CONSTITUTION

of the Randall Association of Free Will Baptists

PREAMBLE

As members of the Free Will Baptist denomination, being regularly baptized upon a profession of faith in Jesus Christ, and realizing the necessity for a bond of union and fellowship, we do hereby ordain this Constitution for our mutual edification and inspiration, hoping to accomplish cooperatively what we could not individually.

ARTICLE I. NAME

This organization shall be known as the Randall Association of Free Will Baptists.

ARTICLE II. MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. This Association shall be composed of Free Will Baptist churches which maintain Gospel order and agree with denominational doctrines and practices expressed in A Treatise of the Faith and Practices of Free Will Baptists as adopted and amended by the National Association of Free Will Baptists.

SECTION 2. Churches desiring membership in this Association shall present a petitionary letter. They shall then be examined by the Executive Board to determine whether they are in compliance with Section 1 of the Article. Upon recommendation of the Executive Board, they shall be received by a majority vote of the Association.

SECTION 3. Member churches are requested to participate in all the meetings of the Association and to report by letter to the Association at its annual business meeting. Failure to so report for a period of two years shall forfeit that church's membership in this Association.

ARTICLE III. REPRESENTATION

SECTION 1. Voting representation at any session shall be by standing delegates of the Association, and lay delegates who are the elected representatives of the various churches comprising this Association.

SECTION 2. Standing delegates shall be the members of the various boards of the Association and ordained ministers who are members in good standing of this Association.

SECTION 3. Each church shall be entitled to represent at any session of this Association with five lay delegates. Churches having memberships of 500 or more are entitled to one additional delegate for every 200 members or fraction thereof above 500.

ARTICLE IV. MEETINGS

This Association shall hold regular meetings quarterly in the various member churches. These meetings shall be held on the third Friday nights of February, May, August, and November, respectively, with the May meeting being designated as the Annual Meeting.

ARTICLE V. GENERAL OFFICERS

The general officers of this Association shall consist of a moderator, an assistant moderator, a clerk, and a treasurer, each of whom shall be elected for a term of two years beginning at the close of the session at which they were elected.

ARTICLE VI. BOARDS

SECTION 1. The Executive Board shall consist of the general officers of the Association together with one member elected at large for a term of two years.

The Executive Board shall have the power to act in behalf of this Association when not in session only as provided for in this Constitution and By-Laws, or, as specifically directed by the Association.

This Board shall have the responsibility for the program of each session of this Association, and the planning of special joint services and /or Bible conferences for the edification of our people.

SECTION 2. In order to attain ministerial standing in this Association a minister must be approved and recommended by the Board of Ministerial Standing and accepted by the majority vote of this Association.

SECTION 3. Ministers are expected to attend all meetings of the Association. Ministers must attend or be accounted for at the annual meeting. Failure to do so for a period of two years will forfeit their standing within the Association.

Association is found to no longer meet the standards of this Association in either doctrine or practice, the Association shall, in writing, notify the church of which he is a member of this action.

ARTICLE VIII. DISCIPLINE

SECTION 1. This Randall Association shall have the right to settle any question of discipline, doctrine, or practice that may properly come before it from any of the churches of the Association, or act upon any appeal made by a member of said church. Said appeal shall be submitted in writing to the clerk of the Association, being properly signed. Such appeals shall be submitted to the Executive Board and, at their discretion, they shall hear the appeal and make recommendation the Association as to the course of action they deem best. If the Executive Board does not hear any appeal, or makes no recommendation, such and appeal may be brought before the Association itself.

SECTION 2. Any action which the Association may take cannot reverse the action of any member church, although it may act in a hortatory and advisory capacity toward that end. Actual disciplinary action upon a member church or minister can deal only with their rights as a member of the Association. In this vein the Association may refuse to seat delegates from a member church for a session of the Association or may ultimately withdraw fellowship from the church.

ARTICLE IX. PROPERTY

This Association lays no claim whatever to the property, real or personal, of any of the several churches which compromise the Association. Under no circumstances does any such property automatically revert to the Association. Such property may come into the possession of the Association only by the specific action of the member church.

ARTICLE X. SUBSIDIARY ORGANIZATIONS

The Woman's Auxiliary Convention of the Randall Association shall be recognized as a subordinate to the Association; but it shall organize at its own discretion and have power to create and adopt a Constitution and By-Laws and maintain complete management of the work for which it is constituted. The scope and character of the work shall conform to the general program and promotional plan of the Association. It shall report its accomplishments and financial operations annually to the Association.

ARTICLE XI. DISSOLUTION

In the event of the dissolution of this Association, any assets of the organization then remaining shall be conveyed to such denominational agencies then existing which are dedicated to similar objectives to those of this organization. Said agency shall be selected by the Association at the time of dissolution.

ARTICLE XII. AMENDMENTS

This Constitution may be amended at any regular session of the Association by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the delegates present.

BY-LAWS

REPRESENTATION

Section1. It is requested that each church send an offering with its letter at each session.

OFFICERS

- Section 2. The duties of the Moderator shall include presiding at the meetings of the Randall Association and the executive board; calling special meetings of the Executive Board when they may be necessary to the carrying out of the duties given that Board under the provisions of the Constitution and By-Laws; appointing such committees as are created without provision of their selection; and in general, to fulfill whatever responsibilities may be commensurate with his office or delegate to him by the body.
- Section 3. The duties of the Assistant Moderator shall include presiding at the request of, or in the absence of, the Moderator and assisting him in such ways as may be necessary.
- Section 4. The duties of the Clerk shall include recording the proceedings of all sessions of the Association and the Executive Board and preserving an accurate record of said proceedings; preparing and causing to be published minutes of the sessions of the Association; handling such official correspondence for the Association as he may be directed; and holding in trust all documents not otherwise preserved, and surrendering same at the direction of the Association.
- Section 5. The duties of the Treasurer shall include the holding in trust of all monies belonging to the Association and the paying out of the same as he is directed by the Association.
- Section 6. No person shall fill more than one elected office at the same time.
- Section 7. No officer or board member shall succeed himself more than once in the same office or on the same board.

