CHRISTIAN EDUCATION BOARD REPORT

The CE Board has met collectively and by conference calls endeavoring to conduct our business of planning the 1988 Men's Retreat and the Kansas State Youth Camp.

The 1988 Men's Retreat was held at the Red Coach Inn in Salina on April 29 and 30, 1988. Rev. Terry Forrest of Monticello, Arkansas, was our speaker.

While Bro. Terry was in the state he held services in Emporia, 1st Church in Wichita, and in Salina. He had a rather hectic schedule while he was here but many were blessed by his presence in the state.

We wish to thank all who participated in many ways to the success of the Men's Retreat and "mini-revivals".

The 1987 Kansas State Youth Camp was held at Prairie View Christian Camp at Ark City, Kansas from August 17-21, 1987.

The 1988 Kansas State Youth Camp will again be held at Prairie View Christian Camp at Ark City from August 1-5, 1988. Bro. Mike Messer will be Teen Evangelist with Bro. Rick Messer as Youth Evangelist. Bro. Jim Brewer will be director with Bro. Bob Lee assisting.

Youth Camp will be for those children who have completed Grades 1-12 in the 1987-88 school year. The fee will be $60.00 per person.

The Members of the Christian Education Board want to thank the Kansas State Association for their trust and confidence in us and in allowing us to labor and do our part for the Lord.

PUBLIC MORALS COMMITTEE

The Public Morals Committee, in continuing the battle for decency and moral living in America, recognize that homosexuality and child molestation are prevailing sins of today.

We urge every Christian to refrain from using secular humanistic terminology of acceptance in referring to homosexuality. We further urge that every Christian uphold the highest Biblical standards of holiness in discussing and combating prevailing sexual sins.

REPORT FROM KANSAS STATE HOME MISSION BOARD

First meeting was held at Salina on June 29, 1987, in the home of Rev. Mike Messer. Items for immediate consideration were as follows:

- 1) The Board decided to support the Church Extension and Loan Fund made available through the National Home Mission Board. $30,000 was moved from savings account the the CELF.
- 2) Met with Rev. Gary Brunson, received report of work in Great Bend and considered recommendations for advancing work there.
- 3) Planned a Fall Attendance Campaign among Kansas Churches.

On November 19, 1987, Rev. Larry Collins received the resignation of Rev. Gary Brunson. A conference call with the Board was arranged and the resignation shared. A date was set for the Board to meet with the people of Central Free Will Baptist Church. The board prayerfully, and with much hesitation, made the decision to close the work and sell the property. On December 5, 1987, the Board met with Gary Brunson and the Great Bend people (in Great Bend, at the Central Free Will Baptist Church; six attended). Explanation of decision reached was shared and accepted. Testimonies and prayer followed. Board members encourage those left to enter a Bible preaching church immediately, where they could be ministered to. The Board elected Rev. Mike Messer to be representative to secure a buyer for the building, reporting to the board for final action and decisions. On February 24, 1988, Prairie Foursquare Church of Great Bend signed a contract to purchase Central for $30,000.

Although we have suffered this great set back in our mission work, the Kansas State Home Mission Board greatly desires to see Free Will Baptist Churches started. A statement of purpose was adopted on June 29, 1987, to determine further direction and use of Home Mission Savings for that end. Our desire is to see a work started in an area which has a population of at least 50,000. Johnson County has been the topic of discussion for the next work.

Respectfully Submitted,

Warner Collier
Larry Collins
Neal Kerans

Rick Messer
