Bailey, NC

MONDAY MORNING SESSION – June 4, 2012 10:00 AM

M/S/C to elect these by acclamation.

The first morning service began with the Congregation singing "There Is Power In The Blood".

Promotional Director Billy Keith introduced the following ministers who were instrumental in the formation of the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists in 1962:

Rev. Eugene Hales spoke of the troubling meeting at Mount Olive College in 1960 which led to a meeting at Mount Olive Free Will Baptist Church of pastors who were troubled by:

1. The direction of Mount Olive College

2. The controversy and court case involving the Edgemont Free Will Baptist Church in Durham which revealed the change to connectional church government in the state association.
3. The requirement for ministers to sign an agreement of support for the conference which these pastors would not sign. Those refusing to sign had their ministerial credentials revoked.

Rev. Milton Hollifield spoke of the Western Conference's requirement that ministers sign an agreement to support the conference totally, including the connectional style of church government. Several ministers refused to sign the agreement and formed the Cooperative Fellowship for their churches.

These problems led many churches and pastors to withdraw from the state association and form a new conference in 1962 which became the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists.

The Redeemed Quartet from Southeastern Free Will Baptist College sang "Everybody Will Be Happy Over There" and "God Wants to Hear You Sing."

Promotional Director Billy Keith spoke of the history of Free Will Baptists in North Carolina and then brought a message from Leviticus 25:8-17 about the Year of Jubilee.

The 11 AM service was opened with the congregational song, "Mansion Over the Hilltop." The Redeemed Quartet from Southeastern Free Will Baptist College provided the special music, singing "I Believe" and "The Lighthouse." Rev. Richard Cole, pastor of the West Fifth Avenue Free Will Baptist Church in Gastonia, was introduced as the speaker. The title of his message was "I Can't Lord – But You Can!" and was taken from Joshua 5:13-15.

Following an altar service the session was closed in prayer.

MONDAY AFTERNOON SESSION – June 4, 2012 1:30 PM

The afternoon session was opened with the hymn, "Faith Is The Victory."

Moderator Phil Ange led in prayer and then introduced a taped version of Bill Gardner singing "Ship Ahoy" accompanied by Herman Hersey. The Moderator brought a message from I John 5:1-13 titled, "Do You Believe God or Do You Call Him A Liar?" He closed in prayer.

The Afternoon Business Session was called to order by the Moderator.

A partial report from the Credentials Committee was given by Danny Baer. It revealed 61 pastors, 21 ordained ministers, 17 licensed ministers, 5 missionaries, 13 delegates, and 41 visitors had registered to this point for a total of 158. All 8 associations had reported by letter and all but one had paid their dues (this was expected to be paid today). Standing delegates were recognized. M/S/C to accept the report and seat the delegates from the associations.

The Executive Board report was given by the clerk. M/S/C to accept the report as information.

Jason Hurt gave a report from the Executive Board concerning the formation of a disaster relief ministry. He reported meeting with 3 individuals involved in such ministries. The resources needed in trained manpower and finances were judged to make this ministry unfeasible.

The Promotional Director gave us his report.

He first offered two apologies:

1. For the mistakes on the cover of the Digest of Reports.
2. For remarks made in his morning message that upset many.

The Promotional Director then reviewed his report and proposed budget as given in the Digest of Reports. There was a M/S/C to accept his report and adopt the promotional office budget.

A lengthy discussion followed that concerned the Promotional Director's presence at Mount Olive College and activities with the Original Association of Free Will Baptists. Discussion was closed by Moderator Phil Ange who assured the body that the Executive Board would meet concerning these issues.

Treasurer Steve Cayton gave the Financial Report. M/S/C to accept his report.

The Bible Bookstore report was given by Board Chairman B. L. Efird.

