OUR RETIRING MODERATOR

Rev. James F. Miller
Desloge, Missouri

Rev. James F. Miller, pastor F. W. B. Church of Desloge, Missouri was elected Moderator of Missouri State Association of Free Will Baptists in the fall of 1933 at Mountain Grove, Mo.

He has served faithfully since that time until the 1944 session at which time he felt disposed to retire from this honorable position.

Under his lovable and efficient leadership we have seen the Missouri State Association grow from a very small group to its present state of integrity, enthusiasm, and influence among our sister states of the great National Body.

No one has ever served as Moderator of the state organization who came quite so near claiming and holding year after year the love and respect of the entire membership of Missouri Free Will Baptists as has Rev. James F. Miller.

His retirement from this office does not at all mean the ceasing of his activity and influence in the bounds of Missouri State Ass'n. He will continue to render an invaluable service in his impartial way as he "labors with us" and as "one of us" in our various state activities. Missouri State Association joins in paying tribute to our beloved and honorable retiring Moderator.

Report of Committee on Foreign Missions

Observing with much pleasure and gratitude the great missionary revival among our Free Will Baptist people every where, and knowing that in such missionary activity we are carrying out the express desire and command of our Lord as given to us in the great commission and knowing that if our denomination would be blessed of the Lord we must in turn be faithful to the missionary call, we therefore beg to submit the following recommendations:

1—That we approve the $40,000 campaign as has been launched by the Board of Foreign Missions of the National Association of Free Will Baptists.

2—That each church in the State Association hold at least two special prayer meetings during the year for the success of this campaign.

3—That we approve the work of Rev. Kenneth Turner in presenting the missionary pictures to our people throughout the denomination. And that we ask him to show them here at this session of the State Association.

4—That we approve the work set in motion at our Free Will Baptist College known as the Missionary Prayer Band, and that we urge everybody to join with them.

5—That our people join in prayer for the Lord to give to us another American man to go to Cuba for the purpose of assisting Brother Willey in the work.

6—That we keep constantly before the throne of grace our Free Will Baptist Bible School in Cuba known as our "Cuban School of Missions."

7—That owing to the fact the warring conditions of the world is greatly hindering us in what we hope to do in missionary work in India let us therefore strive to keep before the minds of our people the fact that we do yet have holdings in India, and a great opening there just as soon as the war ceases and we can get missionaries over there.

Prayerfully submitted: Winford Davis, Mark Lewis, Thora Arbogast.

. Report on Temperance

We, your Committee on Temperance report as follows:

Whereas we look round about us, in this present evil world, we see deceptive worldly attractions of every kind—road houses, dine and dance halls, beer joints and taverns, gambling dens, news stands literally loaded down with trashy literature, enticing places of worldly amusements, and many other degrading things Satan has established to catch and destroy men and women, boys and girls for whom the Son of God died that they might have eternal life.

Be it resolved therefore, that we all as members of our State Association of Free Will Baptist, do all we can against the sanction and use of intoxicating liquors of every kind. Also that we do all we can to keep our young people from the demoralizing influence of these places and things all of which are evil and can have only evil influences.

And be it resolved, that all our people be helped and encouraged to be temperate in all good things and total abstiners from all evil things.

FREE WILL BAPTIST ARTICLES OF FAITH

1. THE BIBLE.— The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and are our infallible rule of faith and practice.

2 Timothy 3:16.

2. GOD.— There is one living and true God, revealed in nature as the Creator, Preserver, and Righteous Governor of the universe, and in the Scriptures as the Father, Son and Holy Ghost, yet as one God, infinitely wise and good, whom all intelligent creatures are supremely to love, adore and obey.

1 Cor. 8:6; Matt. 28:19.

3. CHRIST.— Christ is God manifest in the flesh; in His divine nature truly God, in His human nature truly man. The mediator between God and man, once crucified, He is now risen and glorified and is our ever present Savior and Lord.

St. John 1:1-12.

4. THE HOLY SPIRIT.— The Scriptures assign to the Holy Spirit all the attributes of God. He is the Reprover, Comforter, Guide and Sanctifier of men.

St. John 16:7-8; Acts 2:4; Eph. 4:46.

5. THE GOVERNMENT OF GOD.— God exercises a wise and benevolent providence over all beings and all things by maintaining the constitution and laws of nature. He also performs special acts of grace, not otherwise provided for, as the highest welfare of man requires Psalms 22:28; 97:2.

6. THE SINFULNESS OF MAN.— Man was created innocent, but by disobedience fell into a state of sin and condemnation. His posterity, therefore, inherited a fallen nature of such tendencies that all who come to years of accountability sin, and become guilty before God.

Gen. 2:17; 3:19.

7. THE WORK OF CHRIST.— The Son of God, by His incarnation, life, sufferings, death and resurrection affected for all a redemption from sin that is full and free and is the ground of salvation by faith.

8. THE TERMS OF SALVATION.— The conditions of salvation are: 1. Repentance or sincere sorrow for sin and the hearty renunciation of it. 2. Faith or the unreserved committal of one's self to Christ as Savior and Lord, with purpose to love and obey Him in all things. In the exercise of saving faith the soul is renewed by the Holy Spirit, freed from the dominion of sin and becomes a child of God. 3. Continuance in faith and obedience until death.

2 Cor. 7:10; Pro. 23:13.

9. ELECTION.—God determined from the beginning to save all who should comply with the conditions of salvation. Hence by faith in Christ men become His elect.

1 Tim. 2:4.

10. FREEDOM OF WILL.—The human will is free and self-controlled, having power to yield to the influence of the truth and the Spirit and live, or to resist them and perish.

Joshua 24:15.

11. SALVATION FREE.—God desires the salvation of all. the Gospel invites all. the Holy Spirit strives with all, and whosoever will may come and take of the water of Life freely.

Rev. 22:17.

12. PERSEVERANCE.—All believers in Christ, who through grace, persevere in holiness to the end of life, have the promise of eternal salvation.

St. John 15:6; 2 Peter 2:20-22.

13. GOSPEL ORDINANCES.—Baptism, or the immersion of believers in water, and the Lord's Supper, are ordinances to be perpetuated under the Gospel: Feet Washing, an ordinance teaching humility, of universal obligation, and to be administered to all true believers.

Mark 16:15; 2 Cor. 4:5; St. John 13:14.

14. THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH. The divine law requires that one day in seven be set apart from secular employments and amusements, for rest, worship, holy works, and activities, and for personal communion with God.

Gen. 2:3; Exod. 20:8-11.

15. WAR.—War destroys the lives of the innocent, and is contrary to the New Testament, therefore, we are opposed to war.

16. RESURRECTION, JUDGEMENT, AND FINAL RETRIBUTION.—The Scriptures teach the resurrection of all men at the last day. They that have done good will come forth to the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation; then the wicked shall "go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

John 5:29; Matt. 25:46.

FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant. We Promise by His grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid the appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world; from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit," in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society; constantly praying and toiling that the kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship; and by self-denial, faith, and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ." We will not forget the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church of its poor, and all its benevolent work.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, the support of missions, the success of Sunday schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of souls, and the conversion of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly, and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
