ECLIPSES IN THE YEAR 1853.

☉ June 6. ☽ June 21. ☉ November 30.

There will be but three solar and lunar Eclipses this year—two of the Sun and one of the Moon.

I. Of the Sun, June 6th, at 3h. 22m. in the afternoon; invisible to us because the ☽'s shadow and penumbra will pass too far south to fall on our latitudes. The Eclipse will not be total to any part of the earth.

II. A partial Eclipse of the Moon, June 21st; visible if no clouds intervene, and by calculation as follows:—

	H.	M.
Beginning,	0	30
Middle,	1	15
End,	2	5

Duration 1 hour and 35 minutes. Quantity eclipsed, rather more than one 5th of the Moon's diameter on her north limb in the south side of the earth. Shadow ☽'s latitude, south descending.

III. Of the Sun, November 30, at 2h. 4m. in the afternoon; invisible in our horizon owing to the Moon's southerly distance on the circle of latitude, as the Moon's apparent diameter at the time of this eclipse will be a fraction larger than the Sun's, the eclipse will be total wherever the centre of the Moon's shadow falls.

Ask, and it shall be given you.

If riches were to be had for asking, with what earnestness, assiduity, and perseverance would we ask for them? If treasures were to be found by looking for them, what would escape our search? If, by knocking, we could gain admittance into the king's council, or the highest preferments, what knockings should we hear? But what reproaches, pains, and disappointments we undergo, in search of false happiness, vain honors, and wretched pleasures of this world, where nothing remains but remorse. Divine grace is the only true good, yet the only thing we have not patience to wait for.

ONE DAY BEFORE DEATH. — Rabbi Eliezer said, "Turn to God one day before death." His disciples said, "How can a man know the day of his death?" — He answered them, "Therefore, you should turn to God to-day. Perhaps you may die to-morrow, thus every day will be employed in returning."

While the howling blasts are sweeping
 Round thy home, so warm and bright,
 It may be that some are weeping,
 Hungry, sick, and cold to-night;
 And the wealth which thou art keeping,
 Should make many sad hearts light.

The earth rejoicing bursts the chain
 Which she hath worn so long;
 The dashing streams run free again,
 The wild bird tunes her song.
 So when the winter of the soul
 Hath passed away in tears,
 Hope springing like the flowers, reveals
 The spring-time of our years.

Though the Southern zephyr brings
 Fragrance on its balmy wings,
 From that sunny land of flowers,
 Where it fanned the orange bowers;
 Yet, in murmurs sad and low,
 It hath borne a wail of wo,
 'Tis the sad despairing tone
 Of the hopeless bondman's moan.

 Spring yields to thee the work which she begun,
 And nature smiling full in thine embrace.

Ten thousand voices join

The grateful song of praise which floateth up
To the blue gates of heaven—Oh let not mine
Make discord in the grand harmonious strain,
Which nature offers unto nature's God.

How boundless is the Almighty Father's grace
 Whose constant goodness crowns the rolling years,
 Who makes each whirling sphere to know its place,
 And paints the humblest floweret that appears.

Lift up thine eyes and look upon the fields,
 The whitening harvest see;
 To all our wants earth's bounteous bosom yields
 A tribute rich and free.
 To those whose patient hands prepare the soil
 This guerdon God ordains—
 What do they mean, who rob the sons of toil,
 And bind them down with chains?

 Of viewless pinions on the midnight air,
 A murmur and a wail, as if the year
 Passing away forever, breathed a dirge
 Over the wrecks of joyous hopes, which lie
 Scattered and crushed in its remorseless path.

OBITUARY OF PREACHERS.

