In presenting another number of the Freewill Baptist Register, it may be proper to make a few remarks to its patrons.

Much care has been taken to render the present number both correct and perfect. Yet it falls very far short of that perfection which we wished it to possess.

The calendar is prepared for a central part of N. England, and will not be quite correct for the more westerly states. Were the patronage sufficient, different editions might be printed with calculations suited to any section of the country. At present, however, the sales will not warrant more than one edition.

The statistical part, which is intended to give a correct view of the yearly and quarterly meetings and churches belonging to the connection, is quite imperfect. This happens, for want of full and particular reports being made by the clerks. From many churches and from several quarterly meetings, we do not find that any accurate report has been made to the General Conference, for some years; nor in any other way, that would furnish us with the necessary information. The numbers, &c. of these are either omitted, or given as heretofore published, without any dependence upon their being correct. There are also many things lacking, and some inaccuracies, in the best returns we have received. Much of the latter deficiencies originates, doubtless, from the imperfect manner in which our early churches kept their records; but more, probably, from the incomplete method that most churches have practised in regard to reporting their standing to superior meetings.

From such materials as we have had, we could not make this part of the Register any nearer perfect than it now is. We only feel satisfied with it ourselves, on the principle that we have done the best we could. And having done that, we cheerfully submit our labors to our friendly brethren, and patrons.

Begin the year as you would wish to end your life.
 Do nothing in the course of it that you ought to regret in your last moments. Always act yourself, as you think it proper for others to act. Do this, and you will be happy in time and eternity.

Love all ; trust a few ; speak evil of none.

A soul that is virtuous resembles a fountain ; for it is clear, and gentle, and sweet, and communicative, and rich, and harmless, and innocent—Epictetus. The most dangerous of wild beasts, is a slanderer ; of tame ones, a flatterer. When men speak ill of thee, live so as nobody will believe them. All men can talk, but few can think.

MISCELLANEOUS.

its of thinking, our feelings, &c. And we think we must maintain them even without examination or proof.

We should contend earnestly for the truth ; but we should first be sure that it is truth, or else we do the work of the devil and fight against God.

False or uncertain opinions relied upon as certain truths, keep those in error who build on them. Hence the bad effect of prejudices imbibed from education, party, fashion, interest, habit, &c. This is the mote which every one sees in his brother's eye, but still regards not the beam in his own. Very rarely does a man examine his own principles, and see if they will bear the trial. Yet this should be one of the first things for him to do, who wishes to know the truth, or to secure his own happiness.

The wise man does not talk of his own actions, though he does nothing which will not bear to be talked of. We must not contradict, but instruct him that contradicts us; for a mad man is not cured by another's running mad also. Attention to little things, is the economy of virtue.

We should never remember the benefits we have conferred, nor forget the favors received. Death has nothing terrible in it, but what life has made so. As we must render an account of every idle word, so must we likewise, of our idly spent time. It is less pain to learn in youth, than to be ignorant in age.

2		his dress he was neat, but
3		plain. In food and drink he
4		was temperate, and generally
5		slept only about four hours in
6		twenty-four. He scarcely
7		spent an idle moment. For
8		he considered it a great sin for
9		Christians to misspend their
10		time, and viewed a slothful,
11		or idle Christian, as blameable
12		as a covetous one, and as
13		much deserving the censure
14		of the church. He consider-
15		ed it an abomination for pro-
16		fessors of religion to allow
17		themselves in habits of un-

24		Some think that learning is
25		apt to lead to conceit and
26		pride. But, says Mr. Clark-

29		tendency of learning to be
30		quite the reverse."
31

The Free Will Baptists were gathered to be a distinct people, through the instrumentality of the labours of Benjamin Randal. In consequence of Mr. Whitefield's preaching, and the news of his death within a week afterwards, Mr. Randall was brought under powerful conviction in the 21st year of his age. This conviction never left him, till he made a profession of religion. In 1772, about two years after hearing Mr. Whitefield, he united with the Congregational church in Newcastle. But not enjoying that liberty of the gospel, which he thought was the privilege of Christians, he, and several others, in 1775, separated from the church at Newcastle and held meetings by themselves.

Upon conviction of duty, Mr. Randall was soon afterwards baptized, and became a member of the Baptist church in Berwick. He commenced preaching in 1777, and considerable effect immediately followed his labours. His sentiments, however, being general, he was soon called to an account by his brethren, for not preaching election, as Calvin held it. After answering for himself, at the request of his brethren, before several public assemblies, he united with a church holding general sentiments, that had just been embodied in Barrington, N. H. In April, 1780, he was ordained at New Durham; and on the 30th of June, the first Free Will Baptist church was embodied at the same place.

The first Free Will Baptist Quarterly Meeting was held on the 6th of Dec. 1783, at Little Falls, now Hollis, in the State of Maine.

