A BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE ORGANIZATION OF THE RANDALL ASSOCIATION OF FREE WILL BAPTISTS

Because of the size of the General Conference and the great distance necessary to travel to attend its meetings, the Conference peaceably voted Nov. 10, 1972 to divide and to form two Associations. Churches belonging to the western half would belong to one of the associations, and those belonging to the eastern half would be members of the other. Any General Conference Church could be a member of either association.

A meeting of the ministers of the western half of the General Conference was held at the Garner Free Will Baptist Church Feb. 20, 1973 to examine a proposed constitution and by-laws for the new association. At least 18 ministers were present. Another meeting will be held at the Garner Free Will Baptist Church March 31, 1973 to organize the new association.

The organizational meeting of the new association convened at the Garner Free Will Baptist Church March 31, 1973. Rev. Ronald Niebreggue was elected Moderator; Rev. Dean Dobbs, Assistant Moderator; Rev. Ralph Osborne, Clerk; and Rev. Grant Saverance, Treasurer. The body voted to call itself the Randall Association. A motion passed that the Constitution be received, and to vote on its adaption at the September meeting.

The General Conference met May 26, 1973 at Faith Free Will Baptist Church in Goldsboro. It voted to dissolve in order for the western half to become the Randall Association and the eastern half the Palmer Association. Immediately following this meeting Rev. Bill Robinson was elected Moderator Pro Tem, as Rev. Niebreggue was leaving the state.

At the meeting of the State Association at Faith Free Will Baptist Church, Goldsboro, June 12, 1973, the Randall Association was received as a member of the State Association and its ministers and delegates were seated.