The financial report was reviewed. A financial downturn for the year was recognized. This was attributed to the large number of Free Will Baptist churches in North Carolina who do not support the bookstore, a decreasing demand for Christian education material, and decreasing foot traffic at the bookstore location. The current lease agreement expires November 30, 2012. The amount needed for salaries is expected to lessen due to the retirement of long time workers. The board reported a one year lease opportunity at a reduced price in the present location. Paul Perrault, long time assistant manager, has expressed interest in becoming the new bookstore manager. An updated financial report was provided.

M/S/C to accept the report as given in the digest, adopt the budget and accept the remarks as information.

James and Frances Stancill were recognized for over 30 years of faithful service to the Bible Bookstore ministry. Patricia Nolen was recognized for 15 years of faithful service to the Bible Bookstore ministry. Paul Perrault was recognized for 18 years of faithful service to the Bible Bookstore ministry.

The Board of Care's report was given by Chairman Rocky Reese. The board reports 21 patients at this time but the patient population has been larger for several months. A new realtor, Fred H. Beck Realty, is now handling the sale of the property and reports four prospects soon to view the facilities. The property with the 30 Certificates of Need is currently valued at $1.2 million. Upon sale of the property it has been agreed that $75,000 will go to the Keener family who originally donated the land for the facility.

M/S/C to accept the report.

The Youth Board report was given by Chairman Ti Barnhill. He mentioned the need for a location for the 2013 State Youth Competition. M/S/C to accept the report.

The NC Mission Board report was given by the Board Chairman, Rev. Johnny Hudson. He reviewed the report given in the Digest of Reports. He reported that $2,500 had been pledged toward the reduction of the indebtedness on the Wilmington Mission property. Board Treasurer Randy Stone presented a check for $5,000 already given toward this to Missionary Pat Hall. M/S/C to accept the report and adopt the budget.

The following motion was offered from the body:

"Upon the sale of the Certificate of Needs and/or the Rest Home property, the difference between the funds raised at that time and the $250,000 goal be given to help retire the Wilmington Mission indebtedness."

M/S/C

The Women Active For Christ report was given by Billy and Sheila Keith. Diane Bridgman was unable to be present due to supporting her husband in a battle with cancer. A letter to the body from her was read. A special project by the state WAC resulted in gifts of $4,838.31 which was presented to Pastor Earnest Laxton to help raise their home devastated by storms in Stacey.

M/S/C to accept the report.

A time of special prayer for Richard and Diane Bridgman followed.

The Leah Waddell Scholarship report was given by Sheila Keith.

M/S/C to accept the report.

We received greetings from the following Free Will Baptist ministries:

- Southeastern FWB College – Dr. Lorenzo Stox, President
- FWB Foundation – David Brown, Director

The session was closed in prayer.

MONDAY EVENING SERVICE– June 4, 2012 7:00 PM

The service was opened with the congregation singing "When We All Get to Heaven" Rev. Dann Patrick led in prayer. Rev. Randy Arrowood presided over the service.

Special music for the service was provided by the host church's quartet. They sang "Let Us Have A Little Talk With Jesus."

Justice Paul Newby of the NC Supreme Court was introduced and shared information concerning matters before the NC Supreme Court and other issues that greatly affect our families and churches across the state.

The congregation then sang "What A Day That Will Be". The Offertory prayer was given by Rev. Robert Harris. The White Oak Quartet gave an instrumental number. A duet sang "Through It All" and "God's Been Good to Me."

The evening message was brought by Rev. William Calvert, a founding minister of the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists. Rev. Calvert reported preaching for 60 years and pastoring churches for 57 years. His message entitled, "Just A Reminder" was taken from II Peter 1-3.

The service was closed in prayer.

TUESDAY MORNING SESSION – June 4, 2012 10:00 AM

Moderator Phil Ange, Assistant Moderator Robert Harris, Clerk Jim Turnbough, Member(s)-at-Large Jason Hurt, Charles Overcash, and Gerald Fowler, and Promotional Director Billy Keith. Treasurer Nate Ange was absent as he was away in revival in Tennessee.

Requests were shared and Gerald Fowler led in prayer.

Moderator Phil Ange read from Matthew 5 and commented on the Sermon on the Mount, with emphasis on Matthew 5:3, "blessed are the poor in spirit".

