ECLIPSES FOR THE YEAR 1898.

There will be six eclipses this year, three of the sun and three of the moon.

I. A Partial Eclipse of the Moon Jan. 7, visible in New England; also visible in the eastern part of North America, in South America, Europe, Asia, and Africa. Begins 6h. 47.5m. P. M.; middle 7h. 35m. P. M.; ends 8h. 23m. P. M.

II. A Total Eclipse of the Sun Jan. 21 and 22, invisible in New England, but visible in Europe, Asia, Africa, and portions of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

III. A Partial Eclipse of the Moon July 3, invisible in New England, but visible generally in Europe, Asia, and Africa.

IV. An Annular Eclipse of the Sun July 18, invisible in New England, but visible in the Pacific ocean and the southern part of South America.

V. A Partial Eclipse of the Sun Dec. 13, invisible in New England, but visible in the South Pacific ocean.

VI. A Total Eclipse of the Moon Dec. 27, visible in New England and generally visible in North and South America, Europe, Asia, and Africa. Begins 4h. 47.5m. P. M.; middle 6h. 42.1 m. P. M.; ends 8h. 36.4m. P. M.

EXPLANATION.

Formerly the computations were naturally expressed in local time, this being practically the same for any phenomenon for places in the same latitude.

The introduction of the new time system, however, demands a change, so that a table of correction becomes necessary, as given below.

The calendar quantities are for the meridian and latitude of Boston, expressed in the present time system. For the other places, given in the table below, add to or subtract from the calendar times, as expressed in said table.

For places not in table, find the correction from the place nearest in longitude to the one in question, and apply this. A still closer result would be obtained by finding two places in the table, one a little east and the other a little west, and estimating the correction between.

Each person had better mark on the margin of his REGISTER the addition or subtraction for his own locality, and apply this correction whenever he looks for the time of any event.

The Eastern time belt ends, and the Central begins, near the western borders of New York and Pennsylvania.

For places still using the old local time, no use is to be made of this table, but 16 minutes are invariably to be added to the REGISTER time.

TABLE.

Time to be added to or subtracted from the calendar times:

| | | | |
|---------------------------|-----------------|------------------------------|---------------|
| For Augusta, Me. | subtract 4 min. | For Buffalo, N. Y. | add 31 min. |
| " Lansing, Mich. | " 6 " | " Cleveland, O. | subtract 17 " |
| " Detroit, Mich. | " 11 " | " Chicago, Ill. | add 7 " |
| " Concord, N. H. | add 2 " | " Madison, Wis. | " 13 " |
| " Montpelier, Vt. | " 6 " | " Minneapolis, Minn. | " 29 " |
| " Albany, N. Y. | " 11 " | " Des Moines, Ia. | " 31 " |

Headache

Horsford's Acid Phosphate

Headache may arise from a disordered state of the stomach, or it may have a nervous origin. The Acid Phosphate by its action in promoting digestion, and as a nerve food, tends to prevent and alleviate the headache arising from either cause.

Dr. F. A. Roberts, Waterville, Me., says:

"Have found it of great benefit in nervous headache, nervous dyspepsia and neuralgia; and think it is giving great satisfaction when it is thoroughly tried."

Resemble thunder in your boldness for God and your zeal for truth; but let your lives shine for lightning, and flash conviction in the faces of those who falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ, and as falsely charge the doctrine of God with a licentious tendency.—Toplady.

Of two evils choose neither if you can help it.—Scotch Proverb.

FREE BAPTIST STATISTICS.

EXPLANATION.—One star (*) affixed to the name of a church signifies that no official report has been received.

Two stars () denote a colored church or Quarterly Meeting.

† shows that a preacher has been ordained or licensed, or a church received, the past year.

Pastors of churches have p affixed to their names. The names of undominated ministers are printed in italics.

Quarterly Meetings for which no statistical returns have been received for this number of the REGISTER are marked (No returns). In such the churches, preachers, and the whole number of members are inserted as in last year's REGISTER.

For convenience in referring to them the Quarterly Meetings belonging to each Yearly Meeting and the churches belonging to each Quarterly Meeting are arranged alphabetically.

The statistics are furnished by the church clerks and prepared by the Q. M. clerks.

