- 2 Jacob Martin, who is currently a licensed minister through our association, is still working through the process for ordination.

He is on track to be ordained at our April Georgia Union Association meeting.

- 3 At our October Georgia Union Association meeting, the Association voted to accept the transference of Clint Adams' credentials as an ordained minister. Unfortunately, at that time, we were unable to present his certificate of ordination. So, at this time, we would like to present Brother Clint with his certificate of ordination and to have a prayer of dedication for him. Rev. Wayne Martin led in prayer.

Mission Board: Rev. Roy Woods, Chairman

State update:

- 2 The State Mission board has purchased a two acre property with a 4,000 square foot building for the Tifton Church.
- 3 The property in Cartersville has been sold, so they do not owe any money.

ARTICLE 7: Policy Regarding Marriage

The Policy stated below has been duly adopted by the National Association of Free Will Baptist, Inc., the Georgia State Association of Free Will Baptists, Inc. and each member church in the Georgia Union Association of Free Will Baptist, Inc.

“This statement expresses the beliefs of this Association regarding marriage and human sexuality. It is based on the application of Biblical principles to our faith, our life, and our practice, and is in intentional accord with the Treatise of the Faith and Practices of Free Will Baptists, especially as expressed in the Appendix to Chapter IV, Section 1, as adopted by the National Association of Free Will Baptists (July 2008), of which our Association is a member.

A civil government’s sanction of a union will be recognized as a legitimate marriage by this Association only to the extent that it is consistent with the Biblical definition of marriage expressed in this Policy Statement (this “Policy”), which means the marriage between one man and one woman as expressed by God in Genesis 2: 23-25: vs. 23 “And Adam said, This is now bone of my bone, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman because she was taken out of Man.” vs.24: “Therefore shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.” vs. 25: “And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.”

HUMAN SEXUALITY

This Association follows what the Bible reveals as the “sure foundation” of the teachings of Jesus Christ and his apostles (Mathew 7:24-29; 1 Corinthians 14:37). If the body of this Association is to bear the name Christian authentically, we are called to teach and practice these teachings and are not at liberty to depart from them for a different authority. Though we strive to live peaceably with all people and to obey legitimate government authority, if the two come into conflict about matters as foundational as marriage, we must ultimately obey God rather than man (Acts 4:18-21).”

Recognizing that we all struggle with sin, this Association will provide an environment that welcomes people who struggle with sexual sin. We will seek to love all people in Jesus’ name, pointing them toward Christ’s power to forgive and heal. While the Bible teaches that those who engage in sexual immorality sin against their own bodies, we also recognize that sexual sin is not characterized in Scripture as being more severe than other forms of sin. We will seek God to discern ways that we can directly and indirectly minister and share God’s love with those who struggle with every kind of sin. We also recognize that there is a difference between temptation and behavior and that, while temptation is something unavoidable, we are responsible for our behavior.

For Membership in this Association:

- 1 No member(s) of any Church in this Association may enter into a sexual union other than Biblical marriage as defined by this Policy without being subject to discipline within this Association.
- 6 No person practicing a sexual union other than Biblical marriage, as defined by this Policy, will be considered for membership in any church in this Association.

For Our Staff (Ministers):

1. Every minister or other staff member employed by any Church in this Association shall affirm the statement of faith on marriage and human sexuality adopted by this Association.
- 4 Ministers employed by any Church in this Association shall be subject to dismissal and/or loss of ordination for violating this statement of faith on marriage and human sexuality or by officiating at a marriage ceremony that violates the letter or the spirit of this Policy.

Use of Our Facilities of any Church in this Association:

In a general way, and as a result of the religious beliefs described above – beliefs to which we must practice fidelity – it is our policy that the facilities of any of Church in this Association may not be used for any ceremony that in any way approves of, solemnizes, supports, or allows a same-sex union, a polygamous union, or any union that constitutes child abuse. Specific policies that express this include the following:

1. Only those applicants whose marriage is in accord with the Biblical view of marriage expressed in this Policy will be approved for weddings in any facilities of any Church in this Association. In making use of any of the facilities of any Church in this Association, they shall conduct themselves in a manner consistent with this Policy.

2. Only ordained or duly licensed clergy approved by any Church in this Association and conducting themselves in a manner consistent with this Policy shall officiate at marriage ceremonies conducted on any properties of any Church in this Association.

3. All our Churches in this Association shall decline any application for use of any facilities of any Church in this Association when there are significant concerns that one or both of the applicants may not be qualified to enter into the sacred bond of marriage for theological, doctrinal, moral or legal reasons.

ARTICLE 8: Constitutional Amendments

This Constitution and Bylaws shall not be changed or altered except by two-thirds majority of all eligible voting members present at a Quarterly Conference. All proposed amendments shall be in writing and shall be read during the morning conference, then tabled until afternoon, unless, however, the eligible voting members present vote to suspend such time limit. The amendment can then be removed from the table, read again and acted upon. No action concerning changes of this Constitution or Bylaws can be taken until all committees are present.

BYLAWS

(Revised 1985; 10/87; 6/91; 1/00; 10/00; 10/15; 4/19)

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise, by His grace, to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship; and by self-denial, faith, and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel; nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that the kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world.

And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