The minutes of previous meetings were distributed and scanned personally by board members.

I. The Treasurer's Report supplied by Treasurer Nate Ange was reviewed. M/S/C.

II. Promotional Director Billy Keith's report:

A. The Executive Board reviewed ideas to help build the office of Promotional Director.

B. Billy Keith presented a brochure prepared to introduce and describe the ministry of the promotional office to pastors and churches.

C. The financial report from the Promotional director was discussed.

E. There was discussion of the "fallout" from The Promotional Director's sermon at the State Meeting:

1. The key issues were judged to be:

a. The statement about reconciliation between the Original Free Will Baptists and the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists.

b. Billy's presence at Mount Olive College as the Promotional Director.

2. Billy Keith gave explanation for these issues:

a. His remarks about reconciliation were intended to encourage personal reconciliation between individuals, not corporate reconciliation between the bodies.

b. His presence at Mount Olive College was at activities by the Sunday School Board of Original Free Will Baptists and he was there to promote the Institute for Christian Education.

III. Billy Keith was dismissed from the meeting; the Executive Board discussed the possibilities before them.

A. It was determined that the Executive Board needed to take definite action to deal with the situation concerning the statements made by the Promotional Director at the State Meeting. The Board decided to give prayerful consideration to these matters overnight and take definite action when meeting the following morning.

B. A brief statement of the current financial situation of the Bible Book Store was provided and discussed.

The Meeting was adjourned for the evening.

Executive Board Meeting

I. The Executive Board considered a proposed letter to pastors and ministers offered by Moderator Phil Ange.

A. By unanimous vote of the board members present, the board determined to send the following letter:

To the Ministers of the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists

The Executive Board of the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists has confronted Promotional Director Billy Keith about some statements made in his message at the June, 2012, state meeting which seemed to suggest reconciliation of our North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists with the State Convention of Original Free Will Baptists.

1. The Executive Board of the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists affirms the Godly and courageous actions of our forefathers 50 years ago to leave the State Convention of Original Free Will Baptists, and declares that there is absolutely no move of the board or our employee Billy Keith, Promotional Director, to "forget the past and reconcile these two bodies."
2. The Executive Board has determined that the policy of the Promotional Director preaching at the annual meeting will no longer be in effect.
3. The Promotional Director will go to the founding ministers of our North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists, pastors and preachers he has offended, and other key leaders to apologize and ask for their help and recommendations on how to make this right.
4. We gladly extend a hand to any individual or church which is affiliated with and desires to leave an apostate organization and fellowship with the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists.

Any others who have been personally offended please contact Moderator Phil Ange.

North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists

Rev. Billy Keith, Associational Minister

Dear Pastors, Delegates and Fellow Free Will Baptists:

The year 2012 was much like other years for the Promotional Office. It was an honor being allowed to preach in forty-two of our churches. It was a blessing being able to worship together. It was a joy being able to see people at the altar in many of those services. It was rewarding being able to help churches find a pastor and pastors find churches. There were challenges in 2012 but the Lord was faithful with His Presence through it all.

The income was still below the amount needed to fund the office. I will repeat a statement I included in the Digest of Reports from last year: "somehow, the pastors of North Carolina must see a need for the office to continue operating and must provide the means to do so." Less than 50% of our North Carolina churches give to help meet the office budget. I am very thankful to those who do.

My concern this year is the number of churches whose attendance has fallen to the point where being able to support a full-time pastor is becoming impossible. This forces these churches to either use a non-Free Will Baptist pastor or to use a pastor who has come out of retirement. I am thankful for those pastors who are doing all they can to keep those church doors open. If ever there was a time to pray for laborers for the harvest it is now. Out state mission board is ready to help start another new church, but they cannot find a missionary.

