The association is to give the best advise it can on all matters of difficulty. If the union should be broken between any of the churches, the association shall inquire into the cause of the break and use its endeavors to remove the difficulty. If the break cannot be removed the association is to withdraw from the church, which they look upon as unsound in principles, and disorderly conduct of practice, until they be reclaimed.

The association is not to take a case of any kind, within the union, without the consent of the majority of the churches, and then only to give advise.

DOCTRINE

THE BIBLE. The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and are our infallible rule of faith and practice.

GOD. There is one living and true God, revealed in nature as the Creator, Preserver, and Righteous Governor of the universe; and in the Scriptures as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; yet as one God, infinitely wise and good, whom all intelligent creatures are supremely to love, adore and obey.

CHRIST. Christ is God manifest in the flesh; in His divine nature truly God, in His human nature truly man. The mediator between God and man, once crucified, He is now risen and glorified, and is our ever present Saviour and Lord.

THE HOLY SPIRIT. The Scriptures assign to the Holy Spirit all the attributes of God.

THE GOVERNMENT OF GOD. God exercises a wise and benevolent providence over all beings and all things by maintaining the constitution and laws of nature. He also performs special acts, not otherwise provided for, as the highest welfare of men require.

THE SINFULNESS OF MAN. Man was created innocent, but by disobedience fell into a state of condemnation.

His posterity, therefore, inherit a fallen nature of such tendencies that all who come to years of accountability, sin and become guilty before God.

THE WORK OF CHRIST. The Son of God by His incarnation, life, sufferings, death, and resurrection, effected for all a redemption from sin that is full and free, and is the ground of salvation by faith.

THE TERMS OF SALVATION. The conditions of salvation are: (a) Repentance or sincere sorrow for sin and hearty renunciation of it. (b) Faith or the unreserved committal of one's self to Christ as Saviour and Lord with purpose to love and obey Him in all things. In the exercise of saving faith, the soul is renewed by the Holy Spirit, freed from the dominion of sin, and becomes a child of God. (c) Continuance in faith and obedience until death.

ELECTION. God determined from the beginning to save all who should comply with the conditions of salvation. Hence, by faith in Christ, men become his elect.

FREEDOM OF WILL. The human will is free and self-controlled, having power to yield to the influence of the truth and the Spirit, or to resist them and perish.

SALVATION FREE. God desires the salvation of all, the Holy Spirit strives with all, and whosoever will may come and take of the water of life freely.

PERSEVERANCE. All believers in Christ, who through grace persevere in holiness to the end of life, have promise of eternal salvation.

GOSPEL ORDINANCES. Baptism, or the immersion of believers in water, and Lord's Supper, are ordinances to be perpetuated under the Gospel. Feet Washing, an ordinance, teaching humility of universal obligation, and to be ministered to all true believers.

TITHING. God commanded tithes and offerings in the Old Testament; Jesus Christ endorsed it in the Gospel (Matthew 23:23), and the Apostle Paul said, "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him." (1 Corinthians 16:2).

THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH. The divine law requires that one day in seven be set apart from secular employments and amusements for rest, worship, holy works and activities, and for personal communion with God.

RESURRECTION, JUDGEMENT, AND FINAL RETRIBUTION. The Scriptures teach the resurrection of all men at the last day. They that have done good will come forth to the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation; then the wicked will "go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

CHURCH COVENANT

90 Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Jesus Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise by his grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to provide things honest in the sight of all men.

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social workshop, and by self-denial, faith, and good works endeavor to grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society; constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday Schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

MINUTES OF THE SEVENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE LITTLE BROWN CREEK ASSOCIATION OF FREE WILL BAPTISTS

The seventy-sixth annual session of the Little Brown Creek Association convened with Martin Hill Church on September 3 and 4, 1966. The Friday morning session was opened with singing "He Keeps Me Singing", directed by Rev. J. L. Gore. Visiting ministers, Rev. Randy Cox and Rev. Tom Johnson from the Northeast Association, and Rev. Daniel Gaskings, Moderator of the Mississippi State Association, were welcomed.

Love, as the theme of the Association, was advocated by Moderator, Rev. J. S. Whitehead, as he read 1 Corinthians 13, and challenged the delegation to be unified in all business and to hold up the Spirit of God in order that all the accomplishments would be through love.

Roberta Hall and Altie Walker were appointed by the Moderator to read the church letters. Only nine churches were represented at this time. The motion was made and received that the Association accept the letters and seat the delegates.

