All were approved without opposition with the exception of the clerk. Jim Maddox was nominated from the floor. Wade Parker was elected.

Tim Thompson was then recognized with the report of the Resolution Committee.

Resolution #1. Whereas, United States President Bill Clinton (who months earlier, though exonerated by the Senate, was impeached by the U.S. House of representatives on serious moral/ethical charges) has recently (June 2) declared the month of June to be national recognized as "Gay and Lesbian Month," and

Whereas, homosexuality/lesbianism is a blatant "in your face" affront to nature itself and the very foundations of family, morality, and civilization; a perversion of Providence's plan for moral purity and procreation; a mockery of masculinity/femininity; a menace to the morale among the masses; and a vicious vice whose very desire and design is to destroy the dignity and decency of a civil citizenry; and

Whereas, the homosexual lifestyles condemned in Scripture as perhaps the abject antitheses of the righteousness that exalteth a nation and the epitome of the sin that is a reproach to any people (Proverbs 14:34; Leviticus 20:13; Romans 1:26-28), and

Whereas, the God of Heaven destroyed the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah (Genesis 19) due primarily, if not totally, to this single, sordid sin which apparently characterized these towns (Genesis 19:4);

Therefore, be it resolved that the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists by means of this resolution express its staunch opposition to the President and his proclamation; further to the degree that even a President's proclamations conflict with those of our God, we are deeply determined to "let God be true but every man a liar" (Roman 3:4).

Be it further resolved that while we as Christians hold hope in Christ before the homosexual community, assuring them of God's love and forgiveness in response to their sincere repentance, we refuse to forego passing judgment on the "gay" lifestyle as wicked and perverted but rather we renew our resolve to continue "speaking the truth in love" (Ephesians 4:15).

Be it resolved further still that a copy of this resolution be sent by our Association clerk to the "Office of the President" in Washington, D.C.

Motion made and seconded that this resolution be sent to the National Association of Free Will Baptist as well as to the President of the U. S. of America.

Resolution #2. Whereas, both the Victory and Faith Free Will Baptist Churches (Goldsboro) have so graciously hosted this session of Our State Association,

Therefore, be it resolved that this body express its sincere thanks by a rising vote.

Motion made and seconded that the following resolution be sent to Randall House.

The N. C. State Association of Free Will Baptist is displeased that the Randall House would use a youth memo E-mail (dated April 14, 2000) to promote the Billy Graham Crusade.

A motion was made and passed to remove from the table the motion concerning the proposed constitutional change.

The proposed changed was adopted.

Motion was made, seconded to adjourn. Passed.

Executive Board Report
NC State Association of Free Will Baptist
June 4-5, 2001

Executive Board Meeting
Sept. 26, 2000
Raleigh, NC

The Executive Board met in Raleigh on the evening of Sept. 26. All members of the Executive Board were present, which includes, Rev. Randy Stone, Rev. Nate Ange, Rev. Dean Dobbs, Rev. Jerry Rackley, Rev. Rudolph Outlaw, Rev. Doug King, Rev. Wade Parker, and Rev. Jim Marcum.

The following items were discussed:

1) Whether or not the Board of Care was still in existence or not, It was agreed that the Board of Care still exists because it has never been dissolved by the NC State Association of FWB. The Executive Board recognizes the fact that someone has to be responsible for the monies that come from the lease of the Rest Home property, The Board of Care would be the logical ones to oversee it.

2) Brother Jim Marcum gave a report on the work of the State Promotional Dept. It was noted that the Promotional office income is still lagging behind budgeting, but has improved from what it has been doing in the past.

A. Brother Marcum reported that he had purchased a 1999 Pontiac for the state office.

B. Brother Marcum also requested permission to purchase a new computer for his office. The Board MSC to move $1000.00 from the secretarial portion of the budget to cover the cost of the computer.

3) The Board also discussed a suggestion that was sent in, in regards to the length of the state meetings. It was determined that the moderator will make his remarks at the beginning of the afternoon session. The Board also agreed that the nominating committee would be elected in the morning session in order to give them ample time for them to meet.

4) Speakers for the next state meeting were selected.

Rev. Tim Riggs and Rev. Jim Marcum were selected for Monday morning.

Rev. Glen Johnson and Rev. Joe Ange were selected for Monday night.

5) The Board decided to ask the State Association to invite the National Association to NC in 2011.

6) The Executive Board also discussed the fact that the All Boards meeting had seemingly lost the purpose for which it was originally intended for. It was determined that all the various boards of the state work needs to understand that they are accountable to the Executive Board for all their decisions, based on what is outlined in our Constitution. The Executive Board is asking that all boards submit a financial statement to us.