In 1792, a new arrangement of Monthly, Quarterly, and Yearly Meetings having been adopted by the churches, the first Yearly Meeting was held at New Durham, on the 9th of June. This new arrangement was nearly on the same plan that is now practiced in holding these meetings which has been continued with little variation from their first organization.

Free-will Baptists in North-Carolina.

This body has two Annual Conferences, and about 2000 members. The particulars relative to their present standing, we are not able to give. In one of the conferences, the following Elders, Ministers, and Preachers were in fellowship, Nov. 5th, 1829, at which time their conference was in session, viz:—Frederick Fonville, Reading Moore, Isaac Pipkin, Jesse Hawarin, Levi Braxton, James Moore, Jesse Heath, Robert Bond, Jeremiah Heath, Everet Davis, Jesse Braxton, John Gurganous, James Price, Wm. Latham, Caleb Spivy, Howel Hearn, John Creekman, Samuel Modlen, Briant C. Wood, Roderick Powel, Richard Witherington, Jacob Utley, Brinson Hollace, Enoch Cobb, Mark Andrews, Jedediah Dixon, Jeremiah Rowe, Thomas Reaves, Henry Smith, Daniel Daughy, Jesse Alfin, Wilson Daniels, Nathaniel Lockhart. Number Churches 26.

GENERAL BAPTISTS IN KENTUCKY.

There is an association of General Baptists in Kentucky. The religious sentiments of this people, are similar to ours. The association, styled the "Liberty Association of General Baptists," consisted, in October 1830, of 8 churches, and 214 members. The following are among their elders—Benoni Stinson, John B. Stinson, John Davis and Jesse Lane. Licentiates—George Wagnon, R. Darby, Thomas Fuller. They have opened a correspondence with the Free-will Baptists.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

The preceding representations give the following aggregate number of Free-will Baptists in America—593 churches—528 preachers, and 27,830 communicants. But as several churches have not been returned at all, and others very imperfectly, the whole number may be safely reckoned, thus—540 ministers, 600 churches and 28,000 communicants. The population attendant on F. W. B. preaching is about 250,000.

GENERAL BAPTISTS IN ENGLAND.

They have a Home Missionary Society, and a Foreign Missionary Society. They have several Stations in India; and two in the West Indies. They are gradually increasing, and a pious people. We have received no returns from them for some time past.

There is also a Society of General Baptists in Wales; but of the extent of its numbers, we have no knowledge.

OBITUARY—PREACHERS.

Within the past year four preachers have died in our denomination.

Jan. 6, of the present year, Eld. Winthrop Young, of Canterbury, N. H. departed this life, in the 80th year of his age. Brother Young was a native of Barrington, N. H. and early in the history of our connexion espoused the cause of Christ. He was pastor of the Free-will Baptist Church in Canterbury over thirty-five years. As a Christian, but few have been so remarkably pious: although a man of wealth, he studiously avoided any connexion with this world's honors or grandeur. As a preacher of the gospel, he possessed good talents, and was plain and pointed in his discourses; but his most remarkable talent was a gift of prayer, in which few excelled. Beyond a doubt, he died as he lived, a man of God, full of faith and the Holy Ghost.

Elder Humphry Purrington, of Bowdoin, left this vale of tears on Jan. 28, 1832, in the 75th year of his age.—At the age of 17 years, he experienced religion, under the influence of which, we confidently believe, he lived and died. Removing to Bowdoin, then a wilderness, at the age of 21, he soon became active in setting up and supporting Divine worship. His labours were blessed to the awakening and conversion of souls.

In about eight years after removing to Bowdoin, our deceased brother became satisfied that God had called him to preach the gospel of peace to his fellow-men. He believed in a Saviour, who, by the grace of God, “tasted death for every man;” and that every man might repent, believe, and be saved, provided he would attend to the overtures of mercy made to him. In consequence of this doctrine, which was pronounced heretical by the church to which he belonged, he, with several others withdrew and formed a separate society, covenanting with God and one another to live according to the gospel rule, and wait in this way till God should send them help. They remained in this situation till soon after the Free-will Baptists commenced their labors in Maine, they were admitted into their communion where they have ever since remained.

After preaching Christ for nearly twenty years, our brother was ordained in Feb. 1825. He lived to see the glory of God in the salvation of many of his neighbours and children, and could say with Joshua, “as for me and my house we will serve the Lord.”

He continued to preach until a few months before his death, when indisposition compelled him to desist. Through his last illness, he was patient and resigned. His mental faculties were bright and vigorous, and his soul happy and tranquil to the last.

Elder Abner Leonard of Hinsdale, N. H. a preacher of the Dover Quarterly Meeting, departed this life on the 1st of October last. He died in the triumphs of faith. His loss is deeply lamented, as his labors were considered very useful in the cause of Christ.

