LETTER FROM ELDER L. S. YATES

Chattahoochee, Fla.

To the Brothers and Sisters of the Georgia Union Association:

I take this method to let you hear from me again.

Holy Greetings to you all. Physically I am still weak, but spiritually I am strong. I would like so much to be with you all, but my condition forbids. My best wishes and prayers be with you all. My earnest prayer is that brotherly love may flow from heart to heart and that unity may prevail. I want to send you all my heart-felt thanks for your liberal donation you sent me a year ago. May God bless each one who contributed any part of it. I would be so glad to have another car load of you all visit me. Be sure to remember me in your prayers. God forbid that I should cease to pray for all my friends and those I love.

I shall always remember my friends until I cross the bar that separates between the living and the dead, and I take up my resting place in the shade of the tree just on the other side of the river.

Your old brother in the holy band of Christian friendship.

L. S. YATES.

(Clerk's note) Bro. Yates has died since the holding of this session of the Georgia Union Association.

SUNDAY SCHOOL REPORT

We, your committee on Sunday School are glad to report that several churches have Sunday schools. We believe this is a good work for we are commanded to study to show our selves approved. We should teach our young people the Word of God because we realize and know they are our church of tomorrow.

MISSION REPORT

We, your committee beg that you accept the following as our report. We find that our churches are doing very little in support of the great cause of Missions, both Home and Foreign. We attribute this largely to our preachers failure to preach on this great theme. We recommend that all the pastors set the example of assessing themselves before the church and preaching often on this subject.

Respectfully submitted,
REV. NEAL H. PARRISH, Chrm.

TEMPERANCE REPORT

We, your committee on Temperance, beg to make the following report. We suggest the Christian people should teach in our churches to abstain the appearance of evil and worldly lust and live a clean christian life before the youth of our country. The pastors should preach more temperance to their churches.

W. L. AMERSON, Chairman.

COMMITTEE ON STATE OF CHURCHES AND CHARACTER OF MINISTERS

We beg leave to make the following as our report. We find all our churches and ministers in good standing. The only differences that we discovered has been duly adjusted and full satisfaction made between all parties concerned.

Respectfully submitted,
L. W. McKenney, Chairman.

REPORT ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION

We, your committee on Christian Education submit the following report. We find that there seems to be an awakening on the part of our people in regard to the work and importance of the work of the Sunday School. Our Sunday Schools have taken on new life, as was shown by our Sunday School convention which was held at Reba Church the first Sunday in September. We recommend that a field worker be appointed to travel from church to church to encourage and assist in bringing about efficiency in the work of the Sunday Schools, and to assist in the organizations of Sunday schools. in churches who have no Sunday School.

The Sunday School is by far our most fruitful field for evangelism and the Sunday school workers constitute our most efficient force. Training in Service should be instituted for our workers and teachers.

ELD. J. L. POSTON, Chairman.

WOMAN'S WORK

We, your committee are sorry to report there is no organized work in our church other than Sunday school and prayer meeting, but we ask the prayers of those who pray, that we may move forward in the work for the up-building of our churches for Christ.

MRS. J. B. LANGFORD.

IN MEMORY OF BROTHER A. J. DUNAWAY

In memory of Brother A. J. Dunaway, better known as "Uncle Jack." Uncle Jack was born 1857, died Feb. 10, 1947. He left this world at the age of 90, to go on to that heavenly mansion he has been preparing for 73 years.

Funeral services were conducted at Double Branch church, by our pastor, Rev. C. H. Moore. Services at the graveside were conducted by Uncle Jack's Brother Masons.

Uncle Jack has been a member of the church 73 years. He served as a Deacon of Double Branch for 50 years. We miss Uncle Jack in our church. He was a faithful worker. His life as a Christian is an inspiration to us now. We know he is reaping the joys of heaven and we too, someday will meet him again.

Sister in Christ,

MRS. J. T. DUNAWAY.

IN MEMORY OF ELDER C. E. PEACOCK

Bro. Peacock was born Sept. 29, 1895, died Feb. 9, 1947, making his stay on earth 51 year, 4 months and 11 days. He was a member of Mt. Ararat Free Will Baptist church and a minister of the Gospel for several years. He filled his place well both as a member and a minister and was loved by all who knew him.

There is now a vacant chair at the table, a vacant place in the home, a voice that was loved is still. He will be missed in the community as well as in the home. He was always found loyal and faithful to his loved ones and friends. He is not dead but sleeping. Bro. Peacock to you we will say, Good night here but Good morning up there.

He is gone but not forgotten,
Never will his memory fade,
Sweetest thoughts will ever linger
Around the grave where he is laid.
In a land that is free from sorrow
Where the weary rest from care,

There will be no sad tomorrow,
When we gather over there.
Endless praise to him be given,
While the countless ages roll
In a mansion up in heaven
That fair homeland of the soul.
Written by request,

ELDER J. F. SMITH.

