Church Covenant

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise, by His grace, to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions and social worship; and by self-denial, faith, and good works endeavor to "Grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ."

We will not forsake the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel; nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that the kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday Schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Articles of Faith

1. The Bible. The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and are our infallible rule of faith and practice.

2. God. There is one living and true God, revealed in nature as the Creator, Preserver, and Righteous Governor of the universe; and in the Scriptures as Father, Son, and Holy Ghost; yet as one God, infinitely wise and good, whom all intelligent creatures are supremely to love, adore, and obey.

3. Christ. Christ is God manifest in the flesh; in His divine nature truly God, in His human nature truly man. The mediator between God and man, once crucified, He is now risen and glorified, and is our ever present Saviour and Lord.

1. The Holy Spirit. The Scriptures assign to the Holy Spirit all the attributes of God.

5. The Government of God. God exercises a wise and benevolent providence over all beings and things by maintaining the constitution and laws of nature. He also performs special acts, not otherwise provided for, as the highest welfare of men requires.

6. The Sinfulness of Man. Man was created innocent, but by disobedience fell into a state of sin and condemnation. His posterity, therefore, inherit a fallen nature of such tendencies that all who come to years of accountability, sin and become guilty before God.

7. The Work of Christ. The Son of God by His incarnation, life, sufferings, death, and resurrection effected for all a redemption from sin that is full and free, and is the ground of salvation by faith.

8. The Terms of Salvation. The conditions of salvation are:

1. Repentance or sincere sorrow for sin and hearty renunciation of it.
 2. Faith or the unreserved committal of one's self to Christ as Saviour and Lord with purpose to love and obey Him in all things. In the exercise of saving faith, the soul is renewed by the Holy Spirit, freed from the dominion of sin, and becomes a child of God.
 3. Continuance in faith and obedience unto death.
9. Election. God determined from the beginning to save all who should comply with the conditions of salvation. Hence by faith in Christ men become His elect.
10. Freedom of Will. The human will is free and self-controlled, and having power to yield to the influence of the truth and the Spirit, or to resist them and perish.
11. Salvation Free. God desires the salvation of all, the Gospel invites all, the Holy Spirit strives with all, and whosoever will may come and take of the water of life freely.
12. Perseverance. All believers in Christ, who through grace persevere in holiness to the end of life, have promise of eternal salvation.
13. Gospel Ordinances. Baptism, or the immersion of believers in water, and the Lord's Supper, are ordinances to be perpetuated under the Gospel. Feet Washing, an ordinance teaching humility, is of universal obligation, and is to be ministered to all true believers.
- 14 Tithing. God commanded tithes and offerings in the Old Testament; Jesus Christ endorsed it in the Gospel (Matt. 23:23), and the apostle Paul said, "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God has prospered him" (1 Cor. 16:2a).

15. The Christian Sabbath. The divine law requires that one day in seven be set apart from secular employments and amusements, for rest, worship, holy works, and activities, and for personal communion with God.

16. Resurrection, Judgment, and Final Retribution. The Scriptures teach the resurrection of all men at the last day. They that have done good will come forth to the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation; then the wicked will "go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

Mission Board Report

The report was given by Rev. Rex Evans. A motion was moved, seconded and carried to accept the report as information. Brother Evans asked Home Missionaries Rev. Carlie Lloyd and Rev. Greg Floars to give an oral report on their ministries in Madison, Wisconsin and Sawyer, Michigan.

Steve and Becky Riggs, France

Dear Fellow-workers in Michigan

Words cannot express the gratitude we feel for the Lord's many blessings in our lives. Our six-month stateside assignment was a time of real encouragement for Becky and me. The majority of our time was spent with you in Michigan, and we cannot begin to tell you what a blessing you all were to us. Thank you for your faithfulness. Thank you, too, for your prayers and support after the death of Becky's father in January. It is indeed at times like these that being part of God's family shows us all its importance.

Then, too, the Lord has proven His faithfulness in the work of the church at Nantes. Last Saturday (March 17, 2001) was our first work day on the new building. About 12 men spent the entire day together knocking down walls, hauling out wheelbarrows full of debris, and enjoying the fellowship of working for the Lord. We've still got a long way to go, but the church is enthusiastic and full of gratitude at what the Lord is doing. Please continue to keep us in your prayers.

In Christ,
Steve and Becky Riggs

Tim and Kristi Johnson, Spain

Hola! Greetings from Spain! We want to start by thanking you for your prayers and support for our ministry here. God has blessed us in a time we have been here, and we are thankful for the opportunities He has given us.

We consider you a valuable part of our ministry. Without you, we wouldn't be here. We want to thank each one of you for your part in the work here in Spain. You have been a blessing to us.

Please continue praying for various needs. The Villalba FWB Church needs a pastor and more dedicated workers. Pray that God will give our team wisdom and direction in knowing His will for us and the work here.

Here is a list of unsaved contacts: Santiago, Carmen, Neli, Ema, Marlene, Ana, and Elmer. Please remember them in prayer. We have recently started talking more with neighbors in our apartment building, especially a young couple named Miguel and Maria. Pray with us that we will have opportunities to share Christ with them.

Since the last Michigan State Conference, we have added a beautiful baby to our family, Alejandro. He is now almost a year old and is definitely a joy and blessing. We are thankful for him. Because of him, we have also had opportunities to make new contacts. Pray for us as parents as we raise him and pray for him as he grows up as an MK in Spain.

Again, thanks for your prayers and support. May God bless you as you serve Him in Michigan.

Tim and Kristi Johnson

Verlin and Debbie Anderson, Cote d'Ivoire

Dear Ministry Partners in Michigan,

Our first eight months in Cote d'Ivoire have passed in a blur. We can truly say that Africa is wonderful, scary, fascinating, and exhausted, sometimes all in the same minute! The enemy has already made it clear by means of political turmoil, racial hatred among tribes, challenges facing the community health evangelism outreach, illness in our family, and many other obstacles, that our ministry here is, and always will be, war. Yet we knew that before we came.

It would be easy to become overwhelmed by the task if we didn't know that the battle is the Lord's and if He hadn't given us such incredible ministry partners. How we praise the Lord for your faithfulness and vision! We also count just as much on your prayers to bind Satan's efforts. Thank you for making a difference in the Lord's harvest in Cote d'Ivoire.

Blessed to be a blessing
Verlin and Debbie Anderson
