 Bro. Melvin Shelton led in prayer following a few moments of silence.

Recognition of Visitors:

Bro. Tim Campbell, Arkansas State Executive Secretary, shared with the Association the work of the State FWB. He reminded us of the importance of the CO-OP Plan, the continuing work of the A.C.T.S. 1:8 Task Force, the Cabot Mission work being led by Bro. Jim Fairchild stating that the work is going well with a steady attendance of about 50, new building is on going and they should be able to occupy in August, the FWB Family Ministries work on the Crittenden House in Little Rock is progressing. The "Vision" is available for anyone who would like to subscribe. Randall House will be changing the Sunday School Material beginning with the issuance of the Fall Quarter. Bro. Campbell also reminded us of the upcoming state meeting, August 3-4, at the Conway High School in Conway, Arkansas, this year's theme would be "The Church In Crises."

The Christian Education Board is planning regional Sunday School Teachers Training Seminars coming up in the near future.

He also reminded us of the importance of the Marriage Petition which is being circulated and how important it is that all Christians sign a petition.

Bro. Shane Davison, Missionary to Cote d'Ivoire (Africa), shared with us the his hopes of beginning teaching at International Christian Academy in Bouake, Cote d'Ivoire, in the fall of this year. He ask for prayers for he and his wife in their preparations for the mission field. He also asks for each one to pray for stability for this war-torn country.

A.C.T.S. 1:8

Moderator Martin called for the A.C.T.S. 1:8 report from our association representative, Bro. Nelson Henderson.

Bro. Henderson gave a hearty thank you to all the Social Band churches for their giving so well over the past year to A.C.T.S. 1:8. He reminded us of the 2004 goal is $518,000.

Bro. Martin reminded us of Roll Call Sunday is April 11, and to be sure and report our church attendance on this very important day.

At this time Moderator Martin called for the election of a Budget Committee.
M/S/C The Executive Board to serve as the Budget Committee for setting the 2003/2004 Social Band Association Budget.