IN MEMORY OF SISTER MARTHA PEACOCK

Sister Peacock was born December 12, 1872, died Jan. 9, 1947. Was a member of Mt. Ararat Free Will Baptist Church for many many year. Her stay on earth was 74 years and 28 days. Gone but not forgotten.

She has gone to her reward
That's prepared for her on high,
Where loved ones can be reunited
And so can you and I.
So brace up now dear loved ones,
Let's say O Lord thy will be done
The fight is yet before us
Our crown is yet to be won.
Written by request,

ELD. J. F. SMITH.

IN MEMORY OF MRS. MAGGIE BOKENHAGEN

Mrs. Maggie Bokenhagen was born Dec. 29, 1874, died May 29, 1947. She was one among the oldest members of the Bethlehem church. She has gone but not forgotten, never will her memory fade.

WHEN WE GO HOME

When we go home think you 'tis true
That we shall know as once we knew
You speak with me and I with you
When we go home.
When we go home I hope to see
A little face look straight at me,
Unchanged from what it used to be
When we go home.
When we go home, 'Twill be to hear
A darling voice, so low and clear
Our hearts were thrilled to think it near,
When we go home.
When we go home, it must be so,
From out the shades of long ago,
Will come the friends we lost below—
When we go home.—J. L. Scott.
By O. V. SMITH, Grand son.

IN MEMORY OF MR. A. E. HOLT

Mr. A. E. Holt went to his reward April 29, 1947. He was one among the oldest members of Bethlehem church. Born April 30, 1891.

AWAY

I cannot say, I will not say
That he is dead, he is just away,
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand
As he wandered into an unknown land,
And left us dreaming how very fair
It needs must be, since he lingers there.
And you, O you, who the wildest yearn
For the old time step and the glad return
Think of him faring on, as dear
In the love of there as the love of here.

—James Whitecomb Riley.

ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. THE BIBLE. The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and are our infallible rules of faith and practice.

2. GOD. There is one living and true God, revealed in nature as the Creator of the universe; and in the Scriptures as Father, Son and Holy Ghost, yet as one God, infinitely wise and good, whom all intelligent creatures are supremely to love, adore, obey.

3. CHRIST. Christ is God manifest in the flesh; in His divine nature truly God, in His human nature truly man. The mediator between God and man, once crucified, He is now risen and glorified, and is our ever present Savior and Lord.

4. THE HOLY SPIRIT. The Scriptures assign to the Holy Spirit all the attributes of God. He is the Reprover, Comforter, Guide and Sanctifier of men.

5. THE GOVERNMENT OF GOD. God exercises a wise and benevolent providence over all being and all things by maintaining the constitution and laws of nature. He also performs special acts of grace, not otherwise provided for, as the highest welfare of man requires.

6. THE SINFULNESS OF MAN. Man was created innocent, but by disobedience fell into a state of sin and condemnation. His posterity, therefore, inherit a fallen nature of such tendencies that all who come to years of accountability sin, and become guilty before God.

7. THE WORK OF CHRIST. The Son of God by His incarnation, life, sufferings, death and resurrection, effected for all a redemption from sin that is full and free and is the ground of salvation by faith.

8. THE TERMS OF SALVATION. The conditions of salvation are: 1. Repentance of sincere sorrow for sin and hearty renunciation of it. 2. Faith or the unreserved committal of one's self to Christ as Savior and Lord with purpose to love and obey Him in all things. In the exercise of saving faith the soul is renewed by the Holy Spirit, freed from the dominion of sin and becomes a child of God. 3. Continuance in faith and obedience until death.

9. ELECTION. God determined from the beginning to save all who should comply with the conditions of salvation. Hence by faith in Christ men become his elect.

10. FREEDOM OF THE WILL. The human will is free and self-controlled, having power to yield to the influence of the truth and the Spirit, or to resist them and perish.

11. SALVATION FREE. God desires the salvation of all, the Gospel invites all, the Holy Spirit strives with all, and whosoever will may come and take of the water of life freely.

12. PRESEVERENCE. All believers in Christ, who through grace persevere in holiness to the end of life, have promise of eternal salvation.

13. GOSPEL ORDINANCES, BAPTISM, or the immersion of believers in water, and the LORD'S SUPPER, are ordinances to be perpetuated under the Gospel; FEET WASHING, an ordinance teaching humility, of universal obligation, and to be administered to all true believers.

14. TITHING. God commanded tithes and offerings in the Old Testament; Jesus Christ indorsed it in the Gospel (Matt. 23:23) and the apostle Paul said, "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him." (I Cor. 16:2.)

15. THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH. The divine law requires that one day in seven be set apart for secular employments and amusements, for rest, worship, holy works and activities, and for personal communion with God.

16. RESURRECTION, JUDGMENT AND FINAL RETRIBUTION. The Scriptures teach the resurrection of all men at the last day. They that have done good will come forth to the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation; then the wicked will "go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise by His grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship; and by self-denial, faith, and good works, endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

We will not forget the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences; public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society; constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises; the support of Missions, the success of Sunday schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
