FREEWILL BAPTIST CONNEXION. 2

EXPLANATIONS.—* Affixed to the name or number of a church, signifies that no official report has been received.

† Shows that a preacher has been ordained or licensed, or a church received the past year.

Pastors of churches have a p affixed to their names. The names of unordained ministers are printed in italics.

Quarterly Meetings from which no statistical returns have been received for this number of the Register, are marked (No Returns.) In such, the churches, preachers, and whole number of members, are inserted, as in the last year's Register.

The accounts of moneys contributed for Missions, etc., are printed as they have been reported by the Clerks of the Quarterly Meetings. If there are any omissions or errors, it is not the fault of the compiler.

OBITUARY OF PREACHERS.

Rev. AMOS BROWN died of apoplexy, in Eaton, N. H., Dec. 7, 1867. He was born at Bristol, N. H., in 1800, and from childhood was subject to the convictions and reproofs of the Holy Spirit. These he resisted until 27 years of age, at which time he gave his heart to God, and became a devoted Christian. He received baptism at the hands of Rev. John Hill, and united with the church at Alexandria. He soon felt that God was calling him to preach the Gospel. The solemn responsibilities of a minister of Christ, his want of an education and a deep sense of his unworthiness weighed heavily upon him. To the closet and the grove he betook himself for prayer, and there, with "strong crying and supplication," he gathered strength and grace for the work. He commenced at once the work of the ministry, and having received ordination, labored successfully in Nashua, Alexandria, Orange, &c., and a short time previous to his death moved to Eaton and took charge of the church there which was in a low and scattered condition. Here he unfurled the banner of the cross, and in clear and trumpet tones invited the shattered battalions of Israel to rally, and sinners to enlist. The voice was heard and sinners were coming in, when, lo! in the midst of the conflict he was smitten down and called to his reward. Summoned when least expecting it, he took the angel's hand with confidence, and crossed the dark stream and entered into the rest that remains for God's people.

Rev. ELIAS P. BROWN died in Amherst, Lorain Co., Ohio, Aug. 29, 1867, aged 75 years, 4 months and 12 days. He was born in Strafford, Vt., and experienced religion when quite young. He with his father's family, early moved to Bethany, N. Y. Here he joined the Free Baptist church, was married, and lived for many years laboring in the cause of his Master. His labors were blessed in the conversion of sinners. He subsequently removed to Amherst, O., where he resided until the Saviour called him home to reap the reward of his labors. He died of cancer in the throat. His suffering was intense, but he bore it with Christian patience and fortitude. He leaves a wife and one daughter to mourn their loss.

Rev. J. W. Darling died at his residence in Eleroy, Ill., April 3, 1868. Faithful to the last, of him it may well be said, "In labors more abundant." Engaging in the work of the ministry because God called him to it, he was earnest to enthusiasm and true to his great trust. In our denominational history it is recorded of him that "he went forth in his Master's service with neither purse nor scrip, and traveled more than 3000 miles on foot before he was able to buy a horse." Possessing a fine memory, he treasured up much that was useful and edifying, and his sermons gave proof that he had matured his subject. A spirit of good will towards his fellow-men displayed itself in his whole life. While the maddening tempest of party strife swept over the land, during the dark days of the Rebellion, he was true to principle, calm, firm, forbearing and loving. His whole conduct seemed to spring from the promptings of sincerity and goodness. He leaves a wife and several sons and daughters and a large circle of friends to mourn his death.

