FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise by His grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and "provide things honest in the sight of all men".

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligation in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship; and by self-denial, faith and good works, endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ".

We will not forget the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinance of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of spirit" in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society; constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of education and denominational enterprises, the support of Missions, the success of Sunday Schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly and preserve us blameless until the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

All representatives should be active in the Youth Camp, teachers, counselors, cooks, or pastors, etc. They are to work with the camp director and the Christian Education Board.
3. Be it resolved that if the new dormitory is not completed and ready to use by camp date 2006, that children that have completed grades 2 – 5 begin camp on Friday, June 9, 2006 at 3:00pm and end at 10:00am (after breakfast and cleaning) on Monday, June 12, 2006. The children who have completed grades 6 – 11 would begin camp on Monday, June 12, 2006 at 3:00pm and end on Saturday, June 17, 2006 (after breakfast and cleaning) at 10:00am. If the new dormitory is complete, we would like to leave all campers in one camp as long as our facilities can comfortably accommodate everyone.
4. Be it resolved that the kitchen equipment be upgraded. In order to efficiently cook for as many campers as the Lord has blessed us with, the kitchen desperately needs a new electric grill, a commercial dishwasher, new shelving for food storage, and possibly a larger ice machine.