Thanks to the hard work of Jim Turnbough and Sheila Keith we are ready to launch our fifth Institute for Christian Education Training Center. Currently we have training centers in Dunn, Lexington, Farmville, and Dallas. Our newest training center will be in New Bern. Our pool of instructors is also growing so that soon we will be able to launch a training center in the Blue Ridge Mountains. Our first class of six will graduate in the fall.

I am presently recuperating from my May surgery for Prostate Cancer. Thanks for your prayers for me and Sheila during this time. My plans are to be back on the road soon.

Your Servant,

Brother Billy

Report on the Financial Statements

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of The Bible Book Store of Durham, Inc. (a nonprofit organization) as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the related statements of activities, and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Bible Book Store of Durham, Inc. as of December 31, 2012 and 2011, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

THE BIBLE BOOK STORE OF DURHAM, INC.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2012 and 2011

Note 1 – Nature of Activities

The accompanying financial statements include the accounts of The Bible Book Store of Durham, Inc., (the Organization) a subordinate member organization of the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists. The primary function of the Organization is supplying Sunday school and other Christian literature to the Free Will Baptist Churches in the southeastern states. The Organization also maintains an inventory of Christian literature for sale to the general public. The offices of The Bible Book Store of Durham, Inc. are located in the North Duke Crossing in Durham, North Carolina.

Note 2 – Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting

The financial statements of the Organization are maintained on the accrual method. Under this method, revenues are recognized when earned rather than when collected and expenses are recognized when the obligation is incurred rather than when it is paid.

Basis of Presentation

Financial statement presentation follows the recommendations of the Financial Accounting Standards Board in its Accounting Standards Codification, (ASC 958) Under ASC 958, the Organization is required to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to three classes of net assets: unrestricted net assets, temporarily restricted net assets, and permanently restricted net assets.

Bad Debts

Bad debts are written off using the direct write-off method. Receivables are determined uncollectible on an individual basis after all collection efforts have failed. Therefore, these financial statements do not include any allowance for doubtful accounts. The direct write-off method is not considered to be materially different from the allowance for doubtful accounts method as required by generally accepted accounting principles.

Contributions

All contributions are considered to be available for unrestricted use unless specifically restricted by the donor. Amounts received that are designated for future periods or restricted by the donor for specific purposes are reported as temporarily restricted or permanently restricted support that increases those net asset classes. When a temporary restriction expires, temporarily restricted net assets are reclassified to unrestricted net assets and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restriction. At this time, the Organization does not have any temporarily or permanently restricted net assets.

Estimates

The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

THE BIBLE BOOK STORE OF DURHAM, INC.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2012 and 2011

Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include all petty cash funds of the Organization and cash deposited with banks in the form of checking accounts, savings accounts, money market accounts and short-term certificates of deposits with maturity dates of less than three months. The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents approximates fair value because of the short maturities of those financial instruments.

Trade Accounts Receivable

Trade accounts receivable is recorded at the amount the Book Store expects to collect from customers on balances outstanding at year end.

Inventory

Inventory consists of Bibles, Sunday School literature, supplies, cards, musical CD's, books and other Christian Literature and is valued at cost under the first-in, first-out method. Inventory is taken annually around December 28 of each year. Shipping and handling costs are included in the cost of sales.

Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are recorded at original cost. Items that do not substantially improve or extend the life of an asset are expensed when paid. Items that do substantially extend the life of an asset and major improvements are capitalized and depreciated over the estimated useful life of an asset. Property and equipment are depreciated under the Straight Line Method over the following estimated useful lives:

Furniture and Fixtures	5 – 7 Years
Office Equipment	5 – 7 Years
Leasehold Improvements	5 – 10 Years

Depreciation expense amounted to $1,216 and $1,216 for the years ending December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively.

Advertising

The Organization expenses advertising expenses as they are incurred. Advertising expenses were $100 and $145 for the years ending December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively

Note 3 – Lease of Building

The Organization has entered into an operating lease agreement for the store's premises that obligates the Organization to pay $24,896. Rent expense amounted to $31,296 and $27,205 for the years ending December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively.