Rev. DAVID DUDLEY was born in West Vernon, Kennebec Co., Maine, July 16, 1791, and died in Waldo, Marion Co., Ohio, May 29, 1867. After varied experiences in neglecting his Master's call to preach the gospel, at the age of 24 he forsook lands and friends and home, and journeyed to Southern Ohio, his object being solely "to labor for God." He was ordained to preach Christ in 1817, and labored with great success in Southern Ohio, till 1822, when he moved to Marion Co.—then new and thinly settled. During that year he organized the Freewill Baptist church of Big Island, the first church of our denomination in Central Ohio. He was pastor of this church 13 years, laboring much in the adjacent counties, organizing several churches and baptizing many into the covenant of God. In 1837 he removed to East Liberty, Ohio, where he organized the Harmony Q. M., and in 1843 he assisted in organizing the Marion Ohio Yearly Meeting which, to this day, recognizes him as its Father. His life was eminently full of good works. In his dying hour he reviewed his life and remarked that "he had never compromised the truth." Blessed satisfaction—to be experienced in all its reality only where he is now—resting from his labors in his Father's kingdom.

Rev. WM. GETCHELL died in Pittsfield, Me., Oct. 30, 1867, aged 73 years and 10 months. He has labored for God on earth, and gone to receive his reward above. Converted to Christianity in 1818 he joined the Christian church in East Pittsfield, but having subsequently removed to another part of Pittsfield, he was one of the leaders in the organization of the 1st. Freewill Baptist church of that place, and became one of its deacons. Three years later he was ordained and became pastor of the church over which he had so faithfully and carefully watched. This relation was severed only by death. In addition to his own church labors, he officiated as pastor of the Pittsfield and Burnham church for more than 20 years. The community where he was known said, as with one voice at his death, "a good man has fallen." A wife and three children survived him and mourn their loss, waiting for the summons that shall call them to meet him in the skies.

Rev. SAMUEL HAZELTON died at the residence of his son in Albany, Me., Dec. 31, 1867. He had for several months been very feeble, but was always, with commendable earnestness, hoping for better days and long usefulness in his Redeemer's service. When convinced that his end had come he cheerfully committed his soul to his Father's care, and passed in triumph to the better land.

Rev. L. J. MADDEN died in Walworth, N. Y., June 13, 1868. Although delirious for the greater part of the time that the fever was burning to his vitals, still there were lucid intervals when the light of God shone through and the glories of heaven, to which he was so near, were revealed to him. He was converted in early life, and although dying comparatively young, what the cause has lost by his premature death was more than made up by the zeal with which his years were filled. He was earnestly devoted to all the benevolent enterprises of the day, and frequently gave beyond his means to aid them. He was settled as pastor over six churches,—the longest being the pastorate of the Middlebury, N. Y., church,—which continued six years. His whole life in the ministry was a success. He won many to Christ, built up the churches and did honor to his calling. He sleeps in Christ, remembered and loved by the wife and two small children that he has left, besides being mourned by the thousands to whom his life was so full of profit.

Rev. HENRY MEADER died at North Blauvelt, Ill., Dec. 4, 1867, aged 77 years and 5 months. He gave his heart to God in early life, and soon entered the Christian ministry. He entered the work when it was more of a self-denial than now, and when there was little or no support received from the churches. He was deeply interested in every reform movement, and lived to see slavery, in the agitation of which he had taken a lively interest, abolished from the land. His labors as a minister were mostly confined to the southern counties of Maine. In 1839 he moved to the west, after which, owing to failing health, he preached but little. Among his last words were, "Though I walk through the valley and shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for thy rod and thy staff they comfort me."

Rev. JESSE B. MILLER died in Farmington, Mich., June 16, 1868, aged 34 years. He was converted at the age of 20 under the labors of the Rev. Mr. Chase, of the Baptist church. He soon received license to preach, and in 1859 moved with his family to the vicinity of Grand Rapids, Mich. He became connected with the Grand Rapids Quarterly Meeting, and was ordained by that body in the Spring of 1861, being then a member of the Granville church. During the summer following, he had the care of three churches, discharging his triple duties with credit and success. He served 3 years and 2 months in the Union army during the Rebellion, being discharged finally with a broken constitution and health ruined in his country's service. After his discharge he engaged in business to the extent of his health, still maintaining the dignity of the Christian minister, and sometimes preaching to the destitute of his own and other districts. He was a man of strong faith, earnest convictions and great strength of will. He bore his sufferings with exemplary patience, convincing by the unseen life that animated his skeleton form, that he had supplies of a wondrous grace that earth could never know.