Under "Reported Contributions" will be found what amount of money each church has contributed for the benevolent societies. All contributions which cannot be credited to the churches are put under "Miscellaneous" in the "Recapitulation" at the end of the statistics.

PLATFORM.

1. Every member of every Free Baptist young people's society entirely consecrated to God, and his life guided and controlled by the Holy Spirit. Only as we are thus equipped can we be of any great use.
2. Recognizing our relations to God, we will lay aside a definite part of our income, at least one-tenth, to be used as he directs.
3. Believing that Christ's command to "go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature" is binding upon us, we will do all we can by our lives, our prayers, and our pocket-books to carry this out.
4. Realizing the importance of having our Free Baptist young people thoroughly unified and at work, we pledge our hearty support to the United Society of Free Baptist Young People, and will use our best efforts to secure the payment by our societies of an amount equivalent to ten cents per member.
5. Taking our motto, "In the name of Christ, forward!" and going, "not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts," we will make this the best year for the ingathering of souls we have ever had.

Report of the General Conference.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY'S REPORT.

FOREIGN DEPARTMENT.

One standing by the side of a river may be deceived as to the direction of its course by a recurrent eddy. He may declare, upon the evidence of his own observation, that the river runs south when it actually runs in a northerly direction. So we may understand how many well-disposed people can at times assert with all confidence that Christian work is a failure, foreign missions are collapsing, and the world is growing worse. Almost any statement may be made as to the success or failure of missionary work, which, to many people, will bear the semblance of truth. But he who is in the current of events, who reads history by epochs, and who, above all, trusts in God who made and directs the universe, is not greatly disturbed by the prophets of evil. Although there has been for a time a lull in missionary interest and enthusiasm, we are confident that the plan and purposes of God are unchanged, and that Omnipotence is back of all efforts to redeem the world. The main current is onward, and if for a time there are recurrent eddies and seeming stagnation, we are sure that the forces of God are gathering momentum that will greatly increase the force of the tide that is to float Christian enterprises and insure to them victorious achievement. Our work in India misses the consecrated prayers and generous giving that would insure a greater success, but we do not despair of our people, of their missionary spirit, nor of their self-denying efforts. It is ebb tide, but high water is surely coming. We shall be more efficient in God's service if we faithfully fill our places regardless of seeming failures and lack on the part of others.

We with our missionaries have many reasons for gratitude over the mercies of the last year. It has been a terrible year for India, but the dreadful plague has not reached our field, and though we have felt the results of the famine, they have hardly reached to starvation in our territory, and our missionaries have escaped death and very severe illness.

Our small force is holding bravely on, although, being human, they are very apprehensive of the future of the mission. When our year closed, Brother Stiles was on his journey to join his wife and children. The field sadly needs reinforcements. To sustain the work already undertaken, there is absolute need of our sending as soon as possible three men with their wives. It may be said, and said truly, that we have not enough money to support the present force. That does not prove that we cannot support a larger force as easily. Doubtless, were we to call half our workers home, the financial deficit would then be as great as now. A church in this country without a pastor might say, "Our income is not sufficient to support one, and therefore we cannot incur the obligation." Until there is a pastor to support, the people are not likely to fill the treasury. Financial deficiencies in our foreign work are not so likely to arise from sending more good workers to the field as from allowing our force to become depleted. The people respond to greater undertakings. Then, if it be God's work and we are doing it in obedience to his command, and if he can provide the means for accomplishing what he sets us to do, we may expect his blessing financially and spiritually in going forward. The old scriptural rule is nowhere more applicable, "Be it unto you according to your faith." Your secretary is profoundly impressed that the scarcity of laborers and of means to support them is most of all due to a lack of prevailing prayer and the consciousness that without God we can do nothing. The annual report from our missionaries, printed in India, is in hand, and it hardly seems necessary to repeat in this report the interesting details found therein. A comparative statement of our foreign mission receipts for the last ten years may be of interest.

| Average, 16,975.20 | 23,091.78 | 4,291.50 |

Contributions this year the smallest in seven years. Total income this year the smallest in six years. Bequests this year the largest in eight years. Contributions this year less than last year (which was only ten months), $3,022.59. Total income less than last year, $693.89. Bequests more than last year, $1,709.37. Largest amount of contributions for any one of the ten years, $25,662.72, in 1893. Smallest amount of contributions, $9,774.84, in 1889. Largest total income, $31,478.52, in 1893. Smallest total income, $15,645.64, in 1888. Largest amount from bequests, $13,325.55, in 1889. Smallest amount from bequests, $799.97, in 1891. Contributions this year less than the average for the ten years, $1,413.89. Total income this year less than the average for the ten years, $1,031.80. Bequests this year more than the average for the ten years, $767.87. We have no debt, a loyal and efficient band of missionaries, and the assurance of Divine co-operation. We have encouraging results in the field, and a glorious opportunity to help carry out the great plan of God.

