Proceedings of the 78th Annual Session

The minutes of the Seventy-eight Annual Session of the Georgia Association of Free Will Baptists, when convening at the Bethlehem Free Will Baptist Church in Cordele, Georgia, on March 19-21, 2014.

WEDNESDAY EVENING WORSHIP SERVICE

After a prelude of instrumental music, the service began with the congregation singing, "Victory In Jesus". Bro. Willie Martin introduced the pastor of the Bethlehem Church, Bro. Ronnie Youngblood, who graciously welcomed the Association. Bro. Steve Dowless led in an opening prayer.

With Bro. Mark Walker leading, the congregation sang a medley of songs which included "When We All Get to Heaven", "I Feel Like Traveling On", and "Looking for a City". The Georgia Boys Quartet (consisting this year of Tim Horne, Tanner Stahl, Monte McKenzie, Mark Walker) provided special music with the song, "Ask the Blind Man, He Saw It All". As a final worship medley, the congregation sang together "At the Cross" and "You Are My All in All".

Presiding over the service, Bro. Willie Martin introduced the speaker for the evening, Bro. Buddy Morris, a retired church-planter and pastor with a long history of faithful service among Georgia Free Will Baptists.

Bro. Morris preached a challenging message from Proverbs 22:1-5 regarding four battlefronts which all Christians must face: pride, prejudice, priorities, and prayer. After the message, the congregation sang "I Surrender All" as an invitational hymn.

In closing, Bro. Willie Martin and Bro. William Smith made a few announcements, and then Moderator Wayne Miracle appointed the Committee on Committees as follows: Willie Martin, Ron Wallace, Mike Locklear, S.E. Newberry, and Royce Horne. Bro. Roy Woods dismissed the service with prayer.

THURSDAY MORNING BIBLE CONFERENCE

Bro. Tanner Stahl led the men in singing "Standing On the Promises" and Bro. Fred Hersey prayed and opening prayer.

Bro. Phil Bozeman, presiding over the Bible Conference introduced the guest speaker, Bro. Jim McComas, who serves as the Director of Church Revitalization for the NAFWB Home Missions Department.

In the first session, Bro. Jim challenged us from 2 Timothy 2:1-2, citing two transformative truths which have the potential to exponentially increase the impact of both our denomination and the Church as a whole: 1) Things that are the same are not different; and, 2) Things that are different are not the same. The message stressed both unity in the essentials of the faith, and distinction from those groups who do not adhere to those absolute truths which distinguish us as Bible-believing Christians.

Bro. Bobby Taylor gave instructions regarding delegate registrations, and then the Bible Conference recessed for approximately 20 minutes.

After reconvening, Bro. Tanner Stahl led the men in singing "Sweet By and By" and Bro. Phil Bozeman made some brief announcements.

In the second session, Bro. Jim McComas preached an inspiring and encouraging message from 2nd Kings 22:8 entitled, "Just Because It's Buried, Doesn't Mean It's Dead". Though they may often be buried among programs, agendas, and contemporary culture, Bro. Jim assured us that the Word of God, the Holy Spirit, and the Lord Jesus Christ are still very much alive, relevant, and working in the world today.

After the Bible Conference and GWAC Meeting, a wonderful lunch was graciously provided to the Association by the Bethlehem Church.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON BUSINESS SESSION

ONE magazine serves as a communication tool to keep individual church members up to date on national ministries. Bro. Keith encouraged members to take advantage of this free resource.

Information was given regarding the upcoming national convention in Fort Worth, Texas on July 27–31, 2014. Registration information is given in ONE magazine.

A special committee appointed at last year's NAFWB Annual Convention will be bringing recommendations to this year's Annual Convention regarding the issue of standing against same-sex marriage.

Board of Camping Report January 1, 2013 – December 31, 2013

Our Teen camp 2013 session was held at Camp Echeconnee in Lizella, June 2-7. Allen Pointer from Nashville, Tennessee, was our evangelist. The Music was directed by Tanner Stahl from Homerville. We had a special program on Sunday night our first night of camp, from a member of the Power Team, a group that travels all over the country and performs feats of strength and relates it to God's word. It was a very positive response. Those who work with the teen camp really like the idea of doing something special and different on the first night of camp. The services and activities went very well. Attendance was 225.