Rev. F. MORRILL died in Biddeford, Me., March 22, 1868, aged 53 years. He was born in Falmouth, Feb. 18, 1815. At the age of 16 he experienced religion and was baptized by Rev. Hubbard Chandler. He was licensed to preach by the Gorham (now Cumberland) Q. M. in 1836, and was ordained at Scarborough in 1840. His ministry was mostly confined to York and Cumberland Counties, and in a number of towns he had the inexpressible pleasure of seeing sinners converted to Christ thro' his instrumentality. His deportment among men was such as frequently drew forth the remark "He is a good man." But consumption had marked him for its victim, and on one Sabbath morning when the din of business in the city was hushed, angels came to bear his happy spirit to that glorious land "where congregations ne'er break up, and Sabbaths never end," and "Like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him, and lies down to pleasant dreams," so passed our brother to his heavenly rest. By his own request a sermon was preached from 2d Tim. 4: 7—"I have fought a good fight."

Rev. CHESTER PRINCE died in Rome, Bradford Co., Pa., May 22, 1867, aged 74 years, 11 months and 4 days. He became a member of the F. W. B. church at an early day, and for many years labored humbly but efficiently in his Master's service. One remarkable feature in his character was his modesty and humility. He was a man of strong faith, and it was truly remarked at his death that, as a Christian, he was second to none. He chose the lowest seat on earth, but the Master has said, "Come up higher."

Rev. HIRAM S. SLEEPER died at Meredith Center, N. H., Aug. 11, 1867, at the age of 56 years and 7 months. His opportunities for an early education were almost entirely cut off by the death of his father, which occurred when he was only 10 years of age. But he succeeded in qualifying himself for teaching, which occupation he followed with success for several seasons. With him duty was law, and when at the age of 27 he felt the call to the gospel ministry, he gave up all hopes of worldly honors and emoluments, and cheerfully devoted himself to the labor of saving souls. Through Maine and New Hampshire he was known as a man of God, and everywhere beloved for the tender regard he cherished for the lost. Abundant success crowned his labors, and although mourned by a large circle of friends, it is mourning with the sure hope of rejoicing soon with him in the upper world.

Rev. JOSEPH SPEARING died in Clinton, Me., Aug. 11, 1867, aged 76 years. For a number of years after he commenced preaching, he was a member of the C. Baptist church. About 20 years ago he united with the F. W. B. church in Clinton, and retained his standing in it till called away by death. His labors were mostly confined to the Waterville Q. M.

Rev. ALEXIS STOKES died of heart disease, at the residence of his brother in Champaign Co., Ohio, Oct. 13, 1867, aged 51 years, 3 months and 15 days. He was born in Frederick Co., Va., but went to Ohio at an early age with his parents who settled in C. County, where he in early youth embraced Christ, under the labors of Rev. C. Dudley. He received license to preach Dec. 11, 1843, and remained a faithful laborer in his Master's vineyard until he was called away by death. Many, in his Master's vineyard until he was called away by death. Many, doubtless, welcomed him to the bright world, and he in turn will welcome many more, who point to him, as to the instrument in God's hand of their salvation. He leaves a little son, a whole Quarterly Meeting, and many friends to mourn his loss.