7) We had a brief discussion on what we might be able to do in the future in helping our aging ministers. Securing some type of supplemental insurance was mentioned. The Board agreed to look at what we can do to implement such a program.

Executive Board Meeting
February 26, 2001
Cary, NC

The Executive Board met in Cary on the evening of Feb. 26. All members of the Executive Board were present, which includes, Rev. Randy Stone, Rev. Nate Ange, Rev. Dean Dobbs, Rev. Jerry Rackley, Rev. Rudolph Outlaw, Rev. Doug King, Rev. Wade Parker, and Rev. Jim Marcum.

The following items and reports were discussed:

- 1) Brother Jim Marcum gave us a financial report from his office.
- 2) It was MSC to move $6,000.00 from the General Fund to the Auto Fund.
- 3) Plans were finalized for the program of the State meeting that is coming up in June.
- 4) The Board approved the budget for the Promotional Office. An increase of $2500.00 was added to the Promotional Secretary's Compensation Package.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Members and Friends of our State:

Greetings, and welcome to our Thirty-Ninth Annual Session of the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists. We offer our heart felt thanks and appreciate to Pastor Nate Ange and the good people of the Landmark Free Will Baptist Church for hosting this great meeting.

2000 has been a good year for the North Carolina Free Will Baptist Promotional ministry. The finances are still not at the level that they need to be, but I am indeed grateful for the 51 churches that have this ministry in their budgets. These faithful churches represent only 1/4th of our membership. All of the ministries of our State would be blessed if another 25% of our pastors would leave this meeting and lead their churches to regularly support our State works. On the page titled "Promotional Department Financial Observations" however, you will notice that in spite of below budget contributions, the rate of giving to this ministry has been increasing with each year.

Traveling is a constant factor for the Promotional Department ministry, and once again I have logged approximately 30,000 plus miles while serving our state. This traveling ministry has not only offered me the opportunity to preach Sunday mornings and evenings in Free Will Baptist churches all across our state, it has also given me the privilege to conduct 10 revival meetings and one camp meeting. During that time there have been seven salvation decisions and many others who came to the altar for various reasons. It is my desire to promote all the ministries of our state the best that I possibly can. But the ministry, whether it is our Home Missions, Bible Book Store, Rest Home or Youth Relations is about souls. It is my desire to see more souls saved this year and I ask your prayer support to that end.

It is still my desire and joy to publish The Witness, yet it seems to be the most difficult of all my duties to perform. The Witness is the one tool with which I can touch the majority of our people in the state. Pray for me that I will be able to produce more of them during the course of a year.

Let me take this final opportunity to thank the individuals, churches, association and women's organizations that have supported the efforts of the Promotional Office. Your faithfulness in giving and your verbal encouragement is deeply appreciated.

Sincerely,

Jim Marcum

MANAGER'S REPORT

The first year of the 21st Century was a good year for the bookstore ministry. "Praise God from whom all blessings flow." We had challenges along the way making for a slower economical return. A 23-inch snowfall in January brought business to almost a complete standstill, slowing sales for more than two weeks. The bookstore lost $10,000 during this period. By summer VBS sales were down $6,000 from the previous year. The slowing economy hurt sales the last three months of the year, especially in December. Our staff was short-handed part of the year. Due in part to maternity leave and the loss of our bookkeeper. These and other factors kept sales down $23,000 from the year before.

Even though the bookstore experienced an economic downturn, God's blessings are evident. With over a half a million dollars in sales, all internal obligations were met and all of the bills paid. On December 31st, the yearly financial statement showed a $6,500 profit.

Whatever has been accomplished for Christ in the year 2000 is due in part to the bookstore family. Their steadfastness through the rough periods and faithfulness during the better days made the difference between failure and success. They (Pat Nolen, Paul and Elizabeth Perreault, Victoria Winters, and Mrs. Stancill) have my sincerest gratitude for a job well done.

The Lord is greatly to be praised. The FWB Bible Book Store Ministry has completed thirty-five years (1966-2000) of continuous service to our FWB churches, the Durham and Triangle community, and to fellow Christians statewide and around the globe. The success of this outreach for Jesus Christ has been three-fold. Firstly, the support of our FWB churches cannot be underestimated. Without the commitment of our pastors and people, the bookstore could not of its own resources remain financially sound. Secondly, servanthood is the key to successful Christian ministry. The bookstore employees are the daily public relations corps. They answer the phones, pack and unpack boxes, shuffle the paperwork, shelve the books, and vacuum the floors, etc. They do this with willing hearts and warm smiles. Thirdly, the highest priority has been and is to honor God in every aspect of the work. Remaining true to the teachings of Jesus Christ and standing firm on biblical principles is why this ministry has been and greatly blessed of God. By the grace of God, we will continue "Holding forth the Word of Life..." in the new millennium.