Note 4 – Exemption from Income Taxes

The Bible Book Store of Durham, Inc., a subordinate member organization of the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptists, is a nonprofit Organization exempt from federal and State income taxes under Internal Revenue code Section 501(c)(3).

Effective January 1, 2010, the Organization implemented the new accounting requirements associated with uncertainty in income taxes using the provisions of FASB ASC 740, Income Taxes. Using that guidance, tax positions initially need to be recognized in the financial statements when it is more-likelythan-not the positions will be sustained upon examination by the tax authorities. It also provides guidance for de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition. As of the date of the independent auditors' report, the Organization has no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. Income tax returns from 2010 through 2012 are open for examination by tax authorities.

THE BIBLE BOOK STORE OF DURHAM, INC.
NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
December 31, 2012 and 2011

Note 5 – Concentrations

The Organization purchased approximately 56% and 41% of its inventory from one supplier during the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively.

Approximately 63% and 66% of the Organization's total sales are comprised of curriculum sales to churches during the years ended December 31, 2012 and 2011, respectively.

The Organization's Sunday School curriculum sales are concentrated in the southeastern states and physical store sales to the general public are concentrated in the Durham, North Carolina area.

Note 6 – Subsequent Events

The Organization has evaluated subsequent events from the date of the balance sheets through the date the report is available to be issued which is the date of the independent auditors' report. The Organization has not evaluated subsequent events after that date. There were no subsequent events during this period that require disclosure.

Note 7 – Short Term Debt

The Organization has received several loans through the PNC Equity line. The total amount borrowed during the year ended December 31, 2012 was $ 118,692. All checks from the Equity line were paid in the form of checks made payable to the Bible Book Store of Durham, Inc. A total of $118,692 was repaid on the PNC Equity line in 2012. The manager was very cautious to protect the ministry and himself in making sure that sufficient funds were present in accounts receivable to repay each amount borrowed.

These loans were made having both the Bible Book Store Board and the North Carolina Association of Free Will Baptist State Executive Board aware of these loans and the purpose for which they are being used. The purpose of the loans were rent and Sunday School curriculum.

Note 8 – Risk Management

The Organization is exposed to various risks of loss related to torts; thefts, damage to, and destruction of assets; errors and omissions; and natural disasters. During the year ended December 31, 2012, and 2011 the Organization carried insurance through various commercial carriers to cover all risks of losses. The Organization has had no settled claims resulting from these risks that exceeded its commercial coverage in any of the past three fiscal years.

NC FWB STATE YOUTH BOARD – 2013 STATE MEETING REPORT

The North Carolina State Youth Board hosted the 2013 North Carolina Free Will Baptist State Youth Competition on April 19-20, at Trinity Free Will Baptist Church in Greenville, North Carolina.

Welch College and Southeastern FWB Bible College both sent representatives to the state competition that helped with the judging as well as presented their colleges to the ones who attended. Both schools did an outstanding job and we appreciate both of them for coming to help us.

We had 13 churches bring students who competed in 36 different categories with 113 entries. Out of those, we will have 91 different entries representing the state of North Carolina at the Free Will Baptist National Youth Conference in Tampa, Florida this July.

We would like to encourage all of our Free Will Baptist Churches that do not currently participate in the youth competition to consider at least attending the 2014 NC State Youth Competition to find out more about how it can benefit your church.

We extended an invitation to Southeastern FWB College to host the 2014 NC State Youth Competition and they have graciously accepted and will host this event that will take place on April 11-12, 2014.

In addition to meeting at and hosting the state youth competition in April, the NC State Youth Board has met four times since the last year's State Meeting. We met on November 16, 2012, on January 15, 2013, again on February 6, 2013 and our last meeting was March 11, 2013. These meetings were primarily to prepare for the NC State Youth Competition.

This year, we have three board members, Ti Barnhill, Ed Goode and Michael Woolard, who will be stepping down from their positions on the state youth board, all for various and understandable reasons. We would like to thank these three men for their hard work and efforts that they made while serving on the youth board. We greatly appreciate their service and will miss them as they focus on their current ministries.