ELDER JOHN WALLIS died in Freeman, Me., Aug. 19th, 1851, aged 64 years, 6 months, and 19 days. He was born in Mystic, Mass., but while an infant his parents removed with him to New Brunswick. In 1807, he found peace in believing. Soon, however, he left the Savior. Two years afterwards, he married a pious young lady, and in 1818, removed to Belgrade, Me., where, during a work of grace, he was reclaimed from his backslidings, and united with the F. W. Baptists. In 1830, he removed to Freeman, and through his labors, God's work was revived in the small and languishing church in that place, till it became large and flourishing. Aug. 1838, he received license from the Anson Quarterly Meeting to preach the gospel, and in 1845, was ordained. He preached his last sermon June 1, 1851, from these words: "Lovest thou me more than these?" He left a family of eleven children.

ELDER JAMES WILLIAMS, M. D., died in Wellsburg, Erie Co., Pa., Oct. 26, 1851, aged 53 years. At the age of 18, he gave his heart to God, and united with the Calvinistic Baptists. About two years after his conversion, he entered the gospel ministry, and was publicly ordained in the church with which he stood connected. After a period, he became doubtful as to the correctness of some of his views of Scripture doctrine, which led to a full and prayerful investigation of the doubtful points.—Light at length broke in upon his mind, he became settled in his convictions of truth, which he was not slow in teaching to others. For preaching a free salvation, he, with the church of which he was pastor, was excommunicated from the Association. He continued to preach with his people as usual, and as they were not able to sustain him, he studied medicine, and by this means was enabled to continue his pastoral labors and support his family. After remaining in this situation seven years, he became acquainted with the Free-will Baptists, and finding their views of the atonement coincided with his own, he, with his church, united with the Crawford Quar. terly Meeting. His labors in this Q. M. as a minister were signally blessed, and he became eminent as a physician. Four years previous to his death, he removed to Wellsburg. In private, he was singularly kind and affectionate. In the moral enterprises of the day, he was greatly interested.

ELDER ASA STEARNS of St. Mary's, Ohio, departed this life, Sept. 7, 1851, in the 71st year of this age, in the triumphs of faith. He had been a minister of the gospel more than 40 years.

BRO. IVORY JACKSON died at his residence in Eaton, N. H., Sept. 29, 1851. His disease was typhoid fever. He embraced religion when he was about eighteen years of age. By most unwearied exertions, he acquired an extensive knowledge of the sciences, and became a very accomplished and successful teacher. For some time he had felt called to the work of the ministry, and a year previous to his death, while teaching the Eaton High School, he commenced preaching on the Sabbath. The church became revived and a good Sabbath school was established through his labors. He was licensed at the May term of the Sandwich Quarterly Meeting, and a proposition was to be submitted by the church for his ordination at the Oct. term following. But God in his wisdom saw fit to direct otherwise. During his sickness he often expressed an anxious desire to live for the sake of Zion, yet manifested the most perfect resignation to the will of God in all things. When it was announced to him that his end was near, his soul seemed filled with heavenly glory, and he frequently broke out in accents of ecstatic joy and praise till his voice was silenced in death. He was warmly attached to the Free-will Baptist denomination, and ardently engaged in all the benevolent operations of the day. He was strong in faith and constant in prayer. He left a wife and one son.

ELDER EUSEBIUS M. DODGE died at New Lyme, Ashtabula Co., Ohio, Jan. 2d, 1852, of congestive fever, aged 45 years, 7 months, and 15 days. He was born in Lyme, Ct., and at the age of five years, his parents emigrated with him to New Lyme, O. When 16 years old, he was led to submit his heart to the Savior, but subsequently wandered from him. At the age of 24 he was reclaimed, and thenceforward seemed entirely consecrated to God. Nov. 7, 1837, he was licensed to preach the gospel, and Oct. 15, 1837, he was publicly ordained as an evangelist. He labored much with poor churches and in destitute places, and saw many souls converted. He had great patience and perseverance, and possessed a faith that took hold on the promises of God with an unyielding grasp. He had a soul overflowing with love to Christ and sinners, and his face was often radiant with the fountain of love that dwelt within, leaving its impress still on his countenance when cold in death. After giving his last dying counsel to his family, he waved his hands, and said, "Give God the glory," and sweetly yielded up his spirit. He left a wife and four children.

