1. The author brings hope—apostle with imperfection was used.
2. The audience brings hope—strangers (aliens, temporary residents), but elect (chosen) and sanctified (changed), sprinkling (commissioned)

Kansas State Free Will Baptist Home Missions Report

The Living Hope Free Will Baptist Church of Hutchinson, Kansas, has been working at becoming a family-centered church. Here are some of the ways that Living Hope has been fulfilling the Great Commission:

- They have made 300 contacts in the community.
- They have had 20 professions of faith.
- Fifteen have been baptized.
- They have started a church softball team.
- They have monthly church-wide activities that are geared toward fellowship and unity. (i.e., campouts, cookouts, and socials).

The church is growing and is having an average attendance of 40.

The church is still under the helpful hand of the Kansas State Home Missions Board. They are receiving financial help and, when needed, Bro. Michael is receiving help with the direction the church is going. The Kansas State Home Missions Board is paying Bro. Michael $400.00 a month.

Living Hope is maintaining a good tithing base, they are paying their own daily and monthly bills.

The Kansas State Home Missions Board has been very proud of Bro. Michael and his wife, Heather.

To God be the glory for the things He has done at Living Hope. With that being said, Bro. Michael and Sis. Heather have been willing vessels for the Lord to work through. They have seen success.

Please let the state of Kansas always be much in prayer for Living Hope, Bro. Michael and his family, and the church family.

Respectfully submitted by,

Rev. Zane Brooks
Rev. Randy Harris
Bro. Ray Hubbard

The Value of Life

An unborn baby aborted before she ever has a chance to live outside her mother's womb. A baby born with a terrible birth defect that will prevent him from ever living what society considers a "normal" life. An elderly man or woman with Alzheimer's who no one understands and considers a burden to take care of. A woman who, because of some unknown cause, finds herself brain-damaged and at the mercy of others to care for her. Our Heavenly Father loves and values each of these lives just as much as He loves and values each and every life He has ever created. God does not use society's tape measure to determine the value of a person's life. Genesis 1:27 says, "So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them." The following passage beautifully describes the tender care God uses to create a human life.

"For You formed my inward parts; You covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise You, for I am fearfully and wonderfully made; marvelous are Your works, And that my soul knows very well. My frame was not hidden from You when I was made in secret and skillfully wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Your eyes saw my substance, being yet unformed, and in Your book they all were written, the days fashioned for me when as yet there were none of them." (Psalm 139:13-16)

Society today has been subtly deceived into believing that if a person has some kind of handicap, be it physical or mental, that he or she is not a "whole" person. In some cases, society might even say that he or she has no quality of life. Society has gone as far as to advocate prematurely ending these kind of lives in a way that was never intended by God our Creator.

Earlier this year, a Florida woman's life was taken because she required a feeding tube connected to her stomach to sustain her life. She could breathe, maintain a blood pressure, see, and move her limbs on her own. She could feel emotions, and she could feel pain, but because of her one handicap, some believed her quality of life was gone, so she should be allowed to "die with dignity." How was her death accomplished? She was literally dehydrated and starved until her body could no longer function. Her name was Terri Schiavo.

Most Americans know or at least are familiar with Terri's story. Some argued that Terri would not have wanted to live in a "persistent vegetative state." Others disagreed that she was ~~was~~ in this kind of state at all and that Terri valued all human life. In the end, a courtroom judge determined that Terri should be allowed to die. Was it really Terri's time to go? That is a question only our Heavenly Father can answer. God our Creator never intended His creations to make decisions concerning life and death. "As it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment." (Hebrews 9:27)

We as believers in the body of Christ need to do what is in our power to protect and preserve the value of life. An unborn baby's voice cannot be heard. A handicapped child may never be able to speak and let others know he has feelings just like anyone else. The elderly person who cannot remember things from yesterday but can remember things from years past struggle to get people to understand that they do not understand themselves why they do not remember. The brain-damaged woman who cannot make her voice work cannot express to others that she does not want to die. Christians need to be the voice for these special lives whom God has breathed the breath of life into. One day our life might be in jeopardy. Who will stand and speak for us?

1. Providing they adopt and adhere to State questionnaire number 1, 2, and the one for ministers and deacons.
2. Failure to comply with this ruling concerning licensing and ordination of ministers and deacons will result in withdrawal of fellowship.

ARTICLE V - DISCIPLINE

ARTICLE VI - DELEGATES AND FEES

It shall be the duty of the Quarterly Conferences of this Association to represent themselves by letter, delegates, and a fee of $100.00 per church, and report their standings and statistics, at which time the Association shall act upon such questions and topics as may be referred to it by its respective Quarterly Conferences and transact such other business not repugnant to this constitution. Each local church is entitled to one (1) delegate to this Association, provided a letter of recommendation is presented to the clerk of this Association, from the local church, signed by the local church clerk or its pastor.
