FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise by His grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and "provide things honest in the sight of all men".

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligation in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship; and by self-denial, faith and good works, endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ".

We will not forget the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinance of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of spirit" in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society; constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of education and denominational enterprises, the support of Missions, the success of Sunday Schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly and preserve us blameless until the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

WHEREAS, The entire enterprise of gambling and specifically a state-sponsored lottery are completely opposed to principles in God's Word, revealing a dissatisfaction with God's provision, as well as encouraging a desire to gain something for nothing therefore contribution to the moral demise of society; and,

WHEREAS, Gambling, by definition, earns its revenues from those who lose, thus causing the state to become a predator of its people rather than a protector; and,

WHEREAS, For every $1 the gambling industry brings into a state it will cost the residents between $3 and $7 in hidden costs through increased need for criminal justice and social welfare programs, etc. (Kindt, University of Ill., (<http://www.ncalg.org/ncalg01.htm>); and

WHEREAS, State sponsored gambling is a regressive form of taxation, the revenues of which come disproportionately from lower income residents (The Executive Office of the Governor, Gambling in Florida: An Analysis of the Economic and Social Impacts; (<http://ncalg.org/quotes.htm>); and,

WHEREAS, Researchers now call gambling the fastest growing teenage addiction, with the rate of pathological gambling among high school and college-age youth about twice that of adults; and according to Dr. Howard Shaffer, Director of Harvard medical School Center for Addictions Studies, "Today, there are more children experiencing adverse symptoms from gambling than from drugs...and the problem is grooving: (<http://ncalg.org/case.htm>); and,

WHEREAS, A federal commission comprised of both supporters and opponents of gambling (The National Gambling Impact Study Commission) has recommended a moratorium on the expansion of legalized gambling; and,

WHEREAS, The long-term consequences of gambling have mainly been ignored in favor of the empty promise of almost instant prosperity for both individuals and state governments, thus destroying any work ethic; and

WHEREAS, The lives of children are significantly damaged by the loss of household income needed for food, clothing and shelter due to gambling; and,

WHEREAS, Oftentimes throughout American history the tide of gambling has been turned by God's people who knelt in confession and stood in conviction; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, That the members of the NEOA of Free Will Baptists in conference in Dewey, OK on February 8, 2003, commit to pray mightily and work actively to return Oklahoma to a gambling free state; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we call upon all parents, grandparents, and others who are concerned about the future of our children to actively seek to educate themselves and their children about the dangers of gambling and do everything within their power to resist the expansion of any form of legalized gambling into Oklahoma; and,

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we go on record as opposing a state-sponsored lottery and call upon Governor Brad Henry and our state government officials to find ways to strengthen our state's economy and provide fair and equitable educational opportunities based upon sound principles of responsible budgeting combined with creative and innovative industrial, educational, and technological development rather than on the false hopes of gambling; and,

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, That we call upon all Oklahomans to reflect biblical standards and personal lifestyles that would make it unnecessary and undesirable to resort to gambling as a recreation, an escape or a means of producing public revenue for the support of government.

Service turned to our speaker, Ruth Bevins. She gave greeting from their mission church in Monet, Mo. She asked for prayer concerning their finances and health problems. Read scripture from Matthew where it says to let our light shine in a dark world, pointing out that darkness can't overcome the light. We are to "be a candle". Also that we are to be the Light of Christ, and to let that light shine. She had different kinds of candles – short ones, tall ones, good-smelling candles, odd shaped candles, etc. Pointed out that we, like candles, come in all shapes and sizes, yet we are to shine for Jesus Christ. Sometimes candles have a melt out, so do we, and our light begins to dim, but just light the wick and keep shining. Good message on being a candle. She had several candles which she gave out to the women.

Service turned back to Kaye Raper.

Dismissed in prayer and blessing on refreshments by Hermon Wood.