HOME DEPARTMENT.

The home missionary department has been favored with bequests for the general fund to the amount of $3,459.36. This, with the other income, has enabled the treasurer to meet the appropriations unpaid at the beginning of the year, and to pay all but $300 of the new appropriations.

| RECEIPTS. | EXPENDITURES. |
|-----------------------------|---------------|
| Cash on hand | $292.35 |
| Contributions | 2,862.71 |
| Bequests | 3,459.36 |

| Appropriations by Board . . | 3,872.00 |
| Cash left on hand | 32.87 |
| | $7,240.64 |

As bequests are a very uncertain factor, it will not be wise to make appropriations with the expectation of having so much of an income the present year. Injury is done by appropriating beyond our ability to pay. The secretary also renews and emphasizes his recommendation, that, in view of the small amount of money the Board has at its disposal, a very few of the most promising interests be selected and given needed assistance, instead of scattering small sums where the results are doubtful. As a rule the church that cannot live without being assisted $50 is not likely to prove a paying field for such an investment. The church that is to live anyway, whether it has assistance or not, but which can do a much greater work and help our benevolent enterprises the more generously if given a substantial amount of aid for a short time, is the one above all others that justifies the expenditure of money intrusted to the Conference Board. The question of state rights is pushed to the front and threatens the welfare of our central government. In some instances, the states claim that all the home mission money that can be raised in their territory belongs to them, and if they are willing to turn over to the General Conference any portion of the same it is an evidence of their magnanimity and generosity. If we, urged by our great necessities, push our agencies and raise home missionary money, they claim the lion's share for themselves. It may be said that the Home Mission Society agreed to the plan whereby each state or yearly meeting was to have two-thirds of all its home mission money. The Home Mission Society did concede to that demand, but we were to have one-third of everything raised for home work in the state or yearly meeting, and they were to ask nothing further by way of appropriation from the general home mission funds. There is not a single state or yearly meeting which is living up to that agreement. The arrangement is certainly no longer binding upon us. When we say to them, "We wish to enter into a mutual agreement to notify all that from a given date the donors shall decide whether their money is for the state or the general work," they decide ex parte that they cannot do it. Has the General Conference anything to say about it? Are we to yield all central authority to the will and pleasure of the separate bodies whom we had supposed were our constituents, owing allegiance and support to the Free Baptist government?

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

The educational interests of our denomination are almost wholly intrusted to our institutions of learning. As guardians, to a great extent, of denominational interests, the Board may well feel a measure of responsibility for the welfare of these various schools. Their direct financial assistance, however, can be better secured by agencies of their own than by asking for contributions to pass through our treasury. We are interested in all that our colleges and subordinate schools are doing for sound learning, for the culture of young people who are to enter the various professions, or in any sphere become helpful members of society, but our primary interest is in those who are to help us more directly in distinctively religious work. Our first and most vital need, after God's blessing, is well qualified young people, called of God as pastors and missionaries. The Conference Board should interest itself in seeking out and encouraging such young people to enter our schools and render them such encouragement and assistance as they may need. We should increase rather than lessen the amount of financial assistance to students in preparation for the work of the ministry. Our theological schools are doing good work. They need our co-operation and help. May all our people pray with old-time fervency, that the Lord of the harvest will call and qualify more laborers. As soon as the business conditions of the country will promise success, a determined effort should be made to rid ourselves of the burden imposed by the obligation to Lyndon Institute.

In behalf of all our benevolent work we plead for the interest and prayers and systematic giving of all our people. May we enter with heart and enthusiasm into the purpose and plan of God, assured that to be workers together with him is a pledge of success.

ARTHUR GIVEN, Corresponding Secretary.