Bro. James Judkins is doing an outstanding job directing teen camp and managing the various issues that arise during the course of the week.

Teen Camp 2014 will be held June 1 - 6 at Camp Echeconnee. The cost is $175.00 with an early bird registration of $150.00.

We had six associations combine for their Junior Camp at Camp Echeconnee from June 30 - July 4, 2013 and invite any others who would like to join them this year on June 29 - July 3, 2014.

The grants for each association Jr. Camp will remain at $1,200.00.

Board members were asked how the response was to the mandatory background check required of all workers. The consensus was that our people understand it has to be this way in this age we live in. There were no problems with the background checks submitted.

The board is happy with the direction our camping program is taking and would encourage all Georgia FWB churches to support and send their young people to our camps.

The board voted to retain the same officers for 2014. Thank you for your support and allowing us to serve you on your camp board. Please continue to pray and support our camps.

Mark Walker

Board of Christian Education Report
January 1, 2013 – December 31, 2013

The Board of Christian Education is dedicated to our mission of providing educational opportunities, quality retreats and historical information to the churches of our state. These opportunities include four state retreats, state youth competition, student scholarships, and historical information and awareness.

The retreats conducted in 2013 were as follows:

- Couples Retreat – Richard & Sandy Atwood from Nashville, Tennessee, were the featured speakers for the retreat located at Lake Blackshear Resort, in Cordele. Music was provided by Buddy Johnson.
- Ministers Retreat – The Ministers Retreat was held April 15-17. Our guest speaker was H.B. London. Brother London was on staff more than 20 years with Focus on the Family and served as “pastor to pastors”. The music worship leader was Matt Hallman.
- Minister’s Wives Retreat–The Minister’s Wives retreat was held in September with Debe Taylor as the featured speaker. The topic of the retreat was “Matters of the Heart”. The retreat was held at Lake Blackshear Resort.
- Senior Citizens Retreat – The Senior’s Retreat was held at George T. Bagby State Park. The featured speakers were Chris Rumpfelt and Kerry Steedley. Mark Walker provided the music.

The music worship leaders and sound technician are selected by the Georgia Music Commission. The retreats are always a blessing to those who attend.

On May 4, 2013, students across the state came to the Georgia State Youth Competition held at the First Free Will Baptist Church in Albany. Talented young people competed in bible, music, drama and creative arts. The State of Georgia was well represented at the National Youth Competition (NYC) in Tampa, Florida. We are thankful for the participation and talent of our Georgia youth. Georgia Free Will Baptists have a bright future because of your investment in our students.

In 2013, the Board of Christian Education awarded Charles Clark Scholarships to (7) seven students attending Welch College in Nashville, Tennessee. The monetary amount is minimal but the students are very appreciative of the support from their home state.

The Georgia State Historical Society does an incredible job of preserving and maintaining the historical artifacts of Georgia Free Will Baptists. In addition to the collection of historical data, the Historical Society produces inspiring articles in our state promotional bulletin giving us insight to our rich history.

The Society meets during the State Meeting in March and in September at the State Office. If you are interested in donating artifacts or if you would like contact the Historical Society you may email them at archives@gafwb.org. We are truly blessed to have such dedicated members with a desire to preserve the history of Free Will Baptists in Georgia.

Board of Missions Report
January 1, 2013 – December 31, 2013

The Board remains focused to the Great Commission task in the state of Georgia, and to be responsible to the faithful people of Georgia in the oversight of the mission work.

In September the board received and unanimously voted to accept the resignation of Bro. Bill Crank. Bro. Bill served our state well for eight years in attempting to plant a church in Cartersville. In the beginning, there was much success and the work flourished. About two years ago the church had some major problems develop and the man that was assisting as the music minister took several families and left the church. Bro. Bill also had several major family problems pop up during this time. All of these factors took a great toll on the work in Cartersville. Many established churches would not have been able to withstand these dilemmas.