The state youth board would also like to recommend for nomination the following three men to take their place at serving on this board: Bryan Hughes from Tippetts Chapel FWB Church in Clayton, NC; Joseph Hall from First FWB Church in Beaufort, NC; and Chris Talbot from Unity FWB Church in Greenville, NC.

Financially, as of today, May 2, 2013, the NC FWB State Youth Board has $875.94 on-hand.

Home Missions Board of the NC State Association of Free Will Baptist
2012 Financial Report

Dear Friends of the NC State Home Missions,

We bring you greetings from the Mission Board and the Missions Churches of the State of NC. We sincerely thank you for your continued support of the growing works going on in Wilmington and Roanoke Rapids. Both of our mission churches are doing well and continue to reach lost souls for the Kingdom. We are looking forward to what God has in store for us in 2013. During the year of 2012, we did experience a decline in support income for both of our existing works, however we are optimistic about the financial support for this coming year. Please know that both churches are working hard to keep their budgets in line with the economic down turn that our nation is experiencing and will continue to do so.

Brother Pat Hall and his wife Cathy continue to work hard and are building a great Free Will Baptist Church in Wilmington, NC. I had the privilege to be with Cape Fear Church this past year and I can report to you that the people there are still dedicated to becoming a self-supporting work as soon as possible. Thanks to the generous giving to the Wilmington Debt Retirement this past year, we were able to raise a little over thirty thousand dollars for this cause. This was possible because of the many churches in our state who still believe in the great commission to reach lost souls. We continue to pray for the sale of the rest home and the Certificates of Need, to raise the remaining amount of the $250,000 pledged at our 2011 State Meeting. Please keep Brother Pat, Cathy and his family in your prayers and support in this coming year.

We are also glad to report that Brother Fred Caraway and his wife Joan are still going strong in Roanoke Rapids, NC. They have been in their new building for a little over a year now and the people in the church are excited about what God has in store for the coming year. I also had the privilege to be with the good people of Freedom FWB Church during this past year and what a blessing it was. During the VBS this year, 20 children and 1 adult were saved. Brother Fred is still traveling some during the week and continues to raise support for this work. Brother Fred and Joan are still pouring the lives into the people that God has placed in their path. Please continue to keep them in your prayers and support for this coming year.

The Home Missions Board is very pleased with the two works that are going strong in our State, but we have a burden for a new work to begin. We have been praying and seeking a new man to answer the call to step out on faith and start a new church this year. Please help us to seek God's will in this, as we need your prayers and support. We ask you to direct any potential candidates to contact a member of the board or submit a resume. Thank you for your help in this great need. May God richly bless you in 2013 and may you see many souls saved through your ministry.

The Leah Waddell Scholarship Fund Report
April 10, 2012 - April 15, 2013

HISTORY

In 1964 the North Carolina State Association of Free Will Baptist established the Leah Waddell Scholarship fund in memory of Leah Waddell. She was a 1954 alumnus of Free Will Baptist Bible College, now Welch College, and a dedicated, active member of the Free Will Baptist Women's ministry. Most of the support for the fund comes from the North Carolina Women Active for Christ.

This fund is one of the oldest, if not the oldest, continuously funded scholarships at Welch College. Originally the amount of $75.00 was set to be awarded annually to a worthy NC student. The revised guidelines were changed to whatever funds that were received. Descendants of Leah Waddell may also be included in the scholarship.

The college administration determines the recipients based on financial need. Usually juniors and seniors are given preference. Approximately 129 students have received aid since the 1964-65 school year. We thank the Lord for this year's scholarship amount of $1,000.00. One church writes, "Praise the Lord! We can give to this fund to help someone learn more about how to serve our Lord."

RECIPIENT'S RESPONSE

"Thank you so much for your willingness to give and support me here at Welch College. It means so much to me because without your support it would be a lot harder to afford school. The money you gave definitely was used for good because I was on the Dean's list for the first semester. Just know that the money is not being wasted." (A NC student)
