbers we long to cling to. Here's my reasoning. Yes, those figures are important. But I am convinced you will remember them so much more if you hear Bro. Bill Crank tell you about the Sunday before Christmas when 117 people came to Cartersville Family Church. Ask him about the Chief Baker's Dozen who were baptized a few weeks ago. Inquire of Bro. Bill Lewis about the solid core of believers who are striving to plant a church in the college climate of Lowndes County. Discover Harris County through the heartbeat of Bro. Jay Hollis. Get Bro. Ron Wallace to share heart-warming stories of God at work in the cold climate of Alaska.

You see, I could only offer second hand testimony. They can give you the facts! They were there, and they want to testify of the goodness of God. He is working, and He offers the opportunity to join with Him in the task of the Great Commission. What a journey with Jesus and His ministers.

My heart overflows with the goodness of God this year as I reflect on the work of this Board of Missions. We enjoyed a sense of precious unified purpose and commitment. We placed the faith you entrusted to us in the hand of the Father, and we acted for the glory of God, the establishment of churches in Georgia, and the salvation of the lost.

God has been faithful; He is faithful; and He will always be faithful. We plan to cleave to him as He draws men and women, boys and girls to Himself. Join us in this worthy endeavor. Pray for our church planters. Talk to them; email or call them frequently.

Visit them one weekend. Get involved financially. Join the cause.

It is our privilege to serve you as the Board of Missions. Thank you for allowing us to minister with you to see Free Will Baptist grow in our great state of Georgia.

Rev. R. Paul Creech,
Chair of the Board of Missions
Georgia State Association of Free Will Baptists, Inc.

Board of Trustees Report
January 2007 – December 2007

The Georgia State Board of Trustees is the general overseer and insurer of all State Association property. The Board has the sole responsibility of the upkeep of the State Office building and grounds.

During 2007 the interior work on the State Office building was completed. Sister Geraldine Wade moved the archives to the state office. Sister Wade along with Benjamin Miller has spent many hours cataloging and arranging the archives. It will be well worth your trip to visit the office and see our historical display.

In February the Trustee Board along with the Executive Secretary and Moderator met with Church Mutual representative Bill Gainer to discuss our insurance policies. At this meeting we were informed of our insurance coverage and responsibilities pertaining to accounting, hiring practices, and the training of camp workers.

The inside and outside of the office are now complete and should not need any maintenance for several years to come. The only expense we project in the near future is the replacement of the air conditioning unit, when needed.

Thank you for your prayers and support.

Respectfully submitted,

Russell Horne, Board Chairman

We, the Auditing Committee met on January 12, 2008 at the State Office in Colquitt to conduct the annual audit. Financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2007 were examined and reviewed.

Brother William Smith has managed the Georgia State Association office's books and financial reporting in an exceptional manner. Systems of checks and balances are in place to ensure that all monies received and disbursed are accounted for in detailed fashion. MINUTES
GWAC STATE MEETING
MARCH 13, 2008
ALBANY FIRST FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH

Christian Daniel from the host church welcomes everyone to the 2008 Session of the GWAC and gave general information about the church and local eateries. Rebecca Jackson led the congregation in "He Touched Me".

Marie Glover remembered those who have gone on to be with the Lord during 2007: Bessie Simmons from the Pleasant Hill Church in Vienna, and Carolyn Tully from the Colquitt FWB Church. Marie talked about "memories" and read the words to the hymn "I Will Not Forget Thee".

President Debra Van Pelt called the Session to order and welcomed everyone to the 2008 Session of the Georgia Women Active for Christ.

Sandra Jackson gave the credentials report. 8 out of 10 districts reported, representing 33 local churches, 362 members and 26 delegates. The standing and registered delegates which were present were then seated.

Debra recognized the missionaries who were present including Linda Snow from Japan, Lori Byers from Ohio, Janice Wallace from Alaska, the Hollis family, new missionaries to Harris County, and Faye Ogletree (Sandra Bishop's mother). We were also honored to have Mrs. Laura Thigpen in attendance. Dr. and Mrs. Thigpen now live in Byron and attend the White Oaks Church in Macon.

Henrietta Brown read the proposed Resolutions:

National Resolutions (these have already been passed by the National):

We recommend that scholarships be given from the Cleo Pursell Foreign Student Scholarship Fund as follows:

1. International Missions Scholarship ($2,000.00) Panama: Four students will be enrolled in the new seminary which will open in 2008 under the leadership of Eddie Bowerman. We recommend that each student receive one fourth of the scholarship, which will amount to $500.00.