The board made the difficult decision to close the work in Cartersville. The church property has been placed with a realtor who is actively trying to sell the property. Please help us pray that the property would sell quickly and for a fair price. Also pray for the mission board as they seek God's direction of where our next work should be. There are many areas of Georgia where there are few evangelical churches.

It should be remembered that while the work in Cartersville did not last as long as we would have liked, it was not a failure. During the eight years Free Will Baptists were in Cartersville, many people were saved, baptized, and disciplined. That is what our mission as Christians is to be about. I would also note that church planting studies show that over 75% of church plants do not make it past five years.

Pray for us and with us to see our state work move forward, and beyond the mission in Cartersville, to other needy fields. Also, we are open to counsel and worthy suggestions which could encourage us in the direction for our present responsibilities.

Until all have heard of Jesus,
For the only Cause that matters,

B. Frank (Billy) McKinney, Chairman

Rick Cason, Vice Chairman

BAPTISTS

We, the Auditing Committee met on January 25, 2014 at the State Office in Colquitt to conduct the annual financial review. Financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2013 were examined and reviewed.

Brother William Smith has managed the Georgia State Association office's books and financial reporting in an exceptional manner. Systems of checks and balances are in place to ensure that all monies received and disbursed are accounted for in detailed fashion. We wish to commend Brother William Smith for his hard work and dedication.

GEORGIA WOMEN ACTIVE FOR CHRIST
ANNUAL MEETING
BETHLEHEM FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH
MARCH 20, 2014
"He Knows My Name"

Shirley Sharpston opened the service as we sang "Jesus Is the Sweetest Name I Know" and "There's Something About that Name". Debbie Cason welcomed everyone to the 2014 Session of the GWAC, and Shirley Kimbrel opened in prayer.

Vice President Debbie Cason called the 2014 session to order and the voting delegates were seated.

No current missionaries present when the meeting began. (Debbie Griffin, Wanda McClery and Wanda Powell were recognized later in the program.) Past Missionaries June Hersey, Janice Wallace, and Geraldine Wade were recognized and Debbie thanked them for the service.

Linda Gay gave the Treasurer's Report, showing a balance as of December 31, 2013 of $9,893.53. She was glad to report that we exceeded our 2013 $8,000.00 state project goal of $9,162.93. MSC to adopt the treasurer's report.

Donna Jewell gave the Credentials Report. 45 registered, including 8 districts, 22 delegates, 6 state officers, and 9 visitors. MSC to adopt the report. MSC to amend the Credentials Report to add 6 additional registrations: 3 delegates; 1 Missionary (Debbie Griffin), and 2 visitors, for a total of 51 in attendance.

Debbie made committee appointments.

She then thanked everyone for the wonderful support for the Hope Crisis Center and the awesome gifts that were given. Debbie gave as information a letter from National President Diana Bryant which contained a Resolution that has been approved by the National WAC Executive Committee and will be brought to the floor of the National WAC Meeting in Fort Worth, which reads as follows: "The Executive Committee and the Membership of Women Nationally Active for Christ requests that we be accepted and recognized as a fully participating National Department included in the Together Way Plan of Support." If this Resolution is passed, it will be presented at the 2014 Business Session of Free Will Baptists. Debbie then prayed a special prayer for this Resolution, and for all of the Board members who were unable to attend today.

Debbie also encouraged everyone to attend the Prayer Retreat April 11-12, 2014 at Norman Park. The Theme is WATER: Witness About The Eternal Redeemer. The following missionaries will be at the Retreat: Brenda Carney, Alicia Crowe and Ruth McDonald (Japan); Christina Price (France); Tori Sargent (Creative Access THP).

Debbie introduced Derek Bell who gave a report from Hope Crisis Center: 116 babies were born last year mostly to teenage girls in Greenville. He praised God for so many lives changed through the Hope Ministry. He thanked the ladies for their generous giving to the Center.

