The meeting proper opened with singing led by Rev. Robert Poole. Rev. Billy McKinney led in prayer. Special singing was rendered by the ladies of the Northside Church.

The message was brought by Rev. Brian Ray. His scriptures were from Matthew 28:19-20 and John 4:27-42. He gave a challenge to each of us in our responsibilities of soul winning. His emphasis was that we all have a part to do.

The meeting was then opened for business. The Moderator called for letters and seating of delegates. The following churches were represented: Decatur, Gainesville, Northside, and Word of Life. Rev. Ronald Wallace gave as minutes, highlights from the December meeting, from his notes.

Camp Committee report was given by Rev. Billy McKinney. The following camps are planned for the summer:

Georgia Teen Camp - June 11-16
North Georgia-Ogeechee joint camp - all ages - June 18-23

A petitionary letter for the Hull Free Will Baptist Church will be dealt with at the next meeting they attend.

State Mission Board project report was given by Rev. Luther Burns. He reported on the work of the new building of North Fayette Church. He requested help from anyone available the next few Saturdays. They hope to complete the building and be ready for services by June 1.

A rising vote of thanks for their hospitality was given to the Northside Church. Tentative plans for the meeting at North Fayette Church in June.

Rev. Ronald Wallace, Moderator, called the meeting to order by requesting Church Letters and dues to be given to the Association Clerk. Ms. Mary Bruner will be serving as Clerk.

Visitors were recognized and a brief appeal was made, by a member of the congregation who owns the facility where we met, encouraging volunteer help for a locally sponsored shelter for the homeless.