2. Home Missions Scholarship ($500.00): We recommend that a $500.00 scholarship be awarded to a student(s) enrolled in the ministerial training program at the Gwen Hendrix Hispanic Seminary in Inman, South Carolina. This scholarship will help provide tuition, room and board.

GWAC Resolutions

We, the resolutions committee recommend the following:

1. In today's world of instant information, many of our members depend on information provided on the Internet to keep abreast of pertinent information. To that end we want to encourage the WNAC to continue providing up-to-date information on its web site. MSC to adopt.

2. Concern for declining membership in our local, state and national WAC has been a topic of discussion by our GWAC Executive Board as well as local and association groups. We urge every member to pray and promote the work of our State and National Association and encourage membership in our organization at every opportunity, and to contact a GWAC executive board member any time assistance or information is needed. After hearing this resolution, it was suggested that various groups share their ideas. Some of the ideas were asking those who have gone on mission trips to speak; light supper at each meeting; nursery workers on both the local and state levels; meet in ladies' homes for a more personal meeting; community outreach such as pregnancy crisis centers and local battered women's shelters; school supplies for needy children; luncheon for senior saints; state project auction open to the community; gift bags for local school teachers; timing of meetings is very important. Debra stressed that the Executive Board is always available to help in any way we can. MSC to adopt this resolution.

3. That we give First Free Will Baptist Church of Albany and its WAC a rising vote of thanks for its warm and generous hospitality in hosting today's meeting. MSC by everyone rising.

MSC to adopt the Resolutions Report.

Lynda Blanchard gave the finance report. See report attached hereto. It was decided that the Lora Shutes State Project (Acts 1:8) will remain at $7,500.00 and the amount needed per member to meet this goal for 2008 will be $20.72. MSC to accept the finance report as read.

Kristen Crabtree gave the Credentials Report. 66 registered today, which represents 22 visitors, 34 delegates, 7 state officers and 3 missionaries. MSC to adopt report as read.

Barry Simpson, Director of Development from International Missions, gave the national report, but his heart was heavy when he remembered Bob Shockey, who had passed away just a few days prior to our meeting in an automobile accident. Barry thanked the Georgia ladies for their continued support to Acts 1:8.

On the National WAC level, President Debra Van Pelt noted that Marjorie Workman will retire as Executive Secretary in July, so the Georgia ladies will show our appreciation by giving her a basket from Lane Packing filled with items representative of Georgia. Debra also shared information regarding the 20/20/20 Project which will provide $20,000 for three different projects within a 2-year period. Rebecca Pugh was elected at the 2007 National Meeting as WNAC President. She also noted that the Georgia women are fifth in giving to the national work.

It was reported that the National WAC meeting in Little Rock was great. Mike Cousineau brought Brother Paul from Africa and the Kazakhstan Singers.

New Business: 2009 Budget. Everyone was given a chance to review the proposed budget which was handed out prior to the meeting. The difference is the amount of dues due to the fact that our membership has decreased. MSC to adopt the 2009 budget.

A new Nominating Committee was appointed as follows: Geraldine Waid, Chair (Union); Melonie Brown (Little River); Janice Temple (Midway); Jessica Long (No. Georgia); Denise Brannen (South Georgia); Nadine Blanton (Twin Cities); Carmen McKenzie (Georgia Union).

Delegates to National: Carmen McKenzie, Nadine Blanton, Janice Temples, Sandy Mounts, June Hersey, Kristen Crabtree, Donna Jewell, Christine Daniel, Sandra Jackson, Lynda Blanchard.

Secretary Donna Jewell read the minutes of the current session and they were approved after changes.

Debra noted that we need volunteers in praise and worship service for the Retreat in April.

Announcements were given and we dismissed to a break and then reconvened to the worship service. Rebecca Jackson opened the worship session by reading Hebrews 12:1, the reference scripture for our theme "Travel Light", and then led the congregation in "At the Cross". The Blanchard Girls sang a beautiful rendition of "Amazing Grace/My Chains are Gone". We then took up an offering. Debra welcomed the men who joined the worship service. She then introduced our speaker, Linda Snow, missionary to Japan, who will be leaving Monday with her husband, Nathan, and family to return to the mission field. She spoke about being an "alien" in a foreign world (Japan) and miscommunication of the different languages and cultures. She paralleled life in Japan with how we are "aliens" and "strangers" to the Lord until we come to know him. She shared several stories of experiences which taught her family great lessons where they work and serve. She also shared of her awesome story of being adopted at the age of 17 months. She then expressed her thanks for the Georgia support, both through prayers and financial giving. She gave several examples of cultural must-haves and ended by reading I John 3:1.

Respectfully submitted,
Donna Jewell, Secretary