ELD. MARTIN CHENEY calmly fell asleep in Jesus at Olneyville, Jan. 4, 1852, in the 60th year of his age. He was born in Dover, Mass., August 29, 1792. In 1810, he came to reside in Olneyville, in 1820 or '21, he was baptized by Eld. Z. Tobey. He preached his first sermon Thanksgiving Day evening at Fruit Hill, in N. Providence, 1823. He was licensed to preach Feb. 12, 1824, and was ordained Apr. 28, 1825. The house of worship in Olneyville was erected for his use in 1827, and dedicated the 2d of July the same year. Nov. 7, 1828, he organized the church at Olneyville, consisting of eleven members, six of whom are still connected with it. Of this church, which now numbers between three and four hundred members, he remained a faithful pastor until he left the walls of Zion. He preached to his own people for the last time Sabbath morning, Oct. 26, 1851. His last sermons he preached in Taunton, Mass., the 2d of Nov. following. From that period till the time of his decease, his friends had alternate hopes and fears with regard to his recovery. He bore his severe sickness with Christian fortitude, but such was its nature that he could talk but little, and as he was taken away at an hour when the hopes of his friends and his own were strong for his recovery, he did not leave the much dying counsel which might otherwise have been expected of him. But his reason was unclouded to the last moment. His death was the sun at its setting. His last words were, "I have a hope that endureth to the end," then silently bidding adieu to earth, he entered the valley and shadow of death without a struggle. He left a wife and several children. He had naturally an uncommonly strong and vigorous mind. His perceptive faculties were most thoroughly acute, and acted with the rapidity of lightning. This made him a mighty champion in debate, and connected with his ardent temperament made him as a Christian warrior resemble the General who prefers carrying cities by assault, rather than by the slow process of a regular siege. He was a champion for religious liberty, and for suffering humanity; hence in the Temperance, Anti-Slavery, and Peace enterprises, he was a strong man armed. A great man has truly fallen in Israel.

ELD. MATTHEW BAKER died in Coles Co., Ill., Jan. 8, 1852, aged 60 years and three months. He was born in Bennington Co., Vt., embraced religion in the 14th year of his age; emigrated to Ohio, where he united with the Free-will Baptists. Moved by the Holy Ghost, he entered the gospel field of labor; was ordained to minister in holy things, and after preaching the gospel of Christ acceptably and successfully in Ohio, he removed to Illinois, where he resided till death. In private he was social, prayerful, and exemplary; in public, instructive, pathetic, inviting and faithful. He died like Stephen of old, in full view of heaven. He left a wife, four children, grand-children and two churches, which he gathered, to mourn their bereavement.

ELD. HEZEKIAH BROCK died in Dover, N. H., Dec. 30, 1851, aged 31 years. His disease was consumption. He was born in Barrington, N. H., became a Christian while very young, and was even then active in persuading sinners to come to Christ. He was baptized by Eld. Sherburne, and subsequently, on taking up his residence in Dover, united with the 1st Free-will Baptist church in that place. A year or two afterwards, he preached with much earnestness his first sermon. He next preached for a season to good acceptance with the church in Raymond, and afterwards in Kennebunk, where he was ordained, and his labors greatly blest. Wishing to prepare himself more thoroughly for his ministerial work, in the spring of 1846 he went to the Biblical School at Whitestown. Soon after he commenced his studies, he found his lungs so affected, that he was persuaded he should be unable to preach, and he turned his attention to the study of medicine.—He married, but in one short year his amiable and lovely wife passed to the spirit land. He married again, and for a time, lived in Utica, N. Y., but his disease continuing to make progress, he came to Dover with his wife during the autumn of 1851, where he lingered a few weeks in great physical suffering. His last words were, "Blessed Jesus." He was very lovely and amiable in his disposition, and was very pathetic and winning as a preacher.