Debbie also recognized the Alabama Children's Home, and encouraged everyone to give to the Home in 2014 and bring gifts to the meeting in 2015.

Linda Gay gave a partial Finance Committee Report. The 2014 Budget was introduced and after review MSC to adopt the report to include the final. Today's offering was $1,195.00.

Debbie read the National Report from WNAC Executive Director. MSC to accept as information.

No report from the Remembrance Committee.

Shirley Sharpston gave the Resolutions Report, as follows:

Resolved the GWAC go on record as supporting the proposal presented for the WNAC to become part of the Together Way Plan and to make this a matter of prayer.

Resolved that we Express our appreciation to Debbie Cason and Donna Jewell for acting on behalf of Sandra Jackson and Leslie Baldrige.

Rising vote of thanks to Bethlehem Church for hosting the 2014 Session.

MSC to accept as presented.

The 2015 Nominating Committee was appointed: Geraldine Wade, June Hersey, Fleda Snow, Gina Holloway, Michelle Delgado, and Christine Daniel (Chairman).

Delegates to National: Fleda Snow, Christina Daniel, Wanda McClary and Carol Horne. MSC to accept these delegates and to give Sandra Jackson or Carol Horne (or another member of the Board ) to appoint additional delegates at the National.

Henrietta asked for volunteers to write articles for the GWIT Page in the Promotional Bulletin. She handed out sheets for volunteers to sign up. She also distributed information about Shoe Boxes for Mexico and asked for volunteers to assemble shoe boxes.

Karen Williams, wife of Director of Communications and Development, Danny Williams, thanked everyone for their support for the Alabama Childrens Home. She asked for prayer for all of the children who are residents at the Home.

Fleda Snow agreed to serve on National Nominating Committee for two years. MSC to accept.

Donna then read the minutes of today's session. MSC to accept the minutes of the business session.

Deana Driggers dismissed the 2014 business session in prayer.

When we reconvened in the worship service, we opened by singing "A New Name Written Down in Glory" and Larry Powell, retired Director of National Home Missions Department, opened the worship hour with prayer. Debbie Griffin was introduced and Debbie encouraged everyone to give to the World Missions Offering in April. She expressed her desire that no missionaries should have to raise their own support but that the Free Will Baptists should underwrite all of heir support. She thanked everyone for giving while she was in Japan and that her account was never in the read because of giving. The offering was taken as Becky Harrell played "He Giveth More Grace".

Henrietta Brown introduced our speaker, Wanda Powell. Carol Horne sang "He Knows My Name". Wanda began by saying she had prayed that someone would sing that song and she thanked God for answering that prayer. She stayed with our theme "He Knows My Name" by reading Isaiah 43:1. Names have significance to God, as he demonstrated by "Adam", "Eve", "Abraham", "Isaac", "Saul", who later became "Paul", and so many others. But a name cannot wash our sins away, so God asked "Wanda, knowest thou me?" Her given name meant "Wanderer", but when she said "Yes" to Christ, her Christian name now means "Walks with God". In 1967, she and Larry answered the Call to go to the Mission Field to St. Croix, Virgin Islands, and her new name became "Missionary". They were overwhelmed by homesickness, being strangers in a strange place, but they were so thankful that God knew them and where they were and He blessed their ministry as they built a church. She later became Teacher "Maestra" in Puerto Rico, then to Texas where she became Encouragement. She impressed on all of us to be Encouragers no matter where we are. Then she became "Wife of Director" in the National Home Missions Department, where they were blessed to use their years of experience from the Mission Field. Now they find their new names "Retirees". She thanked God for the path they chose to follow Him, the One who always knows their name. One day we will receive a "New Name" – Whitestone, One who wins the Prize.

Linda Gay then gave the final financial report. Balance as of $9,893.53, today's offering $1,195.00, for a balance of $11,088.53, speaker fee of $500.00, for a total balance of $10,588.53. State Project will remain at $8,000.00. Wayne miracle asked God's blessing on the meal being served by Bethlehem Church.