90 The Devotional Committee was appointed by the Moderator as follows: Clint Mayo, J. J. Whittimore, and Clinton Sharp.

Rev. Cox delivered the morning message. Using 1 Peter 1: 13-25 as his text, he discussed four areas in which pilgrim saints are to reflect the character of God. Emphasizing further the Christian reflection, the Moderator spoke on how the Christian light should shine.

The delegation was asked to reassemble promptly at one O'clock on the right side of the church, and the Devotional Committee was asked to give a partial report at the beginning of the session. The Association was then dismissed for lunch.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session was opened by singing "Face to Face" and "Take the Name of Jesus With You", led by Milton Arnold, and prayer by Rev. W. M. Briley.

The letter from Burgess Creek Church was read by the Clerk and accepted by the Association. Erie Nash directed "When I See the Blood" at which time a special offering was taken for the visiting ministers.

The afternoon message was delivered by Rev. Gaskins. He selected scriptures throughout the Book of Ephesians, using as a basis for his message, "A Life Above the Standard of the World". His closing statement was "Work and Plan as if you had a thousand years to live; live as if you were going to die the next moment." Following the sermon, he spoke briefly on the importance of unified efforts of all Free Will Baptists in the work of God. He also announced that September 14 had been set aside by the State Association as a day of prayer for the State Program of Free Will Baptists. "The Old Rugged Cross" was directed by Gerdest Walker.

The Devotional Committee reported as follows: Friday night devotional planning was left to the discretion of the Moderator. Rev. Gary Johnson was selected to deliver the sermon.

The Moderator appointed committees as follows:

Sunday School Committee: Hazel Gentles, Asillia Thompson, and Arvilla Lambert.

Obituary Committee: Roberta Hall, Alma Jackson, and Altie Walker.

Finance Committee: Lela Nash, Lena Mae Hare, and Goldia Davenport.

Resolution Committee: Rev. D. W. Jones, Jr., Rev. W. M. Briley, and Rev. Grady Johnson.

A question and answer period concerning the State Association was opened by Rev. Gaskins.

While Rev. Tom Johnson directed "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" there was a good will handshake. The Association was dismissed in prayer by Rev. D. W. Jones, Jr.

FRIDAY NIGHT SESSION

"Stand by Me", directed by Milton Arnold, and prayer by Charles Walden opened the Friday night session. Gerdest Walker directed "Near the Cross" and Charles Walden directed "On Jordan's Stormy Banks." Rev. Curtis Briley led the congregation in prayer.

The devotional was brought by Rev. W. M. Briley. Taking his text from Titus 3: 1-8, he exhorted Christians to heed Paul's instructions to Titus. "When We All Get to Heaven" was directed by Bro. Huddleston.

Rev. Gary Johnson delivered the evening sermon. Reading from Acts 6: 1-8, he based his message on the "Life of a Christian." Charles Walden led the invitational hymn and dismissed the Association in prayer until 9:30 Saturday morning.

The Devotional Committee reported that Rev. D. W. Jones, Jr. would bring the eleven O'Clock message. "I Must Tell Jesus" directed by Gerdest Walker and "There shall be Showers of Blessings" directed by Erie Nash were followed by prayer by Rev. Curtis Briley.

The Finance, Obituary and Sunday School reports are as follows:

Committee: Roberta Hall, Alma Jackson, and Altie Walker.

"Rescue the Perishing" was directed by Milton Rhodes. The Moderator asked Rev. Jack Jones to conduct the devotional service. Using 1 Samuel 15: 1-24 as a text, Rev. Jones asked, "Is it Better to Sacrifice, or to Obey? Should tithing, feet-washing and deliverance of the Gospel message be substituted for obedience?"

While Charles Walden directed a short song service, the Ordaining Council questioned Rev. Jack Jones, who was transferring from the Tennessee River Association, and Rev. Gary Johnson who had been recommended to the Ordaining Council as being in good fellowship with the Antioch Church. Motions were made and carried to accept Rev. Jack Jones into the Little Brown Creek Association, and to ordain Rev. Gary Johnson immediately after the morning sermon.

"The Need of Service" was the title of the message delivered by Rev. D. W. Jones, Jr. There was one who rededicated herself for a more serviceable Christian life.

Rev. Curtis Briley, Chairman of the Ordaining Council, took charge of the ordination of Rev. Johnson, instructing him in the duties, the trials, and the blessings of the ministry. The Christians gave Rev. Johnson a supporting