ELD. ZIBA POPE departed this life, Feb. 12, 1852, after three months' severe illness, in the 76th year of his age. His disease was consumption.—He was converted in New Brunswick, Aug., 1812, and settled with his family in Randolph, Vt., Feb. 1st, 1814, where he resided 19 years. During this time, he received ordination, preached in many towns in Vermont, and saw the conversion of many souls. He also preached in New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Maine, New Hampshire, and Canada East, where also he witnessed many conversions. In the spring of 1833, he removed to Lincoln, Vt., and there resided till the time of his death. For several of the latter years of his life, he preached little, in consequence of an affection of his lungs, and frequent bleeding.

ELD. WM. E. ROBINSON of Sodus, N. Y., died March 13, 1852, aged 66 years and 10 months.—He was formerly of Greenfield, Luzerne Co., Pa. He became a Christian in early life, and was a minister over 30 years. He was ordained in Windsor, N. Y., Dec. 3, 1826. He will long be remembered with the warmest affection in the Gibson Quarterly Meeting, where his first labors were enjoyed. It was often observed that the church to which he preached was among the most flourishing in the Quarterly Meeting. An individual expressing surprise that this should so invariably be the case, one of his church brethren, who stood by, replied, "You would not wonder if you knew him as well as I do, for if any of us get out of the way, as we often do, he will weep over us and pity us, until we feel so bad to see his tears and anxiety for us, that we resolve we will never cause him to weep again." He died in the full enjoyment of that religion he so earnestly recommended to others.

ELD. JOHN W. COLWELL died Apr. 26, 1852, on board the steamship Monumental City, between San Juan del Lur and Accipalco. His disease was the Isthmus fever. He was considered dangerously sick but four hours before he died. Most of the time he was unconscious, but at intervals he expressed unfaltering confidence in God, and a deep interest for his family. He was ordained at Rehoboth, Mass., Sept. 3, 1841, by a council from the R. I. Quarterly Meeting Ministers' Conference, and was pastor of Rehoboth church four years. He preached one year with the Charleston and Richmond church, and then removed to Cranston, R. I., where there was no church. He preached in this place over five years, and succeeded in raising up a good and efficient church, and in erecting a good meeting house. As there was a debt on the house which the church did not feel able to cancel, Eld. Colwell started for California, hoping in a short time to return from that golden land with means to free his house of worship, but death cut him down on board a crowded ship, and his body was committed to the waves of the Pacific. He left a wife and seven children.

ELD. JOHN HETZLER died at his residence in Lemoille, Ill., July 3, 1852, aged 62 years, 7 mos. and 25 days. His sickness was inflammation of the lungs. He was born in Center Co., Pa., in 1789. He joined the United Brethren in the State of Indiana, by whom he was licensed to preach June 20, 1820, and by whom he was ordained Sept. 14, 1834. Subsequently he removed to Illinois and joined the Free-will Baptist church in Greenfield, and afterwards the church in Dover, of which he remained a worthy member until death. He was loved and prized for his Christ-like spirit, and his works do follow him. He was a warm friend of the slave, whom he remembered as being bound with him. He left a wife and several children.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Heathen an Example for Christian Americans.

It is the custom among the Hindoos, when gathering in their harvest, before it is removed from the threshing-floor, to take out the portion for their god. However poor, however much in debt, however small the crop may be, the god's portion is first given. Nor is it a small portion grudgingly bestowed. Would Christians in America give as heartily and abundantly, for the honor and glory of Him who has redeemed them with his precious blood, as do this poor heathen people to their dumb idols, there would be no lack in the Lord's treasury; the evangelization of our sin-polluted world would go rapidly forward.

Will not these very heathen rise up in the judgment against professing Christians in America?

KINDNESS IN LITTLE THINGS.—The sunshine of life is made up of very little beams, that are bright all the time. In the nursery, on the play-ground, in the school-room, there is room all the time for little acts of kindness, that cost nothing, but are worth more than gold or silver. To give up something, where giving up will prevent unhappiness; to yield, when persisting, will fret and chafe others; to go a little around rather than to come against another; to take an ill word or a cross look quietly, rather than resent or return it; these are the ways in which clouds and storms are kept off, and a pleasant sunshine secured even in the humble home, among very poor people, as in families in higher stations.

