Minutes of The Midway District Women Active for Christ

The Annual Convention of the Midway WAC was held Saturday, March 1, at Hammock Springs Free Will Baptist Church. Twenty eight members and one visitor were present. All seven auxiliaries were represented.

After registration committees met between 9:30 a.m. and 9:55 a.m.

The meeting began at 10:00 a.m. with congregations singing this is the Day, led by Henrietta Brown. Shirley Kimbrel was our pianist for the day.

Teresa Smith, President of Hammock Springs WAC, welcomed everyone to the church and led us in prayer.

Christine Daniel, Coordinator, opened the business portion of the meeting. The Credentials Report (Exhibit A) was given by Shirley Kimbrel. Seven WAC groups with a total of seventy-three members reported for 2013.

Delegates were then seated. The Credentials Report was accepted and passed.

The Report on the Project for 2014 was given by Alice Martin. Recommendations for the Service Report were presented, accepted and passed. Financial gifts of $125 each will be given to home missionaries Jeff and Heather Goodman and to Josh and Ashley Bennett in order for them to use it for something personal, such as a date night. The money will not go to their missionary accounts. We will also provide a love gift of $250 to Angela Littlefield and her husband to let them know that we love them and are praying for them as Angela is going through cancer treatments. (Angela's husband, Duane pastors Zion FWB Church in Blakely) Each WAC group is asked to remit $75 to support these Service Projects.

The Finance Report (exhibit C) was presented by Jean Dukes and was accepted and passed.

Kathy Roney presented Resolutions (Exhibit D) Committee Report. It was accepted and approved by the delegates. The congregation then gave a rising vote of "thanks" to Hammock Springs for hosting the convention.

Teresa Smith presented the Registration Committee Report. She reported 28 members and 1 visitor present.

Henrietta Brown updated us about her daughter and son-in-law's upcoming ministry to Thailand. She also gave a preview of the GWAC Prayer Retreat at Norman Park on April 11-12, 2014. Henrietta gave a recap of the 2013 Free Will Baptist Christmas shoebox ministry. She said that 149 shoeboxes were collected in Georgia. Henrietta also spoke about the World Mission Offering and its importance, about the Provisions Closet for our missionary families, and about the Hope Family Ministries in Greenville, Tennessee, and how we are supporting that ministry.

Christine Daniel told us about the Fall Event planned for September 27, 2014 to be held at First Free Will Baptist Church in Albany.

The floor was opened for nominations for women to serve on the Nominating Committee that will nominate officers for 2015-2017. The following members will serve on the Nominating Committee: Kathy Roney (chair), Alice Martin, June Hersey, Lula Holt, and Kathy Marshall.

Minutes of the day's meeting were read by Kathy Marshall, who served as Secretary for the meeting in the absence of Carol Horne who had a previous commitment.

After a very short break, the worship service was begun by singing Jesus Calls Us.

An offering was collected, after which Shirley Kimbrel introduced our special speaker, Wanda Powell.

Lonnie Grant blessed us by singing On the Wings of a Dove.

Wanda Powell then took us along her spiritual journey. We were so blessed by her presentation. We are thankful for the work she and her husband Larry did in the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico and with our Home Missions Department, and enjoyed hearing about her family's experience in all phases of work.

After Wanda's presentation, a closing prayer was given and we adjourned to lunch and fellowship.

Respectfully submitted,

Recommendations from the Resolutions Committee;

We, the Resolutions Committee resolve that:

1. A simple word or deed each of us can offer to lift someone's spirit can work wonders. May each of us minister to others in this way.
2. Pray that more women of our churches will come together and pray and help us to get our young people to turn their lives over to Jesus Christ.
3. Pray for our school systems that they may be a safe place for our children and grandchildren -- safe from bullying and drugs.
4. Whereas one of the purposes of Women Active for Christ is to promote missions, be it resolved we pray for and support the missionaries financially.