Rev. EZRA P. TALLMAN was born in Galway, Saratoga Co., N. Y., May 29, 1814, and died in Perrinton, Monroe Co., N. Y., Aug. 21, 1867. In the 23d year of his age he made a public profession of religion, and united with the church at Penfield, receiving baptism at the hands of Rev. Thomas Parker. He was licensed in 1838, and ordained to the gospel ministry at the age of 28. He united with the church formed at the time of his ordination and officiated as its pastor four years. Subsequently he studied Theology during the most of three years in the F. W. B. Biblical School, then located at Whitestown, and on leaving school served for a year or more as the pastor of the Middleville and Norway church. During the eight years following he was pastor of three churches, closing his labors in 1860 with the Elba and Alabama church to take charge of his father, Dea. Tallman, in his last and somewhat protracted illness. After that time he did not have the pastorate of any church, but preached occasionally in various places, as opportunity offered and health would permit. The character of his preaching was well adapted to develop the spirituality of the gospel and infuse its spirit and principles into the minds of his people. As a husband and father he was kind and affectionate; as a neighbor and citizen, frank and obliging; as a fellow-laborer in the gospel he shared largely in the good will of his brother ministers; and as a Christian he was exemplary in his family and in the more public walks of life. After a life of eminent usefulness he has gone to his reward.

Rev. DAVID WEBBER died in Georgetown, Me., Feb. 3, 1868, aged 79 years. His sickness was short but very severe. He was one of Randall's converts—experienced saving grace at the age of 13, and was ordained in 1821 at Westport. After ordination his labors were mostly confined to Westport, Georgetown and Phippsburg. He died with his armor on, continuing to preach, as he had opportunity, to the last. He had strong faith in Christ's power to save, and almost his last words were, "I have no fear."

Rev. SAMUEL WHITCOMB died in Lisbon, N. H., Apr. 7, 1867, aged 79 years, 10 months and 7 days. At the age of 28, he gave himself to God, and found great comfort in believing and doing the will of his Master. He soon felt that God was calling him to the work of the ministry, but he shrank from it under a deep sense of his own unworthiness and want of ability. Conquering through grace he followed his Master's bidding, and during the remainder of his life was an effective laborer in proclaiming the ways of truth to the last. He has gone down to the grave full of honor and ready for his Father's kingdom, waiting to meet, in a purer, happier home, the wife and children that now mourn their loss.

OTHER OPEN COMMUNION BAPTISTS.

We had hoped to present in this issue of our Annual Register the statistics of the various other Religious Bodies in America, that adhere to Baptist usage in carrying out the direction of Christ in Matt. 28 : 19, and yet maintain open Communion. The needed information has been sought and expected; but it has come to us only partially, and in forms that are fragmentary instead of complete. On this account we do not even attempt to tabulate the various items that are in our possession,—preferring to delay the statement for another year, and present it in connection with the enlarged Register which will then be issued. Such a statement as is now practicable would be unreliable and is likely to be unjust.

There are, however, some of these bodies that are now coming to sustain relations to us of so intimate a character that a little information in detail is called for. There are eight Associations of General Baptists, located in the Southern portion of Indiana and Illinois, and the Northern portion of Kentucky, holding doctrinal views in full harmony with our own, and whose Church polity differs from ours only in details. Two of these Associations have already been received into the denomination; the others are likely to unite in form as soon as they can legally effect the object. The statistics of those bodies, as they have been reported, are as follows:

OHIO ASS., O.—Churches, 16; Members, 556.
 LIBERTY ASS., Ind.—Churches, 24; Members, 1700.
 UNITED ASS., Ind.—Churches, 25; Members, 1480.

 UNION GROVE ASS.,—(Statistics not known.)

There are also Conferences of Free Christian Baptists in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, which in both doctrine and polity are in almost complete accord with the Freewill Baptists. Formal intercourse has been maintained with these Bodies, by means of delegations, for some years past, and they are generously aiding to carry forward our Foreign Mission work undertaken in India. The membership of the New Brunswick Conference is about 6000;—1800 members have been received by baptism during the last three years. The statistics of the Nova Scotia Conference have not come to hand; but the latest information indicates a growing prosperity, and the tendencies to an actual union are constantly gathering strength.

Of other bodies of open Communion Baptists, existing under various names and in various sections, we make now no specific mention. That the arguments for immersion, as the real baptism instituted by Christ, are pressing with increasing weight upon the best scholar, in Pedobaptist denominations,—and that the tendencies toward Open Communion in those circles where it has heretofore been denied a place, are daily becoming stronger and more operative,—cannot be doubted.