The Good Prayer Meeting.

It was a good prayer meeting. And why?

1. Because it was well attended. The hearts of a few were not chilled because so many were absent who should have been there.

2. Because the members had prepared themselves for properly participating in the meeting, by self-examination, reading of the Scriptures, and prayer at home. They had endeavored, with God's aid, to collect their wandering thoughts, and to fasten them upon the duties in which they were about to engage. They had felt again their unworthiness and their helplessness, and had renewed their trust in Jesus Christ as their Mediator.

3. Because all present felt that the occasion was a solemn one, and the act a responsible one. They felt that it was no light thing to call upon the name of the Lord God and invoke his blessing upon them. They felt that it was a great crime to appear before Jehovah with irreverence, and to take his name lightly upon their lips. They realized that they must give an account to the great Master for the manner in which they spent that hour, and that the all-seeing Eye was piercing into the depths of their hearts.

4. Because the prayers were promptly offered, and were short, fervent, pointed, applicable to the condition of the majority of those present, and presented with deep humility and a heart-felt sense of the necessity of Christ's intercession, with a firm belief in the promises of God to answer the petitions of his children. There was no idle, unmeaning declamation and blending together of inappropriate epithets. There was no attempt at display, no merely animal excitement, no unfelt vehemence, no boisterous shouting when the heart was not warmed by the influences of God's Spirit. There was no wearying of the flesh by unnecessary repetition and improper length.

5. Because the passage of Scripture was wisely chosen, impressively read, and appropriately and practically explained. The hymns were such as suited the experience of the members; and they were sung to solemn tunes, with the spirit and the understanding.

6. Because the brethren and sisters separated quietly and seriously. There were no loud greetings, no trifling conversations, no mirth and laughter. All felt that they had been in God's presence, and did not banish the impressions received by worldly behavior.

Other reasons might be mentioned to justify our calling this a good prayer meeting; but let these suffice.

CHEERFULNESS OF CHRISTIANS.—Religion is mistaken by worldlings for a system of rigor and austerity, marking its votaries with melancholy, and supplanting every genial affection and innocent enjoyment. Let those who possess it, be careful to rectify this error by their own example. In their deportment let them evince neither moroseness nor want of courtesy, but the graceful serenity of a hopeful, patient and loving spirit. Let them cultivate the smile that can shine through sorrow, and speak those sweet words that heal as a medicine; and not sink or repine as others, when "the desire of their eyes is taken away with a stroke." For who has such a right to be always happy, and on whom are such obligations laid to be ever cheerful, as those who "have the promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come?"—American Messenger.

TWO CLASSES OF CHRISTIANS.—There are two classes of Christians; those who live chiefly by emotion, and those who live chiefly by faith. The first class, those who live chiefly by emotion, remind one of ships, that move by the outward impulse of winds operating upon sails. They are often at a dead calm, often out of their course, and sometimes driven back. And it is only when the winds are fair and powerful that they move onward with rapidity. The other class, those who live chiefly by faith, remind one of the magnificent steamers which cross the Atlantic, which are moved by an interior and permanent principle, and which, setting at defiance all ordinary obstacles, advance steadily and swiftly to their destination, through calm and storm, through cloud and sunshine.

THE THREE CONDITIONS OF BELIEVERS.—They were "dead in sins." Enemies to God. "Children of wrath." They are reconciled to God, regenerated, washed, sanctified, obedient children, delight in the Lord, walking in love and in the fellowship of the Spirit. They will be saved eternally, crowned with glory and immortality at the appearing of Jesus Christ. Happy believers! mightily delivered, gloriously saved, and waiting for glory's crown. Be faithful, and soon you will wear it.