In February last, Elder Peter Folsom, of Tunbridge, Vt. was called from the walls of Zion, to meet the reward of his doings. In his life he was eminent for piety. And although he has been taken from his station of usefulness at an early age, we believe he is gone to enjoy a glorious immortality.

The Free-will Baptist General Conference.

This conference was organized in Oct. 1826, and has since been held in different States annually. It is composed of delegates from the Yearly Meetings, and Quarterly Meetings not connected with any yearly meeting. The number of delegates for the sixth session of this body, to be held in Meredith, N. H. in Oct. 1832, is limited to 28, and is apportioned to the several yearly meetings, quarterly meetings, &c. as follows: New-Hampshire 5, Maine Western 3, Kennebeck 3, Vermont 3, Holland Purchase 3, Ohio 1, Susquehannah 1, Penobscot 3, Rhode-Island Q. M. 2, Dover Q. M. 1. Two Free-will Baptist Conferences in N. Carolina, Association of General Baptists in Ky.; one each.

Literature.

Several individuals have lately been making laudable exertions to establish a Literary Institution at Parsonsfield. They have already commenced, on the first Monday of September, an Academical School, with an expectation of being incorporated at the next session of the Legislature. A building has been erected, suitable for an Academy. And it is hoped that an Institution, under the direction and patronage of the denomination, will soon be in successful operation.

Book Concern.

At the General Conference held in 1831, it was agreed to establish a BOOK CONCERN, for the benefit of the connection. Henry Hobbs, Samuel Beede, and William Burr, were appointed a Committee of Publication; and David Marks, Book Agent. They have published a new Hymn Book, of which an edition of 4000 copies has been promptly disposed of, and another edition of 3000 is now in press. This work is neatly stereotyped. They have also published 106,000 pages on different subjects, in pamphlet form. These also meet with a ready sale.

Periodicals.

The MORNING STAR, published at Limerick, by Hobbs, Burr & Co., John Buzzell and Samuel Burbank editors, is now issuing its seventh Volume. It has a respectable circulation. Price $1,50 in three months, or $1,75 at the end of the year.

Other Publications.

The Free-will Baptist Magazine, published several years by Elder John Buzzell; the Religious Informer, published by Elder Eleazar Chase; and the Free-will Baptist Magazine, edited by Elder Zalmon Tobey, have been useful periodicals in this connection. They are now discontinued, giving place to the Morning Star.

Besides these, several biographies, and other works have been published by individuals of the connection.

Elder John Colby's Journal has passed four editions, and is much esteemed. The life of Benjamin Randall, the founder of the connection of Free-will Baptists, was published a few years since, and is a valuable book.—The Rhode Island Quarterly Meeting published an interesting Memoir of Elder Abel Thornton. Elder John Buzzell published, some years ago, a useful Hymn Book, that has passed three editions. An edition of Early Piety, a most valuable work for young persons, was published by Hobbs, Woodman & Co. Elder David Marks has also published a small Hymn Book, of which more than twelve thousand copies have been printed. He has also published a Narrative of his life for eleven years, and sold in one year an edition of two thousand. Most of the above publications are now for sale; and may be had of Hobbs, Burr & Co. Limerick, or of David Marks, Book Agent.

Missions.

Quite an interest has been manifested by several of our brethren, within the year past, in the cause of Missions. Many seem anxious to be instrumental of doing good to the heathen, by carrying them the gospel of Christ. Elder John Buzzell has already received donations, to a considerable amount, for the purpose of aiding a Mission in India. Probably a Society will be duly organized at the first suitable opportunity.

Religious Survey of the World.

The exact number of souls in the known world cannot be perfectly ascertained. But according to the most accurate calculations that have been made, our globe contains six hundred and fifty millions.

45,000,000 in America,
170,000,000 in Europe,
340,000,000 in Asia,
70,000,000 in Africa,
25,000,000 on the Islands of the sea.

Their division as to professed religious principles, is reckoned as follows:

1. Jews	3,000,000
2. Protestants	50,000,000
3. Greek Church	72,000,000
4. Roman Church	100,000,000
5. Mahomedans	100,000,000
6. Pagans	325,000,000

If we throw the whole Jewish, Greek, Catholic, Mahomedan, and Pagan population, into one vast congregation, we have an aggregate of moral darkness, and corruption, and misery, which baffles all power of adequate description. Six hundred millions of our fellow beings, without hope, without the gospel, famishing and dying, amidst all the gloom and wretchedness, which it is possible for flesh and blood to conceive, or endure. Twelve thirteenths of the world's population are in this forlorn state, while the rest, if they avail themselves of the good offered them, have the full privilege of enjoying all the light that shines forth from the Bible. Thus what was assigned for every creature, is confined to a few.

