FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another by the will of God in this solemn covenant.

We promise by His grace to love and obey Him in all things, to avoid all appearance of evil, to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world, from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages, and "provide things honest in the sight of all men".

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligation in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions, and social worship; and by self-denial, faith and good works, endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ".

We will not forget the assembling of ourselves together for church conferences, public worship, and the observance of the ordinance of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor and all its benevolent work.

We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness, and to watch over one another in love, endeavoring to "keep the unity of spirit" in the bonds of peace, to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, and seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

We will everywhere hold Christian principle sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme; counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society; constantly praying and toiling that the Kingdom of God may come, and His will be done on earth as it is in Heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of education and denominational enterprises, the support of Missions, the success of Sunday Schools, and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly and preserve us blameless until the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul and Silas got themselves thrown in jail because they were teaching things that went against their Roman customs. Paul and Silas prayed at midnight, they also sang praises to God. No matter what "prison" we are in whether we put ourselves there or whether we are there by the hands of others, God is with us. He will bring us out. The Spirit that shook the prison walls is the Spirit that will bring us through. Prayer by Bro. Shotzman.

People sometimes get discouraged and leave the church and turn their backs on God. They backslide. They blame God for all the misfortunes in their life. In Luke it states we shall reap if we faint not. In patience possess you your soul. God wants soldiers of the cross, those who are completely sold out to God and will not be moved. Paul said I press toward the mark, the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. We need to encourage those who are down hearted and discouraged.

He read from Matthew 11:13 – 24. Jesus likened this generation to children sitting in the markets saying unto their fellows we piped but you didn't dance. You saw us mourning and did not lament. John came not eating or drinking and you said he hath a devil. It will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment . You know one day our generation will face judgment for the way we have lived our lives. Bro. Mark testified how God has brought him out of a life of addiction and given him a blessed life in His service. He said, I got it right, I've kept it right and I'm staying right.

The offering was $250.

Special by Sis. Gladys Walker. She sang "He Grew The Tree". Special by Sis. Judy Hyatt. She sang "God of the Mountain".

Service turned to Bro. Hermon Wood for message. He read from 1 Corinthians 6:11. Prayer by Bro. Hermon. Know ye not the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? We all have pasts, some of which we are not very proud of. God's word says we have all sinned and come short of the glory of God and that the wages of sin is death. The rich man asked what he must do to be saved. Jesus said sell all that you have and follow him. First John tells us not to love the things of the world. Things pass away. First John gives us hope. If we walk in the light as he is in the light we have fellowship with the brethren. The blood of Jesus cleanses us from all our sins. We must not let anything keep us out of heaven. When we know more about Jesus we will know what God wants of us. As the camel goes through the eye of the needle on his knees and no baggage, so we go to heaven on our knees and no sinful baggage. Very good message.

Dismissed in prayer and blessing asked on the noon meal by Bro. Max Campbell.

SIXTY SECOND ANNUAL MEETING

August 11, 2012

Faith, Bartlesville, Ok.

Service opened with prayer by Bro. Tom Schulze.

Singing led by Bro. Mark Goode with Sis. Gladys Walker at the piano.

We sang "I Want to Know More About My Lord".

Devotion given by Bro. Danny Hester. He talked about Jesus and the lad who had the 5 loaves and 2 small fishes. A large crowd followed a very weary Jesus, who needed to get away to rest. The crowd lingered until late. Since Phillip was a local man, he was asked how they could feed the people. The disciples said it couldn't be done, Jesus them to have the people to sit down. Andrew told Jesus about a lad who has five loaves and two fishes. The amount he had doesn't matter, it was the fact that the lad was willing to give. A basketball is just a ball but put it in the hands of Michael Jordon and it seems to come alive! A paint brush is nothing on its own, but give it to Norman Rockwell and just look what happens! It doesn't matter what we have, just put it in the Master's hand and see what happens. Luke 9:23. If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. If we pursue Jesus as a young man pursues the girl he wants to marry, great things happen. When the people had eaten all they wanted, the disciples gathered up the fragments so nothing would go to waste. Just maybe that young lad had at least eleven baskets more than he started with! We need to put ourselves in God's hands!

The change would read as found in our Treatise of The Faith and Practices of The National Association of Free Will Baptists, Inc. chapter 6, Part 3, which reads as follows: "We believe that all children dying in infancy, having not actually transgressed against the law of God in their own persons, are only subject to first death, which was brought on by the fall of the first Adam, and not that any one of them dying that state shall suffer punishment in hell by the guilt of Adam's sin for of such is the Kingdom of God.

Prayer by Bro. Jimmy Layne.

Special by Bonita Hanes. "Until You've Known the Love of God".

Service turned to Bro. Max Campbell for the message. Isaiah 38:1. Set your house in order because you are going to die. Scripture says to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Hebrews 9:27. We are going to die! It seems today people can do anything, live any way they want to and it's alright. If it was wrong a thousand years ago, it's still wrong today. Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and wept. He told God he had lived before Him and done all He wanted him to do. God gave him 15 more years. The Bible says sin is sin. Unless America turns her face to God and begins to cry out for forgiveness she is doomed to God's unmerciful judgment. We as Christians have a job to do. Like Hezekiah, we must live before God and do what He wants us to do, sharing God's word with others. Very good message!

Dismissed in prayer and the blessing asked on the noon meal by Bro. Danny Hester.

Clerk, Bonita Hanes

Our speaker was Kaye Raper on "How old do you feel?". The world works from the outside and Christians work from the inside. Romans 12:2 says to renew our minds daily. A mind focused on spiritual things reaps spiritual things. Exodus speaks of "Moses face shone". Intimacy with our creator brings a glow to us. Things we should do: refocus priorities, restore your love of simple things, make a list of God's blessings, rethink selfish requests, be a part, and hold to God's truths.

God is our teacher, teaching his perfect values. Wisdom is a practical application of knowledge. The book of 1 Samuel 15 shows us how Saul was punished for disobeying God. It is not enough to know God, you also have to trust and obey him.