COMMISSIONS AND COMMITTEES

- Section 8. The following committees, consisting of three (3) members each, shall be used in the annual session of this Association:
- A. The Digest Committee, who shall process the letters from the churches preparing a statistical report and conveying any comments or requests found in said letters to the appropriate board or committee of the Association;
- B. The Resolutions Committee, who shall receive and present worthwhile resolutions to the Association;

- C. The Finance Committee, who shall receive a report from the Treasurer of the Association as to the total of all monies on hand and all outstanding obligations and make recommendations to the Association at to the allocation of all said monies;
- D. The Nominating Committee, who shall nominate a candidate for every vacant office.
- Section 9. When the Association deems it wise, committees may be constituted for a definite period of time in a specified area. The number of members of any such committee shall be determined by the assembly. Committee members shall be appointed by the Moderator unless otherwise provided by the action creating the committee; and they shall hold office for the length of time provided, or until their work is completed, or until they are released, or the successors chosen.

HONORARIA

Section 10. The clerk shall receive an honorarium of $150.00 annually.

PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

Section 11. The meetings of the Randall Association shall be governed by the rules of parliamentary law as set forth in Robert's Rules of Order, except in those cases where these rules are superseded by some rule of this organization.

STANDING RULES

- Section 12. Each of the standing boards may temporarily fill vacancies which occur in their own boards until the next session of the Randall Association.
- Section 13. The opportunity to make nominations from the floor shall accompany each report of a nomination committee.

AMENDMENTS

Section 14. These By-Laws may be amended at any regular session of the Association by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the delegates present.

Executive Committee of the Randall Association May 2, 1995

The Executive Committee met with the advisory board of the Colonial Heights Free Will Baptist Church at 7:00 p.m. on May 2nd 1995. The purpose of the meeting was to counsel and inform them in regard to the matter of calling a pastor who is not, nor can be, licensed or ordained as a Free Will Baptist Minister. (Part IV Section IV Paragraph A. of A Treatise of the Faith and Practices of the Original Free Will Baptist.)

The Executive Committee's admonishment came as a result of the Board of Ministerial Standing rejecting the request of the pastor to become a member in good standing within the Association. The Board of Ministerial Standings opposition was due to the disclosure of his being the husband of more than one living wife. (I Tim. 3:2)

After much discussion the problem was not resolved. The Committee then decided to recommend to the Association that the Colonial Heights Free Will Baptist Church be removed from the roll of good standing of the Randall Association. Members present of the Executive Committee: Rev. David Thomas, Rev. Phis Davis, Rev. Randy Stone, Rev. Bronco West, and Rev. Jerry Gray.

May 2, 1995 The Executive Committee met with the avdisory board of the Colonial Heights Free Will Baptist Church. Members present of the committee: David Thomas, Phil Davis, Randy Stone, Bronco West, and Jerry Gray.

Whereas the Colonial Heights Free Will Baptist Church has called a pastor who is not and cannot be licensed or ordained as a Free Will Baptist minister by the Randall Association.

And whereas Part IV Section IV paragraph A. of A Treatise of the Faith and Practices of the Original Free Will Baptists states:

The Pastor, who preaches the Word of God, ministers to the needs of the members, and exercises general leadership within the congregation. It is expected that he will unite with the local church if he is not a member when called. The church should not call a man who is not at least licensed to preach within the denomination.

And whereas the Executive Committee has met with the advisory board of the Colonial Heights Church and has informed them of this situation. And whereas the problem has not been corrected. Therefore, the Executive Committee recommends to the Association that the Colonial Heights Free Will Baptist Church be removed from the roll of good standing of the Randall Association.

Randall Association of Free will Baptist Annual Meeting, May 19, 1995 Corinth FWB Church Dunn, NC

Rev. Stan Coker opened the meeting and special music from the host Church followed the welcome.

Report from the Executive Board: (see report)

Report from the Youth Board: (see report)

May 19, 1995

The former pastor of the Colonial Heights FWB Church, objected to the action that would be taken by the association. He had a prepared statement that he would read in reference to the church's action concerning this matter. The statement that was read to the association was a request for the church to withdraw from the association. There was a substitute motion in regards to the churches wish. This motion passed.

There was a motion passed that the Randall Association adopt the policy passed by the National Association of Free Will Baptists in reference to the marital status of ministers and deacons. See attached resolution.

WHEREAS, there continues to be a need to state the position of the National Association of Free Will Baptists on the proper marital status of ministers and deacons; and WHEREAS, each body comprising said National Association is hereby encouraged to adopt the herein presented statement or a similar position on marriage for ministers and deacons; while not insisting that any new position be made retroactive but rather established as a standard to be upheld for all new candidates for ministers and deacons; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED:

- 1. That Paul's statements in I Timothy 3:2,12 and Titus 1:6, namely "The husband of one wife," be looked upon as making ineligible as ministers or deacons anyone who has been divorced and remarried, regardless of the cause of the divorce or the guilt or innocence of either partner.
- 2. That said persons, whose marital state disqualifies them to be elders or deacons, not be discouraged in their Christian lives or Christian service, but that they be encouraged to live faithfully for Christ and serve him in the education, music, youth, or any department or activity of the local church; and that such be reminded that deacons and elders are the only church officers for whom the "husband of one wife" prohibition is given. (While certainly it is the ideal for all believers, it is biblically insisted upon as a requirement for deacons and elders.)