Aside from the Romish and Greek churches, which seem to have very little of Christianity but the name, it is commonly reckoned that there are 50 millions of nominal Christians. Of this number about 8 millions may be counted as genuine Christians, allowing themselves to be judges in the case, by their own acts of Christian communion and church fellowship.

This view of the world gives a striking illustration of the words of Christ, that, "broad is the way that leadeth to destruction, and many go in thereat;" while "few find the way which leads unto life." At such a picture, does not the heart of every Christian weep for the misery of his fellow beings! And does not his mercy, his conscience, and every Christ-like principle he possesses, speak to him, "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature?"

STATE OF THE HEATHEN.

FROM MR. JUDSON.

The great annual festival is just past, during which multitudes come from the remotest parts of the country, to worship at the great Shway Dagong Pagoda in this place, where it is believed that several real hairs of Gaudama are enshrined. During the festival, I have given away nearly 10,000 tracts, giving to none but those who asked. I presume there have been 6,000 applicants at the house! Some came 2 or 3 months journey, from the borders of Siam and China.—“Sir, we hear that there is an eternal hell. We are afraid of it. Do give us a writing, that will tell us how to escape it.” Others came from the frontiers of Cassay, a hundred miles north of Ava.—“Sir, we have seen a writing that tells us about an eternal God. Are you the man that gives away such writings? If so, pray give us one for we want to know the truth before we die.” Others came from the interior of the country, where the name of Jesus Christ is a little known.—“Are you Jesus Christ's man? Give us a writing that tells about Jesus Christ.” Br. Bennet works day and night at the press; but he is unable to supply us; for the call is great at Maulmein and Tavoy as well as here.

“We should not for a moment lose sight of the vast region upon which the Sun of Righteousness has never risen. We owe them a most solemn duty. The publication of the gospel in all countries and climes, and to every creature, ought to be the high and constant aim of the church. It ought to be published so that all men may have full opportunity to hear, and understand, and be saved! But the belief is not to be encouraged, that the church may be detained in any one place or country, until all men have seen fit to embrace the gospel. The faithful publication of it is all that is enjoined upon the church; and if men, after having full opportunity to understand it, will continue to be heathens; or, renouncing the outward forms of heathenism, if they will not cordially receive the truth, and bow their necks to the easy yoke of Christ;—no matter where they live, they are not to retard us in our work as heralds of the Lord Jesus. We are to advance to others, and to others still, through all the habitations of men.

It is surely incumbent on us to enlarge our desires, and plans, and expectations. Rapidly as we have advanced in reference to the anticipations of the holy men who began this enterprize, we have proceeded slowly in comparison with the work to be done, and the manifest duty of the church. Two-thirds of an entire generation have gone out of the world since the board was organized, and millions on millions are hurrying where no voice of mercy can reach them. Let the gospel be immediately proclaimed, whatever it may cost the churches. Ease, property, fame, even life itself—let all be sacrificed for an object of such amazing importance.”

VARIETY.

SUPPORT OF PREACHERS.

Elder Randall and his early Freewill Baptist brethren were in favor of a regular system of raising money for the support of those who spend their time in the service of the church. The records of the New Durham church, in Elder Randall's hand writing, now in the possession of Elder Place, show that the New Durham Quarterly Meeting agreed, that in each Monthly Meeting, (that is in each church,) a committee should be appointed to report an estimate of every man's property belonging to the church, and that a church stock should be raised, from time to time as their needs might require, on the principle of equality.

This they considered the only fair and scriptural method of defraying the expenses of the church. And agreeably to the resolve the New Durham church, at their monthly meeting, Oct. 18, 1794, raised the sum of twenty one dollars. Is not this in agreement with the scriptural injunction, "Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things?"

The Light of Nature.—"The celebrated Mr. Hume wrote an essay on the sufficiency of the light of nature, and the no less celebrated Robertson wrote on the necessity of revelation and the insufficiency of the light of nature. Hume came one evening to visit Robertson, and the evening was spent on this subject. The friends of both were present, and it is said that Robertson reasoned with unaccustomed power and clearness; whether Hume was convinced by his reasoning or not, we cannot tell, but at any rate, he did not acknowledge his conviction. Hume was very much of a gentleman, and as he rose to depart, bowed politely to those in the room, while as he retired through the door, Robertson took the light to show him the way. Hume was still facing the door; 'Oh, sir,' said he to Robertson, 'I find the light of nature always sufficient,' and continued, 'pray, don't trouble yourself, sir,' and so he bowed on. The street door was opened, and presently as he bowed along in the entry, he stumbled over something concealed, and pitched down the stairs into the street. Robertson ran after him with a light, and as he held it over him, whispered softly and very cunningly, 'You had better have a little light from above, friend Hume.' And raising him up, he bid him good night, and returned to his friends."