Mrs. Stancill and I will be completing twenty years with the bookstore in 2001. We thank our State Association and our bookstore board for the privilege of serving in this ministry. It is our joy to serve. Please continue your support and prayers for this vital ministry.

Respectfully in Christ,

James G. Stancill

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

THE BIBLE BOOK STORE OF DURHAM, INC.
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEARS ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2000

NOTE 1 - DESCRIPTION OF UNIT

The accompanying financial statements include the accounts of The Bible Store of Durham, Inc., a subordinate member organization of the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists. The corporation is exempt from federal income taxes under the Internal Revenue Code Section 501 (c)(3). The primary function of the corporation is supplying Sunday School and other Christian literature to the Free Will Baptist Churches in the southeastern states. The corporation also maintains an inventory of Christian literature for sale to the general public. The offices of The Bible Book Store of Durham, Inc. are located in the North Duke Mall in Durham, North Carolina.

NOTE 2 - SUMMARY OF SIGNICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation - Fund Accounting

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the corporation are maintained on the accrual method. Under this method, revenues are recognized when earned rather than when collected and expenses are recognized when the obligation is incurred rather than when it is paid.

Bad Debts

Bad Debts are written off using the direct write-off method. Therefore, these financial statements do not include any allowance for doubtful accounts.

Contribution

All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or restricted by the donor for specific purposes are reported as temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support that increases those net asset classes. When a temporary restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statement of activities as net assets released from restrictions. At this time, the Corporation does not have any temporarily or permanently restricted net assets.

Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Inventory

Inventory consists of Bibles, Sunday School literature, supplies, cards, musical cassettes, books and other Christian Literature and is valued at cost under the first-in, first-out method. Inventory is taken annually on December 31 of each year.

The year 2000 was a very positive and productive year for North Carolina Home Missions. We met several times as a board and with our missionaries to produce guidelines to help us for the future. The missionaries that we have serving are God's choice servants. Each one of these men are worthy of your church's support.

Bro. Bob Edmonson and the Glad Tidings mission in Asheboro are in need of our help to complete their auditorium. The work is at a point that this must be completed to see this mission reach self-supporting status. Please pray and continue to give to help see this accomplished.

Our Work in Wilmington is still coming along nicely. The land has been paid for in full and provisions are being made to start a building in the near future. Thanks for the tremendous support that has been given to this mission work in Wilmington.

Bro. Ral Alsbrook is meeting in a new school building in the Huntersville section of Charlotte. The prospects continue for the Charlotte work and Ral is doing a good job of presenting Jesus to this community.

We are fortunate to have 3 godly men building exciting works in these 3 locations. This would not be possible without the faithful giving of our churches all across the state. Thanks for all the gifts given toward North Carolina Home Missions. Our prayer is to see even greater things done for God in the year 2001.

The Leah Waddell Scholarship Fund Report
April 2000 - March 2001

History:

This scholarship fund was established in 1964 in memory of Leah Waddell, the first wife of Rev. Eugene Waddell. She died of cancer while he was the pastor of the Garner, NC, Free Will Baptist Church. In examining the Leah Waddell Scholarship file, the Free Will Baptist Bible College Student Financial advisor noted that as of the 2000 school year, 119 students have received aid since the 1964-65 school year. Many of these former students are now serving as pastors, missionaries, teachers, and in other places of Christian service.

Guidelines:

Scholarships of $100.00 have been awarded to students from the state of North Carolina who were enrolled in Free Will Baptist Bible College. Later the guidelines were revised to include the children of Leah Waddell. The college administration determines the recipients based on financial need. Usually juniors and seniors are given preference.

This year of 2001, the Leah Waddell Scholarship Fund committee has raised the scholarship from $100.00 up to $500.00 per student, if the funds are available. Also, the committee, elected by the North Carolina State Association, changed the guidelines to include descendants of Leah Waddell since her grandchildren are now enrolling in Free Will Baptist Bible College.

Recipients' Responses:

- 1) "Thank you very much for the Leah Waddell scholarship ... it was an answer to prayer."
(a male student from North Carolina)
- 2) "As I am nearing the end of my days at FWBBC, I am reminded of those God has used to make it possible for me to attend this institution. God has so richly blessed my life through your scholarship fund ... this fund has helped to make my college education possible. Thank you so much." (a female student from eastern North Carolina)
